LVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers, Men and Horses, belonging to His Majesty's Horse or Dragoons, and also all Bat and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, and also the Horses belonging to Staff and Field Officers in His Majesty's Forces when upon actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, shall and may be quartered and billeted in the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, and other Houses in which Officers and Soldiers are by this Act allowed to be quartered and billeted, and that they shall be received and furnished by the Owners or Occupiers of such Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which they are so allowed to be quartered and billeted, with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, and Hay and Straw for such Horses, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that respect.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any of His Majesty's Horse or Dragoons, or any other Horses as aforesaid, shall be quartered or billeted upon the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers of any Alehouse, Victualling House or other House in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act, who have no Stables; then and in such case, and upon Complaint made by the Person or Persons having no Stables, to Two or more Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty where such Horse or Dragoons or other Horses shall be so quartered and billeted, and upon his or their making such Allowance in lieu of his or their quartering such Horse or Dragoons or other Horses, as such Justices shall think reasonable, in full and may be lawful for such Justices to order the Men and their Horses, or such Horses only, as the case may be, to be removed and quartered upon some other Person or Persons who by this Act are liable to have Officers and Soldiers quartered and billeted upon them who have Stables, and to order and send a proper Allowance to be made by the Person

LIX. And Whereas great Inconveniences have arisen, and may arise in such Places where Horses or Dragoons are or may be quartered, by the billeting of the Men and their Horses at different Houses, and at times at great Distances from one another, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Places where Horses or Dragoons shall be quartered or billeted in pursuance of this Act, for the future, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in One and the same House (except in case of Necessity); and that in no other case whatsoever there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in Proportion for a greater Number; and in each case each Man shall be billeted as near his Horse as possible.

LX. And Whereas some Doubts have arisen whether Commanding Officers of any Regiment, Troop or Company, may exchange any Men or Horses quartered in any Town or Place, with another Man or Horse quartered in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service; Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Exchange as above mentioned may be made by such Commanding Officers respectively, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that time billeted on such Horse or Horses; and the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of the Cities, Towns and Villages, or other Places where any Regiment, Troop or Company shall be quartered, are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly.

LXI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer shall take or cause to be taken, or knowingly suffer to be taken any Money of any Perfon for excusing the quartering of Officers or Soldiers, or any of them, in any House followed by this Act, every such Officer shall be cashiered, and be incapable of being in any Military Employment whatsoever.

LXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer or Perfon whatsoever, who by virtue or colour of this Act, shall quarter or billet, or be employed in quartering or billeting any Officers or Soldiers in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall neglect or refuse to quarter or billet any Officer or Soldier on Duty when thereunto required, in such manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Troops; or shall receive, demand, contract or agree for any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Reward whatsoever, for or on account of excusing, or in order to excuse any Perfon or Persons whatsoever, from quartering or receiving into his, her or their House or Houses, any such Officer or Soldier; or in case any Vestriever, or any other Person liable by this Act to have any Officer or Soldier billeted or quartered on him or her, shall refuse to receive or receive any such Officer or Soldier as quartered or billeted upon him or her as aforesaid; or shall refuse to furnish or allow according to the Directions of this Act the several things hereinafter respectively directed to be furnished or allowed to New Quartered Officers or Soldiers so quartered or billeted as him or her as aforesaid; or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Stables, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw for each Horse so quartered or billeted on him or her as aforesaid, at the Rate that is or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at that respect, and shall be thereof convicted before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Liberty, within which such Offence shall be committed, either by his own Confession, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses (which Oath the said Justice or Justices in and are hereby empowered to administer), every such High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer or Perfon so offending, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds, or any Sum of Money not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings (as the said Justice or Justices, before whom the Matter shall be heard, shall in his or their Discretion think fit); to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Perfon offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted, or of One or more of them, to be directed to any other Constable within the County, City or Liberty, or to any of the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish where the Offender shall dwell; which said Sum of Five Pounds, or the said Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, when levied, shall be applied in the first Place in making such Satisfaction to any Soldier for the Expence he may have been put to by reason of his not being billeted or quartered as aforesaid, as such Justice or Justices shall order and direct; and the Remainder shall be paid to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish if in England, and to the Churchwardens of the Parish if in Ireland, whereas the Offence shall be committed, or to some One of them, for the Use of the Poor of the said Parish.

LXIII. And, for the better preventing Abuses in quartering or billeting the Soldiers in pursuance of this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace within their respective Counties, Cities or Liberties, in any Part of the United Kingdom, by Warrant or Order under his or their Hand or Seal or Hands and Seals, at any time or times during the Continuance of this Act, to require and command any High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer who shall quarter or billet any Soldiers in pursuance of this Act, to give an Account in Writing unto the said Justice or Justices requiring the same, of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered or billeted by them, and also the Names of the Housekeepers or Persons upon whom every such Officer or Soldier shall be quartered or billeted, together with an Account of the Sum or Sums of Money which every such Housekeeper owes, and of the Sums (if any) belonging to such Horses, to the end it may appear to the said Justice or Justices where such Officers and Soldiers are quartered or billeted, and LXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace at the Request of any Officer or Non Commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Quarters or Billets, in any case in which it shall appear to such Officer or Justice that better Accommodation can be given to the Troops by extending any Rents or enlarging the Dwelling where such Quarters and Billets shall be required to enlarge such Rents, and extend such Quarters and Billets in such manner as shall be most convenient to the Troops to be quartered and billeted; any thing in this Act or any other Act, or any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers and Soldiers to pay
Rents for Quarters.

LXV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers so quartered and billeted as aforesaid, shall be contented and satisfied with Diet and Small Beer by the Owners of the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling-houses and other Houses in which they are allowed to be quartered and billeted by this Act; paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that respect. LXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for the County, Town or Place where any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall be quartered in that Part of Great Britain called England, in such such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier have either Wife or Child or Children, to cause such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be summoned before them, in the Town or Place where such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall be quartered, in order to make Oath of the Place of their last legal Settlement (which Oath the said Justice is hereby empowered to administer); and such Non Commissioned Officers and Private Soldiers as aforesaid are hereby directed to obey such Summons, and to make Oath accordingly; and such Justice is hereby required to give an attested

Copy

Copy of such Affidavit to be made before him as the Justice making the same, to be by him delivered to his Commanding Officer, in order to be produced when required; which attested Copy shall be at any time admitted in Evidence, as to such full legal Settlement, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or as any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace: Provided always, that in case any Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier shall be again summoned to make Oath as aforesaid, then on such attested Copy of the Oath by him formerly taken being produced by him, or by any other Person on his behalf, such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall not be obliged to take any other or further Oath with regard to his legal Settlement, but shall leave a Copy of such attested Copy of Examination, if required.

LXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the better and more regular Provision of Carriages for His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, or for their Arms, Clothes or Accommodations in England, Ireland and Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, all Justices of the Peace, within their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Liberties and Parishes, being daily required thereto, by an Order from His Majesty, or the General of His Forces, or the Master General or Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Ordnance, if in England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, or by an Order from the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, or from the Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in Ireland, or other Person duly authorized in that behalf, shall, as often as such Order is brought or shewn unto One or more of them by the Quarter Master, Adjutant or other Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, be ordered to march, if he or his or their Warrants to the Constables or Petty Constables of, or to any Constable or Constables acting or having Authority so to do in the Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Parish, from, through, over or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company shall be ordered to march; requiring them to make such Provision of Carriages, and Horses or Oxen, with able Men to drive the same, as is contained in the said Warrant, allowing them sufficient time to do the same, that the neighbouring Parishes may not always bear the Burthen; and specifying in the said Warrants the Place or Places to which the said Carriages shall, by virtue of such Order as aforesaid, be required to travel, which shall not exceed the Day's March of the Troop, as prescribed in the Order produced to the Magistrate, unless in case of pressing Emergency or Necessity, and shall in no case whatever exceed Twenty five Miles from the Place at which the March shall commence; and in case sufficient Carriages cannot be provided within any such Liberty, Division or Parish, then the Justice or Justices of the Peace of the next adjoining County, Riding or Division, shall, upon such Order as aforesaid being brought or shewn to One or more of them by any of the Officers aforesaid, issue his or their Warrant to the Constables or Petty Constables of such next County, Riding, Liberty, Division or Parish, as shall be most convenient for the Purposes aforesaid, according to their respective Jurisdictions, to make up such Deficiency: And the aforesaid Officer or Officers, who, by virtue of the aforesaid Warrant from the Justices of the Peace, are to demand the Carriage or Carriages therein mentioned of the Constable or Petty Constable to whom the Warrant is directed, is and are hereby required, at the same time to pay down to Hand to the said Constable, or Petty Constable, for the Use of the Person who shall provide such Carriages and Mares, the Sums hereinafter mentioned respectively, for which respective Sums he or she provided the said Constable or Petty Constable is hereby required to give a Receipt in Writing (which Receipt need not be stamped) to the Person or Persons paying the same: And each Constable or Petty Constable shall order and appoint such Person or Persons having Carriages within their respective Liberties, as they shall think proper, to provide and furnish such Carriages and Horses and Oxen and Mares, according to the Warrant aforesaid, who are hereby required to provide and furnish the same accordingly; and on Person owning or driving, or causing to be driven, any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, shall be subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture, nor shall any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage be Rapped or detained by means of any Weight in any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, or of being drawn by any Number of Horses or Oxen; but it shall be lawful for any Owner of any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, to put any additional Number of Horses or Oxen to such prescribed or paid for under the Act; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads, or any particular Highway or Road to the contrary notwithstanding: And if any Military Officer or Officers, for the Use of which Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company the Carriage was provided, shall force and constrain any Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage to travel beyond the Distance specified in the Magistrate's Warrant, or shall not discharge the same in due time for their Return Home on the same Day, if it be practicable, or shall suffer any Soldier or Servant (except such as are sick), or any Woman to ride in the Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage aforesaid; or shall force any Constable or Petty Constable, by threatening or menacing Words to provide said Horses for themselves or Servants, or shall force Horses from the Owners, by themselves, Servants or Soldiers, every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, Proof thereof being made upon Oath before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, who are to certify the same to the Secretary at War in England, or if in Ireland to the Chief Secretary, or to his Adjutant the Under Secretary for the Military Department, who is hereby authorized and required to give Orders for the Payment of the aforesaid Sum of Five Pounds, according to the Order and Appointment under the Hands and Seals of the aforesaid Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, and for deducting the same out of such Officer's Pay.

Sums paid for Carriages in England.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses shall travel; and the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine pence for every Mile any Waggon with Narrow Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses respectively, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Six pence

for

for every Mile every Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further than not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two pence for every Mile any Cart or Carriage, with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel, according as the same shall be heard and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Peace of Hay and Owe at the time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like manner to the Owners of the said Carriages as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrate who granted the Warrant for imposing them, not exceeding the aforesaid Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages aforesaid, in Addition to the customary Rate of One Shilling and Nine pence, and Six pence per Mile respectively, shall Specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate, and One other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall, within Three Days after the making thereof, be transmitted to the Secretary at War; and no such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided also, that in every case of any increased Rate being allowed for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing the Warrant shall insert, in his own Hand, the Amount of such increased Rate for each Defection of Carriage as he authorized by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid; and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, as his Voucher for the Payment of such increased Rate; and no increased Rate shall be demanded, but such as shall be so inserted by the Justice in the Warrant.

§ 1. LXXIII. And Whereas great Inconvenience often arises from there being no Justice of the Peace or Magistrate residing near to Places specified in Warrants at which Soldiers are to halt, and be billeted and quartered on the March, to these Warrants for the providing of Carriages: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Constable, Tythingman or Headborough, duly authorized for that Purpose by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, riding abroad to such Place or Places, to make and give Orders for the providing of Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on March, and to appoint Persons having Carriages within their respective Liberties or Jurisdictions to provide and furnish such Carriages, without having any special or particular Warrant for that Purpose; and all such Orders and Appointments shall be and be deemed to be as valid and official in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been made and given by the Justice or Justices of the Peace giving such Authority: Provided always, That every such Justice of the Peace shall, at the time of giving such Warrant and Authority, and thereafter once in each Year, or oftener, if necessary, cause a List or Lists to be made out of all Persons liable to furnish such Carriages under such Warrant, and of the Number and Description of Carriages belonging respectively to the Persons he is liable to be required to furnish Carriages for Baggage, or for Troops on the March; and such Lists shall, at all reasonable Hours, be open to the Inspection of all Persons whose Names shall be inserted therein; and all Orders and Appointments for such Carriages shall be made and taken from such Lists in regular Rotation, as far as the same can be done, so as that the providing of such Carriages shall be equally distributed among the several Persons liable to furnish the same under the Provision of this Act.

§ 1. LXXIV. And Whereas, from various Local Circumstances, the Rates of Carriage of Articles ought to be regulated in some manner, the said Rates are therefore enacted, That the Rates to be paid for the Carriage of such Articles shall be as follows:— that is to say, For every Hundred Weight which the Owner or Owners of any Wheeled Carriage shall take as heading on such Wheeled Carriage the Sum of One Penny and One Sixth Part of a Penny for every Male or engaged Male he or they shall therewith amount, or according to such Rate as shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the time of fixing such additional Rates.

LXXV. And Whereas it may sometimes become necessary, in cases of Emergency, to provide proper and speedy Means for the Carriage and Conveyance, not only of the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage of and belonging to His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, but also of the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children and other Persons of and belonging to such Forces: And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for enforcing prompt Obedience to such Orders to His Majesty or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor in Ireland may in such cases think fit to issue, in pursuance of the Powers by Law vested in Him for the Advancement of the general Good and Public Welfare of the Realm: Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors in Ireland, by His or their Order, officially stating that such case of Emergency doth exist, signed by the Secretary at War, or if in Ireland by the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary for the Military Department for the time being, to say General or Field Officers commanding His Majesty's Forces in any District or Place, or to the Commandant in Chief of Stores and Provisions at Home or Person acting in that Capacity, to authorize such General or Field Officers or Commandant in Chief as aforesaid, or Person aforesaid, by Writing under his Hand receiving such Order of His said Majesty, or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor aforesaid, to require all the Justices of the Peace within their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Liberties and Precincts in England, Ireland, Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for any of the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, when and as often as such Requisition in Writing as is last mentioned shall be brought and shown unto any One or more of such Justices, by the Quarter Master, Adjutant or other Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, be ordered to be conveyed, or by any Officer in the Department of the said Constabulary General, to issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to the Constables, or Petty Constables, of the County, Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Precinct, from, through, near or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company shall be so ordered to be conveyed, requiring them to make such Provision not only of Waggon, Wain, Cart, and Cart horse by or belonging to any Person or Persons, and for any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Chaises and other four-wheeled Carriages usually let to Hire, or kept for that Purpose, and also of Boats, Barges and other Vessels, not for the Carriage of Coals, Stones, Limestone, or of Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or any other Articles or Commodity whatsoever, upon any Canal or Navigable River, with able Men and Horses to draw, navigate and draw the same, as shall be contained in the said Warrant or Warrants, therein specifying the Place or Distance to which such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels and Men shall go and be conveyed, and allowing such Constables sufficient time to make such Provision, that the neighbouring Parts may not always bear the Burthen; and in case such sufficient Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels and Men, cannot be provided within any such County, Riding, Division, Hundred, City, Liberty or Precinct, then the next Justice or Justices of the Peace of the next County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Precinct, shall, upon such Requisition in Writing as is last aforesaid being brought or shown to any One or more of them, by any of the Officers aforesaid, issue his or their Warrant or Warrants to the Constables or Petty Constables of such next County, Riding, City, Liberty, Division, Hundred or Precinct, for the Purposes last aforesaid, to make up such Deficiency; and the aforesaid Officer or Officers who, by virtue of the aforesaid Warrant or Warrants from the Justice or Justices of the Peace, are to demand the Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels therein mentioned, of the Constable or Petty Constable to whom the said Warrant or Warrants shall be directed, is and are hereby required at the same time to pay down to the said Constable or Petty Constable, for the Use of the Person or Persons who shall provide such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, such reasonable Sum and Sums of Money, as the said Justice or Justices shall be and by his or their said Warrant or Warrants order and direct, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such and the like Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, according to the Length of the Journey or Voyages in such particular case, but making an Allowance for Post Horse Duty, or Tarpon, Casual, River or Lock Tolls (which Duty or Tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable or payable in such and the like cases, for any such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, whilst employed in such Service, or returning therefrom); for which said respective Sum and Sums so received, the said Constable or Petty Constable is hereby required to give a Receipt in Writing, but without any Stamp, to the Person or Persons paying the same; and such Constable or Petty Constable shall order and appoint such Person or Persons having such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels and Men, within their respective Liberties, as they shall think proper, to provide and furnish such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, according to the Warrant or Warrants aforesaid, who are hereby required to provide and furnish the same accordingly; and it shall and may be lawful in such cases to and for all and every Military Officer and Officers, for the Use of whom, or of whose Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels shall be provided in such cases, to carry and convey, and permit to be carried and conveyed, on the same respectively, not only the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Baggage, Tents and other Equipage of such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, but also the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Wives, Children and other Persons of and belonging to the same; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; but if any such Officer or Officers shall force and constrain any Horse, Carriage, Boat, Barge or other Vessel to travel or proceed beyond the Distance or Place to be allowed and specified in such Warrant or Warrants, without the special Licence or Order of One or more other such Justice or Justices of the Peace in that behalf, and which Licence or Order One or more of such Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to give and make at his and their reasonable Discretion, every such Officer for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, Proof thereof being made upon Oath before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Precinct, who are to severally the same to the Secretary at War, or if in Ireland to the Chief Secretary, or to his Attorney Under Secretary for the Military Department, who is hereby authorized and required to give Order for Payment of the aforesaid Sum of Five Pounds, according to the Order and Appointment under the Hands and Seals of the aforesaid Justices of the Peace of the same County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Precinct, and for deducting the same out of such Officer's Pay.

LXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage, impressed by Authority of this Act, shall be liable or obliged by virtue of this Act, to carry above Thirty Hundred Weight; any thing to the contrary contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That an Owner of any such Carriage in Ireland shall be compelled or obliged to take any Loading until the same shall be first duly weighed at the Expense of the Owner or Owners of such Carriage, if he or they shall think fit, and if the same can be done in a reasonable time without Let or Hindrance of His Majesty's Service; and if any Officer requiring such Carriage shall force or compel the Owner to take any Loading until the same shall be first duly weighed, if the same can be done in a reasonable time, as aforesaid, or shall, contrary to the Will of the Owner of such Carriage, or his Servant, put or permit any Person whatsoever to put any greater Load upon any Carriage than is hereinafter directed, either at the time of Loading or on the March, every such Officer shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings to the Party injured, upon such Proof and in such manner as is hereinafter appointed.

Penalty.

What Weight Carriages in Ireland shall be allowed to carry.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Carriage impressed by Authority of this Act in Ireland shall be liable or obliged to carry above Six Hundred Weight; and if the Owner shall consent to carry above Six Hundred Weight on any Carriage he shall be allowed and paid at the Rate of One Penny One Sixth Part per Mile for every Hundred above the Weight of Six Hundred Pounds put on his Carriage, and the Owner or Owners of such Carriage or Carriages shall not be compelled or obliged to proceed with such Carriage or Carriages under the Sum of Seven pence per Mile or per Mile at the least, in case he or they shall be required to carry a less Weight on such Carriage or Carriages than Six Hundred Pounds Weight for each Carriage.

Manner in Lord Mayor of Dublin to be before March of Troops, to provide Carriages.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That Notice shall be given to the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin at least Twenty four Hours before the March of any Troops or Companies of Soldiers out of the said City, or in case of Emergency, as long before such March as the nature of the case shall permit, of the Number of Troops or Companies appointed to march; whereupon the Lord Mayor for the time being shall furnish a proportionable Number of Cans out of the Licensed Cars, Brick Cars, and other Cars within the County of the said City, and in from time to time the said Cars are by Tunes to be employed in carrying the Baggage of such Troops or Companies, at the Prices and under the Regulations hereinafter mentioned; and it is hereby directed that no Country Cars or Carriages coming to the Market of the said City, nor any Cans or Carriages coming to any of the Markets in Ireland shall be detained or employed against the Will of the Owners, in carrying the Baggage of the Army on any Pretence whatsoever.

Number of Carriages for Troops in Ireland regulated by Lord Lieutenant.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That the Number of Carriages to be allowed each Troop or Company in Ireland shall be from time to time regulated by Order of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, in Proportion to the Establishment of such Troop or Company; and the Same ordered to be attended as aforesaid, for the Payment of the Carriage of Baggage by the Officers or Officers respectively, shall be at their time paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland for the same being, without Fee or Reward, on Oath made by such Officers or Officers before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Corporate Town, of his or their Payment of such Sum or Sums for Carriages as aforesaid, and an Account of the same being produced by the Agent of the Regiment, which Account shall have been certified by the Quarter Master General to be charged conformably to the Orders of the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and the Regulations prescribed by this Act.

Constable, &c. supplying Dray.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any High Constable or Petty Constable shall wilfully neglect or refuse to execute such Warrant or Warrants of the Justices of the Peace, as shall be directed unto them for providing Carriages, Horses, Bents, Barges and other Vessels as aforesaid; or shall demand or receive for the Use of the Owners furnishing such Waggons, Wans, Cars, Cans or Carriages, more than the Rates hereinafter allowed respectively; or if any Person or Persons, appointed by such Constable, or Petty Constable, to provide or furnish any Carriage, Man, Horse, Bent, Barge or other Vessel, shall refuse or neglect to produce the same; or if such Person or Persons, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall wilfully do any Act or Thing whereby the Execution of the said Warrant shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Constable, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings, to the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes adjoining to the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, as shall be fixed upon by the Justice or Justices by whom such Offence shall be enquired of, heard and determined: And all and every such Offender and Offenders shall and may be enquired of, heard and finally determined by any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace dwelling in or near the Place where such Offence shall be committed, who has hereby Power to make the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owners.

Penalty.

Dilatory.

Money paid by Lord Lieutenant for Carriages provided on March.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Constable or Petty Constable to whom such Money shall have been paid in Ireland, is and are hereby required, before the Owner of any Carriage or Horse in Ireland shall be compelled to take any Loading, or be forced to proceed in the March with his Carriage, to pay down in Hand to the Owner of such Carriage, or his Servant, the full Sum to which the Owner of such Carriage would be entitled for the March in the said Warrant directed to be made, according to the Rate at which such Constable or Petty Constable shall herebefore be paid for the same as aforesaid.

LXXXIII. And Whereas in consequence of certain Exemptions from Toll, expressly allowed by several Acts of Parliament for His Majesty's Forces on their March or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether it is just to exempt the Officers and Soldiers, and the Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls: Therefore, for obviating such Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, and their Horses, or Duty, or on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, or employed in His Service, when conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage, or belonging to His Majesty's Forces on their Marches, or any Ordnance, or Ammunition, or Commissariat, or other Public Stores of or belonging to His Majesty, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, or returning therefrom, returning therefrom, were and are, and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act of Parliament already made, or hereafter to be made, for Porten, Harbours or Carriages, or any Baggage of any Troops embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay or Landing Place, or passing Terrestrial Roads or Bridges, whith by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Soldiers, Carriages and Horses, are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties and Tolls therein authorized to be demanded and taken: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt from the Payment of Tolls any Boats, Barges or other Vessels employed in conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children or other Persons or of belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage, or of belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or any Military Stores, along any Canal, but the same shall be liable to Toll in like manner as other Boats, Barges and Vessels are liable thereto.

LXXXIV. And Whereas the respective Sums of Money by the Act aforesaid to be paid to the Constables by the Officers depending such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, may not, in many cases, be sufficient to answer the Charge and Expence of providing the same, inasmuch that the said Constables may frequently be at great Charges over and above what is received by them of the said Officers, to the great Burthen of the Townships of which they are Constables, or else the Parishes providing such Charges are grievously oppressed: For Remedy whereof, and that the said Overplus Charge may be borne by each County or Riding at the General Charge of such County or Riding, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Treasurers or Treasurers of each respective County or Riding shall, without Fee or Reward, pay unto such Constable all and every such reasonable Sums or Sums of Money, to be by him paid or laid out for such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the Officer requiring such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels out of the Public Stock of such County or Riding, according to such Rates, Orders, Rules and Directions, as the said Justices of the Peace, in their Quarter Sessions assembled, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, make, direct and appoint (which Orders shall be made without Fee or Reward); agreed being always had to the Statute of the Year and the Length and Condition of the Ways by and through which such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, are to travel and pass.

LXXXV. And, in order that the said Public Stock of the County or Riding be not exhausted (over and above the other Purposes for which it was raised) to supply the extraordinary Charge of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels before mentioned, it is hereby further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace, in the General Quarter Sessions, shall have Power from time to time to raise Money upon the respective Counties or Ridings, in such manner as they now raise Money for County Gaols and Bridges to satisfy the said extraordinary Charge of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to quarter Officers and Soldiers in Scotland, in such and the like Places and Houses as they might have been quartered in by the Laws in force in Scotland at the time of its Union with England; and that the Possessions of such Houses shall only be liable to search the said Officers and Soldiers quartered there, as by the said Laws in force at the time of the said Union was provided; and that no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Carriages for the Service of the Forces from time to time quartered or marching in Scotland, shall be provided in like manner, and at the Rates, and the Furniture of such Carriages shall be paid, as was directed by the Law in force in Scotland at the time of its Union with England.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Troops or Parties upon Command have Occasion in their March to pass regular Ferries in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it shall and may be lawful for the Commanding Officer either to pass over with his Party, as Passengers, or to hire the Ferry Boat entirely to himself and his Party debarking others for that time in his Option; and in case he shall chuse to take Passage for himself and Party as Passengers, he shall only pay for himself and for each Person, Officer or Soldier under his Command, Half of the ordinary Rate payable by single Persons at any such Ferry; and in case he shall hire the Ferry Boat for himself and Party, he shall pay Half of the ordinary Rate for such Boat or Boats; and in such Places where there are no regular Ferries, but that all Passengers hire Boats at the Rate they can agree for, Officers, with or without Parties, are to agree for Boats at the Rate as other Persons do in the like case.

LXXXIX. And, for the better Preservation of Game in or near such Place where any Officers or Soldiers shall at any time be quartered, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, any Officer or Soldier shall without Leave of the Lord of the Manor, under his Hand and Seal first had and obtained, take, kill or destroy any Hare, Coney, Pheasant, Partridge, Pigeon, or any other Sort of Fowl, Poultry or Fish, or His Majesty's Game, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and upon Complaint thereof shall be, upon Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, convicted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, who is and are hereby empowered and authorized to hear and determine the same; that in so say, every Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be distributed among the Poor of the Place where such Offence shall be committed; and every Officer commanding in chief upon the Place, for every such Offence committed by any Soldier under his Command, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings, to be paid and distributed in manner aforesaid; And if upon Conviction made by the Justices of the Peace, and Demand thereof also made by the Constable or Overseers of the Poor, such Officer shall refuse or neglect, and not within Two Days pay the said respective Penalties, such Officer is offending or neglectengleaving shall forfeit, and he is hereby declared to have forfeited his Commission, and his Commission is hereby declared to be null and void.

XC. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall receive Enlisting Money from any Officer employed on the Recruiting Service, or from any Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier belonging to the Recruiting Party under the Command of such Officer, or from any Person employed on the Recruiting Service, he being an attested Soldier, shall be deemed to be enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, and shall, while he shall remain with the Recruiting Party, be entitled to be enlisted and quartered as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service; Provided always, that every such Person so enlisted shall be entitled to all the Benefits herein enacted for the Relief of Persons lawfully enlisting themselves.

XCI. And Whereas it is highly expedient that as Doubts should remain as to Service of Soldiers, by a refusal of any Oath of His Majesty's Honour and Successors is any Oath of Attestation; Be it therefore declared and enacted, That any Oath and Attestation of Service hereunto or hereafter taken and made to His Majesty, is and shall be deemed and confirmed to be an Oath of Service to His Majesty's Honour and Successors, in the Sovereign of the Realm for the time being, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the Words Honour and Successors had been inserted in any such Oath or Attestation.

XCII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, when and as often as any Person or Persons shall be enlisted as a Soldier or Soldiers in His Majesty's Land Service, he or they shall, within Four Days, but not longer than Twenty-four Hours, after such enlisting respectively, be carried or go with some Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier belonging to the Recruiting Party by which he shall be enlisted, or with the Person employed as the Recruiting Service with whom he shall have enlisted, before some Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City or Place, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate, residing or being near to, or within the Vicinity of the Place and sitting for the Division or District where such Person or Persons shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer in the Army, and before such Justice or Chief Magistrate he or they shall be at Liberty to declare his or their Consent to such enlisting; and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also such Person or Persons paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended or laid out upon him, together with such full Rate allowed by Law for the Subsidience as Diet and Small Beer furnished to such Recruit subsequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, such Person or Persons so enlisting shall be forthwith discharged and set at Liberty in the Presence of such Justice or Chief Magistrate; but if such Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he or they had given his or their Assent voluntarily before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate; and if such Person or Persons shall declare his or their Assent voluntarily enlisted himself or themselves, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall and he is hereby required forthwith to read over, or in his own Presence to cause to be read over to such Person or Persons the Third and Fourth Articles of the Second Session, and the First Article of the Sixth Session, of the Articles of War against Money and Defections, and to tender and administer to such Person or Persons respectively, not only the Oath of Fidelity mentioned in the said Articles of War, but also the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A.); or if the Person shall be desirous of enlisting without any Limitation of Period of Service, the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (B.); and if such Person or Persons shall take the said Oath, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to certify under his Hand the enlisting and swearing, together with the Place of the Birth, Age and Calling of each of such Person or Persons in the Form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (C.); if the Oath in the Form marked (A.) shall have been taken, and in the Form marked (D.) if the Oath in the Form marked (B.) shall have been taken, except in the case of Recruits enlisted in force either in His Majesty's Troops, or in the Forces of the East India Company, according as His Majesty shall think fit, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, intitled An Act for better regulating the Forces of the East India Company, in which case every such Recruit shall, instead of the said Oath of Fidelity, and of the Oath contained in the Schedule (A.) or (B.) to this Act annexed, take the Oath of Allegiance directed by the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of His Majesty, and contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (E.); and the Justice or Chief Magistrate shall certify such Enlistment and Swearing accordingly in the Form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (F.); and except also in the case of Recruits enlisted for the special Purpose of Service in the East India, in the Service of the East India Company only, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, intitled An Act in regard to the raising Men for the Service of the East India Company, and the quartering and keeping such Men, and in Trade by Regimental Courts Martial, in which case every such Recruit shall, instead of the said Oath of Fidelity, take the Oath directed to be taken by the said Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty aforesaid, and contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (G.); and instead of the Oath of Service contained in the Schedule (A.) or (B.) to this Act annexed, shall take the Oath directed to be taken by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, and contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (H.); and the Justice or Magistrate shall certify such Enlistment and Swearing accordingly in the Form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (I.); and if any such Person or Persons to be enlisted, shall wilfully refuse to take the said Oath of Fidelity before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, from whom he has received such Money as aforesaid, to detain and confine such Person or Persons until he or they shall take the said Oath of Fidelity; and every Military Officer that shall act contrary hereto, or offend herein, shall incur the like Penalty and Forfeiture as is by this Act to be inflicted upon any Officer

For making a false and untrue Muster; and the Penalty and Forfeiture shall be levied and recovered in the same manner as any Penalties or Forfeitures are by this Act to be levied or recovered: Provided always, that every Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier who shall enlist any Recruit, shall at the time of such enlisting require the Christian and Bonaire and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and either take the same down in Writing, or give the same to the Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party to be so taken down: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have lawfully enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dismissal within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dismissal under this Act, notwithstanding so Officers, Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate, upon the Examination of such Recruit or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Non-Commissioned Officer belonging to such Party to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum payable by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice of the Peace, and paid when demanded to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same: Provided always, that in every case wherein any Person shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded or have absented himself from the Party as aforesaid, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend him, and bring him before a Magistrate, the Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Magistrate before whom the Recruit would regularly have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Person, and the Magistrate to whom the Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Person who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to His Majesty's Secretary at War, or if in Ireland, the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary as aforesaid, in order that in the Event of such Person being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Defecter, the Path of his having received Enlisting Money and having absconded may be ascertained before he is finally adjudged to be a Defecter as having been duly enlisted.

XCIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall receive the Enlisting Money from any such Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Private Soldier, or other Person employed on the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond, or refuse to go before such Justice or Chief Magistrate, or if any Person having received any such Enlisting Money as aforesaid, shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party with which he enlisted, or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to such Recruiting Party or Person enlisting him, to go before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, under the Provisions of this Act, within such Period of Four Days aforesaid, such Person shall be deemed to be enlisted, and a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, as fully to all intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Drifter, or for being absent without Leave under any Articles of War made for Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; nor shall any such Person who shall not have been released with, or who shall not have been returned to such Recruiting Party or Person enlisting him as aforesaid, be entitled to be discharged or be discharged by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate after the Expiration of such Four Days as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace that the true Name and Residence of the Person enlisted was disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Person enlisted or left at his last usual Place of Abode of his having so enlisted.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall enlist into His Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmary which shall have been contracted by such Person, or not declared before the Justice of the Peace at the time of his Attestation, and mentioned at the Foot thereof, may be transferred into any Garrison or Veterans or Invalid Battalion, or into His Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Release of Bounty only as shall be allowed by His Majesty by any Regulation made in that behalf, in and about of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly, wilfully and deliberately make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths respectively sworn (A.) and (B.) and Certificates marked (C.) and (D.) in the Schedule to this Act respectively contained and annexed, before the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the time of his Attestation, for the Purpose of obtaining and shall obtain any Enlisting Money or any Bounty by receiving into His Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning of an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more effectual Payment of Persons who shall claim or attempt to obtain Possession of Goods or Money by false or untrue Pretences; for promoting the unlawful gaming of Goods; for the safe Redemption of Goods pawned; and for promoting Gaming in Public Houses, by Juvenators, Laborers, Servants and Apprentices; and the Production of such Certificate, and Proof of the Hand Writing of the Justice of the Peace giving such Certificate, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Party having represented the several Particulars contained in the Oaths sworn by him, and specified in the Certificate of the Justice at the time of his being attested.

XCVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace or Magistrate before whom any Person shall be brought who has enlisted, and who shall be proved upon Oath before them and counselled of having wilfully concealed any such Infirmary upon being attested, or of having knowingly, wilfully and deliberately made any such false Representation as aforesaid, to adjudge

Name and Residence of Recruits taken down.

Justice may discharge but does not take down his name unless on giving discharge on giving Enlisting Money.

Magistrate is entitled to receive Enlisting Money or War, Duplicates of Certificates of Name and Residence of Persons receiving Enlisting Money and absconding.

Person receiving Enlisting Money and absconding, etc. deemed duly enlisted.

Person receiving Enlisting Money or War, transferred to Garrison, Veterans, or Invalid Battalion, or His Majesty's Marine Forces.

Person making false Representation for Purpose of obtaining Money, guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences.

Person attested wilfully concealing Infirmary.

Punishment. such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and such Person shall thereupon be subject to such Punishment as by and under any Statute or Laws now in force may be inflicted upon Rogues, Vagabonds and Vagrants and inconvertible Rogues, to be adjudged by the Justice of the Peace or Magistrates in conformity any such Person as aforesaid.

Service of Soldiers. XCVII. And be it further enacted, That the Service of every Soldier, whether he shall have been or shall be enlisted for limited Service or for Life, shall be to the reckoning Years of Service, for the Purpose of clearing any Arrears of Pay or any Pension by means of any Length of Service, under any Act or Acts of Parliament, or under any Regulations made by His Majesty, in relation to any such Increase of Pay or Pensions, be deemed and construed to commence and be reckoned from the Quarter Days; that is to wit, from the Twenty fifth Day of March, the Twenty fifth Day of June, the Twenty fifth Day of September, the Twenty fifth Day of December respectively, immediately antecedent to the Day of settling, and not from the Day of Attestation; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Regulation to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Soldier shall be entitled to receive any Pay for any Period preceding the Day of his actual settling.

Advertising for Recruits. XCVIII. And Whereas various Persons are in the habit of advertising for Recruits for Regiments of the Line, the Militia, or for the Service of the Honourable The East India Company; and also under the Pretence of procuring Substitutes for the same, by the great Detriment of the Service: Be it therefore further enacted, That all Persons whatsoever, who shall after the passing of this Act advertise, post or dispense, or cause to be advertised, posted or dispensed Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits or Substitutes, or shall open or keep any Houses or Places of Residence purporting in any manner whatever to be connected with the Recruiting Service or Department for the Line, Militia or East India Company, or shall manifest or be concerned directly or indirectly in any manner or way therewith (except such Recruiting Parties as may be licensed under the Command and Direction of the respective Field Officers of Districts, without the express Permission in Writing of the Adjutant General, if for the Line or Militia, or of the Court of Directors, if for the Honourable East India Company's Service), or shall in any way Peruse or Peruse as aforesaid at his House or Office under any such Bill or Advertisment on any Premises whatsoever, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence; to be recovered on Conviction before a Magistrate, One Month in the Inferior and the other to the Poor of the Parish; which such Information shall be laid; and on Default of Payment thereof, shall be consigned to the Common Gaol or other Public Prison, at the Discretion of the Magistrate, for any Period not exceeding Three Months, and not less than One Month for each and every such Offence.

Apprenticeship. XCIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person duly bound as an Apprentice shall enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, and shall state to the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate before whom he shall be carried, that he is not an Apprentice, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction, and kept to hard Labour for Two Years, may be indicted and punished for obtaining Money under false Pretences under the Provisions of the last recited Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and shall, after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, whether such Person shall have been so convicted and punished or not, be liable to serve as a Soldier in any Regiment of His Majesty's Regular Forces; and if, on the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, he shall not deliver himself to some Officer authorized to receive Recruits, may be taken as a Soldier from His Majesty's Forces.

Master's Oath. C. And be it further enacted, That no Master in England shall be entitled to claim any Apprentice who shall, after the passing of this Act, enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, unless such Apprentice shall have been bound to him in England for the full Term of Seven Years, not having been above the Age of Fifteen when he bound; and if it is proved for the full Term of Five Years at the least, not having been above the Age of Sixteen when he bound, a fourth such Master shall within One Calendar Month after such Apprentice shall have absconded or left his Service, go before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and before such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate take the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (K.), and produce the Certificate of such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of his having taken such Oath, which Certificate such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate is hereby required to give in the Form in the Schedule, to this Act annexed marked (L.).

Master's Oath. CI. And be it further enacted, That no Master in Scotland shall be entitled to claim any Apprentice who shall, after the passing of this Act, enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, unless such Apprentice shall have been bound to him for the full Term of as full Year Years by a regular Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship, duly extended, signed and sealed, and binding on both Parties by the Law of Scotland, prior to the Period of Enlistment, and unless such Contract or Indenture, so duly executed, shall within Three Months after the Commencement of the Apprenticeship, and before the Period of Enlistment, have been produced to a Justice of the Peace of the County wherein the Parties reside, and there shall have been satisfied thereby by such Justice a Certificate or Declaration signed by him, specifying the Date when, and the Person by whom such Contract or Indenture shall have been so produced, which Certificate or Declaration such Justice of the Peace is hereby required to indorse and sign; and unless such Apprentice shall, when claimed by such Master, be under Twenty one Years of Age, and unless such Master shall, within One Calendar Month after such Apprentice shall have absconded or left his Service, go before some Justice of the Peace, and before such Justice of the Peace take the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (K.), and produce the Certificate of such Justice of the Peace of his having taken such Oath, which Certificate such Justice of the Peace is hereby required to give in the Form of the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (L.): Provided always, that any Master of an Apprentice indentured for the Sea Service shall be entitled to claim and receive any such Apprentice Apprentice in the Form and Manner above directed, notwithstanding such Apprentices may have been bound for a less Term than Seven Years in England, or Four Years in Scotland.

CII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Master in Scotland shall be precluded from claiming any Apprentice who shall hereafter exist, by reason of the Contract or Indenture not having been produced to a Justice of the Peace in the manner directed by the Act of the last Session of Parliament, entitled An Act for punishing Murther and Drunkenness; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, within the time therein limited, provided the same shall be produced to any Justice of the Peace of the County wherein the Parties reside, and be sworn to as therein directed, at any time within Three Months after the passing of this Act.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That any Master of any Apprentice who shall have enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Forces shall, upon his consenting to give up the Indentures of Apprenticeship within One Month after the enlisting of such Apprentice as a Soldier, be entitled to receive to his own Use so much of the Bounty payable to such Recruit, after deducting therefrom Two Guineas, which shall be referred in order to provide the said Recruit with Necessaries, as shall not have been paid to such Recruit before Notice given of his being an Apprentice.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That no Apprentice, who shall be claimed by his Master, shall be taken from the Regiment, Troop or Recruiting Party with which he shall be, but under a Warrant granted by some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of the County, Stewartry, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Place, and residing near to the Place where such Apprentice shall happen to be when so claimed; and it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate is hereby required, on Proof on Oath of Notice having been given to the Officer commanding the Regiment or Troop or Company or the Recruiting Party with which such Apprentice shall then be, or some Non-Commissioned Officer of such Recruiting Party, of such Warrant, and that a Copy thereof has been left with such Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer, and of such Person being an Apprentice, and having exhibited and declared that he was no Apprentice, and on Production and Proof of the Indenture of Apprenticeship, to commit such Person to gaol, as aforesaid, if required to do so by such Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer as aforesaid, to the Common Gaol of the County, Stewartry, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Place, where such Person shall be at the time when he shall be so claimed by his said Master, there to remain until he shall be discharged by due Course of Law, or, if not so required, to deliver such Apprentice to his Master.

CV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, in residing near to the Place where the Apprentice shall be claimed as aforesaid, except in Scotland as hereinafter mentioned, before whom such Person is offending shall be to take as aforesaid, to examine into the Matter alleged against such Person upon Oath, and which Oath the said Magistrate is hereby empowered to administer; and also to keep in his Custody the Indenture of Apprenticeship, to be produced at Occasion then required, and to send one to the Master claiming such Person and any other Persons in any such proper, to give Evidence in the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or Session of Oyer and Terminer, at which the Trial of such Person is hereinafter directed to be had against such Person for offending; and the Production of such Indenture of Apprenticeship, with the Certificate of the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate that the same was proved before him, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Indenture of Apprenticeship.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That every such Offender, except in Scotland, as hereinafter mentioned, may and shall be tried at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or Sessions of Oyer and Terminer for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Place wherein the Offence charged shall have been committed, next after such Offender's being brought before such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate as aforesaid, or the Sessions immediately succeeding such next Session, unless the Court shall think fit to put off the Trial on Juri Cause.

CVII. And be it enacted, That every such Offender in Scotland shall and may be tried by the Judge Ordinary in such County or Stewartry, in such and the like manner as any Person may be tried in Scotland for any Offence not inferring a Capital Punishment.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Justice to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person is in his Custody for any Offence is a Soldier liable to serve His Majesty on the Expedition of his Impression, shall give One Month's Notice to the Secretary at War, or if in Ireland to the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence to the Under Secretary for the Military Department, before the Day on which the Imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Commitment or Sentence of the Period of Expiration of such Imprisonment.

CIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person whatever except an Apprentice who has enlisted or shall exist bound into His Majesty's Service as a Soldier as aforesaid, shall be liable to be enrolled or taken out of His Majesty's Service by reason of the Warrant of any Magistrate or Magistrates, on account of any Breach of Contract or Engagement, to serve or work for any Master or Employer whatsoever.

CX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall have been hired to serve any Master for a Year or otherwise, shall, before the Expiration of his Term of Service under such Hiring, enlist into His Majesty's Service, such Person shall be entitled to such Proportion of Wages as the Magistrate shall think proper from his Master, for the time he has actually served under such Hiring, notwithstanding he shall have failed, in consequence of such enlisting, in completing the full Term of Service agreed for under such Hiring; and the Magistrate shall give as Order and take such other Steps as shall be necessary to enforce the Payment of such Proportion within Four Days after the Amount shall have been declared by such Magistrate.

CXI. And

Masters in Scotland in which case are precluded from claiming Apprentices.
24 G. 3. c. 20. 43.

Notice of Apprentice enlisting under any contract to receive Part of Bounty Money.

As persons claimed by Masters called before Justice and committed.

Imprisonment

Justice is to examine upon Oath, and to keep Indenture to be produced on Trial.

Offenders tried at next Quarter Sessions.

And in Scotland by Judge Ordinary.

Justice to give Notice to Secretary at War, Dec. of Expiration of Imprisonment of Soldier.

No Person except Apprentice liable to be enrolled out of His Majesty's Service, for Breach of Contract; by which rule is to be taken notice of in this Act.

When a Soldier is brought in order to receive his Pay, he shall be paid in full.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Regiment or Company shall be relieved at any Station or Place beyond the Seas, in order to their Return to Great Britain or Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers thereto authorized by the Officers commanding in chief at such Station or Place respectively, to enlist as many of the Soldiers belonging to such Regiment or Company, returning to Great Britain or Ireland, as shall be willing, and who shall appear to be fit for Service, and to incorporate them in any Regiment or Company which shall be appointed to remain; and every Soldier so enlisted shall be and is hereby deemed to be discharged from the Regiment or Company in which he before served; and the Occasion of his quitting such former Corps shall be noted in the enlisting Certificate; and a Duplicate, or an attested Copy whereof, shall be delivered to such Soldier, to prevent him from being any ways molested upon Suspicion of his having deserted.

Particulars
shall be made by His Majesty's order, in writing, and
shall be subject to
order.

XXII. And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the enlisting and enrolling of Soldiers desirous of re-enlisting, and others desirous of enlisting Abroad; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person duly authorized and appointed by His Majesty by any Warrant signed by the Secretary at War in that behalf, and not being a General Officer nor holding any Regimental Commission, to enlist and enroll out of Great Britain or Ireland any Soldiers desirous of enlisting, or re-enlisting into His Majesty's Service, and to send such Oaths as are directed and required to be administered in that behalf by Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom in relation to the enlisting or re-enlisting of Soldiers, and any Person so authorized and appointed shall have all such Powers and Authorities in that behalf as are given to any Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom in relation to the enlisting or re-enlisting of Soldiers, and shall for all such Purposes as aforesaid be deemed and taken to be Justices of the Peace, any Person so enlisted or re-enlisted shall be deemed and taken to be so enlisted or re-enlisted under the Provision of any Act in force in relation to enlisting of Soldiers, and to the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, in like manner in every respect, and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Oath had been administered, and such Attestation had been made, and enlisting or re-enlisting taken place before a Justice of the Peace in the United Kingdom.

Soldiers
enlisted
shall be paid in full of their Pay, and shall be subject to
order.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Soldier enlisted to his Discharge under any Order or Regulations made by His Majesty, or upon the Expiration of any Period for which he shall have engaged to serve, shall, if then serving Abroad, be sent to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and be entitled on his Return to, and have and receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed to the Port or Place in which he shall have been originally enlisted, at the Rate per Day, and for retreating Soldiers on the March, reckoning Two Miles for each Day's March; and every Soldier so entitled to his Discharge, who shall be discharged at any Place in the United Kingdom, other than that in which he shall have been enlisted, shall be entitled to the like Marching Money, from the Place of his Discharge to the Place of his Attestation as aforesaid.

Persons
be enlisted under
Act.

XXIV. And Whereas several Soldiers, being duly enlisted, do afterwards desert, and are often found wandering, or otherwise abiding themselves illegally from His Majesty's service; It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Constable, Headborough or Tythingman of the Town or Place where any Person who may be reasonably suspected to be such a Defector shall be found, or if no such Constable, Headborough or Tythingman can be immediately met with, then for any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Service to apprehend, or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate or any such Town or Place, who hath lawful Power to examine such suspected Person; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath or by the Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a listed Soldier, and ought to be with the Troop or Company to which he belongs, such Justice of the Peace shall without Fee or Reward to himself or Clerk forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Goal of the County or Place where he shall be found, or the House of Correction, or other Public Prison in such Town or Place where such Defector shall be apprehended; or to the Sheriff, in such case such Defector shall be apprehended within the City of London or Westminster, or Places adjacent; or to the Provost Marshal in such case such Defector shall be apprehended within the City or Liberties of Dublin, or Places adjacent, and confined as Aforesaid thereof in the Prison preferred in the Schedule annexed to this Act, marked (N.); to the Secretary at War for the time being in London; or if the Defector be apprehended in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary to the Chief Governor or Governors thereof, to the end that such Person may be removed by an Order from the Office of the said Secretary at War, or Chief Governor or Governors, and proceeded against according to Law; and the Keeper of every Goal, House of Correction or Prison, in which such Defector shall at any time be confined, shall receive such Satisfaction for the Maintenance of such Defector during the time that he shall continue in his Custody, as by His Majesty's Regulations or shall from time to time be directed in that behalf; and the Keeper of every Goal, House of Correction or other Public Prison of the City, Town or Place, at or at which the Party or Person conveying such Defector shall take on the March, shall, and he is hereby required to receive and confine every such Defector, who shall be delivered into his Charge and Custody by any Not Commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall be conveying such Defector under any lawful Order, Warrant or Authority, while on the Road from the Place where he was apprehended, to the Place to which he is to be conveyed, without any other Warrant or Authority for so doing than the Production of the Warrant of the Justice of the Peace, or on which such Defector shall have been taken, or some Order from the Office of the Secretary at War, or of the Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and shall be entitled to One Shilling for the safe Custody of the said Defector, while the Party or Person conveying him shall take on the March; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Regulations
shall be
Majesty's order, in writing, and
shall be subject to His Majesty's
order.

XXV.

XXV. And,

CKV. And, for the better Encouragement of any Person or Persons to sue or apprehend such Delinquents from His Majesty's Service, be it further enacted, That such Justice of the Peace shall also file his Warrant in Writing to the Collector or Collectors of the Land Tax Money of the Parish or Township in Great Britain, where any Delinquent shall be so convicted, or as relates to the Collector or Collectors of His Majesty's Revenue in the District where any Delinquent shall be so committed, for paying out of the Land Tax Money or Revenue arised or to arise in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, into the Hands of such Person or Persons as shall apprehend or cause to be apprehended, any Delinquent from His Majesty's Service, the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every such Delinquent as shall be apprehended and committed; which Sum of Twenty Shillings shall be paid by such Collector or Collectors to whom such Warrant shall be directed, and allowed upon his or their Accounts.

CKVI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Delinquent from any Regiment or Corps of His Majesty's Regular or Militia Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for Delinquency or any other Offence, shall in the Presence of the Magistrate, exalt himself to be a Delinquent from any such Regiment or Corps, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, and to be a Soldier, and shall be liable to serve in any such Regiment or Battalion or Corps of His Majesty's Forces, as His Majesty shall think fit to appoint, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Soldier or not.

CKVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Commissioned Officer shall break open any House to search for Delinquents without Warrant from a Justice of the Peace; and that every Commissioned Officer who shall without Warrant from One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace (which said Warrants the said Justice or Justices are hereby empowered to grant), forcibly enter into or break upon the Dwelling House or Out House of any Person whatsoever, under Pretence of searching for Delinquents, shall upon due Proof thereof forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

CKVIII. And Whereas Soldiers absent from their Regiments or Furlough granted to them by their Commanding Officers, are sometimes prevented by Sickness or other unavoidable Cause from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the time limited by such Furlough, and Doubts have arisen whether in such case the Extension of a Soldier's Furlough by a Justice of the Peace be sanctioned by legal Authority, and if effectual for preventing such Soldier from being apprehended upon Suspicion of having deserted his Regiment? Be it further enacted, That any Justifying Field Officer stationed on the Recruiting Service, or any Officer of the Rank of Captain, or of Superior Rank, or any Adjutant of Local Militia, stationed within the District, or in any case there be no such Officer as aforesaid within a convenient Distance, that any Justice of the Peace may, and be it hereby authorized to grant, in Writing under his Hand, an Extension of Furlough to any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier applying for the same on account of Sickness or other Cause, which shall on due Enquiry appear to render such Extension necessary; and that every Field Officer or Justice of the Peace, who shall grant to any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier an Extension of Furlough as aforesaid, shall immediately certify the same, with the Cause of his being so granted, to the Agent of the Regiment to which such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall belong; and that such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier during the Period to which his Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted the Regiment to which he shall appear by his Furlough to belong, or of criminally absconding himself from the same: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, whose Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of this Act, should it thereafter appear that such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier had obtained the Extension of his Furlough by false Representations made to such Officer or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, or in applying for and obtaining the same had committed any Offence to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline: Provided also, that no such Furlough shall be extended by any Justice of the Peace for any longer Period than One Month, unless with the Approbation of the General Officer commanding in the District where such Soldier shall be.

CKIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Extension of Furlough shall be granted as aforesaid in England and upon the Request of any such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier to whom the same shall be granted, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace granting the same, or where the same shall be granted by any Field Officer as aforesaid, for any Justice of the Peace, upon the Production of a Certificate in Writing from such Officer, whereby he is hereby required to give, to make an Order in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (O.), under his Hand, upon the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township or Place, wherein such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall reside, requiring them to pay to such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier any Sum of Money directed in such Order, not exceeding what the Pay of such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier would amount to for the Period in which such Furlough shall be extended as aforesaid; such Justice of the Peace taking particular Care so that upon the Furlough in Words the Amount so directed by him to be paid, and the Periods from and to which the same has been ordered to be paid, both inclusive, corroborating the Statement of his Signature, and further specifying upon the Order to the Parish Officer the Date of the Furlough originally granted, and the Name of the Commanding Officer by whom signed; and the same to be authorized him to be paid accordingly, upon Production and Delivery to him of such Order, by any such Parish Officer out of any Money in his Hands applicable to the Relief of the Poor; and the same to be advanced by such Parish Officer shall, upon the Production and Delivery of such Order to the Collector of Excise of the District within which such Parish, Township or Place shall be situated, or any Person officiating for such Collector, be repaid to such Parish Officer, to be applied to the Relief of the Poor, by such Collector of Excise or other Person out of such Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon Account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to entitle such Plaintiff to proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon, other than against the Body or Bodies of him or them so Effed as aforesaid; this Act, or any thing herein, or any former Law or Statute in the contrary notwithstanding.

CEKIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from the passing of this Act, no Soldier being arrested or confined for Debt in any Prison, Gaol or other Place, shall be entitled to any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Arrest or Confinement, until the Day of his Return to the Regiment, Troop or Company to which he shall belong.

CXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Soldier who shall be taken Prisoner by the Enemy shall forfeit all Right and Claim to Pay during the Period of his remaining a Prisoner, and until he shall again return to His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that upon the Return of every Soldier to His Majesty's Service, due Enquiry shall be made as to the Conduct of such Soldier in relation to his being made Prisoner, and arising from the loss of his to remain a Prisoner, and before Return to Service, by some General or Regimental, or Garrison or other Court Martial which shall be constituted under any Articles of War made by His Majesty for the Purpose of investigating such cases, and every Soldier who shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Court by Oath of himself or others, or in such manner as such Court shall require, and which Oath every such Court is hereby authorized to administer, that he was fairly and unavoidably taken Prisoner in the Course of Service, without any wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, and that he hath not forfeited with or under or in any manner aided or assisted the Enemy, and that he hath returned as soon as possible to His Majesty's Service, shall thereupon be entitled to receive, either the whole of any such Arrears of Pay, or a Proportion thereof, as shall be adjudged by any such Court: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War for the time being, or if in Ireland, for the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence the Under Secretary for the Military Department, to order the Issue of such Arrears, or of any Hypocoten thereof, or of any such Pay, or of any Proportion thereof, as shall under all the circumstances appear to be proper, notwithstanding any such Forfeiture, and before any such Investigation, and from time to time to stop the Continuance of any such Issue of Pay, as the Case and Conduct of any such Soldier, in relation to his being Captured by the Enemy, and set returning to His Majesty's Service when enabled to do so, may require, and the Orders of the Secretary at War, or of such Chief or under Secretary for the Payment of any such Arrears or Pay, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for such Payment.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Comissaries, upon making up their Accounts, and also upon returning from any Foreign Service, shall take the Oath described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked [M.], which Oath, if taken in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall be taken before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and if taken on Foreign Service before the Officer commanding in Chief, or the Second in Command, or the Quarter Master or Deputy Quarter Master General, or any Assistant Quarter Master General of the Army to whom he shall be attached, who shall respectively have Power to administer the same.

CXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Paymaster or other Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Forces, or any Storekeeper, or Commissary, or Deputy or Assistant Commissary, or other Person employed in the Commissaries Department, or in any manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provisions, Forage or Stores, belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or for their Use, who shall embezzle, or fraudulently misapply, or cause to be embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, or shall knowingly or wilfully permit or suffer any Money, Provisions, Forage, Arms, Clothing, Ammunition or other Military Stores, to be embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, or to be spoiled or damaged, may be tried for the same by and before a General Court Martial; and it shall be lawful for each Court Martial to adjudge any such Paymaster or other Commissioned Officer, Storekeeper or Commissary, or Deputy or Assistant Commissary, or other Person, to be transported as a Felon for Life, or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Punishment of Pillory, Fine, Imprisonment, Disfranchisement from His Majesty's Service, and Incapacity of serving His Majesty in any Office Civil or Military, as any such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence, and every such Officer or Person shall in Addition to any other Punishment, make good, at his own Expence, the Loss and Damages sustained which shall have been ascertained by such Court Martial; and the Loss and Damages so ascertained as aforesaid may be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in any other Courts of Law having Jurisdiction, where any Person adjudged by a Court Martial to have incurred any such Penalties, or to make good any such Losses or Damages, shall be resident after the said Judgment shall be confirmed and made known; and after the said Sum shall be recovered and levied, the same shall be applied and disposed of as His Majesty shall direct and appoint.

CXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Non-Commissioned Officer who shall be credited at a General or Regimental Court Martial, of having embroiled or misapplied any Money with which he may have been entrusted, for the Payment of the Men under his Command, or for enlisting Men into His Majesty's Service, shall be reduced to serve in the Ranks as a Private Soldier, and be put under Stoppage until the Money be made good, and suffer such Corporal Punishment (not extending to Life or Limb) as the Court Martial shall think fit.

CXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, no Paymaster General, or Paymaster of the Army, Paymaster of the Marine, Secretary at War, Comptroller, Mails Master, Paymaster of a Corps or Detachment, or any other Officer whatsoever, or their Under Officers, shall receive any Fees or make any Deductions whatsoever out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

Executors.

CXXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every present and future Paymaster, Agent or Clerk, of any Garrison, Regiment, Troop or Company, who is or shall be liable to account with any of the Executors and Administrators of every Officer or Soldier, for any of the Pay of such Officer or Soldier by him or them received, shall, on reasonable Demand made by such Executor or Administrator, deliver a just and true Account to any such Executor or Administrator of such Sum or Sums of Money as he or they shall have respectively received for such Officer or Soldier, and for which they ought to be account as aforesaid, such Executor or Administrator paying for the same, and shall account with such Executor or Administrator for the same; and that every such Paymaster, Agent or Clerk, of any Garrison, Regiment, Troop or Company, offending herein, shall forfeit the like Penalties, and to be recovered in like manner, as appointed by this Act, for such Colonels or Agents not giving due Accounts of or for the Pay of the said Officers or Soldiers, so and for such Officers and Soldiers themselves.

Comptroller.

CXXXV. And Whereas it may otherwise be doubted, whether the Officers and Persons serving in the Royal Artillery, and those hired to be employed in the Troops of Artillery, or the Officers serving in the Corps of Royal Engineers, or the Officers and Persons serving in the Corps of Royal Military Surveyors and Draftsmen, or the Corps of Royal Sappers and Miners, or the Master Gunners, and Gunners under the Ordinance, be within the Intest and Meaning of this Act; it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers and Persons serving and hired to be employed, or who shall serve and be hired to be employed in the Royal Artillery, and in the several Troops of Artillery, and all Officers serving or who shall serve in the Corps of Royal Engineers, and all Officers and Persons serving or who shall serve in the Corps of Royal Military Surveyors and Draftsmen, or in the Corps of Royal Sappers and Miners, and all Master Gunners, and Gunners who now are or shall be under the Ordinance, shall be at all times subject to all the Penalties and Punishments mentioned in this Act, and shall in all respects whatsoever, be held to be within the Intest and Meaning of every Part of this Act, during the Continuance of the same, and shall be quartered and billeted, together with the Horses employed for the Service of the said Corps, in the same Manner and under the same Penalties and Regulations as are directed by this Act to be observed in quartering and billeting the Officers, Soldiers and Horses, of His Majesty's other Forces; and all Jackkeepers and others on whom the Officers and Persons serving in the said Corps, and the Horses employed thereon, shall be legally quartered, refusing to receive and provide for them as is directed for the Officers, Soldiers and Horses in His Majesty's other Forces, shall be subject to the same Penalties as in the case of His Majesty's other Forces.

CXXXVI. And Whereas great Mischief and Inconvenience may arise if it should be doubted whether Troops in Pay, raised or serving in any of His Majesty's Provinces, Governments, Colonies or Dominions, or in Countries, Colonies or Places in Possession of or occupied by His Majesty's Subjects, or any Towns of His Majesty, are, while under the Command of any Officer having any Commission immediately from His Majesty, liable to the same Rules and Articles of War, and the same Penalties and Punishments, as His Majesty's other Forces are (subject to), To prevent such Mischief, and remove all Doubts, be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Officers and Soldiers of any Troops being enlisted and in Pay which have been or are or shall be raised or serving as aforesaid, shall at all Times and in all Places be liable to Martial Law and Discipline in like manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as His Majesty's other Forces are, and shall be subject to the same Trial, Penalties and Punishments.

CXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall extend to all Sergeants and Non Commissioned Officers or Persons employed on the Recruiting Service, receiving any regular Pay in respect of such Service; and all such Sergeants and Non Commissioned Officers and Persons employed on the Recruiting Service, receiving any regular Pay in respect of such Service, shall be liable to Martial Law and Discipline, in like manner to all Intents and Purposes as His Majesty's other Forces, and be subject to the same Trial, Penalties and Punishments.

CXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Negroes purchased by or on account of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and serving in any of His Majesty's Forces, shall be and be deemed and taken to be free, to all Intents and for all Purposes whatever, in like manner in every respect as if such Negroes had been born free in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions; and that such Negroes shall also to all Intents and Purposes whatever, be considered as Soldiers having voluntarily enlisted in His Majesty's Service.

CXXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, as to enlisting for any limited Periods of Service, or contained in any other Act as to any Rules or Regulations for the granting any Penalties or Allowances to any Soldiers discharged, after certain Periods of Service, shall extend or be deemed or construed in any manner to extend to any Negroes purchased by or on account of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and serving in any of His Majesty's Forces.

CXL. And Whereas the Officers and Soldiers of the said Troops, being taken Prisoners, are frequently sent over to Great Britain or Ireland in a very distressed Condition: And Whereas their Pay is not sufficient to provide them with necessary Lodgings and Accommodations: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of this Act it shall be lawful for the Constables, and other Civil Magistrates, within England, Ireland, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers of such Troops in all such Houses as are liable by this Act to receive the Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's other Forces, and the said Constables and other Civil Magistrates are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers of such Troops in the same Manner and under the same Regulations and Penalties, as are directed by this Act to be observed in quartering and billeting the Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's other Forces; and all Persons on whom the Officers and Soldiers of the said Troops shall be legally quartered, refusing to receive and provide for them, as is directed for the Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's other Forces, shall be subject to the same Penalties as in the case of His Majesty's other Forces.

CXLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be in any way construed to extend, to concern any of the Militia Forces, or Yeomanry or Volunteer Corps in Great Britain or Ireland, or in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Alderney, or the Islands thence belonging, excepting only in such case where, by any Act or Acts, for regulating any of the Militia Forces, or Yeomanry or Volunteer Corps in Great Britain or Ireland, the Provisions contained in this Act, or in any Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, which shall be then in force, are extended and meant to take Place in respect to the Officers and Soldiers of the Militia Forces or Yeomanry or Volunteer Corps in Great Britain and Ireland; and also except so far as relates to the Mustering of the said Militia Forces, according to the Provisions hereinafter mentioned.

CKLII. And, for the better maintaining the Number of effective Men of the Regiments of Militia, when embodied and in actual Service, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Regiment or Corps of Militia and Fesible Men, when embodied and in actual Service, shall be regularly embodied by Commanders appointed for that Purpose, in the same manner and as often as the rest of the Army is usually embodied; and the Magistrates shall have the same Powers and Authorities, and both Officers and Men shall be subject to the same Regulations, Restrictions and Penalties as are imposed on the Officers and Soldiers of the rest of the Army by virtue of this Act.

CKLIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be confined to extend to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Men, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to the Classes thereto for enlisting and paying, and to the Penalties for the Trial and Punishment of Officers and Soldiers who shall be charged with Mutiny or Desertion, or any other of the Offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the Sentence of a General, or Garrison, or Detachment, or Regimental Court Martial; and also to the Classes which relate to the Possession of Persons who shall conceal Defectors, or shall knowingly buy, exchange or otherwise receive any Arms, Clothes, Caps or other Furniture, belonging to the King, or any such Articles generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, from any Soldier or Defector, or who shall cause the Colours of such Classes to be changed.

CKLIV. And be it further enacted, That any Person taking a false Oath in any case wherein an Oath is required to be taken by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be liable to such Fines and Penalties as by any Laws now in force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

CKLV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid (except in Scotland, as hereinafter provided), That if any Affidavit, Bill, Pleint or Suit, shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any A.D. Matter or Thing, to be asked or done in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons sued at aforesaid, to plead thereto the General Issue, that he or they are Not Guilty, and to give such Special Matter in Evidence to the Jury which shall try the Issue; which Special Matter being pleaded, had been a good and sufficient Matter in Law to have discharged the said Defendant, or Defendants of the Trespass or other Matter laid to him or their Charge: And if the Verdict shall pass with the said Defendant or Defendants in any such Action, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein become moriant, or suffer any Disfranchisement thereof; that in every such case, the Justice or Justices shall order Judge before whom the said Matter shall be tried, shall, by force and virtue of this Act, allow unto the Defendant or Defendants his or their Treble Costs; which he or they shall have followed by virtue of their wrongful Verdict in Defence of the said Action or Suit; for which the said Defendant or Defendants shall have the like Remedy as in other cases where Costs by the Laws of this Realm are given to Defendants.

CKLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Bill, Pleint, Affidavit or Suit, against any Person or Persons, for any A.D. Matter or Thing, to be asked or done in pursuance of this Act, or against any Member or Members of a Court Martial, in respect of any Sentence of such Court, or of any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of such Sentence, shall be brought in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster, or in Dublin, or the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other Court whatsoever.

CKLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be raised or Complaint shall be preferred against any Person or Persons in Scotland, for any A.D. Matter or Thing to be asked or done in pursuance of this Act, such Action shall be raised and Complaint preferred to the Court of Session, and if such Court shall be so to adjudge the Defendant, or dismiss the Complaint, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them by the said Court.

CKLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, conceal or assist any Defector from His Majesty's Service, knowing him to be such, the Person so offending shall suffer for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and upon Conviction, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty of Twenty Pounds shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; One Moiety of the said Penalty to be paid to the Lieutenant, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Agent of the Regiment or Corps to which any such Defector did belong, and shall be credited by such Agent in his Public Accounts, and a Report of the Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary at War by the Justice of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender who shall be convicted as aforesaid of harbouring, concealing or assisting any such Defector, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith the said Penalty may be made, in the Value of the Penalty awarded against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, commit such Offender to the Common Goal, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Six Months: Provided also, that if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy or exchange or otherwise receive from any Soldier or Defector, or any other Person upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, any Arms, Clothes, Caps or other Furniture, belonging to the King, or any Money, Drink, Beer or other Provision, provided under any Regulations relating thereto, or any such Articles belonging to any Soldier or Defector, or are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, according to the Customs of the Army, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by Deductions out of his Pay, or cause the Colours of any such Clothes to be changed, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; or if any Person shall buy or receive any Oath, Hay, Straw or other Fodder, provided for the Use of any Horse or Horses belonging to His Majesty's Service, from any Dragoon or other Soldier knowing him to be such, or shall more, procurer, enstaid, felon or evicer any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell or otherwise dispose of any such Oats, Hay, Straw or other Forage as aforesaid, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; and upon Conviction, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said respective Penalties of Five Pounds, and Five Pounds, shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, One Moiety of the said last mentioned Penalty of Five Pounds to be paid to the Informer, and One Moiety of the said last mentioned Penalty of Five Pounds to be paid to the Informer, and the Residue of the said respective Penalties to be paid to the Agent of the Regiment or Corps to which any such Delinquent or Soldier did belong, who shall report the same to the Secretary at War and credit the same in his Public Accounts; and in case any such Offender who shall be convicted as aforesaid, of having knowingly received any Arms, Cloaths, Caps or other Furniture belonging to The King, or any such Mount, Drisk, Boot, or other Provision, or any such Articles generally denoted Regimental Necessaries, or of having caused the Colours of such Cloaths to be changed, or of having bought or received any Oats, Hay, Straw or other Forage, provided for the Use of any Horse or Horses belonging to His Majesty's Service from any Dragoon, or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, or of having moved, procured, enstaid, selected or received any Dragoon or other Soldier knowing him to be such, to sell or otherwise dispose of any such Oats, Hay, Straw or other Forage as aforesaid, contrary to the Intent of this Act, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith to satisfy the Value of the Penalties recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalties upon such Conviction, or give sufficient Security for Payment thereof within the Space of Three Days from such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, order certain such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped at the Discretion of such Justice.

CXLIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall as any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, directly or indirectly, persuade or procure any Soldier or Soldiers in the Service of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to desert or leave such Service as aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or to any other Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if it shall happen that any such Offender, be convicted as aforesaid, hath not any Goods and Chattels, Lands or Tenements to the Value of One hundred Pounds, to pay and satisfy the same, or if from the Circumstances and Merits of the Crime, it shall appear to the Court before which the said Conviction shall be made as aforesaid, that any such Offender is not a sufficient Person for such Offence, it shall be lawful for such Court to commit any such Offender to Prison, there to remain for any time not exceeding Twelve Months, without Bail or Mainprize, and also to send in the Policy for the Space of One Hour in some Market Town next adjoining to the Place where the Offence was committed in open Market there, or in the Market Town itself where the said Offence was committed.

CL. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties by this Act imposed, for persuading or procuring any Soldier to desert within that Part of Great Britain called England, may and shall be sued for and be recoverable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and for such like Offences as shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called Ireland, shall be sued for and be recoverable in His Majesty's Courts of Record in Ireland, and for such like Offences as shall be committed in Ireland, shall be sued for and be recoverable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin; and for any such like Offences as shall be committed in any other of the Dominions of His Majesty, shall and may be sued for and be recoverable in any Court of Record of His Majesty, in the Place where the Offence shall have been committed; and for such like Offences as shall have been committed within the Island of Guernsey, the same shall be sued for and be recoverable in the Royal Court of Guernsey; and for such Offences as shall be committed within the Island of Jersey, the same shall be sued for and be recoverable in the Royal Court of Jersey; any thing contained in an Act passed in the First Year of King George the First to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

CLI. And be it further enacted, That for each of the said Offences as shall be committed within that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, the Penalties herein enacted shall be sued for and be recoverable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin; and for such of the said Offences as shall be committed within the Isles of Alderney and Sark, the Penalties herein enacted shall be sued for and be recoverable in the Royal Court of Guernsey; and for such of the said Offences as shall be committed within the Isle of Man, the Penalties herein enacted shall be sued for and be recoverable in any of the Courts of Record in the said Island, or in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

CLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no such Action shall be brought or Prosecution carried on by virtue of this Act, for the Penalties aforesaid, unless the same be commenced within Six Months after the Offence is committed.

CLIII. And in order to prevent all Doubts that may arise in relation to punishing Crimes and Offences committed against former Acts of Parliament made in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, or against any of the Articles of War made and established by virtue of the same, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Crimes and Offences which have been committed against any Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, or against any of the Articles of War made and established by virtue of the same, shall and may, during the Continuance of this Act, be enquired of, heard, tried and determined, adjudged and punished, before and by the like Courts, Persons, Powers, Authorities, Ways,

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Expense attending or consequent upon any such Incarceration, or any thing to be done in the Execution of this Act, shall be borne or defrayed by the Royal Burgh, or by the County of Stirling; but all such Expense shall be borne and defrayed by the County of Clackmannan, and shall be paid out of the Rogee Money of the said County of Clackmannan.

C A P. CX.

An Act for charging certain Duties on Sweets or Made Wines in Ireland in lieu of former Duties.

[28th June 1815.]

47 (L. 3) & C. 1.
Sch. (A.) (B.)

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties of Excise payable in Ireland upon all Liquors called Sweets or Made Wines, made in Ireland, and also the Countervailing Duties on Brandy Sweets or Made Wines imported into Ireland, should be decreased, in as much to extend the Duties payable thereon as in Great Britain? Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Duties of Excise payable in Ireland on Sweets or Made Wines made in Ireland, and all Countervailing Duties payable on Brandy Sweets or Made Wines imported into Ireland under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act, shall cease and determine; and that in lieu thereof there shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon and in respect of such Sweets or Made Wines the several Sums of Money and Duties following; that is to say,

New Duties of Excise.

For and upon every Barrel containing Thirty two Gallons of all Liquor called Sweets or Made Wines, made for Sale in Ireland, by Infusion, Fermentation or otherwise, from Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit and Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients or Materials, an Excise Duty of Two Pounds Seven Shillings Brandy Currency, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity, to be paid by the respective Makers thereof.

Countervailing Duty.

For and upon every Barrel containing Thirty two Gallons of Brandy Sweets or other Brandy Liquors, made by Infusion, Fermentation or otherwise from Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit and Sugar mixed with any other Material or Ingredients whatsoever, commonly called Sweets, or called or distinguished by the Name of Made Wines, imported into Ireland from Great Britain, a Countervailing Duty of Two Pounds Seven Shillings Brandy Currency.

Drawback allowed on Exportation.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain, or elsewhere, of any Brandy or Brandy-made Sweets or Made Wines, which shall have paid the Duties by this Act imposed, there shall be allowed and paid a Drawback of Two Pounds Seven Shillings for and upon every Barrel containing Thirty two Gallons in lieu and full Satisfaction of all Drawbacks now allowed by Law for the same.

Duty under Management of

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Duty of Excise by this Act imposed on Sweets or Made Wines made for Sale in Ireland shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Ireland.

and shall be raised, levied, collected and paid in such manner and under such Rules and Regulations as are enacted and contained in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting unto His Majesty the several Duties therein mentioned as Duties on Made Wines, Mead and Pilsner; and for securing the Collection thereof; and as if all the Rules, Regulations, Clauses, Matters and Things, in the said recited Act contained, for securing the Collection of the Duty granted by the said Act, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act with respect to the Duty of Excise granted by this Act, except only so far as relates to the Duration of the Licences in the said Act mentioned, and which Licences shall be in force in the Fifth Day of January in each Year; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Countervailing Duty on Brandy and Wine imposed into Ireland by this Act granted, and the Drawback by this Act allowed, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, allowed, paid for and recovered in the same manner, and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such Ways and Methods, and according to such Rules and Directions, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are appointed, directed and expressed, for the raising, collecting, buying, paying, managing and allowing of any Duties, Taxes or Drawbacks, in and by an Act made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for settling the Excise or new Imposts upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein intitled; or in and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things, under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts which may be in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Excise and Customs, or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all intents and Purposes, as if the same Rules and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, were herein expressed and enacted, with the like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved as in and by the said Acts or any of them it or shall be provided.

C A P. CXI.

An Act for the better collecting and securing the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland.

[18th June 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Regulations for the securing of the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland: Be it therefore enacted, by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, in so much of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act, as regulates or defines the Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines, for the Quantity of Spirits producible wherefrom any Distiller is chargeable with Duty in respect of any Still or Stills used by such Distiller, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that, from and after the Commencement of this Act, every Distiller in Ireland shall, for every Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days during which any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller shall continue or shall be possessed to continue working or shall be chargeable as working, under the Regulations or Provisions of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for the regulating or securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, be charged with and shall pay Duty for each respective Quantity of Spirits as might be produced, according to the Rates specified in any Act or Acts in force, from the several Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines, severally set forth in the Table to this Act annexed, for and in respect of each and every such Still being of the several Contents in the said Table specified and contained, in lieu of the former Charges in respect of such Stills; and that every such Distiller shall, over and above such several Quantities respectively, be charged with and shall pay Duty, in respect of each and every such Still or Stills, for as much more Spirits as might be produced according to the Rates in the said Acts specified, from all Pot Ale, Wash, Low Wines or Singlings, which such Distiller shall actually distil within every such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, over and above such several Quantities respectively; and the Officer or Officers in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller shall make a Return of the Quantities of such Spirits and of the Duties thereon accordingly, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty so charged and returned, under such Rules, Regulations and Directions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are contained in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for the regulating or securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whosoever any Distiller licensed to keep a Still or Stills under One licensed Gallon Contract, and exceeding One hundred Gallon Contract, shall advert in the Notice which he is bound by Law to give to the Collector, Surveyor and Gauger, before he commences or recommences to work a Still, or shall give Notice in like manner Six Days before the Expiration of any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, during which any Still shall be chargeable as working, that such Distiller purports to work any Still or Stills in his Possession during the next succeeding Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, with Turf only not charred, and not with Coal or other Fuel than Turf not charred, such Distiller shall for every complete Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days during which any such Still or Stills shall be worked with no other Fuel than Turf not charred, be charged with and pay Duty for each Quantity of Spirits as might be produced (according to the Rates aforesaid) from Five casks of the Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines to which such Still would otherwise be liable, and also with Duty for as much more Spirits as might be produced, according to the said Rates, from all Pot Ale, Wash, Haglings or Low Wines, which such Distiller shall actually distil within each Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, over and above the Quantity producible from such reduced Number of Charges of Haglings or Low Wines as aforesaid.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Still in the Possession of any Distiller, shall at any time during any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, in which the Distiller shall have given Notice of working any such Still or Stills with Turf only, be worked with any Coal, Coke, Charred Turf, or other Fuel than Turf not charred, all and every Still and Stills in the Possession of such Distiller, not stripped down, taken down or displaced in manner directed and appointed in and by an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the Statute upon Spirits made or dissolved in Ireland from Cereals to allow certain Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof; to make further Regulations for the Encouragement of hampful Distillers; and for amending the Laws relating to the Distillery in Ireland; shall be subject and liable to the full Number of Charges of Haglings or Low Wines for the whole of the said Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller shall have given such Notice that he proposes to work any such Still or Stills in his Possession during any Period with Turf only not charred, and not with Coal or other Fuel than Turf not charred, it shall not be lawful for such Distiller, having given such Notice, to have or keep within his Distillery or any Premises connected therewith, at any time during such Period, any Coal or other Fuel than Turf not charred; and if, during any such Period, any Coal or any other Fuel than Turf not charred, shall be found within the Distillery of such Distiller, or within any Premises connected therewith, all such Coal or other Fuel shall be forfeited and may be seized, and the Distiller, within whose Distillery or other Premises such Coal or other Fuel shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and such Distiller shall also be subject and liable to the full Number of Charges of Haglings or Low Wines for the said Period, for and in respect of every Still in his Distillery, which shall by Law be considered as working, without any Allowance whatsoever for or in respect of the Use of Turf therein, and as if every such Still had been worked with Coal during such Period.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much and such Parts of an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Tonnage in Ireland, whereby it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any Distiller in Ireland, within any Period of Four Weeks during which such Distiller shall work or shall be chargeable as working any Still or Stills, to charge any such Still or Stills with any greater Quantity of Low Wines or Haglings than such Distiller in or may be required to do within any such Period, by any Law in Force at the time when such Distiller shall be so working or chargeable as working any such Still or Stills, as to make or distil in any such Still or Stills any greater Quantity of Spirits than such Distiller is or may be by Law chargeable with in respect of the Number of Gallons Contained of such Still or Stills, and in respect of the Number of Charges of Haglings or Low Wines in such Still or Stills within such Period of Four Weeks; and also so much of the said recited Act whereby any Charge of Double Duty or Penalty is imposed on any Distiller for any such Excess; and also so much of the said recited Act, whereby Provision is made in case any such Excess of Spirits shall not be greater than the Quantities therein respectively mentioned; and also so much of the said recited Act, whereby Provision is made with respect to any Notice that any Distiller intends, within any Period of Four Weeks, to distil any greater Quantity of Haglings or Low Wines than such Distiller is or may be required to do by Law, and with respect to any Charge and Payment of Duty in consequence of such Notice, and whereby any Double Duty or Penalty is imposed on any Distiller in respect of any Charge of any Still contrary to such Notice, or in respect of any Quantity of Spirits distilled by such Distiller, or for which such Distiller may be chargeable, greater than the Quantity mentioned in such Notice, shall extend and be construed to extend to such Stills only, the Content whereof shall not exceed Two hundred Gallons; and that as to all Stills the Content whereof shall exceed Two hundred Gallons, the said Enactments and Provisions of the said Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His Majesty's reign, shall be and be the same are hereby repealed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller intended to keep any Still, still, under the Provisions contained in an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland, or of an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Distillation of Pot Still and other Spirits distilled in Ireland, to the Warehousing of Spirits, and to the securing the Duties of Excise on Spirits distilled, and on Pot Still and other Wines brewed in Ireland, let up or erect any Still in the Place and Stead of any Still which such Distiller shall have been or shall be bound to keep, such Still so let up and erected, shall be of the like Dimensions, and upon the like Place, and of like Content to the Still in the Place or Stead of which it shall be so let up and erected; and that if any Still so let up and erected in the Place and Stead of any other Still, shall be of a Place or of Dimensions different from the Still in the Place or Stead of which it is let up and erected, or shall exceed by Four Gallons or more the Content of the Still in the Place or Stead of which it is let up and erected, such Still so let up and erected shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and the Distiller in whose Distillery any such Still shall be so let up and erected, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Spirits made or distilled in Ireland shall be permitted or allowed to be stored in Warehouses in Ireland, without Payment of the Duty of Excise payable in Ireland thereon, unless such Spirits shall be of the full Strength of One

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Spirits shall be sent or delivered out of the Stillery or Store of any Distiller (except such Spirits which shall be sent or delivered to any of His Majesty's Warehousemen or Stores, pursuant to the Provision of any Act or Acts in Force for the Warehouseing of Spirits), upon which all the Duties chargeable thereon shall not have been paid, or which shall not have been accompanied by a legal Permit granted by the proper Officer to such Distiller, every such Distiller, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and also a Sum equal to double the Duty which would be by Law chargeable on a Quantity of Spirits equal to the Quantity which shall have been so sent or delivered out, and whereas it shall appear that the full Duty had not been paid; and upon the Trial of any Information for any such Offence, the Proof that all the Duties on the Spirits sent or delivered out had been actually paid before such Spirits were sent out or delivered, or that the Spirits sent or delivered out were accompanied by such legal Permit as aforesaid, as the case may be, shall be on the Distiller, and not on the Officer or Persons prosecuting such Information.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Duties payable by any Distiller shall be unpaid at the time when such Duties are or shall be by Law due and payable, it shall be lawful for the Collector of the Excise or other Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Distillate in which the Distillery of such Distiller shall be situate, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Collector or other Officer respectively, to empower any Person or Persons to take and distress all Spirits, and all Sells, Still Heads and Worms, and all Coppers and other Vessels and Utensils for distilling, and all Mash, Cern and other Materials for distilling in any such Distillery, or in any Store or Place therein belonging, or in the Ulls, Calldry or Stillage of any such Distiller, and also all or any Spirits which having been warehoused by any such Distiller in any of His Majesty's Warehousemen or Stores, shall be in any such Warehouse or Store (any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding), and to cause the same to be sold by Public Auction, giving ten Days previous Notice thereof; and if after Payment of all Duties and Arrears of Duties due from such Distiller, and also the Duties on such Part of the Spirits which shall have been warehoused and distressed and sold as aforesaid, together with the Costs and Expenses of such taking and distressing and sale, there shall be any Surplus of the Produce arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall be forthwith tendered and paid to such Distiller or his Representative: Provided always, that when any Spirits shall be so taken and distressed, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller or his Representative, at any time or times before the Day appointed for the Sale thereof, to obtain Permits for removing all or any Part of such Spirits, upon paying to the Collector or other Officer in charge as aforesaid, towards discharging the Duties to due and payable, the real Value of all such Spirits as shall be required to be removed; and the same may be removed accordingly, and a proper Permit or proper Permits shall on due Application be given for the same, in like manner as if no such Distress had been made.

X. And be it further enacted, That upon the Trial of any Information for Recovery of any Penalty by Law imposed on any Person in Ireland, who shall knowingly buy or receive, or permit or suffer to be bought or received, for his, her or their Use, any Spirits in any Quantity whatever, the said Duties chargeable whereon had not been paid, or any Spirits whatever in any Quantity requiring a Permit by Law, which shall not have been shall and legally permitted and attended with proper Permit to the Buyer and Receiver thereof, the Defendant or Defendants in such Information shall be compelled, unless due Proof shall be made by such Defendant or Defendants, that the full Duty on such Spirits had been duly paid, or that such Spirits were bought by or for such Defendant or Defendants, and received from a licensed Distiller or some Person lawfully to sell Spirits, or that the same were attended with proper Permit or Permits to such Defendant or Defendants; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Classes, Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Modes of Recovery, provided, mentioned and contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force in Ireland, for the regulating or securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, shall be applied and put in Practice in the Execution of the Acts, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all the Classes, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said Acts, or any of them, had been expressly repeated and re-enacted in this Act, nor made applicable to the Provision herein contained, except so far as the same are repeated or altered by this Act, or by any other Act or Acts; and that the said Acts and this Act shall be construed together as One Act so all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, so far as the same are compatible or consistent with each other, and as the said Acts are amended and altered by this Act.

An Act for the better regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland, and to prevent Frauds therein.

(24th June 1815.)

*WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the better regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act to amend several Acts for regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland; and to make perpetual so much of an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty as relates to Paper Manufactures, printed or bound in Ireland; and also an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act to amend the several Acts for securing the Duties on Paper made in Ireland; and also so much of an Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenue, Masters and Traders, under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; as provides for the more easy Collection of the Duties payable by Paper Makers in Ireland, and as authorizes any Three Commissioners of Excise to make any Abatement of any Charge of Duty against any Paper Maker, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed, except so far as the said first recited Act repeals any Part of any Act relating to the Duties on Paper made in Ireland; and also except so far as the said first recited Act makes perpetual an Act therein recited relating to the Duty on Paper Manufactures, printed, printed or bound in Ireland; save so much of the said last mentioned Act as may have been or shall be altered by any Act (a) of

(a) [See ante, c. 112. 104. 111.]

the perfect Session of Parliament; and also fine and except so far as the said Acts of the Forty seventh, and Forty ninth, and Fifty fourth Years aforesaid, relate to the charging, receiving, levying and paying, any Duties on Paper made in Ireland, or any Arrears of such Duties, or any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture relating to the same, or for making or allowing any Abatement of such Duties which shall or may be incurred or become due on or before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that all and every the Regulations and Provisions, Powers and Authorities contained in the said recited Acts or any of them, shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, for the charging, receiving, levying and paying the said Duties, and Arrears thereof, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, and for making or allowing any such Abatement as if this Act had not been made.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Paper (other than Brown Paper made of Old Ropes or Cordage only without separating or extracting the Pitch or Tar, or any Part thereof, and without Mixture of any other Materials therewith, and not being Glazed Paper for Clothes or Hot-presses, or Sheathing Paper, or Butte Paper, or Butte Board, which shall be made in Ireland) shall be denominated, deemed and taken to be Paper of the First Class within the Meaning of this Act, and of any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for granting or clearing the Duties on Paper made in Ireland; and that all Brown Paper made of Old Ropes or Cordage only, without separating or extracting the Pitch or Tar or any Part thereof, and without any Mixture of other Materials therewith, or made of such Old Ropes or Cordage mixed with such refuse Materials only as are not fit for making any Paper chargeable with a Duty exceeding One Penny per Pound Weight, shall be liable to the said Duty of One Penny per Pound; and all Butte Paper, or Butte Board, which shall be made in Ireland, shall be respectively denominated, deemed and taken to be Paper of the Second Class within the Meaning of this Act and the said Acts; and that all Pallboard, Milboard and Sashboard, and Paper commonly called by the Name of Sheating or Sheathing Paper, and all Glazed Paper for Clothes and Hot-presses, to be made, shall be denominated, deemed and taken to be Paper of the Third Class within the Meaning of this Act and the said Acts; and that all Paper which shall be made in Ireland shall be classed and denominated accordingly; any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, is law and valid of any Charge under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, on any Paper Maker in respect of each and every Engine and Vat or Wet Press kept or used by such Paper Maker, every Paper Maker in Ireland shall be and is in respect of each and every Engine kept or used by such Paper Maker for the making of Paper of any Sort or Kind whatever, or which shall be employed in preparing any Stuff for making Paper of any Sort or Kind whatever, be charged with and shall pay for each and every Calendar Month in the Proportion and at the Rate of Two Shillings British Currency, for each and every Cubic Foot of the computed Contents of each and every such Engine, taken according to the greatest Length, Depth and Breadth thereof without any Allowance or Deduction whatever, for or on account of any Peculiarity of Shape or Form of such Engine, or of any Machinery which shall or may be connected thereto or on any other account, and which said Rates or Sums shall be charged and chargeable and paid and payable, as and for the Duty according to the Weight of such Quantity of Paper, as may be produced from any such Engine within each such Month as aforesaid.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Duty chargeable by Weight on the Paper made by any Paper Maker within any such Month as aforesaid, shall in any case exceed the Rate or Sum hereby directed to be charged for any such Month in respect of each and every such Engine, then and in every such case, such Paper Maker shall be charged with and pay such Excess of Duty on the said Paper according to the Quality and Weight thereof.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Officer or Officers in Charge of any Paper Mill, of any Paper Maker in Ireland, shall, within Ten Days after the Twenty fifth Day of the Month of September, October, November and December, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and within Ten Days after the Fifth Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and in like manner within Ten Days after the Fifth Day of every Month while any Engine or Engines of any Paper Maker shall be working or shall be chargeable as working, make a Return to the Collector of Excess or other Officer in charge of the Collection of the District in which such Paper Mill shall be situate, of the Amount of the Monthly Rates or Sums hereby directed to be charged for the Month ending on such Days respectively, in respect of all and every Engine or Engines kept or used by such Paper Maker at any time in such and every such Month, and also of the Quantity, Quality and Weight of all Sorts of Paper, which shall have been weighed at such Mill by such Officer in the course of such Month, and of the Duty chargeable thereon by Weight, and every such Return shall be a Charge on the Paper Maker to the Amount of the Monthly Rate or Sum payable under this Act in respect of all and every such Engine or Engines, and every such Paper Maker shall be deemed to have made within such Month such Quantity of Paper as shall be subject according to Weight to a Duty equal to the Amount of the Rate or Sum so charged, and every such Paper Maker shall pay the Sum so charged and received; and in case the Duty chargeable in respect of the Quality and Weight of all Paper of every Class, Denomination and Kind, specified in such Return as weighed within such Month, shall exceed the Amount of the Rate or Sum payable in respect of all and every such Engine or Engines, then the Return of the Officer shall be a Charge on such Paper Maker for the Amount of such Excess, over and above the Amount of the Rate or Sum chargeable in respect of such Engine or Engines as aforesaid, and such Paper Maker shall pay the Duty appertaining by such Return and Charge to have become due and payable within Fourteen Days after the End of the Month for which such Return and Charge shall have been made; and every such Paper Maker shall for every Default in Payment of any such Duty forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Amount of the Sum so returned and charged; and every such Officer shall and he is hereby required to leave a true Copy of such Return in Writing under his Hand, with every

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Maker shall, before commencing to work any Engine, at any time after the Commencement of this Act, or at any time within any Year for which such Paper Maker shall be licensed to use any Mill for the making of Paper, and in like manner before recommencing to work any Engine after any Discontinuance in such Year as hereinafter provided, give Six Days' Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of the Duties and Taxes in England, and to the Collector or other Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duties, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Mill of such Paper Maker, distinguishing each such Engine by the Number and Description thereof, as the same is described in the Account by this Act required to be made out by such Paper Maker, and setting forth the Day and Hour when such Paper Maker intends to commence or recommence to work any Engine; and any such Paper Maker who shall make any Paper, or shall have any Staff or Materials in Proofs for making the same into Paper, without having given such respective Notice in manner by this Act directed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and on other Day shall be mentioned in any such Notice of Commencement or Re-Commencement to work any Engine which shall be given after the Commencement of this Act and previous to the Twenty fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, than the Twenty fifth Days of the Month of April, September, October or November, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and on Day shall be mentioned in any such Notice which shall be given after the Twenty fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen after than the Sixth Day of some Month in the Year for which such Paper Maker shall be licensed to use any Mill for the making of Paper, and as Paper Maker shall, after the Commencement of this Act, commence or recommence working, except on such Days and Times respectively.

X. Provided always, and he it enacted, That the Period between the Twenty fifth Day of November in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be deemed and taken to be a Calendar Month, within the Meaning and for all the Purposes of this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Engine from the Day mentioned in any Notice for commencing or recommencing to work, shall be performed to be kept regularly at Work from that Day until the End of the Year for which the Paper Maker shall be licensed, and shall be chargeable, and charged accordingly, unless the working of any such Engine shall be discontinued in manner hereinafter mentioned; this is to say, if any such Paper Maker shall, at any time between the Fifth Day of May and the Fifth Day of November in any Year for which such Paper Maker shall be licensed, be desirous of discontinuing the working or using any Engine or Engines in his or her Paper Mill, or any One or more Month or Months ending on the Fifth Day of the Months of June, July, August, September, October or November respectively, in any Year, it shall and may be lawful for such Paper Maker to do so, provided that such Paper Maker shall give Notice in Writing of such Intention to discontinue such working to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and to the Collector or other Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duties in which such Paper Mill is Situated, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of such Paper Mill, Six Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned therein for discontinuing the same as herein provided, distinguishing each such Engine by the Number and Dimensions thereof respectively, as the same shall have been or ought to have been set forth in the Account required to be made out by such Paper Maker under this Act, and specifying the Hour of the Day at which such working is so intended to be discontinued: Provided always, that no other Day shall be mentioned in any such Notice for such Discontinuance, except only the Fifth Days of the Months of May, June, July, August, September or October respectively; and that the Hour of the Day specified in such Notice shall be some Hour before Twelve of the Clock at Noon on such Day, and at the Day and Hour specified in such Notice the Officer in Charge of such Paper Mill shall attend and see that such Engine is no longer at work, and the Officer in Charge of the Paper Mill shall not charge the Paper Maker with any Duty in respect of such Engine if discontinued as aforesaid, for any Month between the said Fifth Day of May and the Fifth Day of November, in which the working of such Engine shall be discontinued in manner aforesaid; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That at the time specified in any such Notice of Discontinuance it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise in Charge of such Mill, and he is hereby required to follow and lock each and every Engine, the working of which shall be intended to be discontinued, in such manner as the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, shall direct and appoint; and for that Purpose it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, from time to time to make and issue such Orders and Directions as they shall think expedient to the several Paper Makers and Officers for the following or locking of any Engine, and all and every such Orders and Directions shall be complied with and obeyed by every such Paper Maker and Officer; and if any Paper Maker shall refuse or neglect to comply with or obey any such Orders or Directions which shall be made and issued, every such Paper Maker shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer shall be prevented by any Person at such Mill from following and locking any Engine, the working of which shall be so intended to be discontinued, or in consequence of such Mill being locked and no Person appearing to give Entrance to such Officer, or if any such Engine shall in any Event not be followed or locked in manner aforesaid, or if at any time subsequent to the time any such Engine shall have been followed or locked, or by any of the Purposes of this Act ought to have been followed or locked, any such Engine shall be found not followed or locked pursuant to the Directions of this Act, or if any Roller, Plate, Lighter or Bed-Steel shall be found in any such Engine, unless due Notice shall have been given pursuant to the Directions of this Act, of the Intention again to work such Engine, every such Paper Maker shall, in each and every the respective case and cases aforesaid, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Paper Maker shall discontinue the working of any Engine, such Paper Maker shall, before the time specified in any Notice for discontinuing the working of the same, displace and remove, or cause to be displaced and removed, clear out of each and every such Engine, the Roller, Plate, Lighter and Bed-Steels belonging to such Engine, and shall within Six Days thereafter following send or convey such Roller, Plate, Lighter and Bed-Steel, to the Excise Office of the District in which the Mill of such Paper Maker shall be situate, there to be kept until the same shall be returned to the Proprietor thereof, on his or her giving Notice pursuant to this Act of his or her Intention to work such Engine; and if any Paper Maker shall not before the time which shall be so specified in any such Notice dispense and remove, or cause to be dispensed and removed in manner aforesaid, every such Kettle, Plate, Lighner and Restler, or shall not feed or convey the same to the Excise Office as aforesaid within the time aforesaid, every such Paper Maker shall, for such Default or Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if at any time subsequent to the Day and Hour mentioned in any such Notice of Discontinuance, the Engine, or the discontinuance of the working of which such Notice shall have been given, shall be worked or used in any manner whatsoever in the Process of making of Paper (unless under a Notice of Recommencement of working in manner hereinafter mentioned), the Paper Maker in whose Mill the same shall be so worked or used, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall also be charged and chargeable with all such Sums of Money and Charges as he would have been liable to have been charged with under this Act, in case no such Notice of Discontinuance had been given as manner aforesaid; and it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise whatever, within Ten Days next after the Fifth Day of any Month in which it shall have been or shall be discovered that such Engine was worked or used contrary thereto, to make a Return to the Collector or other Officer in charge of the Collection of the Duties on which such Mill shall be situate, of all such Sum or Sums of Money as such Paper Maker would be chargeable with for the Period or Periods from the time mentioned in the Notice of the discontinuance of the working of such Engine to such Fifth Day of the Month in which it shall have been discovered that such Engine was so worked or used, and such Return shall be a Charge on every such Paper Maker who shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return to be due and payable within Fourteen Days next after such Return shall have been made, or in Default of such Payment shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to double the Duty so returned and charged.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Maker shall from time to time provide such Fastenings or Locks and Keys to each and every Engine in his or her Mill, and shall keep the same in good and sufficient Order in such Manner as shall be approved of by the Surveyor of Excise in charge of such Mill, or shall pay for such Fastenings, Locks and Keys as shall be provided by such Surveyor; and if any such Paper Maker shall neglect to provide, repair or pay for such Fastenings, Locks and Keys within such time as shall be required by such Surveyor, every such Paper Maker shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Paper Maker who shall have discontinued the working of any Engine in manner aforesaid shall intend to set at work again any such Engine so discontinued, such Paper Maker shall deliver a Notice in Writing of such his Intention to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and to the Collector or other Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duties, and to the Officers in Charge of the Paper Mill of such Paper Maker, Six Days at least before the Day on which such Paper Maker shall intend to recommence the working or using such Engine, distinguishing the same by the Number and Dimensions as set forth in the Account by this Act directed and required to be made out and delivered by such Paper Maker, and specifying the Day and Hour on which such Paper Maker intends to recommence the working or using any such Engine, which Day shall be the sixth Day of some Month in the Year, and such Officer shall attend on such Day and Time, and open the Locks and Fastenings of such Engine accordingly, and shall charge such Paper Maker in respect of each such Engine from the Day mentioned in such Notice for the Re-commencement of the working of such Engine in manner aforesaid.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Paper Maker, who shall have discontinued the working of all or any Engines or Engine in the Mill of such Paper Maker in manner authorized by this Act, shall not give Notice for the Re-commencement of the working of any and every Engine, the working of which shall have been so discontinued, so that any and every Engine shall be at work on and from the Sixth Day of November in every Year, until and upon the Fifth Day of January following, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer of Excise in charge of such Paper Mill, within Ten Days next after the Fifth Day of December and the Fifth Day of January next ensuing such Sixth Day of November, to make a Return to the Collector or other Officer in charge of the Collection of the Duties in which such Mill shall be situate, of all such Sums or Sums of Money, and Duty, as such Paper Maker would be chargeable with under this Act for the respective Months ending on the said Fifth Day of December and Fifth Day of January respectively in respect of each and every such Engine, if + any and every such Engine were or had been actually at work, and as if any and every such Engine had been so actually at work; and such Return shall be a Charge on every such Paper Maker, who shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return to be due and payable, within Fourteen Days after such Return shall have been made, or in Default of such Payment shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to double the Duty so returned and charged.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Maker of Paper to make up any Paper or any Quire of Paper into any Bundle or Bundles, or to inclose or tie up any Bundle of Paper in any Cover or Wrapper; and if any Maker of Paper shall make up any Paper or any Quire of Paper into any Bundle or Bundles, or shall inclose or tie up any Bundle of Paper in any Cover or Wrapper, every such Paper Maker shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and it shall not be lawful for the Officer to stamp or mark any Cover or Wrapper containing any Bundle of Paper; any thing in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to favour the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland, and to prevent Frauds thereon, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That on every Cover or Wrapper, in which any Ream of Paper of the First Class, or of Paper of the Second Class, shall be inclosed before any such Paper shall be brought or produced to any Officer of Excise to be weighed, there shall be marked, written or printed by the Maker thereof, or by his or her Servant, in large and legible Characters, and in Words at length, the Name and Residence of such Paper Maker, and the Words "First Clift," or "Second Clift," designating the Clifts of Paper inclosed in such Cover or Wrapper, and according to which the Duty in respect of the same is chargeable; and upon every such Cover or Wrapper shall also be written the Day of the Month and Year, denoting the Month and Year in which such Paper shall have been made, and after each D is there shall be written in Figures the true Number of such Reams of Paper according to the Numbers of such Reams of Paper of each such Clift made by the Maker thereof at the Mill in which the same shall be made during such Month, such Number to be in Arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number One, according to the Number of Reams of Paper of each Clift made at such Mill in such Month; and that on each Parcel of Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, there shall in like manner, before the same shall be produced or brought to the Officer to be weighed, be marked, written or printed, in large and legible Characters and in Words at length, the Name and Surname of such Maker, and the Description of such Parcel, and whether such Parcel is Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, and the Number of Sheets in each such Parcel with the Date of the Month and Year, and after each Date there shall be written in Figures the true Number of such Parcel of Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard and Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, according to the Numbers of such Parcels of Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard and Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board respectively, made by such Maker at such Mill during such Month as aforesaid, such Number to be in Arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number One, according to the Number of Parcels of Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard and Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, made at such Mill in such Month; and if any Maker of Paper, Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, shall neglect to mark the said Parcels or Reams or Parcels in manner herein directed, or to cause the same to be numbered and marked as aforesaid, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all Paper, Palsboard, Millboard, Scaleboard, Glazed Paper, Shewing or Shewing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, made in the Mill or Manufactory of any Paper Maker in Ireland, shall be produced and brought to the Officer in charge of such Mill or Manufactory to be weighed and charged with Duty, and shall be weighed and charged with Duty accordingly, within Four Days after such Paper or Palsboard shall have been inclosed in Wrappers or tied up in Parcels as directed by Law; and that if any Paper or Palsboard shall be found in any Mill or Manufactory of any Paper Maker which shall have been inclosed in Wrappers or tied up in Parcels for any longer Space of time than Four Days, and shall not have been weighed and charged with Duty, and referred by the Officer accordingly, all such Paper and Palsboard shall be forfeited and may be seized; and the Paper Maker in whose Mill or Manufactory the same shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in the Paper Mill of every Paper Maker there shall be safely kept such Minute Books as shall be from time to time delivered to such Paper Maker by the Officer in Charge of such Mill, to which Books such Paper Maker shall from time to time make or cause to be made true Entries of the Number of Engines, Vats and Wet Presses in such Mill, and the time when the same shall be at work or discontinued, as also of the Clifts, Descriptions, Kind and Quantity of all Paper and Palsboard, from time to time made by such Paper Maker at such Mill, and when the same shall be put up in Reams or Parcels to be weighed, and when the same shall be weighed and the Weight, Clifts, Descriptions and Kind thereof, and the Duty chargeable thereon, and of the Days and Times when any Paper shall be sent out of any Mill, and in what Parcels, and to whom and for what Purpose, which Minute Books shall be kept in such manner and according to such Form as shall be from time to time ordered and directed by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or any Three of them, and shall contain all the Matters and Things aforesaid, and also all such Matters and Things as shall from time to time be directed by the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to be entered in the same; and in case any Paper Maker to whom the said Book shall be tendered by any Officer shall refuse to receive the same, or having received the same shall refuse to make or cause to be made such Entries therein, from time to time as are required by this Act, or shall be directed to be entered therein by the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, or shall wilfully tear, deface, obliterate or alter such Book or any Entry therein, or shall cause or procure or suffer the same to be torn, defaced, obliterated or altered, or shall make or cause to be made any false or untrue Entry therein, every such Paper Maker shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Paper Maker shall constantly keep or cause to be kept every such Minute Book in the Mill of such Paper Maker, for the Inspection and Examination of every Officer of Excise, and the same shall be delivered to the Collector of the District in manner hereinafter mentioned; and if on Demand of any Officer of Excise at such Mill, such Book shall not be produced to such Officer, or if such Officer shall not be permitted to inspect and examine the same, or shall be hindered or prevented by any Person from inspecting and examining the same, such Paper Maker shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Maker who shall be furnished with such Book shall, on every Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, Fifth Day of October and Fifth Day of January, or within Ten Days after each of the said Days respectively, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Collector or other Officer in Charge of the Collection of the District in which the Mill of such Paper Maker shall be situated, all and every Book and Books used in the Mill of such Paper Maker, in the preceding Quarter of a Year, with

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Maker shall Monthly, that is to say, within Ten Days next after the Fifth Day of every Month, make a true Entry at the Exche Office of the District in which the Mill of such Paper Maker shall be situate, of all Paper, Postboard, Millboard, Sealboard, Glazed Paper, Shouting or Shouting Paper, Button Paper and Button Board, made by or for the Account of such Paper Maker, into Quires or Reams, within the Month, ending on such Fifth Day respectively, which Entry shall contain the true Classes of all such Paper according to the Three Classes in this Act mentioned, denominated and described, and the Number of Reams of Paper, and the Real Weights thereof of each Class, and also the real Number of Parcels, and the Quantity and Weight of all such Postboard, Millboard, Sealboard, Glazed Paper, Shouting or Shouting Paper, Button Paper and Button Board, for or in respect whereof any Duty of Excise is or shall be by Law imposed, and every such Paper Maker shall, in every such Entry, state and set forth this or Paper was first or delivered out of the Mill of such Paper Maker, within such Month, which had not been duly weighed and charged with Duty by the proper Officer in charge of such Mill, and every such Entry shall be verified by the Clerk of such Paper Maker, or his or her Chief Clerk or Workman to be made before the Collector or other Officer in charge of the Collection of the District, or any Surveyor of Excise of such District, or by any Person authorized by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, to administer Oaths in Revenue Matters, and which Oath every such Collector or other Officer aforesaid, Surveyor or other Person is hereby authorized and empowered to administer, and every such Paper Maker for every Neglect or Default of making such Entry verified upon Oath as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and every such Entry shall be in law and instead of the Entry which any Paper Maker is or may be required to make every Six Weeks or every Month, under the Provision of the said second Act made in Ireland in the Thirty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for securing the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland, or of an Act made in Ireland in the Fourth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, for amending and continuing the said Act of the Thirty eighth Year of His said Majesty's Reign.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise at any time in the Day next to every into any Mill of any Paper Maker, and to examine and take an Account of each and every Engine, Vat and Wet Press in such Mill; and if any Paper Maker or his or her Servant shall not, on Demand made by any Officer of Excise at such Mill, or at the Dwelling House of such Paper Maker, admit such Officer and Officers into such Mill, or shall not permit such Officers and Officers to view, examine and take an Account of all and every such Engines, Vats and Wet Presses as aforesaid, or if any Paper Maker shall not, on the Demand of any Officer of Excise, clear or cause to be cleared all Staff and Materials out of each and every Engine which such Officer may require so to be cleared in order to enable him to measure the same, every such Paper Maker shall, for every such Neglect or Refusal by him or her, or his or her Servant, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Paper Maker to send or deliver any Ream of Paper or any Parcel of Postboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shouting or Shouting Paper, or Button Paper or Button Board, out of the Mill or Manufactory of such Paper Maker, to any Paper Stainer, or to any Stationer or Dealer in Paper, without a Permit for the Removal thereof, signed by the Officer in Charge of such Mill or Manufactory; and that every such Permit shall be written or printed in plain legible Characters, and shall contain such Particulars as shall from time to time be directed by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, and also the several following Particulars; that is to say, the Date and Number of such Permit, and the District from whence issued, and the Place to which such Paper or Postboard as before described therein mentioned are intended to be carried, and shall particularly express the Marks, Weight, Package, Quality and Denomination of Paper, Postboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shouting or Shouting Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, according as the same is commonly and usually called and known, so intended to be conveyed under such Permit, and shall likewise contain the real Names and Surnames, and Place of Abode, and the Situation of the Mill or Manufactory of the Paper Maker sending such Paper or Postboard as before described, and the real Name and Surname and Place of Abode of the Paper Stainer, Stationer or Dealer in Paper, to whom such Paper or Postboard as aforesaid is intended to be sent, and also the Place to which such Paper or Postboard as aforesaid shall be intended to be sent; and in every such Permit shall be expressed and set forth the Date of the Month and Year when such Paper or Postboard was weighed and charged with Duty by the Officer; and if any Ream of Paper or Parcel of Postboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shouting or Shouting Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, shall be conveying or carrying, or carried or conveyed from the Mill or Manufactory of any Paper Maker, to any Paper Stainer, Stationer or Dealer in Paper, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, unless the Carrier or Person conveying the same, or the Person in whose Possession the same shall be, shall, on Demand made by any Officer of Excise, produce a Permit under the Hand of the proper Officer of Excise, authorizing the Removal of such Paper or Postboard respectively; and upon the Trial of any Information for the Forfeiture of any such Paper or Postboard respectively, which shall be found conveying or conveyed, without such Permit as aforesaid, the Proof of the Perfor from and to whom, and the Place from and to which such Paper or Postboard as aforesaid shall be conveying or conveyed, shall be upon the Claimant or Claimants, and not on the Officer or Person producing such Information; and in case any false Name or Names, or the Name of any Person from or to whom such Paper or Postboard as aforesaid mentioned in any Permit shall not be intended to be sent, shall be inserted in any Permit or Permits, or in case such Paper or Postboard as aforesaid shall be delivered from or to any other Person, or from or to any other Place than from or to the Person or from and to the Place mentioned in the Permit, Permit, such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid mentioned in such Permit shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise; and in every such Permit shall be likewise mentioned some reasonable limited time for such Permit being in force for the Conveyance of the Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid therein mentioned from one Place to another, and after the Expiration of such limited time, such Permit shall not be in force for protecting the Conveyance of such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid, and the same shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer of Excise; and every such Permit in which there shall be any Erratum, Interlineation or Alteration, shall be null and void, and the Paper or Palletboard conveying or conveyed for the Protection of which any sealed, unsealed or altered Permit shall be produced, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and no such Permit shall be granted by any Officer, unless a Request Note or Requisition in Writing, duly stamped according to Law, shall have been delivered by or on behalf of the Party requesting such Permit; and every such Request Note or Requisition shall contain the Name and Residence of the Paper Maker, and Situation of the Mill or Manufactory of the Paper Maker sending such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid, and the Name and Residence of the Person to whom intended to be sent, and specifying whether such Person is a Paper Seller, Paper Stationer or Dealer in Paper, and also the Place to which such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid is intended to be sent; and such Requisition or Request Note shall particularly express the Marks, Weight, Package, Quantity and Description of such Paper, Palletboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Sheathing Paper, Batton Paper or Batton Board, according as the same is commonly and usually called and known, and the Date of the Month and Year the same was respectively weighed and charged with Duty.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all cases where the Carriage of any Paper, Palletboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Sheathing Paper, Batton Paper or Batton Board, shall by means of any Accident be prevented from being performed within the time limited by the Permit, and that fully proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or any Three of them, or any Three Sub-Commissioners of Excise in their respective Districts, the Permit shall continue and be in force for the Carriage of such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid to the Place of their Destination, for such time only and no longer as was lost or delayed by such Accident.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That on Oath made by the Carrier or Person in whose Possession any Paper, Palletboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Sheathing Paper, Batton Paper or Batton Board, for which a Permit shall have been granted, shall be found, or the Loss of such Permit, and by the Paper Maker who shall have sent the same under such Permit, before any Commissioner or Sub-Commissioner of Excise, that such Permit was taken out and was not used or intended to be used to his Knowledge or Belief fraudulently to cover or protect any other Paper or Palletboard whenever, but was taken out for the said Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid to be sent, in such case the Entry from such Permit in the Books of the proper Officers, or a Copy thereof duly attested, shall be Evidence of such Permit having been taken out, and such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid shall nevertheless be returned to the Owner or Proprietor thereof: Provided always, that if the Carriage of any such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid shall be prevented from being fully performed within the time limited in such Permit by any unavoidable Accident, then as Notice having immediately been given by the Owner or Carrier of such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid to any Officer of Excise, and a Ret or Story being made of such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid at or near the Place where such Accident shall happen, the Officer of Excise to whom such Notice shall be given shall without Delay repair to the Place where such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid shall then be, and if such Officer shall find upon View or Enquiry that such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid were stopped or delayed in their Carriage by Accident, then such Officer shall thereupon, by Endorsement on such Permit, enlarge the time for the Carriage of such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid to the Place of their first Destination; and if any Officer of Excise shall wilfully or negligently omit or refuse to do his Duty therein according to the Directions aforesaid, such Officer shall, on Proof being made thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise in Ireland, or any Three or more of them, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer granting or renewing any such Permit to examine upon Oath, which Oath he is hereby authorized to administer, any Person or Persons applying for such Permit, whether the Duty was actually paid for the Paper, Palletboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Sheathing Paper, Batton Paper or Batton Board, for which such Permit shall be demanded, and as to the Identity of such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid, and to all such Matters as shall appear to such Officer or Officers necessary to satisfy him or them that the Duties payable on such Paper or Palletboard as aforesaid had been duly paid.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any time counterfeit or forge any Permit or Let-pais for the Carriage of Paper, Palletboard, Millboard, Sealboard or Glazed Paper, Shewing or Sheathing Paper, Batton Paper or Batton Board, or shall counterfeit any Inscription, Stamp or Mark provided or appointed or to be provided or appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes or Customs and Port Duties for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to be put in or upon such Permit or Let-pais, or shall make use of any such counterfeit or forged Permit or Let-pais with such counterfeit Inscription, Stamp or Mark, knowing the same to be counterfeited, such Person or Persons being thereof legally convicted shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for the Space of Seven Years.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any stamped, marked or labelled Cover or Wrapper which had before contained any Paper shall be found conveying or conveyed, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and all and every Carriage in or on which any such stamped, marked or labelled Cover or Wrapper which had before contained any Ream or Bundle of Paper shall be found

C A P. CXII.

AN ACT for altering certain Drawbacks and Countervailing Duties on Glass, for exempting Irish Glass Bottles from the Duty imposed by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, and for exempting the Leather and Glass of Carriages belonging to certain Persons imported from Ireland for Private Use from Duty.

[28th Jan 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, among other things, for repealing the Duties on the Materials used in making Spread Window Glass and Crown Glass, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, a Drawback of One Pound Seven Shillings and Nine pence is allowed for every Hundred Weight of all Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, made in Great Britain, and exported to Foreign Parts or to Ireland as Merchandise, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and by another Act made in the Fifty first Year of the said Reign, among other things, for repealing the Duty on the Materials used in making Flat and Panel Glass, and for granting, until the Day therein mentioned, other Duties in lieu thereof, a Drawback of Two Pounds Nine Shillings is allowed for every Hundred Weight of Flat Glass or of Panel Glass respectively made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties imposed for and in respect thereof shall have been paid, and duly exported to Foreign Parts or to Ireland as Merchandise, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and by another Act made in the Fifty second Year of the said Reign, among other things, for granting an additional Drawback on Flat, Panel and Crown Glass, an additional Drawback of Sixteen Shillings and Three pence is allowed for every Hundred Weight of Flat Glass and Panel Glass respectively made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported directly into Great Britain, for which all the Duties imposed for or in respect thereof shall have been paid, and duly exported to Foreign Parts as Merchandise, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and an additional Drawback of Seven Shillings and Two pence Halfpenny is allowed for every Hundred Weight of all Window Glass so made, paid Duty for, and exported, not being Spread Glass, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and by another Act made in the Year last aforesaid, among other things, for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise on Great Britain on Glass, a Drawback of Three Pounds Four Shillings and Three pence is allowed for every Hundred Weight of Flat Glass and of Panel Glass respectively made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain, and exported from thence to Foreign Parts, and in the same Proportion as to any greater or less Quantity; and a Drawback of Two Pounds Four Shillings and Seven Pence Halfpenny is allowed for every Hundred Weight of all Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain, and exported from thence to Foreign Parts, and in the same Proportion as to any greater or less Quantity: And Whereas it is expedient to amend the said Drawbacks, and to allow such other Drawbacks as are hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the said several Drawbacks shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, save and except in all cases relating to the allowing or paying any Arrears thereof respectively which may at that time remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, arising thereon respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, there shall, in Consideration of the Waste arising from the cutting of Tables of Crown Glass into Pans, be allowed the following Drawbacks; that is to say,

For every Hundred Weight of Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties imposed for or in respect thereof shall have been paid, and which shall be exported in whole Tables, or Half Tables, or Quarter Tables, a Drawback of Three Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Six pence, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Hundred Weight, or such Whole Tables, or Half Tables, or Quarter Tables, calculating the said Drawback upon the Weight of the Whole Table exported, although the same may be cut into Half or Quarter Tables for the Convenience of Exportation.

For every Hundred Weight of Pans of Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties imposed for and in respect thereof shall have been paid, paid, and which shall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, other than Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, such Papers being in regular rectangular Figures, cut being of less Dimensions than Six Inches in Length by Four Inches in Breadth, nor containing any Part of the Ballion or thick centre Part of the Table from which any such Papers shall have been cut, a Drawback of Four Pounds Eighteen Shillings, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Hundred Weight of such Papers.

For every Hundred Weight of Flint Glass Wares, Vessels or Utensils, or of Phal Glass Wares, Vessels or Utensils, respectively, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties imposed for and in respect thereof shall have been paid, and which shall be exported to Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, a Drawback of Five Pounds Eighteen Shillings, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Hundred Weight of such Flint Glass Wares, Vessels or Utensils, or of Phal Glass Wares, Vessels or Utensils respectively, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties imposed for and in respect thereof shall have been paid, and which shall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, other than Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, a Drawback of Six Pounds Three Shillings, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Hundred Weight of such Flint Glass or of Phal Glass Wares, Vessels or Utensils.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Drawbacks by this Act allowed shall be paid and allowed out of the Duties of Excise by Law imposed for or in respect of Crown Glass, Flint and Phal Glass respectively, under, subject and according to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, contained and provided in and by an Act made in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, among other things, for the Amendment of the several Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Exportation of Glass on Drawback, and except that in case and instead of the Oath required by the said Act of the Twenty sixth Year aforesaid to be made by the Exporter, that he believes the Duties upon the Materials to have been fully paid, the Exporter shall make Oath that he believes the said Glass to be entirely of British Manufacture, and that the Duties by Law imposed for or in respect of such Flint Glass, Phal Glass or Crown Glass respectively intended to be exported, to have been fully paid (and which said last mentioned Oath the proper Surveyor or Supervisor, or Officer of Excise, is hereby authorized and empowered to administer) and any Person or Persons who shall be convicted of wilfully making a false Oath, in any case in which the said last mentioned Oath is required to be taken by virtue of this Act, shall be liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures in which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

IV. And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty second Year of the said Reign, among other things, for granting an additional Drawback on Flint, Phal and Crown Glass, a Countervailing Duty of Seven Shillings and Ten pence Halfpenny is imposed for every Hundred Weight of Window Glass (not being Spread Glass) whether finished or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, made in Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain; and by the said last mentioned Act a Countervailing Duty of Sixteen Shillings and Three pence is also imposed for every Hundred Weight of Flint or Phal Glass made in Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain: And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty second Year of the said Reign, among other things, for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise on Great Britain of Glass, an additional Countervailing Duty of Two Pounds Four Shillings and Seven pence Halfpenny is imposed for every Hundred Weight of Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether finished or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain; and by the said last mentioned Act an additional Countervailing Duty of Three Pounds Five Shillings and Three pence is also imposed for every Hundred Weight of Flint Glass or Phal Glass, made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Countervailing Duties of Seven Shillings and Ten pence Halfpenny, and also Sixteen Shillings and Three pence, and also Seven Shillings and Ten pence Halfpenny, Part of the said Countervailing Duty of Two Pounds Four Shillings and Seven pence Halfpenny, and also Sixteen Shillings and Three pence, Part of the said Countervailing Duty of Three Pounds Five Shillings and Three pence: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the said recited Countervailing Duties, and Parts of Countervailing Duties, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, free and except in all cases relating to the recovering or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may on that Day remain unpaid, or in any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto.

V. And Whereas by an Act made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, among other things, for granting to His Majesty several Rates and Duties upon Glass, it was enacted, that all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who should make or cause to be made any Glass in London, or in any Parts within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, should Monthly and every Month, and all and every Person or Persons who should make or cause to be made any Glass in any other Part of Great Britain should once in every Six Weeks, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office of Excise for the said Duties, of the true Quantities of the Metals and Materials used and used in each respective Making of Glass within such Month or Six Weeks respectively, and that the Entries should be made upon Oath by the Makers of such Glass, or by their Clerk, Workman or Servant, employed in making the same, according to the best of their Knowledge and Belief, unless such Maker, Clerk, Workman or Servant should be a known Quaker, or the solemn Affirmation of such Maker, Clerk, Workman or Servant to the same Effect, in case he, she or they should be a known Quaker, should and might be taken in stead of such Oath; and the said Entries, Oaths and Affirmations to verify the same, should be made with and administered by such Persons respectively, as are in that behalf directed in and by the said Act: And Whereas the Duties for or in respect of the Materials or Metal, or other Preparations made use of in the making of Flint Glass, or Crown, Stained or Plate Glass, or Plate Glass, Spread Window Glass, commonly called or known by the Name of Broad Glass, and Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, or by the several Acts of Parliament in those cases respectively made and provided, repealed, and other Duties are by the several Acts of Parliament in that behalf imposed on Flint Glass, Plate Glass, Spread Window Glass, commonly called or known by the Name of Broad Glass and Window Glass, not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, is less of the said Duties on the Materials or Metal, or other Preparations made use of in the making of the said last mentioned several Sorts of Glass, and by an Act made in the Thirty fifth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, the Weight of the Common Bottles or other Vessels or Utensils made of Common Bottle Metal by Makers delivering such Declaration as is in the said Act in that behalf mentioned, and making the same under the Regulations by the said Act in that behalf prescribed, is to be determined and taken to be the Weight of the Materials, or Metal, or other Preparations from which such Bottles or other Vessels or Utensils respectively shall have been made; and it is therefore expedient, that in lieu of the said recited Oath or Affirmation, in so far as the same respectively related to the Materials above mentioned, such other Oath and Affirmation as hereinafter mentioned should be made: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, all and every Person or Persons whatsoever who shall make or cause to be made in London, or in any Parts within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, any Flint Glass, or Crown, Stained or Plate Glass, or Plate Glass, or any such Window Glass, or who, under the said Declaration and Regulations in that behalf prescribed by the said Act of the Thirty fifth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, shall in London, or within the said Limits, either or cause to be made any Common Bottles or other Vessels or Utensils of Common Bottle Metal, shall Monthly and every Month, and all and every Person or Persons who shall make or cause to be made any such Glass in any other Part of Great Britain shall once in every Six Weeks, in lieu and instead of the said recited Oath or Affirmation respectively, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office of Excise for the said Duties of the true Weight of all such Flint Glass, Crown, Stained or Plate Glass, or Plate Glass, and also the Weight of all such Spread Window Glass, commonly called or known by the Name of Broad Glass, and the Weight of all Window Glass not being Spread Glass, whether fused or otherwise manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glass or German Sheet Glass, and the Weight of all such Common Bottles or other Vessels or Utensils made of Common Bottle Metal respectively, made by him, her or them within each Month or Six Weeks respectively, on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect of Entry the Sum of One Hundred Pounds; which Entries shall be made upon Oath by the Makers of such Glass, or by their Clerk, Workman or Servant employed in making the same according to the best of his, her or their Knowledge and Belief, which such Maker, Clerk, Workman or Servant be a known Quaker; and the solemn Affirmations of such Maker, Clerk, Workman or Servant, to the same Effect, in case he, she or they be a known Quaker, shall and may be taken instead of such Oath; and the said Entries, Oaths and Affirmations to verify the same, shall, for such Entries, Oaths and Affirmations as shall be made within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, be made with and administered by such Officers or Officers as shall be appointed by the Commissioners of Excise in England, or the major Part of them for the time being, who shall attend at the General Excise Office in London for that Purpose; and for all such Entries, Oaths and Affirmations, as shall be made in all other Parts of Great Britain, with or by their respective Collectors or Superintendents of the District or Division within which such Glass Houses shall be situated, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded or taken for the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall be convicted of wilfully taking a false Oath or Affirmation in any case in which an Oath or Affirmation is required to be taken by virtue of this Act, shall be liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

VII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, among other things, for the Amendment of several Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, it is enacted, that the Exporter of such Glass, as in the said Act is in that behalf mentioned, shall, before the shipping the same, give such Security as in the said Act is in that behalf directed, that the particular Quantity of Glass intended to be exported, and every Part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and shall not be unshipped, unloaded or laid on Land, or put on board any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, Shroveton or other unseizable Accident excepted: And Whereas as time is by Law limited within which Glass intended for Exportation as a Drawback shall be shipped, and it is therefore expedient to make such Provision as is hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, every such Security shall be considered that the Glass, for the shipping and Exportation whereof such Security shall be given, shall be shipped within One Month next after the Date of such Security: Provided always notwithstanding, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively, on any Three or more of them, being satisfied that the shipping of such Glass, within the time specified in the Condition of any such Security, has been prevented by unseizable Accident, to grant and give such further time not exceeding Three Months for the shipping thereof: Provided also, that no such granting or giving of further time shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to amend, vary or alter the Condition of any such Security or the legal Interpretation or Effect thereof, but the same shall remain in full Force and Effect and

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to augment the Salary of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, and to enable His Majesty to grant an addition of Twenty to such Master of the Rolls on the Resignation of his Office; and to regulate the Disposal of the Offices of the Six Clerks in the Court of Chancery in Ireland.

[18th June 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that a further Augmentation should be made in the Salary of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, and that further Provision should be made for Persons holding the Office of Master of the Rolls in Ireland, in the Event of their quitting the said Office; Whereas, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be issued and paid and payable to the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, after paying and reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been decreed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may be hereafter charged upon or payable out of the said Fund, such further and additional annual Sum as shall make up the whole Salary, Fees and Pecuniary Profit, belonging to the said Office of Master of the Rolls, the annual Sum of Four thousand three hundred Pounds five and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever; to be issued and paid Quarterly, in the Manner and subject to the like Account, and to all such Provisions, Rules and Regulations, as are directed by an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of Master of the Rolls in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and for augmenting the Salary annexed to the said Office; the First Payment of such further and additional Sum to be made on the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to give and grant unto any Person who, having vacated the said Office of Master of the Rolls in Ireland, shall at any time after the passing of this Act resign the said Office, a further Annuity or yearly Sum of Six hundred Pounds Irish Currency; which said Annuity or yearly Sum shall be in addition to and in Augmentation of the Annuity or yearly Sum allowed to be given and granted to the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, under the Provisions of an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Additions to the Lord High Chancellor, and to the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Master of the Rolls, Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Exchequer, Judges or Commissioners of the Court of Probates, the Judges of the Court of Admiralty, the Chairmen of the Quarter Sessions of the County of Dublin, and Assistant Barristers of the several other Counties, on the Resignation of their respective Offices; and to amend an Act, passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for increasing the Salaries of the Chief and other Judges of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and of the Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in the Kingdom; and in like manner to commence from and after the Period when the Person to whom any such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be granted as aforesaid shall resign his said Office, and to continue from thenceforth for and during the natural Life of the Person to whom the same shall be granted as aforesaid; and every such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be issued and payable out of and shall be charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; and the said last recited Act of the Twentieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and all Clauses, Provisions and Regulations therein contained, so far as the same are applicable, and are not hereby altered, shall be in force, and be applied to carry into Effect the Purposes of this Act in respect of the said additional Annuity.

III. And Whereas the Six Clerks in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland have been accustomed at all times to fill their Offices: And Whereas it hath been customary that One Fifth Part of the Consideration of each Sale should be paid to the Use of the Master of the Rolls, or the Keepers or Guardians of the Rolls: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the further Prevention of the Sale and Brokerage of Offices, it was, among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for the Persons then holding the Offices of Six Clerks of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, so to proceed touching the Disposal and Appointment of their said Offices, in such and the like manner to all Intents and Purposes as had been accustomed; but that from and after the Death, Resignation or Removal of each of them, and the actual Appointment of any Person in the Room of the Person so dying, resigning or being removed, the Powers and Privileges of an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, against buying and selling of Offices, and of the said recited Act of the Forty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, should be applicable and applied to the Offices of Six Clerks in the said Court of Chancery: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the said recited Act of the Forty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, so far as relates to the Offices of the Six Clerks in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, it was enacted, that nothing in the said Act of the Forty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign contained, for preventing the Purchase, Sale, Exchange or Brokerage of Offices should extend to any Purchase, Sale or Exchange of any Office or Offices of a Six Clerk or Six Clerks of the Court of Chancery in Ireland: And Whereas it is expedient to make new Provision for the Appropriation of such One Fifth Part of each Purchase Money: And Whereas if such Master of the Rolls were to refuse appointing the Person who shall agree for the Purchase of such Office, without affixing

21. Provided also, and be it enacted, That before any Six Clerk shall be actually appointed in consequence of any Sale or Transfer under the Provisions of this Act, a Deed indented shall be duly executed between the Parties to the Contract for such Sale or Transfer, containing fully and truly all and every the Terms of such Contract; and that the Truth thereof shall be verified by the Affidavit of one or more Parties thereto, to be sworn before one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, and to be filed in the said Court; and that such Deed shall be sealed in the said Court, upon producing the attested Copies of such Affidavits.

C. A. P. CXV.

An Act to carry into effect a Convention made between His Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, and the Emperor of all the Russias.

[18th Janr 1815.]

Concurrence. London, 18th May 1815.

WHEREAS by a Convention signed at London on the Nineteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, between His Majesty on the One Part, and the King of the Netherlands and the Emperor of all the Russias respectively on the other, the following Articles, among others, were agreed upon; that is to say, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands thereby engaged to take upon himself a Part of the Capital, and Arraris of Interest, to the Effect of Jeaux de Banque one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, of the Russian Loan made in Holland through the Intervention of the House of Hope and Company, as Amortisation, to the Amount of Twenty five Millions of Florins Dutch Currency; the Annual Interest of which Sum together with an Annual Payment for the Liquidation of the same as therein specified, should be borne by and become a Charge upon the Kingdom of the Netherlands; and His Majesty engaged on His Part to recommend to His Parliament to enable Him to take upon Himself an equal Capital of the said Russian Loan, vide supra, Twenty five Millions of Florins Dutch Currency; the Annual Interest of which Sum, together with an Annual Payment for the Liquidation of the same, as therein specified, should be borne by and become a Charge upon the Government of His Majesty; and the future Charge to which His said Highness Majesty and His Majesty should be respectively liable in equal Shares on Account of the said Debt, was to consist of an Annual Interest of Five per Centum on the said Capitals, each of Twenty five Millions, together with a Sinking Fund of One per Centum for the Extinction of the same, the said Sinking Fund being subject however to be increased, on the Demand of the Russian Government, to any Annual Sum not exceeding Three per Centum, the same to be payable till the Capital of the said Debt should be fully discharged, when the aforesaid Charge for Interest and Sinking Fund should wholly cease to be borne by His said Highness Majesty and His Majesty respectively; and His said Highness Majesty and His Majesty respectively, bound themselves, on or before the usual Day or Days in each Year on which the Interest on the said Debt should be due and payable, to deposit with the Agent of the Russian Government in Holland, their respective Proportions of the said Interest and Sinking Fund, as above specified: Provided always, that previously to the Advance of each successive Installment to be paid, the said Agent shall be authorized to furnish a Certificate to each of the said Two High Contracting Parties, declaring that the preceding Indultment had been duly applied in Discharge of the Interest, and in Release of the Principal of the said Debt, together with the corresponding Payments on account of the said Government, on that Part of the Debt which should remain a Charge on the said Government; and it was further agreed, That the Russian Government should continue as heretofore to be Security to the Creditors for the whole of the said Loan, and should be charged with the Amortisation of the same; the Governments of the King of the Netherlands, and of His Britannic Majesty, remaining liable and bound to the Government of His Imperial Majesty, and for the Principal Discharge as above of their respective Portions of the said Charge; and it was thereby understood and agreed between the High Contracting Parties, That the said Payments on the Part of the King of the Netherlands, and of His Majesty as aforesaid, should cease and determine, should the Possession and Sovereignty (which God forbid) of the said Provinces at any time pass or be lost from the Dominions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and premises to the complete Liquidation of the same; and it was also understood and agreed between the High Contracting Parties, That the Payments on the Part of the King of the Netherlands, and of His Majesty as aforesaid, should not be interpreted in the Event (which God forbid) of a War breaking out between any of the Three High Contracting Parties, the Government of His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias being actually bound to its Creditors by a similar Agreement: And Whereas the Commons of the United Kingdom have resolved that Provision be made for enabling His Majesty to defray the Expenses which may be incurred in the Execution of the said Convention: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for Great Britain, or any Three or more of them, for the time being respectively, shall be and he and they in and be lawfully empowered from time to time, out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, to make to be issued such Sums of Money as shall be required for the Payment of the Interest on such Part of the Capital of the said Russian Loan as is agreed to be borne by His Majesty as aforesaid, and also for the Payment of a Sinking Fund of One Pound per Centum, or not exceeding Three Pounds per Centum, as the case may be, on the said Part of the said Capital, for the Extinction of the same, as and when the same may from time to time respectively become payable, and so long as the same should be payable conformably to the Tenor of His Majesty's Engagements, as specified in the said Conventions respectively, and also such Sums as may be required to pay and satisfy all the Expenses attending the Execution of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall cause to be prepared, and shall lay before both Houses of Parliament, within Twenty Days after the Commencement of every Session, an Account up to the Thirty first Day of December then next preceding, of the total Sums which shall from time to time have been issued and applied by virtue of this Act for paying and satisfying the Interest on the said Part of the said Loan as agreed to be borne by His Majesty, on all or any of the said Securities, and towards paying and satisfying the Principal thereof (in case the Principal of any of the said Securities shall then have been paid) and also for paying the Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution, and the Sinking Fund for the Extinction of the same; and such Account shall also specify how much of the said Part of the said Loan has been discharged, and how much remains to be discharged.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being, to appoint such Officers and Clerks as they may deem necessary for carrying this Act into Execution; and to grant such Salaries and Commissions to the said Officers and Clerks, for their Trouble and Labour therein, as they may think fit and reasonable in that behalf.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied or repealed, by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

East India Company in India, in any Ports in which there shall be an Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs, to register, and grant Certificates of the Registry of all Ships and Vessels built in any Territories, Counties, Islands or Places, under the Government of the East India Company, or belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, and belonging to each Port respectively, which are by the Provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them, required and entitled to be registered; and all such Officers and Persons respectively are hereby authorized and required to do every Act, Matter and Thing, in relation to such Registers and Certificates, and as to all Transfers of Property of such Ships and Vessels, and all other British registered Ships, in the said Acts required to be done by any Officers respectively of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs in Great Britain; and the said Governments of the East India Company, and all Governors and Lieutenant Governors of any Territories, Islands and Places, belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, are hereby authorized and empowered to do all Acts, Matters and Things, and make all such Orders in relation to the Registry of any such Ships or Vessels, and as to the Passes within which Ships shall before the passing of this Act may be registered, and the Ports at which any such Ships or Vessels may be registered, and as to all Matters and Things relating thereto, and to any Transfers of Property in any such Ships or Vessels, as any Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are by the said Acts or any of them authorized or empowered to do in relation to Ships and Vessels built before or after the passing of the said Act of the Twenty sixth Year aforesaid; and all Powers and Authorities given to the said Acts to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Officers of the Revenue of Customs in Great Britain respectively, in relation to the Registering of Ships and Vessels, as in any Act, Matter or Thing, relating thereto, or as to any Prerogatives or Forfeitures, or the Application thereof, and as to the fitting of any Ships or Vessels as forfeited under the said Acts for want of Certificates of Registry, shall be used, exercised, applied, enforced and put in Execution, in relation to all Ships and Vessels built in any Territories, Counties, Islands or Places, under the Government of the said East India Company, or belonging to His Majesty within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, either before or after the passing of this Act, and required and entitled to be registered under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, as fully and effectually as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act; and all such Ships and Vessels built, when registered, be deemed and taken to be British-built Ships, registered under the said recited Acts, and entitled to all the Privileges and Advantages of Ships built in the United Kingdom, and registered as such; except as in this Act hereinafter excepted.

Ships not forfeited for want of Registry, shall be returned to Port before the first day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and departed therefrom.

II. And Whereas it is necessary to give sufficient time for the Registry of Ships and Vessels, it is therefore enacted, That as such Ship or Vessel, carrying as Trade between India and the United Kingdom, or within the Limits of the Charter of the said East India Company as aforesaid, shall become forfeited, or subject to Seizure as forfeited, for want of a Certificate of Registry, until after the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, unless such Ship or Vessel built, after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and before the said First Day of July, have returned to the Port or Place to which the said Ship or Vessel shall belong, and afterwards departed from such Port without being duly registered under the Provisions of the said recited Acts.

What Ships do not require Registry.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this or the said recited Acts or in any other Acts contained, shall subject any Ship or Vessel, built or to be built within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, which shall not be of the Burthen of Three hundred and fifty Tons; or any Ship or Vessel built within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, now the Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects within the Limits aforesaid, and employed in Trade as heretofore solely within the said Limits, including the Cape of Good Hope; or any Ship or Vessel which now is or at any time before the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen shall be building within the Limits aforesaid, on account of any of His Majesty's Subjects within the said Limits, and shall be employed in Trade solely within the said Limits, including the Cape of Good Hope, to any Faculty, Forfeiture, Disability or Impediment by reason of such Ship or Vessel not being registered, and not being British-built, or to affect the Property or any Transfer of Property in any such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid which shall not be registered.

1st. Such Ships
although duly registered, as to be entitled to the Privileges of British-built Ships, shall be built in the United Kingdom
before the 25th of March
1816.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Ships or Vessels, built in any Counties, Territories, Ports or Places under the Government of the East India Company, or belonging to His Majesty within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, and registered under the Authority of this Act as British-built, and owned by Subjects of His Majesty, and navigated according to Law, shall be entitled to the Privileges of British-built Ships, owned, registered and navigated according to Law, in any Voyages or Trade beyond the Limits of the said Company's Charter, other than except such as are specified in an Act, passed in the Fifth third Year of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter; and in another Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company; any thing in this Act, or in any or either of the said recited Acts, or in any other Act or Acts in Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.*

14 G. 3. c. 34.

No British-built Ships registered.

V. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed in any manner to affect the Privileges of any Ship or Vessel not registered as British-built, or to affect the Rights of any Ship or Vessel now built or building to Registry as British-built.

Lafans and No
term of Indent

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Affairs Sailors, Lafans or Natives of any of the Territories, Counties, Islands or Places within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company, although born in Territories, Countries, Islands or Places under the Government of His Majesty, or of the East India Company, shall at any time be deemed or taken to be British Sailors, Seamen or Mariners, within the Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act of the Thirty fourth Year aforesaid, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Navigation of British Ships by Subjects of His Majesty, for the Purpose of counting any Ship or Vessel to be deemed to be a British Ship, assigned according to Law, and to have the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships, having the Master and Three fourths of the Mariners British Subjects; any thing in the said recited Act of the Thirty fourth Year aforesaid, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Ship or Vessel belonging to any Port within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, or usually navigated by such African Sailors, Lascars or Natives aforesaid, as Mariners, shall, while carrying on Trade to and from India to the United Kingdom, forfeit any Privileges or Advantages of a British-built Ship, to which the may be by Law entitled, by reason of having any Proportion of such Mariners, without the due Proportion of British Mariners, until the Expiration of Twelve Months of continued Peace after the Conclusion of the present War: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, upon or after the Commencement of any Hostilities, to permit all Merchant Ships, or any other Trading Vessels, and all Privateers, to be manned wholly, or in any such Proportions as shall be specified in any such Proclamations, with such African Sailors, Lascars or Natives aforesaid, for and during such Periods as shall be specified in any such Proclamation as aforesaid.

VII. And Whereas Lascars, and other Natives of the East, are not deemed to be equal in Strength and Use to Europeans or other Seamen; and the requiring the Proportion of Three fourths of British Seamen, in Ships having, as Part of the Crew, Lascars and Natives of the East, would exempt such Ships to carry a larger Number of British Seamen than other Ships, or to employ a smaller Number of Lascars and Natives of the East, than would be sufficient to make a proper Crew: Be it therefore enacted, That every such Ship or Vessel, in fully registered, and carrying on Trade to and from India to the United Kingdom as aforesaid, and Manned in Part with Lascars or Natives of India, and which shall be commanded by a British Master, and navigated by Seven British Seamen as Part of the Crew, for every One hundred Tons of her registered Burthen, and is in Proportion for any Part of a One hundred Tons, shall be deemed, construed and taken to be navigated according to Law, as to the Crew of any such Ship or Vessel, although the Number of such British Seamen shall not be equal to the Proportion of Three fourths of the whole Crew of such Ship or Vessel; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And Whereas it may not always be possible to procure the due Proportion of British Seamen, at Ports in India, for Vessels sailing from India: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of the Governments of the East India Company in India, or for any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any Colony, Territory or Island, belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits of the said Charter, and they and he are hereby required, an Application made by the Owner or Commander of any Ship or Vessel, and after having ascertained, by due Enquiry, that a sufficient Number of British Seamen cannot be procured for the Crew of any Ship or Vessel sailing from India, within Two Days from such Application to certify the same, and licence such Ship or Vessel to sail with a less Proportion of British Seamen than required by Law; and every such Ship, having on board such Licence, shall be deemed to be navigated according to Law, notwithstanding such Deficiency of British Seamen, until her Arrival at the Port of her Destination in the United Kingdom; but shall, on the Voyage back from the United Kingdom, have the full and proper Proportion of Seven British Seamen to every One hundred Tons.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to require any Number of British Seamen to be on board, as Part of the Crew or Mariners of any Ship or Vessel employed in Trade only between Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company including the Cape of Good Hope; or to prevent any such Ship or Vessel, while so employed, being manned and navigated wholly or in any Proportion as in African Sailors, or Lascars, or Natives of any Territories, Countries, Islands or Places, within the Limits of the said Company.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. CXVII.

An Act to permit, until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, the Importation into Great Britain and Ireland, in Neutral Vessels from States in Amity with His Majesty, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize; and to prohibit the Exportation of Copper; and to permit the Importation, in Neutral Vessels from States not in Amity with His Majesty, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize. [28th June 1815.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to permit, during the Continuance of Hostilities, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation into Great Britain and Ireland in Neutral Vessels, from States in Amity with His Majesty, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize;" and to empower His Majesty, by Order in Council, to prohibit the Exportation of Copper, and to permit the Importation in Neutral Vessels, from States not in Amity with His Majesty, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize: And Whereas it is expedient that in such of the said Act as permits the Importation into Great Britain and Ireland, in Neutral Vessels from States in Amity with His Majesty, of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandize in this Act

* enacted, should be continued' Be it therefore enacted, by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Person to import into any Port or Place in Great Britain all Sorts of Wool, and also Cotton Wool; and to export into that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, all Sorts of Barilla, Mesta Bark, Linnæa Yarn, Hops, Indigo, Cocchine, Wool and Cotton Wool, from any Country or Place whatsoever, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, navigated by Foreign Seamen; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import or bring into the United Kingdom from any Port or Place in Amity with His Majesty, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, Organized Thrown Silk, of the Growth or Production of Italy; any thing contained in an Act made in England in the Second Year of the Reign of their late Majesty King William and Queen Mary, intituled An Act for discouraging the Importation of Thrown Silk, or in any other Act or Acts in force in the United Kingdom or in Great Britain, or Ireland respectively, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend to give Liberty to import any Italian Thrown Silk that shall be counter to a San thereof known and distinguished by the Name of Thor's Brand, nor any Sorts of Silks commonly called Tram of the Growth of Italy, nor any other Thrown Silks of the Growth or Production of Turkey, Persia, East India, or China, under the Penalty of forfeiting all such Thrown Silk as shall be brought over, and exported contrary to the Purport, true Intent and Meaning of this Act; One Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall seize, inform or sue for the same; to be recovered in such Manner and Form as Goods forfeited may be recovered by any Law relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Customs in Great Britain and Ireland respectively.

III. And, for the better and more effectual Execution of this Act, and to prevent the Importation of any Sort of Thrown Silk not Organized, be it further enacted and declared, That all such Organized Thrown Silk as is allowed to be imported by this Act, if landed in any Port of Great Britain, shall be brought to His Majesty's Custom House at London, to the intent that no other Sort of Thrown Silk may be imported than that allowed by this Act, under the Penalty of forfeiting all such Thrown Silk as shall be imported contrary to the Purport, true Intent and Meaning of this Act; One Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall seize, inform or sue for the same; to be recovered in such Manner and Form as Goods forfeited may be recovered by any Law relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Customs in Great Britain and Ireland respectively; any thing herein contained to the contrary hereof in any wife notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into the United Kingdom any Sort of Flax or Flax Seed in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated by Foreign Seamen, from any Port or Place whatsoever, upon the same Terms and Conditions, and subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, in any respect, as such Flax and Flax Seed would by any Law in force in the United Kingdom, or in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, have been subject and liable to if the same had been imported in Foreign Ships or Vessels of the Bank of the Country or Place of which such Flax or Flax Seed was the Growth, Production or Manufacture; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in the United Kingdom, or in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons admitted into and made free of the Company of Merchants of England, trading into the Levant Seas, commonly called or known by the Name of The Turkey Company, to import into the United Kingdom any Goods or Commodities which have heretofore usually been imported from Turkey or Egypt, or from any Place within the Dominions of the Grand Signior within the Levant Seas, in any Ship or Vessel built up or belonging to Great Britain or Ireland navigated according to Law, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated by Foreign Seamen, from any Port or Place whatsoever, upon Payment of the same Duties if imported in British or Irish-built Ships, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported in Dutch or French-built Ships directly from the Place of their Growth, Production or Manufacture, but if such Goods shall be imported in any Foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then and in such case the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Duties which such Goods would have been subject and liable to if this Act had not been made; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in the United Kingdom, or in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Entry shall be allowed to pass in any Custom House in the United Kingdom, for any such Goods of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Turkey or Egypt, or of any of the Dominions of the Grand Signior, as, before the passing of the last recited Act of the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, might be imported only from such Ports or Places in the Strait of Levant Seas as are within the Dominions of the Grand Signior, or for any Drugs which would have been liable to the Payment of higher Duties when not imported directly from the Place of their Growth or Production, and which by the Authority of this Act are permitted to be imported in manner aforesaid, until the Person importing or sending the same shall produce to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain and to the proper Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, at the Port of of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Duties for the said Turkey Company, certifying that such Person is free of the said Company, and that he has paid the Duties imposed on such Goods by the said Company, and has conformed in all respects to the Rules and Regulations of the said Company relative thereto: Provided always, that all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, of the Produce of Countries within the Levant Sea imported into Great Britain under the Authority of this Act, shall be subject and liable to the Duties payable to the Levant Company in like manner as if such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, had been imported into Great Britain directly from Turkey.

Permits for Duties.

VII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That all such Goods as shall in pursuance of this Act be imported into the United Kingdom in any Foreign Ship or Vessel shall be subject and liable to all Duties in the same manner as they would be liable to by Law, if such Ships were of the Built of the Country of which the Goods are of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture.

Goods imported

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, when so imported as aforesaid, shall be liable to all Duties of Customs and Excise, and shall be subject to all Rules, Regulations and Conditions, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, to which they would have been liable and subject if they had been imported into Great Britain or Ireland, according to any Law or Laws in force at the time of the passing of this Act.

IX. And Whereas the Public Safety may require temporary Restrictions upon the Exportation of Copper: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Proclamation or Order in Council, and in Ireland for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, and the Privy Council of Ireland, by Proclamation or Order in Council, whenever it shall from expedient to prohibit the Exportation of all Copper capable of being converted into a Naval Store, from any Port or Place within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to any Port or Place within the Limits of Europe.

Exportation of
hibited.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful by Order in Council, or by License to be signed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, under the Authority of an Order in Council for that Purpose, and in Ireland for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, and the Privy Council of Ireland, by Order in Council, from time to time, when and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to permit any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize as shall be specified in any such Order or License, to be imported from any Port or Place belonging to any Kingdom or State not in Amity with His Majesty, in Ships belonging to the Subjects of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty; any Law now in force in the United Kingdom or in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. CXVIII.

An Act to regulate the Clearance of Vessels, and Delivery of Coast Bonds, at Creeks and Harbours in Great Britain; for exempting certain Ships and Vessels from being licensed by the Commissioners of Customs (a); for authorizing Officers of the Customs to seize Spirits (b) removing without Excise Permits; and for preventing Frauds in overhauling Keels and other Carriages used in conveying Coals for Exportation, or to be carried Coastwise. [28th June 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to permit the Entry Inwards and Clearance Outwards, at Creeks, Harbours and Basins of Great Britain, of Ships and Vessels in the Fish Trade, which intend to land and discharge their Cargoes at such Creeks; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England for the time being, or any Four or more of them, or the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, or any Three or more of them, whenever and so long as they may deem it proper, to permit Ships or Vessels arriving from Ireland to enter Inwards at such Creeks, Harbours or Basins of Great Britain, where a principal Coast Officer or Comptroller, or other principal Officer of the Customs, shall have been appointed and stationed, and before when it shall be lawful for the Master of any such Ship or Vessel to make Oath (which Oath they are hereby authorized and required to administer) of the Bulk, Batches, Contents and Lading of such Ship or Vessel, with the particular Marks, Numbers and Contents of every Parcel of Goods on board such Ship or Vessel, without of proceeding to the regular Customs House of the Port to which such Creeks, Harbours and Basins belong, for that Purpose; and also to do at any such Creek, Harbour or Basin, every Act, Manner and Thing, in relation thereto, conformably to the Laws in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, under and subject to such and the like Penalties and Forfeitures as such Entries upon Oath are now by Law required to be made, openly in the Customs House, before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs of the Port to which such Creeks, Harbours and Basins belong.

Commissioners may permit

that Purposes; and to make Oath before them [which Oath they are hereby authorized and required to administer] to the Truth of the Content of any such Ship or Vessel; and the Master thereof is hereby required to answer such Questions concerning such Ship or Vessel, and the Voyage on which he is about to proceed, as shall be demanded of him by the said principal Custom Officer and Comptroller, or other principal Officers of the Customs, under and subject to the like Penalties as are provided in such cases by the Laws in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, in respect to such Oaths and Questions as are so required to be taken and answered before the Collector, or other Chief Officers of the Port to which such Creek, Harbours or Basins belong.

III. And Whereas Ships and Vessels employed in the Coasting Trade of this Kingdom frequently take to their Lading at Creeks, Harbours, Basins and other Out Stations, where there are no Officers of the Customs authorized to take the Coast Bond required by Law, and great Inconvenience has arisen to the Merchants and Traders, and to the Masters of such Ships and Vessels in consequence thereof: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any Four of them, and the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, or any Three or more of them, whenever it shall appear to them to be necessary and proper for the Relief and Accommodation of the Coasting Trade of this Kingdom, to authorize and require any Officer or Officers of the Customs stationed at any Creek, Harbour, Basin or Out Station of Great Britain, at which any Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Passengers, may be shipped, in order to be carried Coastwise within the same, to take the Coast Bond or Transits, or other Documents required to be given for the Clearance of such Vessels, and for the Delivery and Discharge of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Passengers, to the Port or Place for which the same shall have been entered, or in some other Port or Place in Great Britain, as the case may be; and for returning to the proper Officers of the Customs of the Port where such Bond or Transits, or other Documents, shall have been given, the Certificate or other Document which in any such case may be required to be produced to them from the Officers of the Customs of the Port, Harbour or Creek, Harbour or Basin, where such Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Passengers, were there loaded and discharged accordingly; and every Coast Bond, or Transit, or other Document, takes by and in the Presence of any such Officer, shall be deemed and taken to be as valid and official, as if taken and Purposes, as if taken at the Custom House, by and in the Presence of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs for the Port to which such Creek, Harbour, Basin or Out Station may belong or appertain; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IV. And Whereas it is expedient to permit the Navigation of square rigged Ships and Vessels exceeding the Burthen of Two hundred Tons, and other Ships and Vessels of her Majesty's Coastwise, without requiring the Owners thereof to take out Licences for that Purpose from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs in England, Scotland or Ireland: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Licence shall be required from the Commissioners of the Customs in England, Scotland or Ireland, for navigating any square rigged Ship or Vessel exceeding the Burthen of Two hundred Tons by Admeasurement, nor for any Ship or Vessel the Breadth whereof is not less than in the Proportion of One Foot to every Three Feet and in Half of the Length of such Ship or Vessel, nor for any Ship or Vessel where the Difference between the Draught of Water forward and aft shall not be greater than in the Proportion of One Inch for every Foot of the Breadth thereof, such Draught of Water forward and aft being ascertained when the Ship or Vessel is light loaded or in sailing Trim, and when the Bow-sprit is run out in such such Ship or Vessel shall have a running or sliding Bow-sprit, and no such Ship or Vessel shall be deemed liable to Seizure or Forfeiture under any Act of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, on Account of her Length, Ballast, Construction, Diminution or Description: Provided nevertheless, that if such Ship or Vessel shall be intended to be armed for Resistance, or to be navigated with any greater Number of Men than is allowed by Law in Proportion to the Number of Tons of her Admeasurement, or shall require to be licensed on any other Account; nothing in this Act contained shall exempt the Owner and Owners of every such Ship and Vessel from taking out a Licence for the Navigation thereof in the same manner as if this Act had not been made.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Licence which shall have been already granted, either by the Commissioners of the Customs of England, Scotland or Ireland, or by the Lord High Admiral, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, for the Navigation of any Ship or Vessel except such being licensed under the Provisions of this Act, shall be delivered up to the Collector of the Customs at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel shall belong, within the Periods hereafter mentioned; that is to say, if such Ship or Vessel was licensed for the Coasting or Fishing Trade only, such Licence shall be delivered up to the Collector of the Customs at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel shall belong, within the Period of Two Months from and after the passing of this Act; or in case the said Ship or Vessel was licensed for trading to Parts beyond the Seas, then the said Licence shall be delivered up to the Collector of the Customs at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel shall belong, within Six Months from and after the passing of this Act; or if such Ship or Vessel shall then be in Sea, such Licence may be delivered up at any time within Two Months from and after the Period of her first Arrival at any Port of Great Britain or Ireland, as the case may be; or in case the Licence shall have been lost or taken by the Enemy, satisfactory Proof thereof on Oath shall within the next Periods respectively be made before the Collector or Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel shall belong, which Oath they are hereby authorized and required to administer, and in such such Licence shall not be produced and be delivered up, and no such Proof shall be made within the said Periods respectively, the Owner and Owners, and also the Master of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds if of the Burthen of Fifty Tons and under the Burthen of One hundred and fifty

C A P. CXX.

An Act to provide for the taking an Account of the Population of Ireland, and for the ascertaining the Increase or Diminution thereof.

[28th June 1815.]

WHETHERAS it is expedient to make Provision for the taking an Account of the Total Number of Persons from time to time within that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such Persons as shall be for that Purpose appointed in the manner hereinafter mentioned to take the Accounts required by this Act, shall, at the times and in the manner hereinafter directed, severally take an Account of the Number of Persons who shall be actually found, at the time of taking such Accounts, to be within the Limits of the several Parishes and Places within the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Towns, in Ireland respectively, according to the Provision in this Act contained.

II. And, for the more speedy and effectually obtaining of such Accounts, be it further enacted, That a sufficient Number of printed Copies of this Act shall from time to time be delivered by His Majesty's Printer in Ireland, to an Officer to be appointed by the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and which Officer said Chief Secretary is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint, for digesting and arranging the several Returns to be made pursuant to this Act, whenever the said Printer shall be required by the said Officer, and the said printed Copies shall, by the said Officer, be transmitted to the several Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks of the several and respective Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns in Ireland; and Schedules of Instructions for carrying this Act into Execution, and Forms of the several Accounts and Returns required to be made by this Act, and of the Attestation of such Accounts and Returns, and of and for all other Matters and Things requisite for the Purpose of fully carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act, shall be prepared by the said Officer under the Direction of such Chief Secretary; and printed Copies of such Instructions and Forms shall be transmitted by such Officer to be appointed by such Chief Secretary, to the Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks in every County, County of a City and County of a Town in Ireland, who shall distribute the same to the Chairman or Assistant Burdett in every County at large, and to the Recorder of every County of a City and County of a Town, and to the several Magistrates assembled in Sessions for the several Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns in Ireland respectively, and under their Direction to the several Persons to be appointed to carry this Act into effect in the several Parishes and Places in Ireland, in manner hereinafter mentioned; and the said Officer is to be appointed by such Chief Secretary, shall from time to time communicate with the said Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks, and with such Chairman, Assistant Burdett, Recorder and Magistrates when necessary, in furtherance of the Purposes of this Act; and the said several Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks shall and they are hereby required to acknowledge the Receipt of this Act, and the said Schedule of Instructions, and other Forms; and shall with all convenient Speed cause the said Act, and the said Schedule of Instructions and other Forms, to be distributed in manner directed by this Act, within their respective Limits.

CAP. CXXI.

An Act to amend and to make an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His present Majesty, for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges made in Scotland for the Purpose of Military Communications, and for making more effectual Provision for maintaining and repairing Roads made and Bridges built in Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges made in Scotland for the Purpose of Military Communications; and for making more effectual Provision for maintaining and repairing Roads made and Bridges built in Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, which requires to be amended and explained in some Respects: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in place of saying Three Fourths of the Money expended in repairing and keeping in Repair the Roads and Bridges in any County described in the said recited Act in the manner therein directed, it shall and may be lawful for the Freeholders of any County, excepting the County of Jersey, at the ensuing Affricshire Head Court, or at any Meeting of the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply, which shall be held in any County for this special Purpose within Two Months thereafter, to order and direct the way and manner in which such Affricshire Head and may be made and levied during the Continuance of the said recited Act, in each County, in each and every Year, either separately or along with any other Affricshire in each County: Provided always, that any Affricshire for the Purposes of the said recited Act shall be borne and defrayed by the several Counties of Jersey, Guj, Sutherland and Caithness respectively, and not by any particular District or Districts within each County.

II. And be it enacted, That a Copy of the Order thereupon to be made, signed by the Preses of such Affricshire Head Court or Meeting, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Clerk of the Commissioners of Supply of each County, and the same shall be laid by the Clerk of Supply before the next Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply which shall be held thereafter, and from and after the Receipt of such Order, the Commissioners of Supply of each County are hereby directed to proceed accordingly.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That unless and until such Order shall have been made and transmitted as herein directed, the Commissioners of Supply shall make the Affricshire in the manner directed by the said recited Act.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in each such Order shall be transmitted to the Clerk of Supply of any County, before an Affricshire shall have been made, in the manner directed by the said recited Act, for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of any County to assemble, upon Twenty Days' Notice from their Clerk, which he is required to give, for the Purpose of making an Affricshire, or otherwise providing the Sum due for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the way and manner directed in each Order; provided that Six Months' Interest, at the Rate of Five Pennies per Centum per Annum, be added to the Amount of the Sum due, and be therewith transmitted to the said Parliamentary Commissioners, or their Agent at Edinburgh, in manner directed by the said recited Act.

V. And be it enacted, That every Royal Burgh and Burgh of Regality shall be affricsh with the County in which it is situated for the Purposes of the said recited Act; provided nevertheless, that in making such Affricshments regard shall be had to an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for affricshing the Proprietors of Lands in the County of Roxburgh, and such Parts of the Counties of Cromarty and Nairn as lie in the said County of Roxburgh, towards the Expense of making and supporting such Roads and Bridges therein as shall be approved of by the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for making Roads and building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; also, to an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for affricshing the Proprietors of Lands in the County of Inverness, towards the Expense of making and supporting such Roads and Bridges therein as shall be approved of by the Commissioners appointed by an Act of the last Session of Parliament for making Roads and building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; and also, to an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for continuing, altering and enlarging the Powers of so much of an Act of His present Majesty as relates to making effectual the Secret Land in the Shire of Inverness, and levying a Contribution of Money in lieu thereof, and otherwise regulating, making and repairing Highways and Bridges in the said Shire; and all Purposes and Parts of Purposes, and Places, and Lands, and Estates, mentioned in the said Three recited Acts shall be affricsh for the Purposes of the said recited Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in the same manner that such Purposes, Parts of Purposes, Places, Lands and Estates are directed to be affricsh for the Purposes of the said Three recited Acts.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the due Proportion of the Money expended in the repairing the Roads and Bridges described in the said recited Act, shall be raised in every Year in every County in which an Affricshire is directed to be made by the said recited Act, and shall be transmitted to the said Parliamentary Commissioners, or their Agent at Edinburgh, as therein required.

VII. And Whereas it is provided by the said recited Act, that the Sum of Affricshire to be levied in any Year in any County, shall not be higher than the Rate of Three Half-pennies in the Pound upon the

* Rents and Profits affixed to the Property Tax in each County, under Schedule (A.) of an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War, and until the Sixth Day of April next after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rates and Duties in Great Britain, in the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for repealing certain Parts of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Contribution on the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and to establish and render more efficient the Provisions for collecting the said Duties: And Whereas the Commissioners of Supply of any County are empowered to appoint a fit Person to be a Surveyor and Clerks, or other Officers, as they shall think necessary for the due Execution of the said recited Act, with such Salaries or Allowances as the said Commissioners of Supply shall think fit: And Whereas in Counties where the Assessment amounts to the Sum of Three Half-pence in the Pound upon the Rents and Profits affixed to the Property Tax as aforesaid, the Expense of such Surveyors, Clerks and Officers, is then thrown upon the said Parliamentary Commissioners, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted, That the Salaries and Allowances of such Surveyors, Clerks and Officers, shall in all cases be borne and defrayed by the County or Counties in which they are appointed respectively, except in so far as the Commissioners appointed for the Purposes of the said recited Act shall think fit to permit.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said recited Act shall have Effect and remain in force in all respects, except in so far as regards the Alterations made by this present Act.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty, for vesting in His Majesty certain Parts of Windsor Forest, in the County of Berks; and for inclosing the Open Commonable Lands within the said Forest. [28th Jan 1815.]

22 G. 3. c. 25. WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for vesting in His Majesty certain Parts of Windsor Forest, in the County of Berks; and for inclosing the Open Commonable Lands within the said Forest; and some of the Provisions of the said Act require to be amended: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and all and every Person and Persons entitled to any Timber or other Trees standing and being on any of the Waste Lands intended to be inclosed by the said recited Act, at any time within the Period of Twelve Calendar Months after the Date of the Award directed by the said Act to be made by John Nash and John Davis, Commissioners named and appointed in and by the said recited Act, or their Successors, instead of within the Space of Two Years from the passing of the said Act, as in the said Act is directed, to sell, cut down, grub up, remove, fell and dispose of such Timber and other Trees, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, and the said John Nash and John Davis, and their Successors, are hereby required and directed to make and execute their said Award within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months from and after the passing of this Act, in the same Manner and Form and under the like Regulations in all respects as in the said recited Act is directed.

33 G. 3. c. 15. II. And Whereas it would greatly tend to the Improvement of the Estates and Property belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits of the said Forest, in His private CapACITY, if the Powers in the said recited Act contained, in relation to the Sale or Exchange of Allotments made to His Majesty in Right of such Estates, were extended to all such Estates and Property: Be it therefore enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities, Provisions and Regulations in the said recited Act contained, for authorizing the Commissioners therein mentioned and named and appointed by the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to sell or exchange any Allotment or Allotments of Waste Land made to His Majesty under the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, shall extend and be construed to extend to authorize, empower and enable the said last mentioned Commissioners to sell or exchange all or any of the Messuages, Cottages, Timber, Orchards, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments whatsoever, belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits and Boundaries of the said Forest as His Majesty's Private Property, so as the said Commissioners shall deem any such Sales or Exchanges to be expedient and beneficial to the Estate of His Majesty; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make any such Sales or Exchanges under the Powers, Authorities and Regulations in the said Act contained in relation to Allotments, in the same manner in every respect as if such Powers, Authorities and Regulations were hereby repeated and re-enacted, and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Messuages, Cottages, Timber, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments had been included in the said recited Act; and the said Act and this Act shall for that Purpose be construed together as One Act.

34 G. 3. c. 15. III. And Whereas it hath been found that the specific Allotments required and directed by the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to be given to His Majesty, do in some Partishes exceed the proportionate Share of Nine Thirty Seconds intended to be given to His Majesty under the same Act, as far as relates to the Waste as such Partishes, and no Provision is contained in the said Act for making Compensation to such Partishes: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said John Nash and John Davis, and their Successors, and they are hereby required to ascertain the Amount and Value of such Excess in every such Partish as aforesaid, and the respective Amounts of the Value of such Excess shall thereupon be paid paid to the respective Parishes entitled thereto, out of any Money to be raised under the Provisions of the said last mentioned Act, by the Sale of any Lands authorized by the said Act to be sold for the Payment of the Expenses of inclosing the Lands and Allotments which are by the said Act given to or may be awarded to His Majesty; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Commissioners in all such cases to mark out for Sale any additional Quantity of such Lands for the Purpose of raising the Amount of such Compensation to such Parishes respectively as aforesaid; and the Amount of the Value of every such Estate in each Parish shall be paid to the Commissioners or Commissioners under the said Act for the Parish for which the Compensation shall be given, and shall by such Commissioners or Commissioners respectively be applied in the Payment of any Expenses already incurred or which may hereafter be incurred in the Execution of the said Act in such Parish by the said Commissioners respectively in the respective Parishes, or their Clerks, or any Surveyors or Assistants, or in any other Costs or Charges incident to or incurred in the Execution of the said Act, and the Overplus, if any, shall be divided among the Proprietors of Estates in the Parish for which the Compensation is paid, in Proportion to their several legal Rights of Common therein, and shall be included in the Award of the Commissioners or Commissioners of such respective Parishes: Provided always, that the Sale of all Lands for the Purposes aforesaid shall be made in such Manner and Form and under such Regulations in all respects as are mentioned and preferred in and by the said Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of the said recited Act respectively, or as may therein or as the circumstances of any Sales to be made in pursuance of this Act will admit.

IV. And Whereas it is enacted by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty that certain Parts of the Waste of the said Forest therein particularly mentioned and described should be allotted to His Majesty; and it is expedient that Power should be given to include the said several Allotments, and such other Allotments to be made to His Majesty as may adjoin or be contiguous therein, previous to the Execution of the Award to be made by the said John Nash and John Davis, or their Successors, as by the said recited Act is directed: Be it therefore enacted, That where the said Allotments is directed to be made to His Majesty by the said last mentioned Act, and such other Allotment or Allotments as may adjoin or be contiguous therein, shall have been made and set out to and for His Majesty, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, immediately or at any time thereafter to include from time to time the said several Allotments, and to continue the same so inclosed, freed and discharged of and from all Common Rights of what nature or kind soever, although the said John Nash and John Davis or their Successors may not have made or executed their said Award in relation thereto at the respective Periods when such Inclosures shall be so made.

An Act to amend an Act of His late Majesty King George the Second, for the Relief of the Out Pensioners of the Royal Hospital at Chilston.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the Relief of the Out Pensioners of the Royal Hospital at Chilston: And Whereas the Payment in Advance to Out Pensioners under the said recited Act has, through the Imprecision of such Provisions, been found to produce great Inconvenience, and it is therefore expedient that the said Act should be amended in relation to such Payments: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as requires that Payments shall be made to Out Pensioners of the remaining Number of Days of the current Half Year upon Admission and thereafter in Advance in Half-yearly Payments, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

11. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Chilston Hospital to make such Regulations in relation to the Payment in Advance to Out Pensioners, upon their first Admission on the Pension List, of any of such Proportions of their Pensions at the time of Admission as the said Commissioners shall see fit, and for the Payment of the Residue of such Pensions for the current Quarter upon the Arrival of Pensioners at their Places of Residence, as shall in the Judgment of the said Commissioners appear best adapted to prevent the immoderate Expenditure of such Pensioners, and the consequent Distress of such Pensioners; and the said Commissioners are hereby further authorized and directed to make all subsequent Payments of such Pensions by Quarterly Payments in Advance instead of by Half-yearly Payments; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

if in Scotland.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, or any Person interested therein, shall be dissatisfied with the Verdict of any such Jury, it shall be lawful for them or their Attorneys in England and Ireland to apply to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster or Dublin respectively in the Term next, and in Scotland to apply within Fourteen Days after the finding any such Verdict to the Court of Session in Session in case of Session, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills in time of Vacations, and to suggest to the said Courts or Lord Ordinary respectively, that they have reason to be dissatisfied with such Verdict, and forthwith give Notice thereof to the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners or Party, as the case may be, and thereupon in England and Ireland the Proceedings that shall have been had and the Verdict of such Jury shall be returned into the said Courts of Exchequer respectively; and if it shall appear to the said Courts to be proper, a Writ shall be entered on such Proceedings as aforesaid, and a Writ shall thereupon by Rule of such Court or Order of any Judge of such Court be directed to the Sheriff of the County where such Lands or Hereditaments shall be, or if the first shall be in Two Counties, to the Sheriff of either of such Counties, to wit, either a Common or Special Jury, according to the Application that shall have been made on that behalf, and as the Court or as such Judge shall allow, and who shall respectively be qualified according to Law, to appear before the said Judge or Judges of Assize or Nisi Prius of that County at the next Assizes orittings of Nisi Prius, if the issue shall not happen sooner than Twenty one Days after such suggestion, otherwise at the next succeeding Assizes orittings; and the Compensation to be paid either for the absolute Purchase or for the Possession or Use of such Lands or Hereditaments, as the case shall be, shall at such Assizes orittings be ascertained by such Jury, in like manner as any Damages may be enquired of upon any Inquisition or Enquiry of Damages by any Jury before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, and the Verdict of such Jury shall be returned to the said Court of Exchequer, and shall be final and conclusive; and in Scotland, if it shall appear proper to the said Court of Session or Lord Ordinary upon such Application to do so, the said Court or Lord Ordinary shall order and direct the Sheriff of the County where such Lands or Hereditaments shall be, or if the case shall be in Two Counties, the Sheriff of either of such Counties, to summon another Jury in the manner in which Juries are summoned in Scotland, properly qualified according to Law, to appear before the Lords or Lord of Justiciary at the next Circuit, if the issue shall not happen sooner than Twenty one Days after such Application, otherwise at the next succeeding Circuit; and the Compensation to be awarded for the Lands or Hereditaments, as the case may be, shall at such Circuit be ascertained by a Jury drawn from the Jury summoned as aforesaid, in such manner as Juries are drawn in Scotland, under the Direction of the said Lords or Lord of Justiciary as aforesaid, and the Verdict of such last mentioned Jury shall be final and conclusive, without being subject to Review or Challenge of any Kind, unless the Court that shall have allowed such Enquiry shall think fit, on any Application made within Four Days after the Commencement of the succeeding Term or Session, if in Scotland, to order any new Trial in relation thereto.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Jury impanelled before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, or before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, to ascertain the Compensation to be paid for any Lands or Hereditaments under this Act, and they are hereby required to ascertain and settle the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation to any Person or Persons having any Interest as Lessees or Tenants in Will or otherwise, in any such Lands or Hereditaments, and the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation shall be returned on the Verdict: Provided also, that where any such Enquiry before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Lords or Lord of Justiciary, shall be had on the Application of any such Lessee or Tenant in Will, or other Person having any inferior Interest in any such Lands or Hereditaments, who may have been dissatisfied with the Proportion of Compensation settled by the Jury to be paid in respect of such Interest, it shall not be lawful for the Jury in any such case to alter the Amount of the entire Compensation awarded by any former Verdict to be paid for such Lands or Hereditaments, but only the Proportion thereof to be paid to the Person or Persons having separate Interest therein; and it shall not be lawful for any Jury on any Enquiry had before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius or Lords or Lord of Justiciary, as to any such Compensation, on the Application of the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, in any case in which the whole Compensation awarded by the former Jury, to alter the Proportion that shall have been settled by any such former Jury as to any separate Interest in any such Lands or Hereditaments.

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge or Lord Ordinary, making any such Rule or Order, to require that the Party or whole Application the same shall be made, shall give such Security as shall to such Court, Judge or Lord Ordinary seem proper for Payment of Costs under such Circumstances as shall be specified in any Rule or Order made for that Purpose.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Lands or Hereditaments shall have been taken under the Provisions of this Act, for any Term of Years or for such Period only as the Public Service shall require, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, or any other Person or Persons as aforesaid, at any time before the Possession of any Lands or Hereditaments which shall have been taken for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be delivered up to the Owner or Owners thereof, or other Person or Persons sitting on his, her or their behalf, as take down and remove all such Buildings or other Erections which shall or may have been built or erected thereon for the Public Service, and to carry away the Materials thereof, making such Compensation to the Owner or Owners of such Lands or Hereditaments, or other Person or Persons sitting on his, her or their behalf, for the Damage or Injury which may have been done thereon, or to the Soil thereof, by the Erection of any such Buildings, or removing and carrying away the same, or otherwise, in consequence of the same having been occupied for the Public Service, as the said Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral or such other Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid shall think reasonable, and as shall be agreed upon in that behalf, and if such Owner or Owners or other Person or Persons sitting on his, her or their behalf, shall not be willing to accept the Compensation so offered, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, or other Person or Persons so authorized as aforesaid, to apply to and require Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Striety, City or Place, to settle and ascertain the Compensation which ought to be made for such Damage or Injury as aforesaid; and such Justices shall settle and ascertain the same accordingly, and shall give a Certificate thereof, and the Amount of such Compensation is settled and ascertained and certified shall forthwith be paid by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, to the Person or Persons entitled thereto: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to alter, prejudice or affect any Agreement which hath been or shall be

And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Money shall have been or shall be agreed or shall have been or shall be found by the Verdict of any Jury to be paid or given either for the Use or for the absolute Purchase of any Lands or Hereditaments taken by virtue of this Act, belonging to any Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, or not having the absolute Interest therein, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, into the Hands of the Deputy of The King's Remembrancer of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Windsor, Edinburgh or Dublin respectively, for the time being, for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons who is hereby authorized and required to receive or accept and to give a Discharge for the same, and upon the Acceptance or Receipt thereof to sign a Certificate to the Baron or Judges of the said Courts of Exchequer respectively under his Hand, purporting and signifying that such Money or other Consideration was received or accepted by and paid to him in pursuance of this Act, for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons who shall be named and described in such Certificate, and the said Certificate shall be filed or deposited in the said Court of Exchequer at Windsor, Edinburgh or Dublin respectively, and a true Copy thereof signed by the Deputy Remembrancer of such Court shall and may be read and allowed as Evidence for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and the said Deputy Remembrancer is hereby required upon Receipt of any such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, to pay the same into the Bank of England, or Bank of Scotland or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of Ireland, as the case may require, and immediately upon the filing or depositing of such Certificate the said Lands or Hereditaments shall be and become vested in or to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

Bank.*

*Baron of Exchequer, &c. on Petition of Person interested to order Ap-
Money.*

X. And be it further enacted, That the Barons or Judges of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Windsor, Edinburgh or Dublin, of the Degree of the Chief, for the time being respectively, or any Two or more of them, shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered in a summary Way upon Motion or by Petition, for and on behalf of any Person or Persons interested in or entitled to the Benefit of the Money so paid to and received by the Deputy Remembrancer at the Interest or Produce thereof, and upon reading the Certificate directed to be signed by the said Deputy Remembrancer concerning the same as aforesaid, and receiving such further Satisfaction as they shall think necessary, to make and pronounce such Orders and Directions for paying the said Money or any Part of the same, or for placing out such Part thereof as shall be Principal as the Public Funds or upon Government or Real Securities, and for Payment of the Dividends or Interest thereof or any Part thereof, to the respective Persons entitled to receive the same, or for buying out the Principal or any Part thereof in the Purchase of other Lands or Hereditaments to be conveyed and settled on, for and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Tenants and Purposes as the said Lands and Hereditaments so taken had settled at the time of the Payment of such Money as aforesaid, as now in the same can be done, or otherwise, concerning the disposing of the said Money or any Part thereof, and the Interest of the same or any Part thereof, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled to and interested in the same respectively, or for appointing any Person or Persons to be Trustee or Trustees for all or any of such Purposes as the said Court shall think just and reasonable.

On Death or Removal of Deputy Remembrancer, Bonds and Securities to be in force.

XI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death or Removal of any such Deputy Remembrancer, all Bonds and Securities which in him by virtue of this Act shall well in the succeeding Deputy Remembrancer for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned without any Assignment or Transfer; and all Moneys paid into the said Banks respectively in pursuance of this Act, or remaining in the Hands of any Deputy Remembrancer at his Death or Removal, and not vested in the Funds or placed out on Securities as aforesaid shall be paid over to the succeeding Deputy Remembrancer for the time being.

When no Deputy, Powers to act in King's Remembrancer.

XII. And be it further enacted and declared, That in any case The King's Remembrancer shall vacate the said Office in Person, then and in such case the several Treasurers and Authorities, by this Act referred in the said Deputy Remembrancer and his Successors, shall, during such time as no Deputy Remembrancer shall be appointed, be and be executed by the said King's Remembrancer for the time being.

C A P. CXXIX.

An Act to increase the Drawbacks and Countervailing Duties on Tobacco; and to limit the Tonnage of Ships in which Wine may be exported when Duties are drawn back. [4th July 1815.]

Act, c. 30.

Sch (B)

Additional Drawbacks of Bonds allowed on Tobacco.

WHEREAS the Drawback allowed by an Act of the present Session of Parliament intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eleven, additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, on Potatoes, Tobacco, Snuff and Foreign Liquors, for and in respect of Short Cut Tobacco, Bag Tobacco, Roll Tobacco and Current Tobacco, manufactured as any of the Parts of Great Britain, into which Tobacco may lawfully be imported, or within Two Miles thereof, or is left in Preparation to the Duty by the said Act imposed on Tobacco, than the same ought to have been, and it is therefore expedient to grant the additional Drawbacks hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be allowed and paid for such manufactured Tobacco the several additional Drawbacks of Excise hereinafter mentioned; that it is to pay,

For

For every Pound Weight of Short Cut Tobacco manufactured at any of the Ports of Great Britain into which Tobacco may lawfully be imported or warehoused Two Miles thereof, from Tobacco for which the Duties imposed in respect thereof shall have been paid and exported as Merchandise by the Manufacturer thereof from such Ports to Foreign Parts, Two pence Farthing and One Tenth Part of a Farthing:

For every Pound Weight of Shag Tobacco, so manufactured and exported, One Penny Three Farthings and Four Fifth Parts of a Farthing:

For every Pound Weight of Roll Tobacco, so manufactured and exported, Two pence Farthing and One Tenth Part of a Farthing:

For every Pound Weight of Carrot Tobacco so manufactured and exported, One Penny Three Farthings and Four Fifth Parts of a Farthing.

II. And be it further enacted, That for all Short Cut Tobacco, Shag Tobacco, Roll Tobacco and Carrot Tobacco, manufactured at any of the Ports of Great Britain into which Tobacco may lawfully be imported, or warehoused Two Miles thereof, from Tobacco for which the Duties imposed by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament in respect thereof, as well as all other Duties imposed for or in respect thereof by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, shall have been paid, and exported before the passing of this Act as Merchandise by the Manufacturer thereof from any such Port, or to Foreign Parts, under and subject to the Rules, Regulations and Provisions by Law established for the Exportation of Tobacco on Drawback, there shall, in addition to the Drawback or Drawbacks by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament granted, be allowed and paid the additional Drawback by the said Act granted on manufactured Tobacco of the like Sort.

III. And, to counterbalance the Drawbacks granted on manufactured Tobacco, by an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, entitled An Act for granting in His Majesty's sixth Year of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, on certain Tobacco, Snuff and Scented Linens, and the additional Drawbacks granted on manufactured Tobacco by the said Act, be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the following Countervailing Duties; that is to say,

For every Pound Weight of unmanufactured Tobacco of the Growth or Produce of Ireland, imported from thence into Great Britain, Three pence:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Short Cut Tobacco, or Tobacco manufactured into what is commonly called or known by the Name of Spanish, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Four pence Halfpenny:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Shag Tobacco, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Four pence Halfpenny:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Roll Tobacco, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Four pence Halfpenny:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Carrot Tobacco, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Four pence Halfpenny:

For every Pound Weight of every other Sort of Irish manufactured Tobacco, not hereinbefore enumerated or described, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Four pence Halfpenny:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Rappee Snuff, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Three pence Three Farthings:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Scented Snuff, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Five pence Farthing:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Brown Scotch Snuff, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Three pence Three Farthings:

For every Pound Weight of Irish manufactured Tobacco Stalk Flour, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Five pence Farthing:

For every Pound Weight of every other Sort or Kind of Irish manufactured Snuff, or Snuff Works, not hereinbefore enumerated or described, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, Five pence Farthing.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Countervailing Duties by this Act imposed shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, applied and accounted for in such and the like manner as the Countervailing Duties on Tobacco and Snuff imposed by an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for granting in His Majesty's sixth Year of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain on Glass, Hides and Tobacco and Snuff, &c. by any Law or Laws now in force to be raised, levied, collected, paid, applied or accounted for.

V. And be it further enacted, That the additional Drawbacks by the said Act granted shall be paid and allowed out of the Duties of Excise by Law imposed for or in respect of Tobacco, and under, subject and according to the Rules, Regulations, Rules and Provisions contained and provided in and by an Act made in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, entitled An Act for regulating the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties on tea, sugar, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to the Exportation of Tobacco on Excise Drawback.

VI. And Whereas it is expedient to take the Tonnage of Ships and Vessels in which Ware may be exported or Drawbacks' Bent then here enacted, That no Ware on which the said Duties of Customs and Excise shall have been paid upon its Exportation therefrom into Great Britain, shall afterwards be exported for the Service of any Ship or Vessel whatever, which shall not be at the Barrels of seventy Two or upwards, subject also to the like Securities, Rules, Regulations, Provisions and Forfeitures as are made and provided by the Laws in force, on and immediately before the passing of this Act.

An Act for further regulating the Issue and Payment of Money to His Majesty's Forces Serving Abroad. [4th July 1815.]

4 G. 3. c. 49.

§ 3.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for accelerating the Making-up, Examination and Audit of the Accounts of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that in the Examination of the Annual Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, for Monies paid, within the Period of the said Account, by his Deputies on Foreign Stations, the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts are directed and required to discharge the said Paymaster General of all Sums of Money paid by any Deputy on any Foreign Station, under the Warrant of the Officer Commanding in Chief on each Foreign Station: And Whereas it is expedient that Officers holding the Chief Command of Armies employed in active Operations Abroad should, in certain cases, be relieved from the Charge of personally signing all Warrants for the Issues from time to time for the Service of such Armies: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That notwithstanding any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary thereof, it shall be lawful for any Officer holding the Chief Command of an Army employed in active Operations Abroad, to authorize and empower a Comptroller of Army Accounts (in case a Comptroller of Army Accounts shall be attached by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being to such Army), or in the Event of no Comptroller of Army Accounts being attached to such Army, or of the Death or Absence of any such Comptroller, then to authorize and empower such other Person as may be appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury for that Purpose, to sign Warrants for the Issue and Payment of all Sums of Money which may from time to time be paid by any Deputy to the Paymaster General on Foreign Service, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act.

Commander in Chief on Foreign Station empowered to authorize a Comptroller of Army Accounts to sign Warrants.

Commanders of Armies to give charge Paymaster General of all Sums paid by Deputy under such Warrants.

All need to prevent Commanders in Chief signing Warrants signed directly, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That in the Examination of the Annual Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, for Monies paid, within the Period of the said Account, by his Deputies on Foreign Stations, the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts shall and they are hereby directed and required to discharge the Paymaster General of all Sums of Money paid by any Deputy Abroad, under any Warrant of any such Comptroller of Army Accounts, or other Person duly appointed and authorized for the Purpose of signing such Warrants as aforesaid, in like manner as if the same had been signed by the Officer commanding in Chief, pursuant to the Provisions of the said Act.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to prevent any Officer commanding in Chief from signing such Warrants relating to the Expensiture of the Army under his Command, as he could or might have done before the passing of this Act in all cases where he may deem it expedient to sign himself such Warrants.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Warrants which at any time before the passing of this Act may have been signed by the Comptroller of Army Accounts attached to His Majesty's Army in the Netherlands, as any other Person authorized to sign such Warrants by the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces there, shall be as valid and effectual for all the Purposes of this Act, as if the same had been signed after the passing thereof.

C A P. CXXXI.

An Act for discontinuing certain Deductions from Half Pay, and for further regulating the Accounts of the Paymaster General. [4th July 1815.]

His Majesty may direct that no Deduction be made from Half Pay, &c.

§ 3. 4.

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain Deductions which are now made from the Half Pay and Military Allowances of Officers on the Establishment of Great Britain and Ireland should be discontinued: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, from time to time to direct, that the Half Pay and Military Allowances of Officers belonging to the Establishment of Great Britain or Ireland should be paid to such Officers not and free from all or any of the Deductions which have heretofore been made from the same; and from and after the issuing of any such Warrant, all such Half Pay and Allowances shall be paid without any Deduction whatever; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or in any Law or Regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for accelerating the Making-up, Examination and Audit of the Accounts of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, certain Rules are prescribed for annually making up as well the General Account of the said Paymaster General as separate Accounts of Monies received and paid on Account of Half Pay of Classes of Officers, and of Persons on the Compassionate List: And Whereas it is expedient that the Payment of Officers of the Army allowed as retire upon Full Pay, of Persons in Wounded Officers of the Army, of Pay of General Officers not being Colonels of Regiments, and of His Majesty's Royal Bounty as Relatives of deceased Officers of the Land Forces, should, where not otherwise ordered by the Secretary at War, be made and accounted for in like manner as the above mentioned Services of Half Pay, Classes of Officers and Compassionate List: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Paymaster General shall in the present present Year and in the next Year, besides the Separate Accounts directed by the said Act, make up other Separate Accounts of Monies received and paid within the Period comprised in the said General Account, an account of the above Services, so like manner in all respects as is required by the said recited Act to make up the separate Accounts therein specified; and that such other separate Accounts directed by this Act shall be transmitted, examined and declared, and the said Paymaster General shall be discharged and acquitted thereon, in the same manner in all respects as is by the said recited Act provided with regard to the separate Accounts thereby directed to be made up.

Paymaster General to make up Separate Accounts of Payments made in Discharge of Public Debts, and of Profits in Wounded Officers, &c.

C A P. CXXXII.

An Act to continue until the End of the next Session of Parliament, an Act of the last Session of Parliament for regulating the Trade in Spirits between Great Britain and Ireland respectively.

[4th July 1815.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to regulate, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, the Trade in Spirits between Great Britain and Ireland respectively; and it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby further continued from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, and shall remain and continue in force from thence until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and so longer.

An Act to grant further Powers to the Commissioners of Charities and Greenwich Hospitals with respect to Penitents on their Establishments.

[4th July 1815.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital to commute Penitents for a Sum of Money in certain Cases: And Whereas it is expedient to enlarge the Powers granted by the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Agent for the time being of the Out Penitents of Chelsea Hospital, and he is hereby empowered and required to pay and discharge, by accepting and paying Bills of Exchange, or otherwise, as may be ordered and directed by the Commissioners of the said Hospital as that behalf, out of the Funds provided by Parliament for the Use of Chelsea Hospital, in addition to the Commutation in lieu of Penitents allowed by the said Act, all such contingent Expenses as have already been incurred, or as may be hereafter incurred, on account of such discharged Soldiers as have been or may be permitted to commute their Penitents as aforesaid, whether for Passage Money, Ship's Provisions, Subsistence while detained by competent Authority at any Station Abroad, Lodges by Exchange upon Bills drawn on the said Agent for the commuted Penitents, or on any other Account, provided such Expenses shall have been duly incurred by or under any Regulations or Orders made and published in that behalf by His Majesty's Secretary at War: and the Payments so made by the said Agent and touched by Bills or Receipts for the same shall be accordingly allowed and admitted to his Accounts by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts.

24 G. 3. c. 109

In Addition to Commutation in lieu of Penitents provided by the Act of 50th George 3. charged Soldiers allowed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital shall be and they are hereby empowered and required to make Arrangements for the Purpose of enabling Out Penitents who may be permitted to commute out of the United Kingdom, but within His Majesty's Dominions, to receive the Amount of their Penitents abroad, either by means of Bills of Exchange, to be drawn by such Out Penitents upon the Agent of Chelsea Hospital, or otherwise, as the said Commissioners may deem most expedient.

Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital to make Arrangements for paying Penitents Abroad.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or the Governors of Kinsale Harbour Hospital, to use and apply all the Powers, Authorities and Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, and all Rules and Regulations which may be made in pursuance thereof, as they may be respectively deemed expedient to use and apply, to the allowing to discharged Soldiers, placed on the Penitents List of the said Hospital, who may be desirous of commuting their Penitents, to commute such Penitents in such and the like cases in which such Commutation is allowed by the said Act or this Act, in like manner in every respect as if the said Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or the Governors of Kinsale Harbour Hospital, had been included in the Provisions of the said recited Act and this Act, and as if all such Rules and Regulations had been made by them respectively in pursuance thereof.

Powers of Acts extended by 3 and 4 George 4. c. 10.

IV. And Whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich Hospital should be authorized and empowered to apportion the Penitents that may be granted to Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, as well by the Length of their Service on board the Ships and Vessels of His Majesty as by their Service in His Majesty's Army, and that the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital should have the like Power and Authority with respect to the granting Penitents to Non Commissioned Officers and Soldiers for service in His Majesty's Navy, or as Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers in the Royal Marines: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, upon all Applications to be hereafter made to them by any Person or Persons claiming Penitents on Account of their Service in His Majesty's Navy, to apportion the Penitents which shall be granted to such

An Act to alter the Conditions and Regulations under which Blubber and Train Oil of Newfoundland are admitted to Entry. [4th July 1815.]

W. & A. 2. 9. 6.
(12.)

Conditions under which Blubber and Train Oil of Newfoundland are admitted to Entry.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Conditions and Regulations contained in an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting after Duties in lieu thereof, under which Blubber and Train Oil, the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, taken and caught on the Banks and Shoers of Newfoundland, and Parts adjacent, by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery from that Island, were to be admitted to Entry as such, should be altered: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, before any Blubber and Train Oil imported into Great Britain, as being taken and caught on the Banks and Shoers of Newfoundland, and Parts adjacent, wholly by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery from that Island, shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty imposed on such Blubber or Train Oil by the said recited Act, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs in the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Governor or Deputy Governor of Newfoundland, or of the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs of the Port or Place in Newfoundland where the Train Oil or Blubber shall have been taken on board, or if on such Officer or Governor or Deputy Governor shall be residing there, then a Certificate shall be produced under the Hand and Seal of the Naval Officer or other principal Officer of the said Port or Place, or of One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the District, testifying that Oath had been made before him (who is hereby authorised and required to administer such Oath and to grant such Certificate) by the Skipper of such Blubber or Train Oil that the same was really and bona fide the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, actually caught and taken wholly by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery, and usually residing in the Island of Newfoundland, or in His Majesty's European Dominions; and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the Blubber or Train Oil shall be imported into Great Britain shall make Oath before such Collector or other Chief Officer at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authorized and required to administer the same) that the Blubber or Train Oil so imported is the same as mentioned and referred to in the said Certificate; and the Importer or Importers, Consigner or Consignors of such Blubber or Train Oil shall also make Oath before the Collector or Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Customs (who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath), at the time of Entry, that to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief the Blubber or Train Oil so imported was actually caught and taken by British Subjects actually residing in the Island of Newfoundland, or in His Majesty's European Dominions; and on Failure of such Certificates being produced, and Proof on Oath as aforesaid being made, such Blubber and Train Oil shall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Fishery, and charged with the Duty imposed by the said recited Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty on such Articles of Foreign Fishery.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Overseers of the Poor, or other Person or Persons who may be appointed for the said ring, regulating, managing or providing for the Poor of any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places jointly with or independent of such Overseers of the Poor, shall or may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cause all such Goods, Chattels, Furniture, Clothes, Linnen, Wearing Apparel, Tools, Utensils, Materials and Things, capable of being marked, and from time to time belonging to such Overseers, or other Person or Persons, to be marked, stamped or branded with the Word "Workhouse;" and such other Mark or Marks as they shall think proper for identifying the Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, by which the same shall here be denoted: And if any Person or Persons shall knowingly take in Pawn, buy, exchange or receive any Goods, Chattels, Furniture, Clothes, Linnen, Wearing Apparel, Tools, Utensils, Materials and Things, provided for the Use of any of the Poor who are or shall be received into the Workhouse of any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, or to whom the same shall have been given by the Overseers of the Poor, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid appointed as aforesaid, or of or for any such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, or any of them, or any of the Goods, or Materials carried into any such Workhouse or Workhouses to be wrought up, manufactured or used by the Poor there, or any of the Goods or Furniture of such Workhouse or Workhouses; or shall receive or buy any of the Furniture allotted to or provided for the Poor of such Workhouse or Workhouse, or shall be aiding or assisting therein; or if any Person or Persons shall cause such Mark or Stamp, Marks or Stamps, as aforesaid, to be obliterated or defaced, every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, not less than One Pound upon Conviction thereof, either by the Confession of such Person or Persons, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, City, Town, Riding or Division wherein the Offence or Offences shall be committed; One Mooty of which said Penalty shall go to the Informers or Informers, and the other Mooty shall go and be paid to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places to which such Articles or Things may belong, for the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places; and in case any Person or Persons who shall be convicted as aforesaid shall not pay such Penalty or Penalties upon Conviction, then and in such case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may send him and are hereby required to commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Space of time not exceeding Two Calendar Months; and if any Person or Persons shall desert or run away from any Workhouse or Workhouses, and carry away with him, her or them, any Clothes, Linnen or other Goods or Things as aforesaid, such Person or Persons being thereof lawfully convicted either by the Confession of such Party or Parties, or by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall by such Justice or Justices of the Peace be forthwith committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Calendar Months; and in all cases such Mark, Stamp or Brand, as any such Articles or Things as aforesaid (being duly authenticated) shall be evidenced and taken to be sufficient Evidence, without further Proof, of the Right of Property in such Goods or other Person or Persons appointed as aforesaid, as the case may be: Provided always, that such Mark or Stamp as aforesaid shall not at any time be placed on any Articles of Wearing Apparel so as to be publicly visible on the Exterior of the same.

III. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty Sixth Year of His present Majesty, (a) entitled An Act to amend the laws of an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the First, relating to the Settlement, Employment and Relief of the Poor, as it extends the distributing occasional Relief to Poor Persons in their own Houses, under certain Circumstances and in certain Cases, Justices of the Peace are authorized and empowered to direct and order Collection; and Relief to indigent Poor Persons at their Houses, in any Parish, Town, Township or Place, notwithstanding any any Comaith shall have been entered into or made with any Person or Persons for lodging, keeping, maintaining and employing any and all Poor Persons there, in a House or Houses for such Purpose lived or purchased; Provided that such Order should be given for and remain in force for a time not to exceed One Month from the Date of such Order, but that any Two Justices might make any further Order for the same or a like Purpose for any further time not exceeding One Month, and so on from time to time in the said Order should require: And Whereas it is expedient that Justices should be empowered to order Relief to be paid to Poor Persons, in the cases mentioned in the said Act, for longer Periods than One Month at a Time: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in the cases and in the manner mentioned in the said Act, to direct and order Collection and Relief to be paid to any Poor Person or Persons, at his, her or their House or Houses, House or Houses during such time or times as to such Justice or Justices may seem proper, not exceeding Three Months from the Date of such Order: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices as aforesaid, to make any further Order for the same or the like Purpose, for any further time not exceeding Six Months from the Date of such Order, and so on from time to time as the Occasion shall require; such Justice or Justices shall administering as Oath as to the need and cause of such Relief, in each of the above cases, and thereupon summing up the Overseers or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Town, Township or Place, to be charged with such Relief, to draw cause why such Poor Person or Persons should not receive such Relief in manner as by Law provided, in cases where no Contract for lodging, keeping and maintaining the Poor shall have been made; and in case it shall afterwards appear appear to the Justice or Justices making such Order, that the Payment of such Collection or Relief to any such Person or Persons as aforesaid ought to be discontinued before the Expiration of the time for which any such Order or Orders shall have been made, such Justice or Justices shall and may order such Relief to be discontinued, and from thenceforth the Person or Persons to whom and on whose Account such Order shall have been made, shall not be entitled to it, or receive the same.

IV. And he is further enacted, That the Sum or Sums of Money which any such Justice or Justices shall or may order to be paid to any such Poor Person or Persons, for any longer Space or Period of Time than One Month, shall not exceed for each such Poor Person the Sum of Three Shillings per Week, or Three fourths of the Average weekly Expense which shall be usually borne or paid by the Parish or Parishes in which such Order shall be made for the Maintenance of such Poor Person, in any Workhouse or Workhouses in which such Poor Person or Persons shall be usually maintained and employed.

V. And Whereas Persons maintained in Public Workhouses sometimes refuse to work, or are guilty of Drunkenness and other Mischaviour, and by the Laws in being so sufficient Punishment is provided for such Offences; Be it therefore enacted, That in case any Person or Persons maintained in any Public Workhouse or Workhouses established for the Relief, Maintenance and Employment of the Poor, shall refuse to work at any Work, Occupation or Employment, suited to his, her or their Age, Strength and Capacity, or shall be guilty of Drunkenness or other Mischaviour, every such Person or Persons, being thereof lawfully convicted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall thereupon by such Justice or Justices of the Peace be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bed or Maintenance for any Period of time not exceeding Twenty one Days, and during such time to be kept to hard Labour.

VI. And he is further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the passing of this Act, no Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, or other Person or Persons in whose Hands it is Collection of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, or the providing for, ordering, Management, Control or Direction of the Poor of any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, shall or may be placed jointly with or independent of such Churchwardens and Overseers, or any of them, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall, either in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, provide, furnish or supply for his or their own Profit, any Goods, Materials or Provision, for the Use of any Workhouse or Workhouses, or otherwise, for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor, in any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, for which he or they shall be appointed as such, during the time which he or they shall remain such Appointment, nor shall he be concerned, directly or indirectly in furnishing or supplying the same, or in any Contract or Contracts relating thereto, under Pen of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds, with full Costs of Suit, to any Person or Persons who shall fail for the same by Action of Debt, or on the Case, or any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which Action or Actions no Effray, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparsonment shall be allowed: Provided nevertheless, that if it shall happen in any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, that a Person or Persons competent and willing to undertake the Supply of any of the Articles or Things required for such Workhouse or Workhouses, or for the Use of the Poor there, cannot be found within a convenient Distance therefrom, other than and except from or One of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or other Person or Persons having the ordering, managing, control or direction of the Poor, in such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for any Two or more neighbouring Justices of the Peace (Proof thereof having been first duly made before them upon Oath, and which Oath such Justices or any One of them are and is lawfully authorized and empowered to administer) by Certificate under their Hands and Seals, to permit and suffer any One or more of such Churchwardens and Overseers or other such Person or Persons as aforesaid, to contract and agree for the furnishing and supplying of any Articles or Things which may be required for such Workhouse or Workhouses, or otherwise, for the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, during the time which he or they may remain such Appointment; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and such Certificate shall be entered with the Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk of the County, City, Town or District, in which such Person or Persons shall reside, and a Copy thereof left with him, for which Entry every such Clerk shall receive One Shilling and no more; and from that time, every Person and Persons named in any such Certificate shall be discharged from any Penalty to which he or they would otherwise be liable under this Act, for furnishing or supplying any such Articles or Things as aforesaid; and in case any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any such Penalty as aforesaid shall be commenced against any Person or Persons to whom such Certificate shall have been granted as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons to plead generally, that he or they were or was duly discharged from any Liability to such Penalties, by a Certificate granted according to the Provision of the Act; and upon due Proof being given of such Certificate, and of such Entry thereof as aforesaid, the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant in such Action or Suit; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his, her or their Action, or if Verdict shall pass against him, her or them, or if Judgment shall be had against him, her or them, or in Default, then the Defendant or Defendants in such Action shall have Double Costs, and have such and the like Recovery for the Recovery of the fine, as any Defendant or Defendants have or hath for recovering Costs of Suit in any other cases by Law.

VII. And he is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when and so often as any Certificate or Certificate shall be made or entered into for the providing, furnishing or supplying any Articles, Materials or Things for the Use of the Poor in the Workhouse or Workhouses or in belonging to any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, or for the erecting of any Building or Buildings, the Expense whereof is to be defrayed out of any Rate or Rates or other Monies applicable to the Relief of the Poor, the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or other Person or Persons having the Management, Control or Direction of the Poor in such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, shall cause Notice of their Intention to enter into such Contract or Contracts, and of the Time and Place where and where they shall assemble and meet for such Purpose, and of the Security which will be required for the Performance of such Contract or Contracts, to be affixed in a conspicuous manner on the outer Door of the Church or respective Churches to which such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Hamlet or Hamlets, Place or Places, shall belong, or to be inserted in one or more of the Public Newspapers most generally circulated in the Neighbourhood, Seven Days at the least previous to such Meeting, in order and to the Intent that any Person or Persons willing to undertake the supplying or furnishing the same, may make Proposals for that Purpose to such Churchwardens and Overseers, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, at the Time and Place mentioned in such Notice.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Justices of the Peace before whom any Person or Persons shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall and may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form, or to the like Effect, that is to say,

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ of His Majesty's Justice _____ of the Peace for the County of _____ [or, City, or, Liberty, of _____] as the _____ way be] of having [here state the Offence] contrary to the Statute in that case made and provided. Given under my Hand and Seal [or, our Hands and Seals, as the _____ way be] the Day and _____ Year first above written.

And that such Conviction shall be good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be qualified or in anywise, or adjudged void or insufficient, for want of any other Form of Words whatever; nor shall the same be removed by Certiorari or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, save any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, such Person or Persons may appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, City or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen; such Person or Persons at the time of his, her or their Conviction entering into a Recognizance, with Two Justices of the Peace conditioned periodically to appear at the said Sessions, to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Justices at such Sessions assembled; and the said Justices at such General or Quarter Sessions shall hear and determine the Cause and Matters of such Appeal in a summary way, and make such Order therein as the said Justices shall think proper; and the Determination of such Justices at their General or Quarter Sessions shall be final and conclusive.

C A P. CXXXVIII.

An Act for vesting in His Majesty certain Parts of the Forest of Essex otherwise known, in the Counties of Surrey and Devon; and for inclosing the said Forest. [4th July 1815.]

WHEREAS The King's Most Excellent Majesty, in Right of His Crown, is seized in Himself, his Heirs and Successors, of the Forest or Chace of Essex otherwise known, situate in the Counties of Surrey and Devon, containing by Estimation Twenty two thousand four hundred Acres of Land, or thereabouts, now lying open and uninclosed, subject to such Rights of Common and other Rights as the several Persons hereinafter mentioned are entitled to, within, upon or over the said Forest; and His Majesty is also seized in His Demesne as of Fee, of and in a certain Farm called Sinclair's Bath Farm, situate within the said Forest, containing by Estimation One hundred and eight Acres Two Roods, which Farm is inclosed, and separated and divided from the said Open and Unclosed Lands: And Whereas the Whole of the said Forest is Extra-parochial: And Whereas Sir Thomas Dyke Acland is or claims to be entitled to all Tithes arising, accruing and increasing within the said Forest: And Whereas the Right Honourable Henry George Earl of Carnarvon, the said Sir Thomas Dyke Acland Baronet, John Palmer Clerk of the Exchequer, Thomas Thwaites Esquire, William Myddelton Esquire Clerk, and divers other Persons, are Owners or Proprietors of certain Estates in the Parishes of Hawbridge and Wally Park, in the said County of Surrey, adjoining to the said Forest, and as such Owners owe Rent and Service to the Stannington Courts of the King's Most Excellent Majesty, held for and within the said Forest, and are called by the Names of Freeholders, and by ancient and remote Customs are entitled to depasture seasonally on the said Forest certain Numbers of Sheep and Cattle, and to cut and take certain Quantities of Turf, Heath and Fens, for the Consumption of their Houses, and are also entitled to fish in the Rivers within the said Forest: And Whereas the Owners or Proprietors of certain old inclosed Tenements, situate within the several Parishes of Hawbridge and Wally Park, Exford, Stockers, Parbeck Collier, Gave, Brindon, Linton, Chalfonts, Highbury, North Moleton, Twicken, Meland, Wansford, Dunterton, Lasham, Cuscomb, Weston, Coar, Long, Cuscomb, Wally Park, East Ashby, Marston, Charles, Belsham, Nympton, East Brinkland and Ferrarville, or some of them, in the said Counties of Surrey and Devon, who have been accustomed or ought to pay Quit or Chief Rents to The King's Most Excellent Majesty, and who owe Rent and Service at the Swissnote Courts within the said Forest, have or claim to have a Right, for their respective Tenants or Occupiers of such said inclosed Tenements, to turn out and depopulate their Sheep and Cattle upon the said Forest, upon Payment of certain Sums in respect thereof: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for consolidating in one Act certain Provisions already inserted in Acts of Inclosure, and for facilitating the Means of providing the several Facts usually required in the passing of such Acts: And Whereas the said Open and Unclosed Lands, in their present State, are of little Value to His Majesty, or to the several Persons having such several Claims or Rights therein as aforesaid; and it would be of great Advantage to His Majesty and the Public in general, and be advantageous to the several Persons having such Claims or Rights as aforesaid, if the said Forest were divided, and specific Shares or Parts thereof were allotted to His Majesty, and the several Persons entitled to and interested in the same, under the Direction and subject to the Limitations and Restrictions in this and the said recited Act contained; but such beneficial Purposes cannot be effectually made and established without the Aid and Assent of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Richard Howland of Kingsbridge, in the County of Dorset, Gentlemen, and Thomas Abraham of White Langkings, in the County of Somerset, Gentlemen, and their Successors, to be nominated and appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for dividing, allotting and enclosing the said Forest, and for conveying into Execution the several other Purposes of this Act, in such manner as is hereinafter provided or mentioned, and with such of the Powers and subject to such of the Rules, Orders, Regulations and Restrictions contained in the said recited Act, as are not varied, altered or otherwise provided for by this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Commissioner shall act in the Execution of any of the Powers by the said recited Act or this Act granted (save and except in the signing and giving Notice of the First Meeting of the said Commissioners) until he shall have taken and subscribed the following Oath, in addition to the Oath by the said recited Act directed to be taken, such Oath to be administered and enrolled in like manner as the Oath by the said recited Act prescribed to be taken by Commissioners for executing Acts of Inclosure is directed to be administered and enrolled: Which additional Oath shall be in the Words or to the Effect following; that is to say,

I, A.B. do swear (or, being one of the People called Quakers, do solemnly affirm), That I am neither Proprietor or Occupier of, nor to the best of my Knowledge am I concerned as Guardian, Steward or Agent for any Proprietor of Messuages, Houses, Cottages, Lands or Grounds, or other Person having or claiming any Right of Common, or any Manorial Rights, Tithes, or any other Right or Interest whatsoever, in, over or upon the Open Commonable Grounds and Waste Lands to be inclosed by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act (how right the God be help me) to divide the said Forest.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Richard Howland, or any Person to be nominated and appointed a Commissioner in his room or stead by virtue of this Act, shall die, refuse or neglect to act, or become incapable of acting as such Commissioner in the Execution of the said recited Act and this Act, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, by any Writing under their Hands, within One Calendar Month next after such Death, Refusal or Incapacity as aforesaid shall be made known to them, to nominate and appoint a proper Person (not interested in the said intended Division and Inclosure) to be a Commissioner in the room or stead of the said Richard Howland, or of such other Person nominated and appointed in his room or stead, as dying, refusing, neglecting or becoming incapable to act as aforesaid; and so from time to time as often as any Commissioner to be nominated and appointed by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues as aforesaid, shall die, refuse, neglect or become incapable to act as such Commissioner in the Execution of the said recited Act and this Act; and in case the said Thomas Abraham, or any Person to be nominated and appointed in his room or stead by virtue of this Act, shall die, refuse, neglect or become incapable to act in the Execution of the said recited Act and this Act, then and in every such case the signing or remaining Commissioner shall, within One Calendar Month next after such Death, Neglect, Refusal or Incapacity shall happen to be known to him, summon a Meeting (of which Meeting Twenty one Days' Notice by Advertisement shall be given in the Tamworth Journal and Wharfedale Newspaper, if there published, or if not, then in some other Newspaper usually circulated in the Neighbourhood of the said Forest) of all and every the Owners or Proprietors claiming such Rights as aforesaid, to be holden within Thirty Days from the Date of such Notice; and the aforesaid Part in Value of such Owners or Proprietors who shall be present in Person, or by their respective Agents or Proxies duly authorized for that Purpose, at such Meeting or Meetings (such Value, in case of any Difference or Dispute touching the same, to be ascertained by Reference to the Land Tax Assessments of the several Parishes or Places wherein the several Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments shall lie, in respect whereof such Owners or Proprietors claim such Rights as aforesaid) shall and they are hereby required, at such Meeting, to nominate and appoint, by any Writing under their Hands, a proper Person or Persons (not interested in the said Division and Inclosure) to be a Commissioner in the room or stead of the said Thomas Abraham, or of such other Person to be nominated and appointed in the room or stead of him as dying, refusing, neglecting or becoming incapable to act as aforesaid, and so from time to time as often as any such case shall happen; and every such Commissioner so to be nominated and appointed, shall, after taking taking and subscribing the Oath prescribed in that behalf, have the like Powers and Authorities for carrying the said recited Act and this Act into Execution, and shall be subject and liable to the like Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as if he had been originally nominated a Commissioner as and by this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Persons claiming such Rights, or any of them, shall make Default in attending and appointing any new Commissioner as directed to be nominated and appointed by them or any of them respectively as aforesaid, within the respective times for that Purpose limited, and in answer aforesaid, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the foregoing or remaining Commissioners, and he is hereby required from time to time, by Writing under his Hand, within One Calendar Month next after the Expiration of such respective times to allowed for nominating and appointing such new and succeeding Commissioner as aforesaid, to nominate and appoint a proper Person (not named in the said Division and Inclosure) to be a Commissioner in the room or stead of every such Commissioner so dying, refusing, neglecting or becoming incapable to act as aforesaid; and every Commissioner so nominated and appointed shall, after taking and subscribing the Oath prescribed in that behalf, have the like Power and Authority for carrying the said recited Act and this Act into Execution, and shall be subject and liable to the like Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as if he had been originally nominated a Commissioner as and by this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if either of the said Commissioners hereby nominated, or any Commissioners to be nominated or appointed under or by virtue of this Act, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to attend at the First Meeting appointed to be held for carrying the said recited Act and this Act into Execution, and duly qualify himself, by taking and subscribing the Oath prescribed in that behalf; or if either of the said Commissioners shall, at any time after the First Meeting, wilfully absent himself from any Three successive Meetings appointed to be held by virtue of this Act, or having been absent from Two successive Meetings, shall not attend during the Whole of the Third or next succeeding Meeting, such Meetings being known to him either by his being present at the Appointment thereof, or by Notice thereof in Writing having been given to him, or left at his last or usual Place of Abode, by the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners, and such Commissioner not having been prevented by sickness, or other reasonable Cause to be allowed by the other Commissioner, from attending or continuing at any such Meeting or Meetings; or if any Commissioners, to be nominated and appointed in answer to this Act directed, shall not attend and qualify himself to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said recited Act and this Act, in the First Meeting of the said Commissioners after his Nominations or Appointment, or shall thereafter wilfully absent himself from Three successive Meetings to be held by virtue of this Act, or having been absent from Two successive Meetings shall not attend the Whole of the Third next successive Meeting, such Meetings being known to him either by his being present at the Appointment thereof, or by Notice thereof in Writing having been given to him, or left at his last or usual Place of Abode, by the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners, and such Commissioners not being prevented by sickness, or other reasonable Cause to be allowed by the other Commissioner, from attending or continuing at such Meeting or Meetings, then and in every such case, such Absence or Nonattendance shall be deemed and taken to be a Refusal to act under the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a Clerk or Clerks to assist them in the Execution of the said recited Act and this Act, and shall and may remove such Clerk or Clerks, and appoint another or others in his or their Room, as to them shall seem meet; and in case of the Death, Incapacity, or declining or neglecting to act of any such Clerk or Clerks, then and in any such case, the said Commissioners shall and may appoint any other Person or Persons they may think proper to be their Clerk or Clerks.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Difference shall arise between the said Commissioners, touching or concerning any Matter or Thing to be done by them by virtue or in the Execution of the said recited Act or this Act, whereas the said Commissioners shall differ in Opinion, then and in every such case, such Difference shall be forthwith reduced into Writing, and signed by the said Commissioners, and the same shall be thereupon referred to John Brinkley of Bowdley, in the County of Devon, Esquire, who is hereby appointed Umpire for that Purpose; and in case of the Death, Refusal or Disability to act of the said John Brinkley, or of any other Umpire appointed or to be appointed in his stead, then in such fit and proper Person (not interred in the said Division and Inclosure) as the said Commissioners shall, by Writing under their Hands, appoint; and the Matter upon which such Difference of Opinion shall or may arise, shall be decided and determined by the said John Brinkley or such other Person as aforesaid, whose Determination shall be reduced into Writing, and shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties whatsoever (except as to such Right of Appeal as is given by the said recited Act or this Act); and for the Purpose aforesaid, but not for any other Purpose, such Umpire shall have, and be is hereby vested with the same Powers and Authorities as by the said recited Act and this Act are given to or vested in the said Commissioners.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as Umpire as aforesaid, until he shall have taken and subscribed an Oath in the Form or to the Effect following; that is to wit,

"I, do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute and perform the several Powers and Authorities which are and reputed as me as an Umpire, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act [here insert the Title of this Act] according to Equity and good Conscience, and without Fear or Affection, Prejudice or Partiality, to any Person or Persons whatsoever."

"So help me GOD."

Commissioners may assist Calls.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Commissioners shall, upon the Hearing and Determination of any Claim or Objection be delivered to them in pursuance of the said first rected Adt or of this Adt, for cause to award any Calls, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby empowered, upon Application made to them for that Purpose, to issue, assign and award such Calls, as they shall think reasonable, to be paid to the Party or Parties in whose Favour any Determination of the said Commissioners or Umpire shall be made, by the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, whose Claim or Objection shall be thereby disallowed or over-ruled, or against whom the said Commissioners shall have determined as aforesaid; and in case the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who shall be liable to pay such Calls, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same upon Demand, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, directed to any Person or Persons whomsoever, to make such Calls to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, so neglecting or refusing to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) upon Demand, to the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, whose Claims and Chattels shall have been so distrained and sold, after deducting the Calls and Charges according to such Direction and Sale.

Power to try Rights by Law.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, interested or claiming to be interested in the said intended Division and Allotments, shall be dissatisfied with any Determination of the said Commissioners or Umpire, touching or concerning any Claim or Objection which shall be delivered to the said Commissioners in pursuance of the said rected Adt or this Adt, or touching or concerning any Property, Right or Interest, intended to be affected by such Determination, and shall, within Three Calendar Months next after such Determination shall have been made in Writing to the Party or Parties interested, cause Notice in Writing of such Dissatisfaction to be delivered to or left at the usual Place of Abode of the said Commissioners, and of the Party or Parties in whose Favour such Determination shall have been made, or his, her or their Agent or Agents, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, giving such Notice as aforesaid, so provided to a Trial at Law of the Matter so determined by the said Commissioners or Umpire, at the then next Assize to be held for the County in which the Land shall be situate; and in case such Land shall be situate in both the said Counties of Surrey and Dorset, then for the County in which the greatest Proportion of such Land shall be situate, unless such Affidavits shall happen within Two Calendar Months next after the Determination of the said Commissioners or Umpire, and then and in that case, at the Second Assize to be held for the said County next after such Determination; and for that Purpose the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, giving such Notice as aforesaid, shall, within Two Calendar Months next after such Determination, cause an Affidavit to be brought in One of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, upon a signed Oath, against the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, in whose Favour such Determination shall have been made; and the Defendants or Defendants in such Affidavits or Actions shall, and he, she or they as and are hereby required to cause an Attorney or Attorneys, who shall appear therein on the Common Side, and accept one or more Oath or Oaths, whereby such Claims, and the Property, Right and Interest thereby assised upon, may be tried and determined; such Oath or Oaths to be sworn by the proper Officer of the Court in which the said Affidavits shall be commenced, in case the Parties shall differ about the same; and the Verdict which shall be given upon the Trial of such Affidavits shall be binding, final and conclusive to every Person and Persons, Body and Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate whomsoever, unless the Court wherein such Affidavits shall be brought, shall sit aside such Verdict, and order a new Trial to be had therein, which it shall be lawful for the said Court to do in case the said Court shall think proper; and that after such Verdict shall be obtained and not set aside by the said Court, the said Commissioners shall and they are required to act in conformity thereto, and to allow or disallow the Claims, Property, Right or Interest thereby determined, according to the Event of such Trial or Trials: Provided always, that if an such Notice shall be given, or if any such Notice shall be given, and such Action at Law shall not be commenced as aforesaid, or if any such Action shall be commenced, and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein shall not proceed to a Trial within the time herebefore limited for that Purpose, then the Determination of the said Commissioners or Umpire shall be final and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided also, that if any of the Parties in any such Action to be commenced as aforesaid, shall die before the Determination thereof, such Action shall not abate by reason thereof, but shall be proceeded in as if no such Event had happened; and that in Default, Suit or Proceeding as aforesaid, nor any Difference or Dispute touching the Title to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall impede or delay the said Commissioners or Umpire in the Execution of this and the said recited Act; but the Division and Allowments hereby directed to be made shall be proceeded in, notwithstanding any such Difference, Suit or Proceeding.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, in whole or in part any such Determination as aforesaid shall have been made, and against whom any such Action or Actions might have been brought, if living, shall die before any such Action or Actions shall have been brought, and before the Expiration of the time herebefore limited for bringing such Action or Actions, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Police, Corporate or Collegiate, who might have brought such Action or Actions against the Person or Persons so dying, to bring the same within the time so limited as aforesaid, against such Person or Persons as if actually living, and to serve the Clerk or Clerks of the said Council, Powers with Process for commencing such Action or Actions, in the same manner as the Party or Parties might have been served therewith if living; and it shall thereupon be incumbent on the Heir or Heirs, or other Person or Persons who shall claim the Benefit of such Determination as aforesaid, on receiving Notice of such Process from the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners (which Notice such Clerk or Clerks is and are hereby directed and required to give accordingly), to appear and defend such Action or Actions in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so dead, and Proceedings shall be had therein, in the same manner as if such Person or Persons had been actually living; and the Rights of all Parties shall be equally bound and concluded by the Event of such Action or Actions.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to enable the said Commissioners or Umpire to determine any Right between any Parties contrary to the Possession of any such Parties, except in cases of Encroachments made within the Period of Twenty Years; but in case the said Commissioners or Umpire shall be of Opinion against the Rights of the Person or Persons to be in Possession, they or he shall forbear to make any Determination thereupon, until the Possession shall have been given up by or recovered from such Person or Persons by Ejectment or other due Course of Law.

XXXVIII. Provided, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to authorize or empower the said Commissioners to consider the said Fens, called Simen Rath Fens, as forming any Part of the Lands to be divided, allotted or inclosed under or by virtue of this Act, or as comprised within any of the Powers or Authorities hereby to them given; but that the same shall be and remain vested in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever, exclusive of and over and above any Allowments or Allowments which shall be set out or made unto or for His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors under or by virtue of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, fixed and discharged from all Taxes and all Rights of Common whatsoever; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Forest, and all the Lands and Grounds to be inclosed by virtue of this Act, shall at all times for ever, after the said Allowment in lieu of Tithes shall be set out in manner aforesaid, be encumbered, exempt and freed from all Tithes both Great and Small, or of what nature or kind soever; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Inclosures to be made in the said Forest by virtue of this Act shall be made and set out in such manner as not to interrupt or impede the necessary Communications in, over and upon the said Forest.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the several Outcroppings or Ring Fences of the Lands to be allotted to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors as aforesaid, shall be made in such manner and at such time or times as the said Commissioners shall direct and appoint; and such Outcroppings or Ring Fences shall be raised and made, and for ever thereafter maintained, supported and kept in repair, at the Expence, Costs and Charges of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that the several Outcroppings or Ring Fences of the Lands to be so allotted to the said Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, or other Person or Persons entitled in lieu of Tithes as aforesaid, shall be likewise made in such manner and at such time or times as the said Commissioners shall direct and appoint, and such Outcroppings or Ring Fences last mentioned shall be raised and made at the Expence, Costs and Charges of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; but the same shall for ever thereafter be maintained, supported and kept in repair by the said Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, or by the Person or Persons entitled to such Allowment in lieu of Tithes as aforesaid; and all Fences to be made in pursuance of this Act, for dividing and inclosing the Residue of the said Forest, shall be made, and at all times for ever thereafter be repaired, maintained and kept in Repair by and at the Expence of the Proprietors interested in such Residue, in such Parts, Shares and Proportions, and in such manner as the said Commissioners shall, in and by their final Award, direct and appoint; but no such Proprietor or Proprietors shall be compelled or compellable to fence his, her or their own Allowment or Allowments, or contribute to the fencing of any Allowment or Allowments belonging to any other Person or Persons, until the Owner or Owners of such last mentioned Allowment or Allowments shall have made and completed his, her or their Proportion of the same.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners or any Engineer to be by them employed, under the Powers and Authorities of this Act, shall find it unreasonable to drain any of the Moss Fens or Turbaries on the said Forest, so as to make the same fallaciously dry to be used as Arable or Pasture Land, then as an Action brought, or not commenced, in Determination of Council, before said Trial, not in subject Execution of Powers of Act.

In case of Deaths of Parties before Action brought, time allowed as last directed in case deceased.

them and in each case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to leave such Moat Pits or Turbaries open and unenclosed, to be held and enjoyed by such Person or Persons as, before the passing of this Act, have of Right held, used and enjoyed the same.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, after the passing of this Act, shall get, remove or take away any Fens, Heaths, Gorse or other Article of the like Nature or Quality, from or off any of the Lands or Grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed by virtue of this Act, or shall cut, dig, get or take away any of the Turf or Soil of the Lands or Grounds to be inclosed by virtue of this Act, for any Use or Purpose whatsoever and under any Right, Privilege or Claim, or Pretence of Right, Privilege or Claim whatsoever (other than and except any Person or Persons who may get any Turf out of any of the Moat Pits or Turbaries which shall or may be left open and unenclosed by the said Commissioners as herebefore mentioned), upon due Proof made before the said Commissioners on Oath (which Oath the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to administer), the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals directed to any Person or Persons whomsoever, to cause any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending in the Premises, rendering the Overplus (if any) upon Demand to the Person or Persons whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained and sold, after deducting the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale; and the Money so to be levied as aforesaid, shall be applied towards the Payment of the Costs, Charges and Expenses of executing this Act.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That immediately after all the Allotments to be made and let out in pursuance of this Act, shall by Order of the said Commissioners be marked and set out, all the several Shares or Allotments to be let out as aforesaid shall be and be deemed and taken to be in lieu of, and in full Compensation, Satisfaction and Discharge of and from all Taxes, Rights of Common and all other Rights whatsoever, which the said Proprietors or any of them could or might have had or been entitled to, in, over and upon the said Fens and other the said Commonable Lands and Grounds, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively; and from that time, all Tithes, Rights of Common, and all other Rights whatsoever, in or upon the said Fens and Open Commonable Lands and Grounds, shall cease, and be for ever annulled, abolished and extinguished.

XLV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, at any time before the Execution of their said final Award, by Notice by Advertisement in one or more of the Newspapers usually circulated in that Part of the said Counties of Surrey and Devon where the said Fens lie, to order and direct all or any Part of the Rights of Common, in, over and upon the said Fens, and other the said Open and Commonable Lands and Grounds, or any Part or Parts thereof, to be extinguished, or the Exercise thereof suspended for and during such time or times as shall be expressed in such Notice; and all such Rights of Common as the said Commissioners shall by such Notice order and direct to be extinguished, or the Exercise thereof to be suspended as aforesaid, shall, from the time mentioned in such Notice, cease, determine and be extinguished, and the Exercise thereof shall be suspended accordingly; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That if any of the several Owners of several Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall be desirous that their respective Shares in the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed as aforesaid, in respect of their Common Right or other Rights belonging to such Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, should be allotted together in one or more Parcel or Parcels, and shall express their Desire in Writing to the said Commissioners, at such time as the said Commissioners shall meet and appoint, then and in each case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to set out the several Parcels of Land to be allotted to such several Persons in one Allotment, and such Allotment shall be used and enjoyed by the several Proprietors thereof, in each share and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall in that behalf direct and appoint in and by their said final Award.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Commissioners shall have assembled the respective Rights of the Persons interested in the said intended Inclosure, and also the respective Shares and Proportions by them proposed to be allotted to each Person respectively in less than if, if the said Commissioners shall give Notice by Advertisement in one or more of the Public Newspapers usually circulated in that Part of the said Counties of Surrey and Devon in which the said Fens lie, of the Day or Days and Place, where all Persons interested may peruse a Schedule of such intended Allotments, and inspect the Map or Plan wherein the same shall be delineated, and may have and receive a Copy of such Schedule, so far as the same relates to each Person respectively; and as soon as the said Persons may, upon Request to the said Schedule and Inspection of such Map or Plan, be satisfied with their intended Allotments, the said Commissioners shall give or cause to be given Notice of One Meeting at least, to be held by them for hearing, Comparing and Objections against such intended Allotments, and for hearing and determining all such Objections; and their Determinations in the Premises, as to the Quantity, Quality and Situation, shall be binding, final and conclusive upon all Parties.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall sell, or shall at any time before the Execution of the final Award of the said Commissioners, sell his or her Right, Interest and Property in, to, over or upon the Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or any Part thereof, to any other Person, then and in every such case, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, on Application made to them for that Purpose, by Writing under the Hands of the contracting Parties, to make any Allotment of Land into the Vendor or Purchaser in every such Sale, or to his or her Heirs or Assigns, for and in respect of such Right, Interest and Property to be sold as aforesaid; and every such Vendor or Purchaser, or his or her Heirs or Assigns, shall and may, from and after the

the Execution of their final Award, hold and enjoy the Land so to be allotted to him, her or them as aforesaid, in the same manner as the Vendor in every such Sale might, could or ought to have held and enjoyed the same, in case such Sale had not been made, or such Right, Interest or Property, had been vested in such Vendor at the time of making such Allowments as aforesaid.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, by and with the Approbation and Consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, or any Three or more of them, on behalf of His Majesty, and they are lawfully empowered, to agree with and to purchase, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from any Person or Persons who shall be entitled to any Abatement or Allowments of Land under or by virtue of this Act, all or any Part or Parts of their respective Allowments to be made to them under this Act.

L. And be it further enacted, That all the Lands and Hereditaments which shall be allotted under or by virtue of this Act, shall be held by the same Tenants, and under the same Rents, Customs and Services, as the Lands and Hereditaments in respect whereof such Allowments shall be made, were respectively held before the passing of this Act, or would have been held in case this Act had not been passed.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Lands or other Hereditaments, which shall be allotted or exchanged under or by virtue of this Act, shall hold their respective Lands or Hereditaments by different Tenants or for different Estates, or under different Titles, the said Commissioners shall, upon the Request of such respective Proprietors in Writing under their Hands, signification and discharge the Lands or other Hereditaments held by or under such respective Tenants, Estates or Titles, and shall accordingly in their final Award set out and distinguish distinct and several Allowments for such respective Lands or other Hereditaments.

LII. And be it further enacted, That after the final Award of the said Commissioners shall be made and executed, all and every the Lands and Grounds lying and being within the Boundaries of the said Forest, as well those already included as those intended to be included under the Authority of this Act, shall be and the same are lawfully discharged, and shall be and continue unincumbered and discharged for ever thereafter from all Feudal Rights, Incumbrances and Authorities whatsoever (if any such remain) and from all Feudal Rents, Customs and Services which His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or any other Person or Persons, could otherwise claim therein.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to set out, allot and award any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within the said Forest, or within any Parish or Place adjoining thereto, in lieu of and in Exchange for any other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within the said Forest, or within any adjoining Parish, Township or Place, provided that all such Exchanges shall be ascertained, specified and declared in the final Award of the said Commissioners, and be made with the Consent of the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Premises which shall be so exchanged, whether such Proprietor or Proprietors shall be a Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporation Aggregate or Sole, or a Tenant or Tenants in Fee Simple or for Life, or in Fee Tail General or Special, or by the County of England, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, with the Consent of the Lessor or Lessors, but not otherwise, or with the Consent of the Guardians, Trustees or Executors for Charitable, Pious or other Uses, Hospitals, Companies or Attorneys or of any such Proprietor or Proprietors who at the time of making such Exchange or Exchanges shall be respectively Infants, Femes Covert, Idiots, Lunatics, or under any other legal Disability, or who shall be beyond the Sea, or otherwise disabled to act for themselves, lawfully or herself, such Consent to be testified in Writing under the Common Seal of the Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, and under the Hands of the other consenting Parties respectively; and all and every such Exchange and Exchanges so to be made shall be good, valid and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided nevertheless, that no Exchange shall be made of any Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, held in right of any Church, Chapel or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, without the Consent testified as aforesaid of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese in which such Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments shall be situate, and of the Parson of such Church, Chapel, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Costs, Charges and Expenses attending the making and completing of any Exchanges and Partitions to be made under or by virtue of the said Act, recited, Act and this Act, or either of them, shall be paid, borne and defrayed by the several Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, for whose Benefit such Exchanges or Partitions shall be made, in such manner and in such Proportions as the said Commissioners shall, by their final Award, order and direct.

LV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Lease and Lessee at Rack or extended Rent now subsisting of any Messuages, Lands or Tenements having Rights within the said Forest, shall, as far as such Lease or Lessee shall or claim any Abatement or Allowments to be made of any Part of the said Forest, or Rights or Rights of Common therein, in respect of such Messuages, Lands or Tenements comprised in such Lease or Leases, be and the same is and are hereby declared to be null and void as to such Allowment and Allowments, and such Abatement and Allowments shall be made and allowed unto the Landlord or Landlords, and not to the Tenant or Tenants, Lessor or Lessors, and such Abatement and Allowments shall be fixed and discharged of and from all Right and Interest which may or otherwise might be claimed is or to be the same by virtue of such Lease or Leases; and the Person or Persons to whom the Messuages, Lands or Tenements comprised in such Lease or Leases shall belong, as Landlord or Landlords, shall make such Compensation, by way of Retainer or mutual Abatement of Rent or otherwise, to the Person or Persons entitled to the same, under such Lease or Leases, as the said Commissioners shall, by Writing under their Hands, direct, for the Right of Common or other Rights or Interests, in, over or upon the said Forest or any Part thereof, appendant or appurtenant to such Messuages, Lands or Tenements, and which shall be extinguished by this Act; And if any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to make any such assent or other Compromise to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, within Twenty one Days next after Demand made thereof, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, to raise and levy the sum for the Use and Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, by such ways and means as any Justices or Justices are directed by law or the said recited Act to be raised or levied.

LVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to revoke, make void, alter or annul any Will, Settlement or Surrender, or to prejudice any Person or Persons having any Right or Claim of Dower, Jointure, Portion, Debt, Rest or Incumbency, out of, upon or affecting any Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the said Forest, or any adjoining Manor, Parish, Township or Place, which shall be allotted or exchanged by virtue of the said first recited Act or this Act; but that each and every Proprietor shall stand and be bound of the Premises to be allotted or given in exchange to him or her as aforesaid, so such and the same Uses, and for such and the same Estates, and subject to such and the same Wills, Deeds, Settlements, Debts, Charges, Rents and Incumbencies (Right of Common and Common of Pasture as aforesaid, and such other Exceptions and Provisions as are herein made, only excepted, and no other), in the Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments whereof such Proprietor or Proprietors was or were seized or possessed at or immediately before the Execution of the said Award of the said Commissioners, or for which or in respect whereof such Allotments or Exchanges shall be made, would have been subject to, charged with or affected by, in case this Act had not been passed.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That no Sheep or Lambs shall be kept in any of the new Inclosures to be made by virtue of this Act, during the Space of Seven Years from the Execution of the said first Award, unless the same shall be properly fenced, or the Person or Persons keeping such Sheep or Lambs shall do, at his, her or their own Expense, fence or guard his, her or their Neighbour's Quicksets (if any such there shall be) adjoining the Inclosures wherein such Sheep or Lambs shall be kept, in so to prevent any Damage being done to such Quicksets by such Sheep or Lambs; and it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to turn or put, or cause to be turned or put any Sheep, Lambs, Horses, Afirs or other Beasts or Cattle, into any of the Ways, Lanes or Roads, on either Side of which any new planted Fence shall be growing.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if going to the Situation or other Circumstances of any Allotment or Allotments, it shall happen that the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof shall not have a proportionable Share of Boundary Fencing thereto, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, where they shall judge reasonable, to ascertain and appoint any Sum or Sums of Money, to be contributed and paid by such Proprietor or Proprietors, towards the Expense of the Boundary Fencing of such other or others of the said Proprietors who may happen to have too great a Proportion thereof, in order that the Expenses of the said Boundary Fencing may be brought as near as may be to a just and equal Proportion (regard being had to the several Subdivisions Fences within the respective Allotments); and the Money so to be ascertained and applied shall be levied and recovered in such and the same manner as the Charges and Expenses of executing any Act of Inclosure are by the said first recited Act directed to be levied and recovered: Provided, that no such Sum or Sums of Money so to be contributed and paid as aforesaid, shall be actually levied until the Fences, in respect whereof such Contribution is directed to be made, shall be put up and completed to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners.

LIX. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, at any time before the Execution of their final Award, to make any Alterations in the Allotments and Fences which they may have first set out and ordered, or in any Private Roads laid out to be laid out or to such Allotments, that they shall think right and expedient: Provided, that no Alteration shall be made in any thing directed by the said first Award relating to the Allotment or Allotments to be made to The King's Most Excellent Majesty, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, first had and obtained: And in case any Person or Persons shall be injured by such Alterations on Account of any Expenses he, she or they, may have been at, the said Commissioners shall ascertain and determine what Recompence shall be made to him, her or them, and shall direct by whom and in what manner such Recompence shall be made.

LX. And be it further enacted, That the Costs, Charges and Expenses incident to and attending the obtaining and passing of this Act, of Perambulation, of first surveying and valuing the said Forest, and of setting out the Allotments by this Act directed to be made and set out to and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and to and for the said Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, or other Owner or Owners of the Tithes as aforesaid, and of valuing and herolling the said first Award, shall be paid and borne by His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, out of any Money which is or shall be in the Hands of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all other the Costs, Charges and Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution, and of dividing, subdividing and allotting the Lands and Grounds by this Act directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, unto and among the several other Owners and Proprietors of Lands having Rights on the said Forest, shall be borne and defrayed by such Owners or Proprietors respectively, in such Shares and Proportions, at such Time or Times, Manner and Places, as the said Commissioners, either before or after the Execution of their said final Award, shall order, direct or appoint, by any Rate or Rates to be made by the said Commissioners for that Purpose (save and except The King's Most Excellent Majesty, in respect of the Allotment or Allotments to be made to Him by virtue of this Act, and save and except the said Sir Thomas Dyle Award, in respect of the Allotment or Allotments to be made in lieu of Taxes, or the Perpet or Persons entitled thereto, in respect of such Allotment or Allotments), and the Determination of the said Commissioners in the Premises shall be final and conclusive; and in case any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay his, her or their Share or Proportion of such Costs, Charges and Expenses as aforesaid, within the time and in the manner appointed by the said Commissioners, then and in such case the said Commissioners shall cause the same to be raised, levied and recovered in the manner prescribed and directed by the said first recited Act.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, on Application being made to them in Writing by any of the Husband, Guardians, Trustees, Committees or Attorneys, of or for any of the said Proprietors or Persons interested in the Premises, being under Coverture, Minors, Idiots, Lunatics or beyond the Seas, or under any other Disability or Incapacity, or by the Persons acting as such Guardians, Trustees, Committees or Attorneys respectively, or by any of the Proprietors of the Lands hereby directed to be divided and allotted, or any Part thereof, who are or shall be Tenant or Tenants in Tail, or for any Life or Lives, or any other Contingency, in mortgage or sell, either before or after the making the said Award, Part of the Allotment or Allotments to be made by virtue of this Act, to such incapacitated Proprietor or Proprietors, or other Person or Persons, by whom or in whose behalf any such Application shall be made as aforesaid, for the Purpose of raising a Sum of Money sufficient to defray the respective Taxes and Proportions of the Costs, Charges and Expenses of executing the said first recited Act and this Act, which shall be charged upon or payable by such incapacitated Proprietors or other Person or Persons respectively, and of securing and inclosing and subdividing his, her or their Allotment or Allotments, and of making and completing such Mortgage or Sale; and such Mortgage or Sale shall be made by the said Commissioners in such and the like manner, and subject to such and the like Rules and Regulations, as are mentioned and prescribed in and by the said first recited Act, in respect to the Sale of any Lands authorized to be sold for paying the Expenses of obtaining and carrying into Execution any Act for dividing, allotting and inclosing any Lands and Grounds; and each and every Allotment, for which the full Purchase Money shall be paid, shall be conveyed by the said Commissioners, at the Expense of such Purchaser or Purchasers, unto such Purchaser or Purchasers, and his, her or their Heirs respectively, or as he, she or they shall appoint, and shall be inclosed and held by such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively in fee simple, and the Receipt of the said Commissioners shall be a good and sufficient Discharge to such Purchaser or Purchasers for the said Purchase Money, which shall be applied by the said Commissioners in or towards defraying such last mentioned Costs, Charges and Expenses; and if any Surplus shall remain in the Hands of the said Commissioners, the same shall be applied and disposed of by them in the manner directed by the said first recited Act, with respect to Money which is thereby directed to be paid into the Bank of England for the Purchase or Exchange of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be settled to the same Uses, or of any Timber or Wood growing thereon, and which ought to be laid out in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as therein mentioned: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to make by such Mortgage or Sale any further or greater Sum of Money than the Perpet or Persons, Part of whose Allotment or Allotments shall be mortgaged or sold as aforesaid, would have been empowered or authorized to borrow or charge upon his, her or their Allotment or Allotments, reckoning Five Pounds for each and every Acre thereof, under or by virtue of the said first recited Act: Provided always, that in all cases where any Lands shall be sold for Payment of Expenses as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Proprietor or Person whose Lands shall be so sold, to charge the Residue of his or her Allotment, by virtue of the said first recited Act or this Act, with any Money towards Payment of such Expenses.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, after having ascertained and completed such Subdivision and Allotment of the said Fens as aforesaid, draw up or cause to be drawn up their final Award, and the same, when enrolled in manner directed by the said first recited Act, shall be deposited and left with the Clerks of the Peace for the Counties of Somerset and Devon, where the same shall and may be inspected and perused at all reasonable times in the Day-time, for ever thereafter, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, paying the Sum of One Shilling and no more, to the said Clerks of the Peace respectively, or their Deputies, for every such Inspection and Perusal; and Two Copies of such Award shall be enrolled, one of them in the Court of Exchequer in Westminster, and the other of them in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, there to remain, and shall afterwards be filed and preserved amongst the Memorials of the Office of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues; such Award, or the Instrument thereof, as he produced and read in Evidence on all Occasions where any Dispute, Doubt or Controversy may arise, relating to or affecting the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in respect of any Allotment vested in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by virtue of this Act.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That once at least in each and every Year during the Execution of this Act (such Year to be computed from the Day of passing thereof) the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to make a true and just Statement or Account of any Sums of Money, by them or either of them received and expended, or due to them for their own Treasable and Expenses in the Execution of this Act; and such Statement or Account, when it made, together with the Vouchers relating thereto, shall be laid before any Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Somerset, not interested in the said intended Division and Inclosure, to be by them examined and balanced at a Public Meeting (whereof Twenty one Days' Notice shall be given in the Exeter Journal and Western Newspaper), the said Justices being hereby authorized to take or call such Aid and Assistance in such Examination as they shall think fit, and to charge the incidental Expenses; and the Balance shall be by the said Justices stated in the Books of Account, to be kept in the Office of the Clerk or Clerks of the said Commissioners; and no Charge or Issue in such Ac-essents shall be binding on the Parties concerned, or valid in the Law, unless allowed by the said Justices of the Peace as aforesaid.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whomsoever shall advance and pay any Money towards the Expenses heretofore directed to be borne or defrayed by the Owners or Proprietors of Lands having Right in the said Forest, of carrying this Act into Execution, the Money so advanced and paid shall be repaid and intitled to him, her or them, by the Directors of the said Commissioners, together with lawful Interest for the same, from the time of the Advancement thereof.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, shall think himself, herself or themselves, aggrieved by any thing done or omitted to be done in pursuance of the said recited Act or of this Act (other than and except as to the said Claims, Matters and Things which shall be ascertained, settled, tried or determined by the Verdict of a Jury under the Power and Authority heretofore contained, or where, by any of the Provisions or Clauses of the said first recited Act or this Act, the Determinations, Orders, Acts or Proceedings of the said Commissioners or Umpire are declared or directed to be final and conclusive), then and in every such case, he, she or they may appeal to the Justices at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held for the said County of Somerset or Devon, as the case may be, within Three Calendar Months next after the cause of Complaint shall have arisen, or as going to the said Commissioners or either of them, and to the Party or Parties concerned, Twenty one Days' Notice in Writing of such Appeal and of the Matters thereof; and the Justices not invested in the Provision, in their said General Quarter Sessions, are hereby required to hear and determine the Matter of every such Appeal, and to make such Order and award such Costs and Damages as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, and by their Order or Warrant to levy the Costs and Damages which shall be so awarded, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties liable to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) upon Demand, to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Warrant, Distress and Sale; and the Determination of the said Justices shall be final and conclusive on all Parties concerned, and shall not be removed or removable, by Certiorari or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, less any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or elsewhere; but in case such Appeal shall appear to the said Justices to be frivolous, vexatious or without sufficient Foundation, then the said Justices shall award such Costs to be paid by the Appellant or Appellants, as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable, and to be levied in manner aforesaid.

LXVII. And Whereas it may be expedient that such Allotment or Allotments of Land as shall be made or set out, unto or for His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under or by virtue of this Act, or some Part or Parts thereof, should be sold or disposed of, and that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being, should be empowered to make such Sales; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to contract and agree for the Sale of, and absolutely to make sale and dispose of, all such Part or Parts of the said Forest as shall be set out or allotted unto His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under or by virtue of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities herein contained, or of any Part or Parts thereof, and of all His Majesty's Rights and Interests in and to the same, and of all the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of, in and to all Mines of Coal, Lead Ores, Metals and other Minerals whatsoever, in or under the said Forest or any Part thereof, hereby referred to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and of all Powers of searching for, working, digging, raising and carrying away such Coal, Lead Ores, Metals and other Minerals for the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues shall be able to procure for the same; and all and every the Sums and Sums of Money which shall or may arise or be produced from such last mentioned Sale or Sales shall from time to time be paid into the Bank of England, and placed in the Account directed by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for uniting the Office of Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of The Crown, and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases, to be retailed in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, intituled "The Account of the Publick Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being the Woods and Forests Fund," and shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like manner, and for such and the like Purposes, as the other Monies by such last mentioned Act directed or authorized to be paid in, carried into or placed in the same Account, are thereby authorized or directed to be paid, applied or disposed of.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any of the said Lands, Hereditaments, Rights or Interests, hereby authorized to be sold as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall grant to the Purchaser or respective Purchasers thereof a Certificate under their Hands, delineating the Premises so agreed to be sold, and the Amount of the Purchase Money to be paid for the same, and which shall accordingly be paid into the Bank of England within Thirty one Days after the Date of such Certificate; and the Cashiers of the Bank or one of them shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, accept and receive the Purchase Monies therein intimated, and carry the same to the Account therein specified, and at the Foot or on the Back of such Certificate acknowledge the Receipt of the same without Fee or Reward; and every such Certificate and Receipt shall be according to the Form contained in Schedule (A.) to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit, and shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatever; and every such Certificate and Receipt shall, within One Calendar Month after the Date of such Certificate, be taken to the Office of the

Auditor

And after the said Revenue for the District within which the said Lands or Hereditaments therein described are situate, and be there forthwith remitted in the proper Books for that Purpose; and such Assessor, having enrolled the said Certificate and Receipt, shall attest the same under his Hand, and shall upon receiving the usual Fees for such Enrolment return the said Certificate and Receipt to the Purchaser or Purchasers; and from and after such Enrolment and thereafter for ever, the respective Purchasers, their Heirs or Successors, shall, by force and virtue of this Act, be, and shall be adjudged, deemed and taken to be the actual Seisin and Possession of the Lands, Hereditaments, Rights and Interests to be by them respectively purchased, and shall hold and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, freed and discharged from all Claims and Demands of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or of any Person or Persons claiming under him or them, as fully and amply to all Interests and Purposes, as His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, might or could have held or enjoyed the same if such Sale had not taken place; and every such Certificate shall be respectively witnessed and attested, as to the signing thereof by the said Commissioners, by one of the principal Clerks or other Officers in their or his Office; and every such Certificate and Receipt, being enrolled as aforesaid, shall effectually discharge the respective Purchasers to whom the same shall be given or granted, of and from the Purchase or Consideration Money therein expressed, and such Purchasers shall never afterwards be liable to be called upon, sued, troubled, molested or questioned, for or in respect thereof, or of any Part thereof.

LXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons to whom any such Certificate as aforesaid shall be granted, shall neglect to pay into the Bank the Consideration Money therein to be specified, for the Space of Thirty Days after the Date of such Certificate, or shall neglect to send such Certificate and the said Cashier's Receipt for the said Money, for the like Space of time, then every such Certificate shall be null and void, and the Consideration Money, if paid into the Bank, shall be forfeited, unless the said Commissioners shall for any reasonable Cause to them shewn for the Omission of such Enrolment, order the said Certificate and Receipt to be enrolled ex gratia rear, and which upon such Cause being shewn, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to order accordingly.

LXXX. And Whereas it may happen that some Part of the said Parish, may hereafter become inhabited, * so which calls the Inhabitants thereof, by reason of its remote Distance from any Parish Church, and of its * being locally situate out of the Limits or Boundaries of any Parish, with base no Place of Public Worship * to resort to; and it is therefore expedient that as well for the Convenience of such Inhabitants as for extend * ing the Benefit and Influence of Religious Worship and Instruction, that such Provision should be made in * that respect as are hereinafter contained; Be it therefore further enacted, That such a Quantity of Land as shall be necessary for the Site of a Church, and for a Churchyard or Cemetery, and for the Site of a proper Parsonage House and Offices to be erected and built, and for a Garden and Yard or Homestead to be attached thereto, in the Extent in the Whole of Ten Acres at the least, shall be reserved by The Crown out of the Lands so to be allotted to His Majesty as aforesaid, and shall not be sold; and that in case at any time hereafter the Number of Persons who shall be resident and inhabiting upon the said Parish shall, in the Judgment and Opinion of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being, be such as shall render it expedient that a Church shall be erected upon the said Aforesaid, for the Performance of Divine Worship therein, and for the affording religious Instruction to the Inhabitants thereof, then and in such case the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall, by and out of the Land Revenue of The Crown, cause a new Church and a fit and convenient Parsonage House and Offices to be erected and built upon Part of the Lands so to be reserved as aforesaid, and shall appropriate other Part thereof near to the said Church, for a Churchyard or Burial Ground, and the Refectory thereof, as a Garden, Yard or Homestead to the said Parsonage House, and shall inclose the same accordingly, in such manner as the said last mentioned Commissioners shall think proper for such Purposes; and shall cause the said Church when so erected, and the Churchyard so to be attached thereto, to be duly consecrated according to the Usage of the Church of England; and the same Church shall be for ever thereafter set apart and dedicated as and for a Place of Divine Worship, according to the Rights and Ceremonies of the Church of England, for the Use of all the Inhabitants who shall in whole within the Bounds or Precincts of the said Parish, and shall be named and call The Parish Church of Exminster; and that the said Parish shall for ever thereafter form and be a distinct Parish of itself, and be called by the Name of The Parish of Exminster: Provided always, that there shall be set apart and appropriated in the Church to be erected and built by virtue of this Act, such a Number of Seats for the gratuitous Accommodation of the Poor of the said Parish, as the Lord Bishop of the Diocese shall think necessary, proper and convenient.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Erection and Consecration of the said Parish Church, the said Piece of Ground which shall be so inclosed and appropriated as a Churchyard or Cemetery as aforesaid, shall be and for ever continue to be a Churchyard or Place of Burial for all the Inhabitants of such Parish.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Plan or Design of such Church, Parsonage House, Offices and other Buildings, shall be submitted to and approved by the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being, before the same shall be erected; and that in such Church, Parsonage House or other Building shall be erected in pursuance of this Act, without the Approbation of the said Bishop signified in Writing under his Hand.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Church when built, completed and consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby declared to be a perpetual Cure and Benefice, and shall be called by the Name of The Parish Church of Exminster; and that every Minister of the said Church shall be by virtue of this Act incorporated and made a Body Politic and Corporate, by the Name of The Officiating Minister of the Church of Exminster; and shall have perpetual Succession, and be enabled to sue and be sued by that Name in all Courts of this Realm; and that the said Church and Churchyard or Burial Place, and the said Parsonage House,

C A P. CXXXIX.

An Act to grant an additional Duty of Excise in Ireland, upon Spirits made or distilled from Corn or Grain.

[6th July 1815.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies, have freely and voluntarily refused to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned, and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within and through that Part of the said United Kingdom called Ireland, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

For and upon every Gallon of Aqua Vita, Strong Waters or Spirits, which, at any time from and after the Nineteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be made or distilled in Ireland, from Cereals, or Grains malted or unmalted, or for which any Distiller shall be chargeable by Law, an additional Duty of Six pence, British Currency, over and above all other Duties payable thereon, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the said Nineteenth Day of June, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity, and which said additional Duty shall be paid by the Full Maker or Distiller of such Spirits.

Additional

Duties.

Paid by Maker.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall also be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

For

Additional Duty on each in Hand.

For and upon every Gallon of Apus Fide, Strong Waters or Spirits, made or distilled in Ireland, from Corn or Grain malted or unmalted, which shall have been in the Stock, Cellary or Possession of any Distiller in Ireland, or of any Person for the Use of such Distiller, on the said Nineteenth Day of June, the additional Duty or Sum of Six pence British Currency, over and above all other Duties which shall have been charged or paid on such Apus Fide, Strong Waters or Spirits, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

And also for and upon every Gallon of Apus Fide, Strong Waters or Spirits, made in Great Britain or Ireland, from Corn or Grain malted or unmalted, which shall have been in the Stock, Cellary or Possession of any Importer of, Dealer in, Seller or Retailer of Spirits in Ireland, or of any Retailer or any Compounder of Spirits in Ireland, on the said Nineteenth Day of June, an additional Duty or Sum of Six pence British Currency, over and above all other Duties which shall have been paid on such Apus Fide, Strong Waters or Spirits, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

Provided.

Provided always, that no such Charge of Six pence per Gallon upon any Spirits in the Stock, Cellary or Possession of any Person, shall take place upon or after any Person who shall not in the whole have had the Quantity of Thirty Gallons in Stock, Cellary or Possession, on the said Nineteenth Day of June, and that no such Charge shall take place on any Spirits in the Stock of any Compounder of Spirits, which shall have been actually compounded before the said Nineteenth Day of June.

'So far as relates to the procuring of Stones for such Purposes from Quarries?' Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for every Surveyor of such Bridges as aforesaid, and every County writhe that Part of the United Kingdom called England, appointed or to be appointed by the Justices at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County; and also to and for the Bridge Master or all and every Persons or Persons who may at the passing of this Act, or from and after the passing thereof, be under Contract for the rebuilding or repairing of any Public Bridge, built or repaired at the Expence of the Inhabitants of any such County, Hundred or General Division as aforesaid; and such Surveyor and Surveyors, and also such other Persons or Persons, are hereby authorized and empowered, with the Consent and by the Order of Two Justices of the Peace, sitting for the County in which such Bridge is situated to be rebuilt or repaired, first had and obtained for that Purpose, to search for, work, dig, get and carry away any Stone, or from or out of any Quarry or Quarries whatsoever, within the County or Counties to which such Bridge may belong; other than and except such Quarries as may be situated within a Garden, Yard, Avenue to a House, Lawn, Park, Paddock or inclosed Plantation, or as may now or hereafter have Ornamental Timber Trees growing thereon, without the Licence or Consent of the Owner or Owners of such Quarry or Quarries, as such Surveyor or other Person or Persons shall judge necessary for the rebuilding or repairing of such Bridges respectively, provided such Quarry or Quarries shall have been worked within the last Three Years preceding the time when such Bridge shall be about to be rebuilt or repaired; the said Surveyor or other Persons or Persons making such Satisfaction and Reconcompence for the Value of such Stone, and also for the Damage to be done to such Quarry or Quarries by the getting and carrying away the same, as shall be agreed upon between him or them, and the Owner, Occupier or other Person interested in such Quarry or Quarries respectively; and in case they cannot agree, or such Owner or Occupier or other Person interested shall refuse to treat, then and in every such case the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions, or any Two or more of them appointed for that Purpose, Fourteen Days' Notice having been given to the Owner or his Agent of the Intention to regulate a Jury, shall cause the Value of such Stones and Amount of such Damage to be required and ascertained by a Jury of indifferent Men of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty or Precinct wherein the same shall be situated; and to that end shall summons and call before such Jury and examine upon Oath (which Oath any Two or more of such Justices of the Peace is and are hereby empowered to administer) any Person or Persons whatsoever; and such Justices of the Peace, or any Two of them, shall, by ordering a View or otherwise, all all ways and means for the Information of themselves and of such Jury in the Premises; and when such Jury shall have required of and ascertained the Value of such Stones and Amount of such Damage, the said Justices of the Peace shall thereupon order that the Seen or Taken, which shall be found to be the Value of such Stones and Amount of such Damage shall be paid; which Verdict or Inquisition and Order shall be filed of Record by the Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the said County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty or Precinct, and shall be final and conclusive in all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, against all Parties and Persons whatsoever claiming or to claim in Petition, Remouder, Reversion or otherwise, their Heirs and Successors, as well abject as present, Infants, Lame, Idiots, and Persons under Contract, or any other Disability whatsoever, Corporations, Guilds, Companies, Hofbands, Truities and Attorneys, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever.

II. And, for the summoning and returning such Jurors, be it further enacted, That such Justices of the Peace or any Two of them, may issue their Warrant or Warrants, to the Sheriff or Bailiff of any particular County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty or Precinct, within the Limits of which the Quarry or Quarries shall be situated, requiring him to imprison, summon and return as indifferent Jury of Twenty four Persons qualified to serve on Juries to appear before the said Justices, or any Two of them, at such time and Place as in such Warrant or Warrants shall be appointed; and such Sheriff or Bailiff is and are hereby required to imprison, summon and return such Number of Persons accordingly; and out of the Persons so imprisoned, summoned and returned, or out of such of them as shall appear upon such Summons, the Justices of the Peace, or any Two of them shall, and they are hereby empowered and required to draw by Ballot, and to swear or cause to be sworn, Twelve Men, who shall be the Jury for the Purposes aforesaid; and in Default of a sufficient Number of Jurymen so returned, the said Sheriff or Bailiff shall take such other honest and indifferent Men of the Byshoppes, or that can speedily be procured to attend that Service, to make up the Number of Twelve; and all Persons concerned shall have their lawful Challenges against any of the said Jurymen when they come to be sworn; and the said Justices of the Peace, or any Two of them, shall have Power from time to time to impose a Fine or Fines on such Sheriff or Bailiff, or his Deputy or Deputies, making Default in the Premises, and on any of the Persons who shall be summoned and returned on such Jury, and who shall not appear, or, appearing, shall refuse to be sworn on the said Jury, or, being sworn, shall refuse to give or shall not give a Verdict, or shall in any other manner wilfully neglect his or their Duty therein, and also on any Person who, being summoned and required to give Evidence before the said Jury, shall refuse or neglect to appear, or, appearing, shall refuse to be sworn or to give Evidence, so that no such Fine be more than Ten Pounds, nor less than Twenty Shillings, on any one Person for one Offence.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Jury shall give in and deliver a Verdict for more Money as the Value of such Stones and Amount of such Damage, than what shall have been offered for the Purchase thereof by such Surveyor or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, the Costs and Expenses of summoning and maintaining the Jury and Witnesses shall be borne and paid out of the Rates to be collected within such County respectively; but if such Jury shall give in and deliver a Verdict for no more or for less Money than the Money which shall have been so offered by such Surveyor or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, then the Costs and Expenses of summoning and maintaining the said Jury and Witnesses shall be borne and paid by the Parties or Persons with whom such Controversy or Dispute touching the Value of such Stones and Amount of such Damage shall arise, and shall be taxed by the Warden of one of the said Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Parties or Persons made liable to the Payment thereof.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall or may think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by any thing done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may within the Space of Three Calendar Months next after the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the County wherein the Cause of Complaint shall arise, every such Appellant first giving or causing to be given Fourteen Day's Notice at least in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Cause or Matter thereof, to the Parties or Persons against whom such Complaint shall be made, and within Three Days next after such Notice entered into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace acting for the County wherein the Cause of Complaint shall arise, with Two sufficient Sureties conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide by the Order of and pay such Costs as shall be awarded by the Justices at such Session aforesaid; and the said Justices at such Session, upon due Proof of such Notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the Cause and Matter of every such Appeal in a summary way, and make such Award to the Party appealing or appealed against, as the said Justices shall think proper; and the Determination of such Justices is aforesaid shall be binding and conclusive to all Events and Purposes.

V. And Whereas it is expedient that the Powers contained in an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for remedying certain Defects in the Laws relating to the Building and repairing of County Bridges, and other Works maintained at the Expence of the Inhabitants of Counties in England, for authorizing the Justices of the Peace of any County, City, Riding, Division, Town Corporate or Liberty, at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to contract for maintaining and keeping in Repair Roads over County Bridges, and to such of the Roads at the ending thereof as by Law is to be repaired at the Expence of Counties, although an Proviso therein shall have been made of the want of Repair, as directed by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more easy raising, collecting and levying of County Rates, should be extended to the Bridges as well as to the Roads at the End thereof: Be it further enacted, That, from and after the Day of passing this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace of any County, City, Riding, Division, Town Corporate or Liberty, at their General Quarter Sessions respectively, to contract and agree, or to authorize any other Person or Persons to contract and agree, with any Person or Persons, for the maintaining and keeping in Repair any County or Hundred Bridge, and the Road over such County or Hundred Bridge, and so much of the Road at the Ends thereof as are by Law liable to be repaired at the Expence of any such County, Hundred, City, Riding, Division, Town Corporate or Liberty, or any Part of the same; and the said Justices are hereby empowered to order such Sum or Sums of Money as may be contracted for and agreed to be paid for the repairing, extending and supporting such Bridges, and the Roads over the same, or the Ends thereof, to be paid (in cases where the County is liable to the Repair thereof) by the Treasurer of the County out of the County Rate, or (in cases where the Hundred is liable to the Repair of the same) by the Bridge Master (or other Public Officer charged with the Repair of Bridges) of the Hundred by which such Bridge is liable to be repaired, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, nor less than One, although no Proviso of the Inefficiency, Decay or want of Repair of the same shall have been made, and although no Notice shall have been given by the said Justices, at their respective General or Quarter Sessions, of their Intention to contract for the Repair of such Bridges, or the Roads at the Ends thereof, as respectively directed by the said Act of the Twelfth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second: Provided nevertheless, that before any such Contract shall be made, the said Justices shall cause Notice to be given in some Public Paper circulated in such County, City, Riding, Hundred, Division, Town Corporate or Liberty, of their Intention so to contract.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be awarded and adjudged for any such House or Houses, Building or Buildings, Plot or Parcel of Ground, shall neglect or refuse to execute a Conveyance or Conveyances to such Commissioners of such House or Houses, Building or Buildings, Plot or Plots, Parcel or Parcels of Ground, or to give such Commissioners the usual Pollition thereof, such Commissioners may make a Petition to the Court of Chancery in Ireland, praying that such Person or Persons who shall so neglect or refuse may be directed to execute such Conveyance or Conveyances, and deliver the Possession of any such Premises; and the said Court shall upon hearing of such Petition, unless some good Cause shall be shown to the contrary, order and direct such Conveyance or Conveyances to be executed, and shall by the Issuance of the said Court cause such Commissioners to be put into the Possession of such Premises; and in case such Person or Persons who shall be so ordered and directed to execute such Conveyance or Conveyances shall neglect for the Space of One Calendar Month after such Order shall be pronounced, or shall refuse to execute such Conveyance or Conveyances, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Chancery, to order and direct One of the Masters of the said Court, to execute a Conveyance or Conveyances of such Premises, to such Commissioners and their Successors, and every such Conveyance by such Master shall have the like Force and Effect in Law and Equity, as if the same had been executed by such Person or Persons so ordered and directed to execute the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to summon in Writing each Person or Persons as may be found necessary to give Evidence before any Jury to be impanelled for the Purpose of this Act, as well on behalf of the said Commissioners as of any Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, Lessee or Lessees, Body or Bodies Corporate, Sole or Aggregate, Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees, Committee or Committees of any Estate, House or Houses, Farm or Farms, Island, Locality or any of them, and in case such Person or Persons who shall be so summoned as aforesaid shall (having been tendered his or her reasonable Expenses) refuse or neglect to attend at the Place in such Summons to be specified within Twenty four Hours if resident in the City of Dublin, and if resident at a Distance from the said City, within a reasonable time after Service thereof, or shall refuse to give Evidence, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for the time being, or any Three or more of them, upon Proof of the Service of such Summons by the Oath of some credible Person (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer), to impose such Fine or Fines on such Person or Persons in refusing or neglecting to attend as aforesaid, or refusing to give Evidence, as to them the said Commissioners may seem proper, any such Fine not to exceed Fifty Pounds.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland for the time being, to pay all such Sums of Money as shall be necessary for the Purpose of this Act, out of any Money in their Hands, arising from the Duties of Customs payable in Ireland.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Penalty and Penalties imposed, or to be imposed by virtue of this Act, shall and may be sued for and recovered by Civil Bill to be brought for the same in the Name of the Secretary of the Customs for the time being, at any Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of the City of Dublin, and such Penalties when recovered shall be applied to the same Purposes as the Revenue arising from the Duties to the Importation of Goods under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs of Ireland.

An Act to increase the Allowance to the Post Office in Ireland, in respect of Packet Boats to Great Britain.

[5th July 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Twenty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for abolishing certain Regulations concerning the Postage and Conveyance of Letters and Packets by the Post between Great Britain and Ireland, it was, among other things, enacted, that until the General Post Office of Ireland shall have established Packet Boats for the Port and Conveyance of Letters and Packets from Ireland to Great Britain, there should be allowed in account from the General Letter Office or Post Office in Great Britain to the Revenue of the Post Office in Ireland, a Sum not exceeding Four thousand Pounds per Annum, by Quarterly Payments, so long as well as the Profits of the said Packet Boats in Compensation for other Purposes: And Whereas such Packet Boats have not yet been established by the General Post Office in Ireland, and it is expedient that the said Allowance should be increased: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the General Post Office of Ireland shall have established Packet Boats for the Port and Conveyance of Letters and Packets from Ireland to Great Britain, there shall be allowed in account from the General Letter Office

An Act to authorize His Majesty to regulate, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Trade with any French Colony which may come into His Majesty's Possession or remain Neutral. [8th July 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient, under the present Circumstances, that the Trade and Commerce to and from any French Colony or Plantation that may be captured by or surrendered to His Majesty's Arms, or that may be put under the Protection of His Majesty, or that may not take Part with His Majesty's Enemies in the present Hostilities, should be regulated for a certain time in such manner as shall seem proper to His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, notwithstanding the special Provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament that may be construed to affect the same: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such Directions and make such Regulations touching the Trade and Commerce between any such Colony or Plantation and any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; any thing contained in any Act, passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, entitled An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Trade and Commerce with French Colonies regulated by Order in Council.
12. Ch. 2. c. 18.

Goods imported or exported from any Colonies captured with Vessels carrying them.
Forfeiture here and fee.

It shall be further enacted, That if any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever shall be imported into or exported from any such Colony or Plantation, or shall be exported from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions to any such Colony or Plantation, or if any Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be so imported or exported in any manner whatever, contrary to any such Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship or Vessel in which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall respectively be imported or exported, with all her Guns, Ammunition, Furniture, Tackle and Apparel; and every such Forfeiture shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered by such and the like ways, means and methods, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respecting the Revenue of Customs may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered, in Places where respectively the Offences shall be committed, and the produce thereof shall be disposed of, paid and applied, in like manner in the said Places respectively; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Continuance of Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

C. A. P. CXI. VII.

An Act for enabling Spiritual Persons to exchange the Parsonage or Glebe Houses or Glebe Lands, belonging to their Benefices, for others of greater Value, or more conveniently situated for their Residence and Occupation; and for amending such Houses and Lands, so taken in Exchange, to such Benefices as Parsonage or Glebe Houses and Glebe Lands, and for purchasing and amending Lands to become Glebe in certain Cases; and for other Purposes. [8th July 1815.]

WHEREAS in divers Ecclesiastical Benefices, Perpetual Curacies and Parochial Chapels, the Glebe Lands, or some Part or Parts thereof, be at a Distance from and are inconveniently to be occupied with the Parsonage or Glebe Houses, and the Parsonage or Glebe Houses of divers Benefices, Perpetual Curacies and Parochial Chapels, are small and inconvenient; and it would often tend much to the Comfort and Accommodation and thereby also to promote the Residence of the Incumbents of such Benefices, Perpetual Curacies and Parochial Chapels, if the Glebe Lands and Parsonage or Glebe Houses thereof could be by Law exchanged for other Lands of greater Value, or more conveniently situated, and for other and more convenient Houses: And Whereas there are also divers Lands and Tenements which have been accustomed to be granted or leased by the Incumbent for the time being of certain Ecclesiastical Benefices, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapels, for One, Two or Three Lives, or for a Term or Terms of Years absolutely or determinable on a Life or Lives, as being holden by Copy of Court Roll or otherwise, under some Manor or Lordship belonging to such Benefices, Perpetual Curacies or Parochial Chapels, and it would therefore be advantageous to the said Benefices if the same Lands and Tenements, or some of them, or some Part thereof, were annexed as Glebe to the Living or Benefice to which they belong: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Parson, Vicar or other Incumbent for the time being, of any Ecclesiastical Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, by Deed indented, and to be registered in manner hereafter mentioned, and with the Consent of the Patron of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, and of the Bishop of the Diocese wherein the same is locally situate (to be signified as hereinafter mentioned), to grant and convey to any Person or Persons, and to his, her or their Heirs and Assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, or to any Corporation, Sole or Aggregate, and his or their Successors, the Parsonage or Glebe House, and the Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens and Appurtenances thereof, and the Glebe Lands, and any Pastures, Feedings or Rights of Common or Way appertaining, appurtenant or in gross, or any or either of such House, Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens and Glebe Lands, Pastures, Feedings, or Rights of Common or Way, or any Part or Parts thereof, belonging to any such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, in fee of and in exchange for any House, Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens and Appurtenances, and any Lands, or any or either of them, whether lying within the local Limits of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry or not, but so as that the same be situate conveniently for actual Residence or Occupation by the Incumbent thereof, the same also being of greater Value or more conveniently situated than the Premises to be given in Exchange, and being of Freehold Tenure, or being Copyhold of Inheritance, or for Life or Lives, holden of any Manor belonging to the same Benefice, and also for the Parson, Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the same Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, by the same or a like Deed, and with the like Consent, and testified as aforesaid, to accept and take in Exchange to him and his Successors for ever, from any Person or Persons, or Corporation Sole or Aggregate, any other House, Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens, Elements and Appurtenances, and any other Lands, or any or either of such House, Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens, Lands, Elements and Appurtenances, the same respectively being of Freehold Tenure, or being Copyhold of Inheritance, or for Life or Lives, holden of any Manor belonging to the same Benefice, and being of greater Value or more conveniently situated, in fee of and in Exchange for such Parsonage or Glebe House, Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens, Glebe Lands and Appurtenances, and such Pastures, Feedings and Rights of Common or Way, or any or either of them, so to be granted and conveyed, and which said House, Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens, Lands and Appurtenances so to be accepted and taken in Exchange, by any Person, Vicar or other Incumbent, shall for ever, from and after fifth Green and Conveyance thereof, be the Parsonage and Glebe House and Glebe Lands and Premises of the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall become annexed to the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and be helden and enjoyed by such Incumbent and his Successors accordingly, without any Licence or Writ of Ad quod damnum; and that the Whole, or any Part or Parts of the said House, Outbuildings, Lands and Premises to be annexed, which before such Annexation were of Copyhold Tenure, shall for ever, from and after such Annexation, become and be of Freehold Tenure, the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to withhold the granting or conveying in Exchange by any Person, Vicar or other Incumbent, either at one and the same time, and by one and the same Incumbent, or at different times, and by several Incumbents, and in several Portions, any greater Quantity in the whole than Thirty Acres of the Glebe Lands of any Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry: Provided also, that in all cases where such Exchange shall be made by any Owner or Owners having any less Estate or Interest than in Fee Simple or in Fee the Messuage, Buildings, Lands and Premises to be by him, her or them granted or conveyed in Exchange, or being any Corporation Aggregate or Sole, or Person or Persons under any legal Disability, the Parsonage House, Outbuildings and Glebe Lands respectively to be so taken in Exchange so aforesaid, shall at the time of making such Exchange be of equal Value with, or not of less Value than the said Messuage, Buildings, Lands and Premises respectively so to be granted and conveyed in Exchange to such Person, Vicar or other Incumbent.

II. Provided always, That in all cases where the Lands or any Part or Parts thereof to be conveyed in Exchange to any Person, Vicar or Incumbent, and to be annexed to Glebe to any Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, under the Authority of this Act, shall either separately or jointly with other Lands or Tenements be, at the time of such Conveyance by any means whatsoever, exempt or discharged from the Redemption of Tithes in Kind, or subject to or covered by any Modus, Compensations Real or Prescription in lieu of Tithes in Kind, then the Lands or Premises to be conveyed in Exchange by such Person, Vicar or Incumbent, and which before such Exchange were Glebe or belonging to the same Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall (unless it be agreed between the Parties to such Exchange that the same shall become and be subject to the Redemption or Payment of Tithes in Kind) from and immediately after such Conveyance in Exchange (to such such still mentioned Lands no tenure as the same Parson, Vicarage or Parochial Chapelry, with the said Lands or Premises before Glebe thereof, or belonging thereto, but not otherwise) become and be either exempt or discharged from Tithes in Kind, in like manner with as (as the case may be) subject to or covered by the same Modus, Compensations Real or Prescription in lieu of Tithes in Kind, as the Lands to be conveyed in Exchange to the said Person, Vicar or Incumbent, were exempt or discharged from, or subject to or covered by, before such Exchange was made.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Incumbent of any Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, whom or in respect whereof any such Exchange so is authorized by this Act, shall have taken place, or his Successors, shall at any time thereafter be entitled or be deemed to be entitled to any Pastures and Easements of the House, Outbuildings, Lands and Premises, or any of them, which shall have been granted and conveyed in Exchange to such Incumbent, according to the Provision of this Act, by or by reason or in consequence of any Person or Persons, or Corporation Sole or Aggregate, claiming Right thereof, through any Title prior to that of or through any Defect of Title of the Person or Persons, or Corporation Sole or Aggregate, granting or conveying the same in Exchange; but notwithstanding that it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons, or Corporation, claiming such Right, and he, she or they is and are hereby authorized and empowered to have, use, exercise and enjoy all such and the same Powers and Remedies in trying his, her or their Right to and in obtaining and recovering Possession of any House, Outbuildings, Land and Premises, or any of these, which shall have been granted in Exchange by any such Taxation, as the Parson or Parsons, or Corporation Sole or Aggregate, so claiming would, to wit that the Act had not been made, have been enabled to use, exercise and enjoy in trying the Right to and in recovering and obtaining Possession of the House, Outbuildings, Land and Premises, or any of these, in Exchange for which the same shall have been so granted and conveyed by any such Incumbent, under the Authority of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful as and for the Parson, Vicar or other Incumbent of any Ecclesiastical Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, or of to which Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, any Minor or Lordship is Parcel or appurtenant, and as Parcel of or belonging to which Manor or Lordship any Lands or Tenements are or have been already granted or devised, or grantable or devisable by Copy of Court Roll, or otherwise, for any Life or Lives, or for any Term or Number of Years absolutely or determinable on any Life or Lives, by Deed indented (and to be registered as hereinafter mentioned) with the Consent of the Patron and Bishop (to be attested as hereinafter mentioned) to annex to the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, as and for Glabe Land, or Parsonage or Glabe House or Houses and Buildings thereof, all or any Part or Parts of such Lands or Tenements, whether lying within the Local Limits of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, or not, and that from and after such Annexation the said Lands and Tenements so annexed shall cease to be thereafter grantable or devisable by any Incumbent of the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel (otherwise than as Glabe Lands are or shall be by Law grantable or devisable) but shall from thenceforth be and become, and be deemed and taken to be the Glabe Lands and Parsonage or Glabe House or Houses of and annexed to such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, for ever, to all intents and Purposes whatsoever, without any License or Writ of Ad quod damnum; the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no such Annexation shall in any wise usual, determine or affect any Grant or Demise then previously made and actually existing of the said Lands and Tenements to be annexed as last aforesaid.

V. And Whereas it is expedient to enlarge and amend the Laws now in being for providing Parsonage Houses with suitable Outbuildings and other Accommodations for the Residence of the Clergy, by way of Beneficence: Be it further enacted, That where there shall be no existing Parsonage or Glabe House on any Ecclesiastical Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, or where the existing Parsonage or Glabe House, or the Outbuildings thereof, or any such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel, shall be inconvenient or too small or inconveniently situated, it shall be lawful from and after the passing of this Act for any Parson or Parsons, being Owners in Fee Simple, or for any Corporation Sole or Aggregate, with or without Confirmation, as the case may require, and by and with such Consent, and to be signed as hereinafter mentioned of the Incumbent, Patron and Bishop, to give, grant and convey, by Deed indented, and to be registered as hereinafter is mentioned to any Parson, Vicar or other Incumbent of such Benefice, Curacy or Chapel, for the use being, who shall also have Power to accept the same, any Messuages, Outbuildings, Yard, Garden, Orchard and Croft, or any of them, with their Appurtenances, or any Right of Way, or other Easement, whether lying within the Local Limits of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapel or not, but so as that the same be so conveniently situated for actual Residence or Occupation by the Incumbent thereof; and which Messuages, Outbuildings, Yard, Garden, Orchard and Croft, with their Appurtenances or Right of Way, or other Easement, shall for ever from and after such Grant and Conveyance thereof be and become annexed to and be deemed and taken to be the Parsonage or Glabe House, Outbuildings, Yard, Garden, Orchard, Croft, Appurtenances and Right of Way, or other Easement of the said Benefice, Curacy or Chapel, to all intents and Purposes whatsoever, and be holden and enjoyed by the said Incumbent and his Successors accordingly, without any License or Writ of Ad quod damnum; the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding; and from and after such Grant and Annexation it shall be lawful for the Incumbent for the use being of the said Benefice, Curacy or Chapel, to which such Grant and Annexation shall have been made, (with the Consent in Writing of such Patron and Bishop under their Hands and Seals to be duly registered as hereinafter is mentioned), to take down and remove any Parsonage or Glabe House, and Outbuildings, or any Part thereof, which before such Annexation belonged to the said Benefice, Curacy or Chapel (if the same or Part thereof cannot be better applied to the permanent Advantage of such Benefice, Curacy or Chapel), and with the like Consent as aforesaid, to apply the Materials, or the Profits thereof, if sold, towards some lasting Improvement of the said Benefice, Curacy or Chapel: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to enable any Parson, being Infants or Lunatics, or From Covert without their Heirs, to make any such Gift, Grant or Conveyance; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VI. And Whereas an Act was passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to promote the Residence of the Parochial Clergy, by making Provision for the more speedy and official building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing Rectories, and other auxiliary Buildings and Tenements for the Use of their Benefices: And Whereas one other Act was passed in the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to regulate and amend an Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to promote the Residence of the Parochial Clergy, by making Provision for the more speedy and official building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing Rectories, and other auxiliary Buildings and Tenements for the Use of their Benefices: And Whereas there are many Ecclesiastical Benefices, Perpetual Curacies and Parochial Chapels to which no Glabe Land, or only a small Portion of Glabe Land is belonging; and it is therefore expedient to enable the making Provision by Purchase, for the Annexation of Glabe Land to such Benefices, Perpetual Curacies and Parochial Chapels: Be it therefore further created, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Parson, Vicar or other Incumbent for the time being, of any Ecclesiastical Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, the said Incumbent whereof shall not exceed Five Hundred Acres, with the Consent of the Patron and Bishop, to be signified as hereinafter mentioned, to purchase any Lands not exceeding in the whole Twenty Square Acres, with the necessary Outbuildings thereto, whether being within the Local Limits of the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, or not, but so as that the same be situate conveniently for building a Parsonage or a Glebe House, and Outbuildings, and for Gardens and Glebe thereof, or for any of the said Purposes, and for actual Residence and Occupation by the Incumbent thereof, such Land or Lands of Freehold Tenure, or being Copyhold of Inheritance, or for Life or Lives, holden of any Minor or Lordship belonging to the same Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry; and which Lands to be purchased shall for ever, from and after the Grant and Conveyance thereof, be and become annexed to and Glebe of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and be holden and enjoyed by such Incumbent, and his Successors accordingly, without any Licence or Writ of Ad quod damnum; and the Whole or any Part or Parts of the said Lands, which before such Annexation were or was of Copyhold Tenure, shall for ever, from and after such Annexation, become and be of Freehold Tenure; the Statute of Mortmain or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And, for the better effectuating such Purposes as aforesaid, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Parson, Vicar or other Incumbent for the time being, with the Consent of the Patron and Bishop (to be signified as hereinafter is mentioned), to borrow and take up at Interest (over and besides the Sum authorized to be borrowed under the Authority) and for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty) such Sum or Sum of Money as shall be certified by a Valuation upon Oath of some faithful and experienced Surveyor to be the true and just Value of the said Lands at the time of the Purchase thereof, not exceeding Two Years clear Income and Produce of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, after deducting all Taxes and other Outgoings wherever, except the Salary to the Assistant Curate (if any); and as a Security for Repayment of the Money so to be borrowed, to mortgage the Titles, Rents and other Profits and Emoluments of or belonging to such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, to any Person or Persons who shall advance such Money by One or more Bond or Bonds (to be registered as hereinafter mentioned) for the Term of Twenty five Years, or until the Principal Money so to be borrowed, with Interest for the same, and all Costs and Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be fully paid off and satisfied; which Mortgage Bond or Bonds shall bind, as well such Parson, Vicar or other Incumbent of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, as among such Mortgage or Mortgages, as also his Successors, and a Co-mortgagor thereof shall be executed by the Mortgage or Mortgages, and be kept by the Incumbent; and the Parson, Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall and he is hereby required to pay or cause to be paid to the Mortgage or Mortgages yearly and every Year, as the same shall become due, or within One Month afterwards, as well the Interest of the Principal Money secured by such Mortgage or Mortgages, as also the further Sum of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum of the Principal Money originally advanced on such Mortgage or Mortgages; and that every Incumbent who shall not reside Twenty Weeks in every Year upon such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, computing each Year from the Date of the First or only Mortgage Bond, shall and he is hereby required, within of the said Sum of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to pay within the Period specified the Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum of the Principal Money originally advanced on such Mortgage or Mortgages, and the whole of such Principal Money, with the Interest, Costs and Charges shall be fully paid off and discharged; and that every such Incumbent who shall pay only Five Pounds per Centum per Annum of such Principal Money shall, at the time of Payment thereof, produce and deliver to the Mortgagee a Certificate under the Hands of Two Rectors, Vicars or other Officiaries Ministers of some Parishes near adjoining, signifying that he had resided Twenty Weeks upon the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, within the Year for which such Payment became due; and in Default of Payment of the Principal, Interest, Costs and Charges in manner aforesaid, the Bishop shall have Power to stoppage the Profits of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, until such Payment shall be made; and if at any time or times the said Principal and Interest, or any Part thereof, shall be in Arrear and unpaid for the Space of Forty Days next after the yearly Day of Payment whereof the same shall have become due, it shall be lawful for the Mortgagee or Mortgages, and his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to recover the same, or such Part thereof as shall be so unpaid, and the Costs and Charges attending such Recovery, by Distress and Sale, in such manner as Landlords are or shall be by Law authorized to recover Rents in Arrear; and is order that the Payment of the same Principal and Interest may, in case of Avoidance by Death or otherwise, be justly and equitably ascertained and ascertained between the Parson, Vicar or Incumbent residing upon such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, or his Representatives, and his Successor, in such Proportions as the Profits of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall have been received by them respectively for the Year in which such Death or Avoidance shall happen, such Payment shall in case any Difference shall arise in settling the Proportions thereof, be ascertained and determined by Two indifferent Persons, the one to be named by the Person making such Avoidance, or his Representatives in case of his Death, and the other by the said Successor; and in case such Persons shall not be appointed within the Space of Two Calendar Months next after such Death or Avoidance, or in case they shall not agree in settling such Proportions within the Space of One Calendar Month after they shall have been appointed, the same shall be determined by some arbitrating Clergyman to be nominated by the Bishop, whose Determinance shall be final and conclusive between the Parties.

and as to such Moneys as aforesaid, shall for the said three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, or ten years, or for any less time, be and become veiled as and settled upon the same Person or Persons, and to, for, and under the Name Of, Editors, Treasurers and Liquidators, and subject to the same Powers, Conditions, Charges and Incumbrances as the said Mortgage, Conveyances, Lands and Premises to be granted and conveyed in Exchange were veiled in, settled upon and subject to before such Exchange thereof, or would have been veiled in, settled upon and subject to in case such Exchange had not been made; and which said Sum or Sums of Money to be received for the Purchase of any Lands or Hereditaments shall in all cases where the Lands or Hereditaments do to be purchased belong to any Corporation Sole or Aggregate, Bishop, Dean, Canon, Layman, or Person or Persons under any other Disability or Incapacity, with all convenient Speed be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Consent of the Assistant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account or among the Person or Persons or Corporation, who would have been entitled to the Rents, Issues and Profits of such Lands or Hereditaments, so the Interest that such Money shall be applied or laid out under the Direction, and with the Approbation of the said Court to be directed by an Order made upon a Petition to be performed by or on behalf of the Person or Persons who would have been entitled to the Rents, Issues and Profits of such Lands or Hereditaments, in the Purchase of the Land Tax, or towards the Payment of any Debts or Incumbrances affecting the same Lands or Hereditaments, or other Lands or Hereditaments standing mortgaged to the same or the like Uses, or in the Purchase of other Lands or Hereditaments to be conveyed, settled and made subject to and for upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Limitations and Dispositions, and in the same manner as the Lands or Hereditaments so purchased or mortgaged shall be conveyed, settled and made subject to and for upon such Purchase and Conveyance shall be binding, undisturbed and capable of being sold; and in the mean time and until such Purchase shall be made, the said Money shall, by Order of the said Court of Chancery upon Application thereon, be invested by the said Accountant General in his Name, in some one of the Public Funds of this Kingdom, and the Dividends and Annual Profits thereof shall from time to time be paid by Order of the said Court to the Person or Persons who would have been entitled to the Rents, Issues and Profits of the said Lands or Hereditaments, in case no Purchase and Conveyance thereof had been made under the Provisions of this Act.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to enable any Corporation Aggregate or Sole, or Town or Free Town General or Special, or far Life or Lives, or the Guardians, Trustees or Executors for Charitable or other Uses, Hospitals or Communities, or for selling for any such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, who at the time of making any Sale authorized by this Act, shall be respectively Infants, Fools, Mad, or Lunatics, or under any other legal Disability, or otherwise disabled to sell for themselves, himself or herself, to sell or convey (except by way of Exchange, as in manner by this Act directed) any Lands or Grounds whatsoever, for any of the Purposes of this Act, exceeding the Quantity of Five Statute Acres.

XIV. Provided also, That in all cases where any Exchange or Purchase shall be made under the Authority of this Act, Six Calendar Months previous Notice, describing the Particulars, Extent and Situation of the Premises respectively to be given and taken in Exchange or purchased, shall be given of the Intention to make such Exchange or Purchase, by the Infantes of the same Notice for Three consecutive Weeks in three several and the same Newspaper or and in general Circulation in each County wherein the Premises to be given and taken in Exchange or purchased, or any Part thereof, are situate; and also by affixing such Notice in Writing on a conspicuous Part of the Door of the Church or Chapel of each Parish or Chapel wherein such Premises or any Part thereof are situate, on Three Sundays successively whereas Divine Service shall be performed, and shortly before the Commencement of such Service on each Sunday in such Church or Chapel.

XV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Exchange or Purchase is intended to be made under the Authority of this Act, a Map or Maps under an actual Survey, on Oath (which Oath any Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized to administer) by some competent Surveyor to be approved of by the Petition, Bishop and Incumbent, shall in cases of Exchange be made and taken of the whole of the said Gible Lands, or of such Part or Parts thereof as will sufficiently enable the Bishop to judge of the Convenience and Expediency of the proposed Exchange, and also of the Gible or Parsonage House, Buildings and Premises, any Part of which it is proposed to exchange, as well as of the other Lands, Houses, Buildings and Premises, proposed to be taken in Exchange; and shall in cases of Purchase be made and taken of the whole of the Lands or Hereditaments to be purchased; and in cases of Exchange the same Surveyor shall in like manner make a Valuation on Oath (to be administered as aforesaid) of the said Gible Lands and Gible or Parsonage House, Buildings and Premises, and also of the Lands, Houses, Buildings and Premises intended to be taken in Exchange, and in cases of Purchase the same Surveyor shall in like manner make a Valuation on Oath of the Lands or Hereditaments to be purchased; and every such Valuation shall include and distinctly specify the Value of all Timber and other Trees growing thereon, and of the Rights of Common, and of all Mines, Minerals and Quarries (if any), and of all other Rights, Profits and Advantages whatsoever (if any) to the said Premises or either of them, or any Part or Parcel of the same, respectively belonging.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in all cases, as well of Exchange as of Purchase under this Act, the Bishop, on receiving such Map or Maps and Valuations shall, if he shall in the first Instance be far approved of the said Exchange or Purchase, issue a Commission of Enquiry under his Hand and Seal, directed to such Person as he shall think proper, not being fewer than Six in Number, and of whom Three at the least shall be Beneficed Clergymen actually resident in the Neighbourhood of the Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parsonage Chapel, wherein it shall be proposed to annex any Buildings or Lands by Exchange or Purchase under the Authority of this Act, and of whom One shall be a Barrister at Law of Three Years Standing at the least, to be named by the Senior Judge in the last preceding Commission of Nisi Prius for the County in which the said Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parsonage Chapel, shall be situate, and the Return to which Commission of Enquiry shall be made and signed by a Majority of the Persons therein named, after an actual Inspection by them of all the Premises, with such Map and Valuations before them, and not otherwise, and Three at least of the Persons making and signing the same shall be either Three such Beneficed Clergymen actually resident as aforesaid, or Two at least of such Beneficed Clergymen actually resident as aforesaid, together with such Barrister as aforesaid; and in no case whenever such any Exchange or Purchase be effected under the Authority of this Act, unless such Commission shall have been previously issued and returned, and unless the Return to such Commission, to be made and signed as aforesaid, shall certify that, after an actual Inspection and Examination of the Premises, such Exchange or Purchase, as the judgment of the Persons making the said Return, is fit and proper to be made, and will promote the permanent Advantage or Convenience of the Incumbent of such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parsonage Chapel, and his Successors in the same.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Petition of any Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parsonage Chapel, to which the Provisions of this Act extend, shall happen to be a Minor, Infant, Lunatic or Feme, then in case of Persons Impeached not to convey (except in Exchange) more than Five Acres.

Consent, it shall and may be lawful for the Guardian, Committee or Husband of every such Patron to transact the several Matters, and execute the requisite Deeds as aforesaid, for such Patron, who shall be bound thereby in such manner as if he or she had been of full Age or sound Mind, or Feme Sole, and had done such Acts and executed such Deeds.

XVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Patronage of any Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, to which the Provisions of this Act extend, shall be in The Crown, and such Living or Benefice shall be above the Yearly Value of Twenty Pounds in The King's Books, the Consent of The Crown to the several Patronages hereby mentioned respecting such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall be signified by the Execution of the Deeds or Instruments herebefore directed, by the Lord High Treasurer or First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being; but if such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall not exceed the Yearly Value of Twenty Pounds in The King's Books, such Consent shall be signified by such Execution by the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being; and if such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall be within the Patronage of The Crown, in Right of the Duchy of Lancaster, then such Consent shall be signified by the Execution of such Deeds or Instruments by the Chancellor of the said Duchy for the time being.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That our Part of all Deeds and Instruments to be made and executed in pursuance of or for carrying into Execution this Act, together with the Maps and Valuations, and the Commissions of Enquiry and the Returns to the same, hereinafter directed, shall, within Twelve Calendar Months next after the Date or Dates thereof, be deposited in the Office of the Registrar of the Diocese wherein such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, shall be locally situate, to be perpetually kept and preserved therein, except as to those Benefices which are under the peculiar Jurisdiction of any Archbishop or Bishop, in which case the several Documents before mentioned shall be deposited in the Office of the Registrar of that peculiar Jurisdiction, to which any such Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry shall be subject, and such Registrars shall respectively deposit and preserve the same, and shall give and sign a Certificate of such Deposit thereof to be written on a Duplicate, or on any other Part or Parts of the said Deeds, or any or either of them, or on some other separate Parchment, Paper or Instrument; and every such Deed or Instrument shall be produced at all proper and usual Hours at such Registry, to every Person applying to inspect the same, and an Office Copy of each such Deed or Instrument, certified under the Hand of the Registrar (and which Office Copy, is certified, the Registrar shall in all cases grant to every Person who shall apply for the same) shall in all cases be admitted and allowed as legal Evidence thereof in all Courts whatsoever; and every such Registrar shall be entitled to the Sum of Ten Shillings and no more (over and besides the Stamp Duty, if any) for such Commission and the previous Requisites thereof; and the Sum of Five Shillings and no more, for so depositing as aforesaid the Deeds, Returns, Maps, Surveys, Valuations, Commissions and Instruments, and so as aforesaid certifying such Deposits thereof; and the Sum of One Shilling and no more for each such Search; and the Sum of Six pence and no more (over and besides the said Stamp Duty) for each Folio of Seventy two Words of each such Office Copy, to be certified as aforesaid.

XX. And be it further enacted, That such of the Forms contained in the Schedules of the said recited Acts of the Seventeenth and Twenty first Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as are applicable to the Provisions of this Act, and with such Variations thereof as shall render them applicable, shall be used and applied to the Purposes of this Act as fully and effectually as if the same were hereby enacted and made Part of this Act.

XXI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to repeal or abridge any Law now in force, enabling any Person or Corporation Sole or Aggregate, to augment or improve any Ecclesiastical Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry.

CAP. CXL.

An Act to amend the Laws for imposing and levying of Fines, in respect of unlawful Distillation of Spirits in Ireland.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the better and more speedy Collection of Fines upon Townlands and other Places in Ireland, in respect of the unlawful Distillation of Spirits, and to make farther Provisions for the Suppression of illicit Distillation in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much and such Parts of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend and amend the Regulations contained in several Acts of Parliament for imposing and levying of Fines upon Parishes, Townlands and other Places, in respect of the unlawful Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, or of any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the Commencement of this Act, whereby it is enacted or provided, that any such Fine shall be imposed or levied on any Parish at large within which the Place shall be situate where any Offence shall be committed in respect of any uncollected Still or Part of a Still, or any Appendage to a Still, or any Wagon or any Utensil for distilling Spirits, or any Wells, Pits, Ales, Lows, Wines or flagstaps, found or used in such Place, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed; and that, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all and every such Fine and Fine in respect of any such Offence, shall be imposed and levied upon any Townland, Quarterland, Ballymore or other Place, District or Division whatever (other than a Parish at large) within which such Place shall be situate, and on which, under all the circumstances of the case, it shall appear expedient to the Court at any Assizes or Prefesting Term that any such Fine should be imposed and levied; any Clause, Matter or Thing in the said recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts relating to the imposing or levying of such Fines on any Parish at large, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, that all and every such Fines and Fine which may have been imposed on any Parish at large, at any time before the Commencement of this Act, and all Arrears thereof respectively, which shall not have been fully levied before the Commencement of this Act, shall be levied and paid under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not been had or made.

11. And Whereas by an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to Fines in respect of unlawful Distillation in Ireland, in the Warehousing of Spirits, and in the fixing the Dates of Receipt on Spirits distilled, and on Wines and other liquors in Ireland, it is enacted and provided, for the Purpose of preventing any Neglect or Delay in the Collection and Distribution of Fines imposed under the Acts for the preventing of the illicit Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes to appoint Persons for the collecting and levying of such Fines; and it is therefore enacted, that so much and such Parts of the said recited Acts of the last Session and this present Session of Parliament should be repealed, whereby it is provided or enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any Court or Judge at any Assizes or Prefesting Term or Quarter Session, to do or otherwise authorize the Payment or Application of any Sum of Money, for the making or repairing of any Road, or the building or repairing of any Bridge, or for the Building or repairing of any Schools, House or other Public Building, or for the performing or carrying on any Public Building or other Public Work whatsoever (except as in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament is excepted) in any Barony, Half Barony, City or Town, within which any Parish, Townland, Place, District or Division shall be situate, on which any Fine or Fines shall have been imposed under the said Act, until all and every such Fines or Fine imposed at any previous Assizes or Prefesting Term shall have been duly and fully paid; Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all and every the Provisions and Regulations, Clauses and Clauses, in the said recited Acts or either of them contained, whereby the Court or Judge at any Assizes or Prefesting Term or Quarter Session, is or are prohibited or prevented or restrained from ordering the Discharge of any such or any other Aid, or from doing or authorizing the Payment of any Money for any of the Purposes aforesaid, until all such Fines shall have been duly levied as aforesaid, and all Matters and Things in the said recited Acts relative to such Prohibition or Provisions as aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

12. Provided always, and it be enacted, That whenever the Court or Judge at any Assizes or Prefesting Term before the Commencement of this Act shall have decided that the Amount of any sums levied on any Parish, Townland, District or Division, by virtue or in pursuance of any Prefesting Term of any Grand Jury, for any Roads, Bridges or other Public Works wherever, should be returned in the Hands of the Treasurer of any County, County of a City or Town, for the Purpose of being applied in Payment or Satisfaction of all or any Fines or Fine which ought by Law to have been levied on or off such Parish, Townland, District or Division under the said recited Act, or said such Fines should be duly levied; all such Sums, or so much thereof as shall be requisite, shall be applied in Payment and Satisfaction of all or any such Fine or Fines, as at the Commencement of this Act shall not have been duly and fully levied upon or off such Parish, Townland, Place, District or Division respectively, and shall be paid, applied and disbursed accordingly, in manner directed by the said recited Act; any thing in this present Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

13. And Whereas it is expedient to make effectual Provisions for the collecting and levying such Fines, pursuant to the Power given to the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes for that Purpose, in and by the said heretofore recited Act of this present Session of Parliament, and for the more effectual * suppressing illicit Distillation in Ireland, by appointing a sufficient Number of Assistants to the Collectors of * such Fines, and to the Officers of Excise in the Execution of their Duty? Be it therefore enacted, That whenever the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes shall be of Opinion that it is necessary or expedient that such Assistants should be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, the said Commissioners shall commission such Officers to the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or to the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being; and upon receiving the Concurrence and Approbation of such Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes shall cause Notice to be given either their Hands, or the Hands of any Three of them, by Publication in the Dublin Gazette, that it has been deemed expedient by the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, upon the Representation of the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, that such Assistants shall be appointed within any County, County of a City or Town respectively, from and after such time as shall be mentioned in such Notice.

V. And be it further enacted, That after such Notice shall have been given in the Dublin Gazette as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes to nominate and appoint by Writing under the Hands of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them (or under the Hand of any Collector of Excise for any District, who shall be thereto specially authorized in Writing under the Hands of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them), one or more Persons or Persons to be aiding and assisting to any Person or Persons appointed by the said Commissioners for the collecting and levying any such Fines; and in like manner to nominate and appoint any one or more Person or Persons to be aiding and assisting in any Excise Office or Offices, or other Person or Persons authorized to sell or assist in enforcing the Law for the Suppression of illicit Distillations; and all such Persons so appointed shall accordingly be aiding and assisting to such Collector in the levying of such Fines, and in doing all Matters and Things necessary or requisite for the efficient levying and collecting such Fines according to Law, and shall also be aiding and assisting to such Excise Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons in enforcing the Law for the Suppression of illicit Distillations, in such manner as shall be required by such Collector, Officer or other Person; and all and every Person and Persons who shall resist or oppose any such Collector, Excise Officer or other Person or Persons aforesaid, or his or their said Assistants, in the Execution of their Duty under the said recited Acts or this Act, shall be and are hereby declared guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall be proceeded against and punished accordingly, in like manner as other Persons guilty of any Misdemeanor, may be proceeded against and punished under any Act for the preventing of illicit Distillation in Ireland; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, to pay or cause to be paid to such Assistants, such Sum and Sums of Money for their Travels, as to the said Commissioners, with Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office, or any Three of them, shall seem fit, not exceeding the Sum of Five Shillings for each and every Day so which such Assistant shall be employed or engaged in such Service, together with the reasonable Expenses incurred by such Collectors, Officers or other Persons, and such their Assistants, in the Performance of such Duty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases whenever any Person shall be appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, for the collecting and levying any such Fines within any County, County of a City or Town in Ireland, all Powers of Arrest or other Collection shall cease and determine, with respect to the levying such Fines as shall remain unpaid at the time of such Appointment; and if any Arrest or other Collection or other Person, who immediately before such Appointment was empowered to levy any such Fines, shall refuse or neglect to deliver up all and every Warrant and Warrants in his Hands, which shall not have been fully executed, to the Person so appointed by such Commissioners, in manner required by the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, then and in such case all such Warrant and Warrants shall cease and determine, and be of no Force, Virtue or Effect; and it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or Town, and he is hereby authorized and required, without Delay, to grant to the Person or Persons so appointed by the said Commissioners, and requiring the same, a new Warrant or Warrants, or Duplicate Warrant or Warrants, in which he shall insert the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so appointed by the Commissioners of Excise, for the collecting and levying of all such Fines as at the time of such Appointment shall not have been fully and fully levied, or for the collecting and levying so much thereof as shall not then have been fully and fully levied; and in such case such Treasurer shall refuse to deliver up any Warrant, pursuant to the Direction of the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament, or to grant any new Warrant or Warrants, or Duplicate Warrant or Warrants, in manner required by this Act, and such Refusal shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge in the Affairs for the County, County of a City or Town, it shall not be lawful for such Court or Judge to fix any Penalties for the Salary of or for any Per Centage or Allowance payable to such Treasurer.

VII. And Whereas it may have happened and may happen that certain Inhabitants of Towns or Places in Ireland on which Fines have been or may be imposed in respect of Offences against the Acts in force for the Suppression of illegal Distillation in Ireland, or other Persons, may, for the Purpose of procuring time to detect and prosecute the Persons actually committing such Offences, have undertaken and agreed, or may undertake and agree to pay the Amount of such Fines, or Part thereof, to the Collectors or Persons authorized to levy such Fines, and may have given and entered into or may give and enter into Securities for the Payment of such Fines, or Part thereof, to such Collectors or other Persons, and it is expedient to declare such Agreements and Securities to be void? Be it therefore enacted, That every Contract, Agreement or Understanding, and every Bond, Bill, Note or other Security which at any time before the Commencement of this Act may have been, or which at any time after the Commencement of this Act shall or may be made, given or entered into by any Inhabitants or Inhabitant of, or any Proprietors or Proprietress of Lands within any VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Court or Judge at any Assizes or Prebending Term shall see any Townland, Quarterland, Ballybow, Manor, Lordship or other Place, District or Division whatever, in any Sum of Money under or by virtue of any of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts for the Suppression of illegal Distillations in Ireland, the said Court or Judge shall direct the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or Town, to include in his Warrant for levying any such Fine, the Sum of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of every such Fine, in Addition to the Amount of every such Fine respectively; and which said Sum of One Shilling in the Pound shall be levied in like manner, and with the like Powers, Authorities and Remedies, in case of Nonpayment thereof, as are provided by Law with respect to the levying of any such Fine or Fines; and the Amount of the said Sum of One Shilling in the Pound so levied, shall be paid to or received, or kept or retained to his own Use, by the Person who shall levy and collect the Fine in respect of which such One Shilling in the Pound shall be payable respectively, and who shall be authorized to collect and levy the same under the Provisions of the several Acts heretofore recited, or of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts for governing illegal Distillations in Ireland.

Persons, &c. who shall be liable to pay the same to the Collector or other Person.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Fine and Fine which shall be imposed at any time after the Commencement of this Act, upon any Townland, Quarterland, Ballybow or other Place, District or Division whatever (other than a Parish or larger) under the Provisions of any Act or Acts in force relating to the illegal Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, after deducting thereon the Costs of recovering the same (if such Costs shall not be paid by the Directors of the Commissioners of inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, pursuant to the Provisions of the last recited Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Regency, but where such Costs shall be so paid, then the whole of such Fine without any Deduction shall be applied in manner following; that is to say, One Moiety thereof or of its worth thereof in full manner after deducting the Costs in the case aforesaid) shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or Town, to the Officer of Excise who shall have given the Information to a Justice of the Peace, and who shall in any approved manner to his Recognizance to prosecute the same, and shall be applied by him in rewarding himself and his Assistants, in such manner and according to such Proportions as the Commissioners of inland Excise and Taxes shall direct; and in case the Person giving such Information shall not be an Officer of Excise, then such One moiety shall be paid by such Treasurer, according to the Direction of the Court, either in such Information, or in such Justice as aforesaid; to be by him applied in rewarding such Informer, or otherwise promoting the happiness of unacquainted Stills within his Jurisdiction; and the other Moiety of every such Fine or Fine (or of its worth thereof respectively as any money after deducting the Costs in the case aforesaid) shall be paid by every such Treasurer to the Collector of Excise, or other Officer in charge of the Collection in the District in which such Townland, Quarterland, Ballybow or other Place, District or Division whatsoever is situated shall be, to be applied by such Collector, under the Orders and Directions of the said Commissioners of inland Excise and Taxes, in or towards the Expenses incurred by Payments made or to be made to any Person appointed to establish Collections or Excise Offices or other Persons as aforesaid in the collecting any such Fine, or in the prosecution of illegal Distillations within such Townland, Place, District or Division; and the Remainder, if any, after Payment of such Expenses, shall be applied in such manner as any other Monies received by such Collector are by Law

Law applicable; and, if any is the said revised Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of His Majesty's Regn to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And for the more easy and speedy Re-emburment of any Inhabitant or Landholder in any Township, Place, District or Division, upon or by whom any Fine shall have been or shall be levied or paid by virtue of any Warrant issued or which shall be issued for the levying of such Fine, under any Act or Acts for the Suppression of House Disturbances in Ireland, be it enacted, That the Treasurers of every County, County of a City or Town, within which any such Fine shall have been or shall be levied, shall from time to time, within Fourteen Days after issuing any Warrant for the levying of any such Fine, and whenever thereon required by the Clerk of the Peace of such County, County of a City or Town, transmit to such Clerk of the Peace a true Copy of any and every such Warrant, signed by the Hand of such Treasurer; and such Copy shall be preferred by such Clerk of the Peace among the Records of the County; and that upon the Trial of any Action or Suit by Civil Bill by any such Inhabitant or Landholder, for the Recovery of any such Fine against the Owner of any unrevoked Still, or other Person subject to make such Re-emburment, such Copy of the Treasurer's Warrant is transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace, shall be deemed sufficient Proof that the Fine or Penalty therein mentioned had been imposed and levied, without other Proof of the imposing or levying of such Fine or Penalty.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after the Commencement of this Act, any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, or any Person or Persons acting in his or their Aid, in the Grievance of or the obstructing or endeavouring to serve any Notice or Notices, for the Purpose of proceeding thereon to impose a Fine or Fines upon any Township, Manor or Lordship, or other Place, under any Act or Acts for the Suppression of the illicit Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, shall be killed, or shall be beaten, wounded or bruised, or shall be forcibly taken or carried away or detained, by any Person or Persons, in or at such Office or Offices, Person or Persons acting as his or their Aid, shall be deemed punishable of attacking, or shall be prevented from attending at such Office or Offices, Term, for the Purpose of giving Evidence in support of any Information which may or shall have been given, for proceeding to impose such Fine, or of giving Evidence touching the Service of such Notice, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Information shall have been returned to be tried, if it shall appear to the said Court that such Officer or Officers, or Person or Persons had been killed or beaten, wounded or bruised, or carried away or detained, whereby the Attendance of such Officer or Person shall be prevented, and such Court is hereby required, upon Production of such Information, and upon Proof of the Hand-writing of the Justice to such Information, before whom the same had been taken upon the Oath of any One credible Witness (if such Court shall for sufficient Evidence upon the Face of such Information, of the Evidence of the Facts and of the Offence charged therein) to impose a Fine pursuant to such Information, in like manner and as fully and as effectually as in all Instances and Purposes whatsoever, as if such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, had appeared before such Court, and had been or were then and there personally examined, and had given Evidence of the Service of the Notice, and in support of such Information. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall take away or affect the Right which any Inhabitant of any such Township or Place shall or may have by Law to remove, or to offer to remove, the Facts stated in any such Information.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall be found passing in any Part of Ireland, knowingly and willingly having in his, her or their Custody or Possession, any Spirituous Liquors distilled in Ireland, on which all Duties payable by Law shall not have been duly paid, or for which, if the Quantity shall exceed One Gallon, a proper Permit shall not be obtained for the Removal thereof; or if any Person or Persons shall be found passing in any Part of Ireland, knowingly and willingly having in his or her Care, Custody or Possession, any unrevoked Still, Still-house, Works or Appurtenance of a Still, except removing from or to a Brandy, or Brandy or Maker of Stills, under a proper Permit; every such Person shall in each and every the respective case and cases aforesaid be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and if convicted of such, shall, exclusive of any other Punishment to which such Person may be subject, forfeit a Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, nor less than Ten Pounds, at the Court (that is in Discretion thereof) to be paid to the Treasurers; and such Person so convicted shall be imprisoned under such Fine shall be paid: Provided always, that the time of such Imprisonment shall not in any case exceed the Period of Six Calendar Months.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall be found passing in any Part of Ireland, or be found on board or discovered to have been on board any Boat or other Vessel being in any Port, Harbour, Haven, Creek, River, Lake, Canal or Dock in Ireland, as within Eight Leagues of the Shores of Ireland, knowingly and willingly having in his, her or their Custody, any Keg, Cask, or Vessel, which before had contained any Spirituous Liquors distilled in Ireland, on which all Duties payable by Law had not been duly paid (and in all such cases Proof that the Duties on such Spirits had been duly paid shall be upon the Party to be found) every such Person, except in the case hereinafter provided, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer such Punishment as in other cases of Misdemeanor; and every such Keg, Cask or Vessel, and every Barrel, Mann, Nake, Ale or other Sort of Barthen, and every Can, Cask, Drap, Wain, Waggons or other Vehicle, and every Boat or other Vessel with all her Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, employed in conveying or carrying the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise; and it shall be lawful for any such Officer or Officers, or any Person or Persons acting in his or their Aid, to stop, arrest and detain all and every Person or Persons who shall be found passing or on board or discovered to have been on board such Boat or other Vessel, and to convey all and every such Person and Persons before any Justice of the Peace in Ireland, residing near the Place where any such Person shall be so taken and arrested; and it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, and he is hereby herely required, upon Proof on Oath by One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, that such Person was so found or taken or discovered as aforesaid (unless such Person shall prove to the Satisfaction of such Justice, that he had paid for or has has agreed to pay for his Passage on board such Boat or Vessel, and that he was so conveyed in the Property of such Boat or Vessel, or of the Spinnaker, or King, Clerk or Vessel, or the crew may be), to hold such Person to Bail, with Two sufficient Sureties for the Appearance of such Person, to answer to any Indictment or Information that may be brought against him or her in that behalf; and in case any Person is liable to be held to Bail, shall make default in finding such sufficient Bail as aforesaid, or until such Bail shall be found, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit such Person to the Goal of the County, Town or Place, in which such Person shall be committed, to answer as aforesaid.

XIV. And Whereas the illicit Distillation of Spirits is increased by Means of Corn made into Malt being obtained by Persons without Permit, or otherwise contrary to Law: Be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, if any Malt ground or unground, or any Corn or Grain wasted or steeped, to be made into Malt, shall be found in the Possession of any Person whatsoever in Ireland, not entitled by Law to have the same in his or her Custody or Possession; or if any Person or Persons shall be found passing in any Part of Ireland, knowingly and willingly having in him, her or their Possession, any Malt ground or unground, or upon which any Duties by Law payable thereon shall not have been paid, or for the Removal of which a proper Permit shall not have been given; or if any Person or Persons shall be found passing as any Part of Ireland, knowingly and willingly having in him, her or their Custody, any Corn or Grain wasted or steeped, whereof or with intent to make the same into Malt; every such Person so offending in any of the respective case and cases aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, or any Person or Persons acting in his or their Aid, to arrest, stop and detain all and every Person and Persons found or discovered as aforesaid, and to convey all and every such Person and Persons before any Justice of the Peace in Ireland, residing near the Place where any such Person shall be so taken and arrested, and it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, and he is hereby required, upon Proof on Oath, by One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, that such Person had committed any of the Offences aforesaid, to hold such Person to Bail, with Two sufficient Sureties for the Appearance of such Person to answer to any Indictment or Information that may be brought against him or her in that behalf; and in case any Person is liable to be held to Bail, shall make Default in finding such sufficient Bail as aforesaid, or until such Bail shall be found, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit such Person to the Goal of the County, Town or Place in which such Person shall be committed, to answer as aforesaid; and in case any Indictment shall be found against such Person, he or she shall plead thereto, without having time to traverse the same; and every Person committed of the Offences aforesaid, exclusive of all other Fines and Penalties to which such Person may be subject, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds or one fifth then Ten Pounds, at the Court before which such Person shall be committed, shall to its Discretion think fit, to be paid to the Prosecutor, and such Person so convicted shall be imprisoned until such Fine shall be paid: Provided always, that the time of such Imprisonment shall not in any case exceed the Period of Six Calendar Months, and for the General Officers of a like nature, such Court shall sentence such Person so committed, to be transported for the Term of Seven Years.

XV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, whenever any Malt shall be found by any Officer of Excise in the Mill of any Miller in Ireland, if on Demand by such Officer a Permit or Certificate, as the case may require, of license for such Malt, shall not be produced within a reasonable time after such Demand, all such Malt shall be forfeited and may be sold; and the Miller in whose Mill any such Malt shall be found, without such Permit or Certificate, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Clauses, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations and Provisions contained in the said heretofore recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, for imposing and levying of Fines in respect of the unlawful Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, shall be applied in the Execution of this Act as fully and effectually as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, except only in far as the same are repealed or altered by this Act, or by any other Act or Acts; and that the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, so far as the same are compatible and consistent with each other; and that the Provisions and Forfeitures imposed or inflicted by this Act, shall and may in all cases be otherwise provided for by this Act) be found for, recovered, levied and applied in such Manner and Time, and by such Ways and Means, and with such Powers and Authorities, as are prescribed, directed and appointed in and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better regulating of the Excise or new Imposts upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Bill of Rates therein intitled; or by any other Law or Laws relative to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs in Ireland, as fully and effectually as all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly mentioned and expressed and re-enacted in this Act, with like remedy of Appeal to and for the Party and Parties who shall think him, her or themselves aggrieved or injured, as in and by the said Act of Excise, or any Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise in Ireland, is provided.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect in the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, in Ireland, on and from the Fifth Day of the January Afters in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in every such County, County of a City and Town respectively.

C A P. CLII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be issued and applied towards repairing Roads between London and Holyhead, by Chelger, and between London and Shrewsbury.

[11th July 1815.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, having granted to Your Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds for the present Year, towards defraying the Expence of repairing, altering or constructing such Roads as shall appear to be most immediately necessary for facilitating the Communication between London and Holyhead by Chelger, and between London and Shrewsbury Ferry by Shrewsbury, whereby the Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland will be beneficially promoted; do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of any Monies granted for the Supply of the present Year there shall and may be issued and paid, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, without any Deduction whatever, to the Commissioners hereinafter named; which Sum shall be applied by the said Commissioners towards the repairing, altering, making or constructing such Roads as shall be judged proper, in the manner hereinafter directed, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever: Provided always, that the said Commissioners may invest the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds in Exchequer Bills, or India Bonds, to be lodged in the Bank of England, until the same shall be applied in manner hereinafter directed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain for the time being shall order and direct some fit and proper Persons or Persons to make a Survey or Surveys of the Roads which it shall be deemed most advisable to repair, alter, make or construct, between London and Holyhead by Chelger, and between London and Shrewsbury Ferry by Shrewsbury; and such Person or Persons shall report upon each of or their Opinion thereupon, together with an Estimate of the Expence of the repairing, altering, making or constructing respectively each of such Roads, to the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's said Treasury, who, or any Three or more of them, shall thereupon refer such Survey, Opinion and Estimate, to the said Commissioners hereinafter named; which said Commissioners shall then consider and determine which of the said Roads to survey and reported upon, and estimated, shall be repaired, altered, made or constructed, in the manner herein directed, and shall make a List and Description thereof, referring to such Survey, to be published in the London Gazette; and such List and Description shall also be sent to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for every and each County through which the said Roads, or any of them, do pass: Provided always, that if the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be satisfied with any Survey or Surveys, and Estimate or Estimates, already made of any such Road or Roads, it shall and may be lawful for them to refer the same to the said Commissioners hereinafter named, who shall advertise and send Lists and Descriptions of the same in the manner herein directed; and the repairing, altering, making or constructing of such Road or Roads, may be thereupon proceeded upon, pursuant to this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Right Honourable William Fyfe Fox, General, Chancellor of His Majesty's Exchequer for that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; the Right Honourable Robert Peel, Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, or the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant for the time being; the four Commissioners of Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being; the Right Honourable John Macdonald Barry, Sir Thomas Mordaunt Barrett, Sir Henry Percival Barrett, Charles Wadkin Williams Wynne Elgar, David Gidley Elgar and William Smith Elgar, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act; and they are hereby directed to meet from time to time in London or Westminster, for the Purposes of this Act; and at all such Meetings, in case of an Equality of Votes, the Chairman shall have a casting Vote.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any One or more of the said Commissioners to execute the Provisions of this Act; but that no Act shall be done by any of the said Commissioners, unless the Chancellor of the Exchequer of Ireland, the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, or the four Commissioners of Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being, or One of them, shall be present at such Meeting.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case of a Vacancy or Vacancies by Death or Resignation of any One or more of the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons in His Majesty's special Privilege, to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies; and that every Person so nominated and appointed shall be held and considered to be invested with all the same Powers as are delegated to the Commissioner appointed by this Act in whole Room such Person shall be so nominated.

VI. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said Commissioners shall have determined which of the said Roads to be repaired, altered, made or constructed, the said Commissioners shall direct an Account to be opened in the Books of the said Commissioners for such Road, and shall place to such Account a Sum equal to such estimated Expence; and such Road shall be forthwith directed to be repaired agreeably to the Plan and Survey herein directed to be made, or such other Plan as may upon subsequent Consideration be approved by the said Commissioners, so that the Expence thereof shall not exceed the said estimated Expence.

And for every Ounce in Weight, Seven Shillings; and so in Proportion for Letters and Packets above the Weight of an Ounce.

Rules for Head-papers, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to send and receive by any Mails dispatched to and from The East Indies, The Mauritius and The Cape of Good Hope, any Newpapers or printed Papers, Currents, and also any printed Papers liable to the Stamp Duties, and duty stamped, paying for the same Three pence for each Packet, not exceeding One Ounce; and for each Packet exceeding One Ounce, at the Rate of Three pence per Ounce; and provided that the same be fast in Covers open at the Sides of Ends.

III. And, inasmuch as it may on some Occasions be of Advantage to Correspondence, that Letters and Packets should be sent to and from The East Indies and The Cape of Good Hope, by His Majesty's Ship of War and Store Ships, and by the Ships in the Service of the said United Company sailing between this Country and India, and The Cape of Good Hope, and by Ships employed in the Private Trade to and from India: He is therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Postmaster General in His Discretion, by and with the Consent of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to make up and send Mails of Letters to and from any Port or Place in The East Indies, within the Limits of the said United Company's Charter (save and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China), and to and from The Cape of Good Hope, by any of His Majesty's Ships of War and Store Ships, or by any of the Ships in the Service of the said United Company, or by Ships employed in the Private Trade to and from India: and that when and so often as Mails of Letters shall be so conveyed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General and his Deputies, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive and take the fare Rates and Duties, as if the Letters were conveyed by Vessels or Packet Boats, to be established under the Authority of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Commander of any such Ship of War, with the Consent and Permission of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Commander of any such Ship in the Service of the said United Company, with the Consent of the said Company, and the Commander of any Ship employed in the Private Trade to and from India, with the Consent of his Owners, is hereby authorised and required to receive as board his Ship, such Mails of Letters and Packets, and to convey and deliver the same accordingly; and each Commander respectively shall not incur or be liable to any Penalty for receiving on board or conveying such Letters and Packets in manner aforesaid; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company, or the Commander of any Ship in the Service of the said Company, or any Commander of any Ship in the Private Trade to and from India, to charge, demand or receive any Rate or Rates of Passage for any Mail of Letters, other and except any such Passage as may be legally due to the said Company for the Island Passage, or conveyance of any such Letters in India, or for any sealed Bags, Packages or Parcels of Letters, which may at any time be forwarded by the Postmaster General, by the Ships of the said United Company, or by any such Private Ship.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Postmaster General, whenever the Ships of the said United Company, or any Private Ships, are employed as Packets, to pay the said United Company, and the Owners of any such Private Ships, for the Freight or Conveyance of any such Mails of Letters, such reasonable Sum, and in such manner, as shall be authorised and directed by the Lords of the Treasury, or any Three of them.

VII. And be it further enacted, That a Mail shall be made up and despatched to India once in every Month, as far as may be found practicable, either by the Vessels to be established and hired by the Postmaster General under the Authority of this Act, or by a Ship of War, or a Ship in the Service of the East India Company, or by a Ship employed in the Private Trade to and from India.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Postmaster General, in such Proportions and in such Manner as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall by Warrant in Writing direct (any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding), to permit the Exportation on Freight, or on account of the Owners, or of the Public Service, in such Vessels or Packet Boats navigated according to Law, from the Port of London, or any Port or Ports within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or any Intermediate Port between Great Britain and The East Indies, to all Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company, and to the Islands of Saint Helena, The Mauritius and The Cape of Good Hope (save and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China) any Goods, Wares and Merchandise (Tea excepted) which can now or may at any time hereafter be legally exported; and also to permit the Importation on Freight, or on account of the Owners, or of the Public Service, in such Vessels or Packet Boats, navigated according to Law, from all Ports and Places within the Limits of the said United Company's Charter, and from The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and the Island of Saint Helena (save and except as aforesaid) into the Port of London, or any Port in Great Britain, of any Goods, Wares and Merchandise which are now or may at any time or times hereafter be legally imported; subject nevertheless to the several Restrictions, Conditions and Limitations in this Act contained.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to ship, carry or put on board, or permit or suffer to be shipped, carried or put on board such Vessels or Packet Boats, and any Ships or Vessels legally trading to and from The East Indies, such Quantity of Tea as shall be requisite for the Use of the Crew of any such Ship, during the Voyage, not exceeding Two Pounds for each Man on board; and in case there shall be found on board any such Ships or Vessels as aforesaid, on their Arrival at any Port or Place in the British Islands, or within Two hundred Miles of the same, any Tea exceeding in Quantity One hundred Pounds Weight, every Commander shall incur and be liable to a Penalty of Two Pounds for every Pound Weight of Tea exceeding such a Quantity.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to export or import any Goods, Wares or Merchandise in any Vessel or Packet Boat to be employed under the Authority of this Act, unless such Vessel or Packet Boat shall be of the Burthen of Three hundred and fifty Tons at the least.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Commander of any Vessel or Packet Boat to be established under the Authority of this Act, having received His Majesty's Mail on board, and having received his Clearance, shall wilfully neglect to sail and proceed on his Voyage within Twenty four Hours after the time of receiving the Mail on board and his Clearance (Wind and Weather permitting), or shall wilfully deviate from the Course of his Voyage, such Neglect shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Court of Directors of the said United East India Company to give Direction to alter the Sailing of any Ship or Vessel belonging to and employed by the said Company, for a time to be limited or specified, giving Notice of such Directions to the Postmaster General within Twenty four Hours thereof.

XII. And be it further enacted, That for the Post and Conveyance of all and every the Letters and Packets that shall be carried or conveyed by Vessels not employed as Packets from Great Britain, to the Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and The East Indies, there shall be charged and payable a Sea Postage of One Shilling and Two pence a Single Letter, and so in Proportion for Packets; such Postage to be paid on Delivery of the Letters at The Cape, The Mauritius and The East Indies, as the case may be.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall send without Authority of the Postmaster General to The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius or The East Indies, any Letter or Packet, or if any Commander of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Person shall carry or convey any Letter or Packet without such Authority to The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius or The East Indies, every such Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for every Letter so sent or conveyed.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Commanders of any Ship sailing to The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius or The East Indies, is hereby authorized and required to take charge of and convey any Bags of Letters subject to the aforesaid Rate of One Shilling and Two pence, which shall be delivered to him by Order or Authority of the Postmaster General.

XV. And, for the Services performed by the Commanders of such Vessels, be it further enacted, That they shall be entitled to receive on their Arrival in Port, either in Great Britain or in India, on delivering in the Post Office all such Letters and Packets which they shall have on board, the Sum of Two pence for every Letter or Packet which he or they shall so deliver.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That for the Post and Conveyance of all and every the Letters and Packets that shall be carried or conveyed by Vessels not employed as Packets from The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and The East Indies, to Great Britain, there shall be charged and payable a Sea Postage of Eight pence for each Single Letter, and so in Proportion for Packets.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That for Twelve Months from and after the passing of this Act, no Letter or Packet of whatever Weight or Description coming from The Cape of Good Hope, Mauritius or India, shall be chargeable with a higher Rate of Sea Postage than Five Shillings for each Letter or Packet; any thing to the contrary in this Act contained notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General in his Discretion, to establish Post Offices, and appoint Deputy Postmasters and other Officers, for the due Execution of this Act, in the United Kingdom, and in any of the Possessions of the said United Company, and the same from time to time to remove and displace, and others to appoint in their stead; and that all such Persons to be appointed shall give Security to the Satisfaction of the Postmaster General or his Agents for the due Discharge of their respective Duties, and accounting for and paying unto the Treasurers of the said United Company, at their respective Possessions, on account of the Revenue of the Post Office, all Sums which they shall respectively receive for the Post of Letters and Packets, or in any other manner whatsoever; and that no such Postmaster or other Person shall at any time retain in his Hands more than One thousand Pounds of the Public Money.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurers of the said United Company, at their respective Possessions, shall and they are hereby authorized and required to receive all such Sums, and from time to time to send the same to the Postmaster General, in such manner and under such Regulations as shall be agreed upon by the said United Company and the Postmaster General.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India for the time being, to send and receive Letters and Packets to and from The East Indies free from the Duties of Postage; and that it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State for Colonial Affairs, and the Secretaries to the Treasury for the time being, to send and receive Letters and Packets to and from The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and Ceylon, free from the Duty of Postage.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, receiving Salaries in virtue of such Office, and for the Secretary to the said Commissioners for the time being, to send and receive Letters and Packets to or from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company at The Cape of Good Hope, provided that the Letters and Packets to be sent and received by such Commissioners or Secretary, by any one Packet or other Vessel, appointed to carry the Mail, do not collectively exceed the Weight of Five Quarters, and Five Quarters lost, by each such Commissioners or by such Secretary.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the said United Company for the time being, and for One Year after the said Chairman and Deputy Chairman shall have quitted their respective Offices, to send and receive Letters and Packets free from Postage, to and from The East Indies only; provided that such Letters and Packets shall be upon the Consignments of the said Company only; and provided that such Letters shall be addressed or superscribed wholly in the Hand Writing of the Chairman or Deputy Chairman, and his Name added thereto in his Hand Writing; and also that it shall be lawful for the Directors of the said Company to send and receive Letters and Packets to and from The East Indies only, addressed and superscribed in like manner, free from Postage for One Year from and after the passing of this Act, and so longer.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Directors of the said Company for the time being, to send and receive Letters and Packets free from Postage to and from The East Indies only, by the Ships of the said Company, provided that such Letters to be sent and received do not collectively exceed the Weight of Five Quarters, by each Ship of the said Company; and that such Directors shall and may continue to send and receive such Letters and Packets for One Year after he or they shall have gained the said Ships.

XXIV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to prevent such Public Officers who now send and receive Letters and Packets free of Postage, from sending and receiving Letters and Packets to and from The Cape of Good Hope, Mauritius, Saint Helena and The East Indies, in the same manner as they are now authorised by Law to send and receive Letters and Packets free from Postage.

XXV. And Whereas, by a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend Three Acts made in the Thirtieth, Thirty first, and Forty second Years of His present Majesty, relating to the Conveyance of Letters and Packets by the Post, amongst other things, His Majesty's Navy and Non Commissioned Officers in the Army, within any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, whilst actually employed in His Majesty's Service, were authorised to send and receive by the Post, on his or her own Private Conscience only, Single Letters, upon Payment of One Penny for each Letter, under the several Restrictions in the said Act contained: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act to Seamen in the Navy, whilst actually employed in His Majesty's Service in The East Indies, and to Non Commissioned Officers in His Majesty's Army, whilst actually employed in His Majesty's Service in The East Indies, and also to the Seamen and Non Commissioned Officers in the Army actually employed in the Service of the East India Company: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for each and every Seaman employed in His Majesty's Navy within any Part of The East Indies, and to and for every Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer, Trumpeter, Fifer and Private Soldier in His Majesty's Regular Forces, Militia, Fencible Regiments, Artillery or Royal Marines, whilst actually employed in His Majesty's Service in The East Indies, and also to and for every Seaman, whilst actually employed in the Service of the East India Company, and to and for every Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer, Trumpeter, Fifer and Private Soldier in the Service of the said Company, whilst actually employed in the Service of the said Company, and not otherwise, to receive by the Post, on his own Private Conscience only, free from Postage, Single Letters; provided that the several Regulations and Restrictions contained in the said Act heretofore enacted shall be complied with; and likewise to send Single Letters by the Post, on his own Private Conscience only, on Payment of One Penny upon putting the same into any Post Office, under the several Regulations and Restrictions in the heretofore recited Act contained.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Clauses, Powers, Advantages, Penalties and Methods for the Recovery of the same, contained in the said recited Act, in far as relates to Soldiers and Seamen's Letters, shall be applied and extended, and shall be construed to apply and extend to this present Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

XXVII. And Whereas it is expedient to alter and amend an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Most Gracious Majesty, intituled An Act for making certain Regulations respecting the Postage of Ship Letters, and of Letters in Great Britain: Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Act as authorizes the Postmaster General to take a Rate of Six pence a Letter for single Letters, and so on in Proportion for Letters brought by Vessels other than Packet Boats from Places within His Majesty's Dominions, and from Kingdoms and Countries beyond the Seas to Great Britain; and as authorizes Persons in Places within His Majesty's Dominions and Countries beyond the Seas to receive from the Masters of Vessels coming from thence into Great Britain, Letters and Packets which may be collected and brought by such Masters to them for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, and to receive from such Masters at the Rate of Three Shillings for every Fifty Letters or Packets, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Number, and as directs the manner in which such Letters are to be transmitted by such Masters of Vessels to Great Britain; and so much of the said Act as authorizes the Masters of Vessels to collect Letters and Packets within His Majesty's Dominions and Countries beyond the Seas, for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, and which directs the Sum of Three Shillings for every Fifty Letters, and is in Proportion for a greater or lesser Number, to be repaid to such Masters, and as authorizes the Payment of Two pence for every Letter to such Masters; and also so much of the said Act as imposes a Penalty of Five hundred Pounds upon any Master who shall upon any Flag or Bags of Letters, or who shall take out of such Bag any Letter or Letters, or shall not duly deliver such Bag at the Place where he shall arrive; and likewise so much of the said Act as imposes a Penalty of Five Pounds upon any Person sending any Letter or Packet by any Ship or Vessel of which he shall not be Owner, without bearing the Official Mark of the Postage having been paid thereon; and as imposes a like Penalty upon any Master having on board or carrying any Letter not being the Letter of his Owner, without such Official Mark thereon; and so much of the said Act as authorizes the Collector, Comptroller or Principal Officers of the Customs, to search Ships or Vessels for Letters or Packets, and to issue and forward the same to the Postmaster General; and also so much of the said Act as authorizes such Collector, Comptroller or Officer as aforesaid on Oath to such Master, that he has not any Letters which have not paid the Rate of Postage on board his Ship or Vessel, nor being the Letters of the Owners of his said Ship; and likewise so much of the said Act as directs, that on the Arrival of any Ship at Port, the Master shall sign a Declaration that, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, he has delivered all the Letters, Bags or Parcels of Letters on board his Vessel, and as imposes a Penalty of Fifty Pounds upon any Master neglecting or refusing to make such Declaration; and likewise so much of the said Act as imposes a Penalty of Twenty Pounds upon any such Collector, Comptroller or principal Officer who shall permit any Ship or Vessel to break Bulk until the Registers of the said Act be complied with; and also so much of the said Act as directs the Mode of recovering the Pecuniary Penalties by the said Act imposed, and the Application of the same; and also so much of the said Act as renders XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General to demand, have, receive and take for every Letter which shall be brought by Ships and Vessels (other than Packet Boats) from Places within His Majesty's Dominions, and from any the Kingdoms and Places beyond the Seas, into Great Britain, except from The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and The East Indies, a Sea Postage of Eight pence for every Single Letter, and so in Proportion for Packets, in addition to any Inland or Internal Postage which may arise upon the Inland Conveyance of such Letters and Packets; and for the Encouragement of the Masters of such Ships or Vessels, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to allow all such Masters the Sum of Two pence a Letter or Packet upon all such Letters and Packets as they respectively, on their arrival from Ports beyond the Seas, shall deliver unto the Deputy or Deputies of the Postmaster General, for such Place or Port Town at which they shall touch or arrive.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Master of any Ship or Vessel shall upon any Inland Bag, Package or Parcel of Letters, with which he shall have been entrusted, or shall take out of such Bag, Package or Parcel any Letter or Letters whatsoever, or shall not duly deliver such Bag, Package or Parcel with the Letters at the Post Office on his arrival in Port, without wilful or unavoidable Delay after his Arrival, every such Master so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners, Chiefs or Consignees of Vessels, to send their Letters on board their own Ships, from any Port in Great Britain to The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and The East Indies, free from the Sea Postage; provided that such Letters shall be endorsed with the Words "Owners or Chiefs or Consignees Letters," and the Christian and Surname, and Place of Abode, of the Owner, Charterer or Consignee, or the Firm of the Owners who shall be the Writer of the same; and provided that the Letter be sent and endorsed by any Owner or Owners, Charterer or Consignee, as the whole Number of Letters, if there shall be more than One Letter, from each Owner or Owners, Charterer or Consignee, shall not collectively exceed the Weight of Twenty Ounces.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners or Shippers of Goods to send Letters with their Goods on board any Ship or Vessel from any Port in Great Britain, to The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius and The East Indies free from the Ship Letter Postage; provided that such Letter shall be endorsed with the Christian and Surname of the Writer, or the Firm of the Writers, and with the Words "Owners or Shippers of Goods" shipped on board the [Join the Name of the Ship] bound to [Join the Place]; and provided the Letter or Packet of any such Owners or Shippers, or the whole Number of Letters, if there shall be more than One, from each Owner or Shippers, shall not collectively exceed the Weight of Six Ounces.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners, Charterers or Consignees of Vessels resident in Great Britain, to receive their Letters by their own Vessels from any Place within His Majesty's Dominions, or Countries beyond the Seas, free from the Sea Postage; provided that such Owners, Charterers or Consignees shall be endorsed as such in the Address and Supercription of such Letters; and that such Letters to any One Owner, Charterer or Consignee, shall not, if coming from any Place in The East Indies, exceed collectively the Weight of Twenty Ounces; and if coming from any other Port beyond the Seas, exceed collectively the Weight of Six Ounces.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners or Consignees of Goods on board Ships arriving from Abroad to receive Letters free from the Sea Postage by such Ships, provided that such Owners or Consignees shall be described as such in the Address and Supercription thereof, and provided it shall appear by the Ship's Manifest that such Persons actually have Goods on board such Ships, and that the Letter or Letters addressed to any One such Owner or Consignee shall not collectively exceed the Weight of Six Ounces.

XXXIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend to prevent the Letters of Owners, Consignees or Freighters of Ships arriving in this Country from The East Indies before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to receive their Letters free of Postage as heretofore, although they may exceed the Weight herein limited, or may not be marked as directed by this Act.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this, or in any other Act contained, shall extend to charge with the Duty of Postage any Letters or Packets redelivered by the Governors of His Majesty's Settlements of Ceylon, The Cape of Good Hope or The Mauritius, or by the Secretaries of their Governments respectively, to the Agents of those respective Governments residing in England, or by their Agents to such Governors or Secretaries: Provided always, that the Customs of such Letters and Packets relate Inter alia to the Public Revenue, or Concerns of such Governments, and that they are supercribed by such Governors, Secretaries or Agents respectively.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Collector, Comptroller or other Officer of His Majesty's Customs, find any Letter or Letters supercribed in the Letters of such Owners, Charterers, Consignees or Shippers, exceeding the Number or Weight limited by this Act, then it shall and may be lawful for such Collector, Comptroller or other Officer to seize so many of the Letters as shall exceed the Remainder within the proper Weight, and shall take the same to the nearest Post Office, and the Postmaster of the Place shall pay to the Officer delivering the same at the Rate of Two Shillings and Six pence for each Letter or Packet so seized.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Rate of Postage for the Conveyance of Letters and Packets by Packet Boats, or Ships or Vessels employed as Packet Boats, to any Port of His Majesty's Dominions and Countries beyond the Seas, excepting The East Indies, shall and may with the Consent of the Lords Commis-from of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, either be received at the Post Office in Great Britain, upon forwarding the same, or by the Deputy or Deputies of the Postmaster General upon their Delivery.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Collector, Comptroller or other Officer of His Majesty's Customs, at any Port or Place whatsoever, and he is hereby authorised to require a Declaration from any Commander of any Ship or Vessel sailing to The Cape of Good Hope, The Mauritius or The East Indies, that he has not nor will take any Letters on board his Ship which have not been delivered to him by Authority of the Postmaster General, or which are not exempted from Postage by this Act; which Declaration shall be in the Form, or to the Effect following:

'I, A. B. Commander of the [State the Name of the Ship or Vessel] bound to [State the Place] do, as required by Law, solemnly declare, That I have not to the best of my Knowledge and Belief on board my Ship or Vessel, nor will I take any Letters which have not been delivered to me by Authority of the Postmaster General, or which are not exempted from Postage.'

And in case any such Commander shall make a false or untrue Declaration he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That on the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel in any Port where there is a Post Office, or at the Port of its Destination, the Master shall immediately send to the Care of all the Bags, Packages or Parcels of Letters, and all other Letters on board his Ship, and shall, to the utmost of his Power, procure all his Crew and Passengers to send any Letters which may be in their Possession, except such Letters as are exempted by this Act; and the Master shall at the same time, or at the Port or Place where the Ship or Vessel shall report, sign a Declaration in the Presence of the Person authorised by the Postmaster General at the Port or Place, who shall also sign the same; which Declaration shall be in the Form, or to the Effect following; that is to say,

'I, A. B. Commander of the [State the Name of the Ship or Vessel] arrived from [State the Place] do, as required by Law, solemnly declare, That I have, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, delivered or caused to be delivered at the Post Office at [State the Place] every Letter, Bag, Package or Parcel of Letters that were on board the [State the Name of the Ship] except such Letters as are exempted by this Act.'

And that until such Declaration shall be made and produced to the Collector, Comptroller or Principal Officer of the Customs, he or they shall not permit such Ship or Vessel to report.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any Master of any Ship or Vessel shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make the several Declarations by this Act required, or to produce the last mentioned Declaration, he shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Collector, Comptroller or Principal Officer, hereby required to prohibit any Ship or Vessel reporting until the Requisites of this Act shall be complied with, shall permit such Ship or Vessel to report, such Collector, Comptroller or Officer, so permitting such Ship or Vessel to report, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Collector, Comptroller or Officer, at any Port or Place whatsoever, who, in the due Execution of his Duty as a Revenue Officer, shall discover any Letters or Packets on board any Vessel in any Port or Place whatsoever, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, to seize and take all such Letters and Packets, and to forward the same to the Postmaster General or his Deputy, at the Port or Place; and that the Officer seizing and sending the same shall be entitled to use Molesey of the Penalty which may be recovered for any such Offence; and that in all cases of such Seizure the Proof shall lie on the Person in whose Possession or Baggage the Letters or Packets shall be found that the Provisions of this Act have been complied with.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Bags, Packages or Parcels of Letters shall be brought by any Ship of War, the Commander thereof shall cause the same and all Letters which may be on board (except the Public Dispatches of Government) to be immediately sent to the Post Office, at the First Port where he shall arrive; and such Commander shall, for all such Letters, be entitled to receive the same Allowances as are payable to Masters of Ship or Vessel.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall happen from any unforeseen circumstances, that the Master of any Ship or Vessel, or the Commander of any Ship of War, shall, upon delivering his Bags, Packages or Parcels of Letters, be prevented from receiving the Money to which he shall be entitled, such Master or Commander shall nevertheless be paid the same, by the Order of the Postmaster General, at such other Place as may be most convenient.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That the Rates of Postage heretofore mentioned for the Conveyance of Letters and Packets by the said Packet Boats, Ships or Vessels from any Port in Great Britain, to any Port to The East Indies, shall be received by the Deputies of the Postmaster General, upon their Delivery in India, and that the Rates of Postage for the Conveyance of Letters from any Port or Place in The East Indies to Great Britain shall be received at the Option of the Person sending the same, or upon their Delivery in Great Britain or Indo-China, by the Deputies of the Postmaster General in India upon forwarding the same.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That if, after the Master of any Vessel shall have delivered his Letters at the Post Office of any Port at which he may touch, prior to his arriving at that Port where the Ship or Vessel is to report, any Letter or Packet not exempted by this Act, shall be found on board his Vessel, in his Possession, or in the Possession of any of his Crew, or any Passenger on board, every such Person knowingly having such Letter or Packet in his Possession or in his Baggage, shall forfeit and pay for every Letter the Sum of Five Pounds.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person whatsoever shall falsify or forge any Letter as being the Owner, Charterer or Consignee of the Vessel conveying the same, or the Owner, Shipper or Consignee of the Goods shipped in the Vessel, every such Person and Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That One Month of the several Penalties hereby imposed shall be payable to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Month to any Person who shall and will inform and sue for the same, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or in the Colony or Place where the Offence shall be committed, wherein no Office, Protection or Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be admitted.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if at any time hereafter the Establishment of such Vessels as aforesaid, a Space of Three Calendar Months shall have elapsed without any Public Mail having been dispatched from Great Britain to The Cape of Good Hope and The Mauritius, and the several Presidents of Fort William, Fort Saint George and Bombay in The East Indies, it shall be lawful for any Person to send, or take on board, and carry any Letters or Packets from Great Britain to each of the said Places to which no Mail shall have been so dispatched during the time aforesaid, or from each of the Places aforesaid from which no Mail shall have been so dispatched to Great Britain, without being subject thereto to any of the Penalties, Forfeitures, Payments or Restraints in this Act contained, until some Public Mail shall have been again dispatched from Great Britain to each Place, or from each Place to Great Britain.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Letters or Packets to or from China, but that they may be sent and carried as heretofore has been used; any thing to the contrary herein contained notwithstanding.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall incur or become liable to any of the Penalties by this Act imposed, so far as the same shall relate to Letters to be sent to and from India, unless the Provisions hereinafter contained, as to establishing Vessels for the Conveyance of Mails of Letters to The East Indies, shall be carried into Effect within Six Months from the passing of this Act.

LII. And be it further enacted, That in any Action or Suit against any Person or Persons, for collecting, carrying, conveying, delivering or sending Letters or Packets contrary to the Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled *An Act for establishing a General Post Office for all Her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof for the Service of the War, and also Her Majesty's Successors, or contrary to the Provisions in an Act made in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for amending so much of an Act, passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as relates to the forcing, embossing or disguising any Letter or Packet sent by the Post, and for the better Protection of such Letters and Packets, and for more effectually preventing Letters and Packets being sent otherwise than by the Post, or in either of them, or contrary to the Provisions of this Act, the Proof shall be on the Person or Persons against whom such Action or Suit shall be brought, for delivering or sending Letters or Packets, that the same were delivered or sent according to the Provisions contained in the said last mentioned Acts, or one of them, or according to the Provisions contained in this present Act.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That the Moneys to arise by the several Rats and Duties as aforesaid (except the Moneys which shall be necessary to defray such Expenses as shall be incurred in the Management and Collection of the same), shall be paid into the Receiver of the Exchequer at Westminster, and carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the same shall be commenced within Twelve Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to be so done, or that such Action or Suit shall be commenced after the time before limited for bringing the same, that then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon a Verdict for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be acquitted, or defendant on his, her or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Triple Costs, and have the like remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other case by Law.

C A P. CLIV.

An Act for fixing the Rates of Subsistence to be paid to Innkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers.

[Orth July 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for providing Munition and Detention; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, it is enacted, that Officers and Soldiers shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer upon paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament; and an Oath is given to Innkeepers and others, upon whom Officers and Soldiers are quartered and billeted, to furnish certain Articles gratis, in lieu of Diet and Small Beer; and it is just and expedient that an adequate Allowance shall be made and established for Provisions and other Articles furnished to Officers and Soldiers; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Non-Commissioned Officer and Private Soldier who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer within these Parts of the United Kingdom specified in the said recited Act by the Insubholders or other Persons on whom such Non-Commissioned Officers or Private Soldiers shall be quartered and billeted by virtue of the said Act, shall pay and allow for the same the Sum of Fourteen pence per Diem until the Twenty-fourth Day of July inclusive, and from and after that Day the Sum of One Shilling per Diem; and that for each Allowance of Fourteen pence and One Shilling, the Insulholder or other Person shall furnish One Meal, videlicet, a loaf of Bread as required in each Day, to each Non-Commissioned Officer, Trumpeter, Drummer and Private Soldier quartered and billeted on him, to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as have been or shall be specified and fixed on and by any Regulations made or to be made from time to time by His Majesty in that behalf, but not to exceed One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetable provisions to be brought cooked, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt and Pepper; and that the Accounts of the same shall be rendered, and Payment thereof made, in like manner as is directed by the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Insulholder or other Person on whom any Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Man shall be quartered within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, shall, by virtue of the said Act, be furnished with Diet and Small Beer, at the Rate prescribed by this Act, such Insulholder or other Person on whom such Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers are quartered, and by whom the said Articles shall have been supplied, shall receive in Consideration thereof, One Halfpenny per Diem for each Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier, which Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem shall be accounted for and paid in like manner as is directed touching the Rate aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum to be paid to the Insulholder or other Person within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, on whom any of the Articles belonging to His Majesty's Forces shall be quartered by virtue of the said Act, for Hay and Straw shall be One Shilling and Two pence per Diem for each Horse.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Insulholders or other Persons on whom they may be billeted, within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, at the Rate heretofore prescribed while on the March, as also annual for the Day of their Arrival at the Place of their final Destination, and on the Two subsequent Days, unless either of the Two subsequent Days shall be a Market Day, in and for the Town or Place where such Officers or Soldiers shall be billeted, or within the Distance of Two Miles thereof; in which case it shall be lawful for the Insulholder, or other Person as aforesaid, to discontinue on and from such Market Day the Supply of Diet and Small Beer, and to furnish to him touching the Articles in the said recited Act specified, and at the Rate heretofore prescribed.

V. Provided always, That if any Volunteer or other Personable by the said recited Act to have Soldiers billeted or quartered on him or her, shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier on the March, in lieu of furnishing in kind, the Diet and Small Beer to which such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier is entitled under the said Act, every such Volunteer or other Person may be proceeded against and fined in like manner as if he or she had refused to furnish or allow according to the Direction of the said recited Act, the several Things respectively directed to be furnished to Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers to be quartered or billeted on him or her as aforesaid.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Regiment, Troop, Company or Detachment, when on the March, shall be halted, either for a limited or indefinite time, at any intermediate Place, the Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers belonging thereto, shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Person as whom they shall be billeted at such intermediate Place, for such time only for which they would be entitled to receive the same after arriving at the Place of their final Destination, according to the said Act.

VII. Provided nevertheless, That whenever it shall happen that any Regiment, Troop, Company or Detachment, when on their March shall be halted, and it shall appear by the Marching Orders, that it is not intended that such Regiment, Troop, Company or Detachment, shall halt for any longer time than One entire Day after the Day of their Arrival at the Place of Halting, and the Day after such Arrival shall be such Market Day as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Insulholder or other Person on whom the Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers shall be billeted, to discontinue on such Market Day, the Supply of Diet and Small Beer to any such Officers or Soldiers; but that all such Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from such Insulholders and other Persons aforesaid, upon such Market Day as aforesaid, at the Rate heretofore prescribed, in like manner as they would have been entitled thereto, if such Day had not been a Market Day; say thing heretofore contained to the contrary hereto notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Non-Commissioned Officers and Private Men employed in Recruiting, and the Recruits by them raised, shall, while on the March, and for Two Days after the Day of their Arrival at any Recruiting Station, be entitled to the same Benefits as are heretofore provided in regard to Troops upon the March; but no Recruit entitled after the Two Days subsequent to the Arrival of the Party at their Recruiting Station, shall be entitled to be supplied with Diet and Small Beer at the Rates heretofore prescribed, except at the Option of the Person on whom he shall be quartered: Provided also nevertheless, that in case any such Recruiting Party, with the Recruits by them raised, shall remove from their Station, and after a time shall return to the same Place, they and the Recruits by them raised, in returning, shall not be again entitled to the Supply of Diet and Small Beer for such Two Days as aforesaid, unless the Period be-

His Majesty by Proclamation or Order in Council may modify Operations or reduce Duties.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the Duties payable in Scotland upon Distillers Wash, Spirits and Licences; and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; it was provided, that One Fourth Part of the said several Duties by that Act imposed should expire on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: And Whereas it is expedient that the same should be continued for a time to be limited: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Fourth Part of the said several Duties by the said Act imposed, and which would expire on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be, and the same Fourth Part of the said several Duties is hereby further continued from the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and shall remain and continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case His Majesty, at any time before the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall in His Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of Scotland, or of the Highlands of Scotland, to modify the Operations or reduce the Duties by this Act and by the said Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His present Majesty imposed on the Highlands of Scotland, for any time not exceeding the Space of Three Months after the then next Meeting of Parliament, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to so modify the Operations or to reduce the Duties so imposed on the Highlands of Scotland, in such manner as to His said Majesty shall seem meet, and as in such Proclamation or Proclamations or Order or Orders in Council shall be specified, stated and expressed.

Exception, Proviso.

Parliament intendeth all of Crimes punishable by Transportation, transported accordingly.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the efficient Transportation of Felons and other Offenders, and for authorising the Removal of Prisoners in certain Cases; and for other Purposes therein mentioned: And Whereas the said Act hath been continued by different Acts: And Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to appoint certain Places, as well out of His Majesty's Dominions as within the same, to which Felons and other Offenders may be transported; and that the Regulations of the said Act should be amended, and more effectual Provision made for the Transportation of such Offenders: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said recited Act of the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall be and the same is hereby repealed: save and except as to all Acts done under the same before the passing of this Act; and also save and except as to all Proceedings commenced before the passing thereof: Provided always, that it shall be lawful in any case in which any Proceedings have been commenced under the said Act, to proceed after the passing of this Act, under the Provisions thereof, in relation to any Offender, in any case in which it shall be expedient so to do.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court, before which any Person or Persons shall have been or shall be convicted at any Session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, or at any Quarter or other General Session of the Peace to be holden for any County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Borough, Liberty or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, or at any General Session to be holden for the County Palatine of Chester, or within the Principality of Wales, or of Grand or Petty Larceny, or any other Offence for which such Person or Persons shall have been or be subject to be transported, to order and adjudge, or any subsequent Court holden at any Place for the same County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Borough, Liberty or Place respectively, with like Authority, to order and adjudge that such Person or Persons so convicted as aforesaid, shall be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding the Number of Years or Terms for which such Person or Persons so or are or shall be liable by any Law to be transported; and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to declare and appoint any other Place or Places, Part or Parts beyond the Seas, in addition to such as shall have been heretofore declared and appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, either within His Majesty's Dominions, or elsewhere out of His Majesty's Dominions, to which any such Persons or other Offenders shall be conveyed or transported; and such Court as aforesaid is hereby authorized and required to order such Offenders to be transported to the Use of any Person or Persons, and he or their Assigns, who shall contract for the due Performance of such Transportation; and when His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to extend Mercy to any Offender or Offenders who hath or have been or shall be convicted of any Crime or Crimes, for which he, she or they is, are or shall be by Law excluded from the Benefit of Clergy, upon Condition of Transportation to any Place or Places, Part or Parts beyond the Seas, either for a Term of Life or any Number of Years, and such Intention of Mercy shall be signified by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, it shall be lawful for any Court having proper Authority, to allow such Offender or Offenders the Benefit of a Conditional Pardon, and to order such Offender or Offenders to be transported for such Term of Life or Years as shall be specified in such Condition of Transportation as aforesaid, and to make such Order of Transfer as aforesaid; and when any Offender or Offenders hath or have been or shall be convicted of any Crime or Crimes, for which he, she or they is or are by Law excluded the Benefit of Clergy, the Judge before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, or any Justice of The King's Bench, Common Pleas or Bases of the Exchequer of the Degree of the Court, in case the said Offender or Offenders shall have been tried in any Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in England, or any Justice of Chief or Peace, in case the said Offender or Offenders shall be tried and convicted within any of their respective Jurisdictions, shall, on such Intention of Mercy as aforesaid being signified to him by One of the said Principal Secretaries of State, make an Order for the immediate Transportation of such Offender or Offenders, and for such Offender or Offenders to be transported as aforesaid, in the same manner as if such Intention of Mercy had been signified by One of the said Principal Secretaries of State, during the Continuance of the Assizes or Sessions at which such Offender or Offenders was or were condemned; and such Order shall be considered as an Order made at such Assizes or Sessions as aforesaid, and shall be as official and have all the same Consequences as any Order for the Transportation of any Offender or Offenders, made by any Justice of Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions or Gaol Delivery, for any County, City, Liberty, Borough or Place, during the Continuance of the Assizes or Sessions; and such Person or Persons so contracting as aforesaid, he or their Assigns, by virtue of such Order of Transfer as aforesaid, shall have a Property in the Service of such Offender or Offenders for such Term of Life or Years for which such Offender or Offenders shall have been ordered to be transported.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Clerk of the Court, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough, Town or Place, the same Fee as hath been usually paid, or such Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Clerk of the Court is entitled to for the Order of Transportation of any Offender.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person or Persons to whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be transferred as aforesaid, shall, before any of them shall be delivered over to him or them to be transported, give Security that he or they will transport or cause to be transported effectually such Offender or Offenders to such Place or Places, Part or Parts beyond the Seas respectively, as shall be appointed by His Majesty in such manner as aforesaid; and procure such Evidence as the nature of the case will admit, of the landing of such Offender or Offenders in Transmigration as aforesaid, in that Place or Part, or those Places or Parts beyond the Seas, whither he, she or they shall be ordered to be transported (Death and Catholism by Sea excepted); and that he, she or they shall not be suffered to return to Great Britain or Ireland by the willful Default of the Person or Persons so contracting as aforesaid, or of his or their Assigns.

V. And be it also enacted, That every such Court as aforesaid may appoint two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough or Place, where such Offender or Offenders shall have been convicted, who shall have Power and are hereby required to contract with any Person or Persons who shall be nominated by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for the Performance of the Transportation of such Offender or Offenders, and to order such Security to be taken as aforesaid; and also to cause such Offender or Offenders to be delivered, by the respective Gaolers or Persons in whose Custody he, she or they shall be, to the Person or Persons so contracting, or to his or their Assigns; which Contracts and Security shall be certified by the Justices, who shall make and take the same to the next Court to be holden with the like Authority for the said County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough or Place, to be filed and kept among the Records of such Court; and all Securities for Transportation shall be by Bond in the Name of the respective Clerks of the Peace or other Clerks of the Court, who shall prosecute such Bonds in their own Names; for which Purpose every such Clerk of the Peace or Clerk of the Court, and his Successors respectively, shall be deemed a Body Corporate, and shall have and be paid all such Costs as they shall sustain in any such Suit, as the Justices of the Peace shall at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace direct, out of the Public Stock; and all Moneys recovered on such Bonds shall be for the Use of the respective County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough or Place, and be paid to their respective Treasurers, to be Part of the Public Stock; and all Charges in or about making the Contracts, taking Securities, and conveying Persons and other Offenders, in order to be transported, shall be borne by each County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough or Place, for which the Court was held within ordered such Offenders to be transported; and the respective Treasurers shall, by Order of the Justices in Quarter Sessions, pay all such Charges to the Persons employed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons so contracting as aforesaid, and to whom any Offenders shall be delivered in order to be transported, or any Person or Persons directed by the said Justices (empowered to contract as aforesaid) or their Assigns, may in such manner as they shall think fit, carry and secure the said Offenders in and through any County of Great Britain, towards the Sea Port or Place from whence they are to be transported; and if any Person or Persons shall refuse such Offenders or any of them, or assist them or any of them in making their Escape from such Person or Persons as shall have them in their Custody as aforesaid, he, she or they shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in case of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender or Offenders who shall be so ordered by any such Court as aforesaid to be transported, or who shall agree to transport himself or herself on certain Conditions, either for Life or any Number of Years, to any such Place or Places, Part or Parts, as shall be appointed by His Majesty in manner aforesaid, shall be afterwards at large within any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, without force lawful Cause, before the Expiration of the Time for which such Offender or Offenders shall have been ordered to be transported, or shall have agreed to transport himself or herself as aforesaid, every such Offender being at large as aforesaid, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer Death; and such Offender or Offenders may be tried either before the Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions or Gaol Delivery, for the County, City, Liberty, Borough or Place where such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and taken, or from whence he, she or they were ordered to be transported; and the Clerk of the Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Officers, or Clerk of the Court having the Custody of the Records where such Order of Transportation shall be made, shall, at the Request of the Prosecutor or any other Person on His Majesty's behalf, make out and give a Certificate in Writing signed by him, containing the Effect and Substance only (without the formal Part) of every Judgment and Conviction of such Offender or Offenders and of the Order for his or her Transportation, to the Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions or Gaol Delivery, where such Offender or Offenders shall be indicted (not taking for the last more than Six Shillings and Eight pence) which Certificate shall be sufficient Proof of the Conviction and Order for the Transportation of such Offender or Offenders; and whoever shall discover and prosecute to Conviction any such Offender or Offenders for being at large as aforesaid, shall be entitled to a Reward of Twenty Pounds for every such Offender so convicted, and shall have such Certificate to receive the same, as any Person or Persons may be entitled unto for the apprehending and prosecuting to Conviction, Persons who have committed any Robbery upon the Highway: Provided nevertheless, that His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, may pardon and dispense with such Transportation, and allow of the Return of any such Offender or Offenders to this Kingdom.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by an Order in Writing or be notified by One of the said Principal Secretaries of State, or for any Three or more of such of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace sitting in and for the County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Liberty or Place in which any Gaol shall be situated, as shall be authorized by His Majesty under His Sign Manual, to direct the Removal of any Male Offender or Offenders who shall be under Sentence of Death, but arrived during His Majesty's Pleasure, or under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and who having been examined by an experienced Surgeon or Apothecary, shall appear to be free from any period or infectious Disemper, and fit to be removed from the Gaol or Prison in which such Offender or Offenders shall be confined, to such Place of Confinement within England or the Dominion of Wales, either at Land, or on board any Ship or Vessel to be provided by His Majesty in the River Thames, or any Navigable or other River, or within the Limits of any Port or Harbour of England or Wales, at His Majesty, or any Three of such Justices authorized as aforesaid, shall from time to time appoint, under the Management of a Superintendent and Over-see to be appointed by His Majesty, or any Three or more of such Justices authorized as aforesaid; and every Offender who shall be so removed shall continue in the said Place of Confinement, or be removed to and confined in any other such Place or Places as aforesaid, as His Majesty, or any Three or more of such Justices authorized as aforesaid, from time to time shall appoint, until such Offender shall be transported according to Law, or by the Expiration of the Term of such Transportation or otherwise shall be entitled to his Liberty, as said His Majesty, or any Three or more of such Justices be authorized as aforesaid, shall direct the Return of such Offender to the Gaol or Prison from which he shall have been so removed; and the Sheriff or Gaoler having the Custody of any Offender whose Removal shall be ordered in manner aforesaid, shall with all convenient Speed, after the Receipt of the Notification of any such Order, convey or cause to be conveyed every such Offender to the Place appointed, and there deliver him to such Superintendent or Over-see, together with a true Copy, attested by such Sheriff or Gaoler, of the Caption and Order of the Court before which such Offender was tried, containing the Sentence of Transportation of each such Offender respectively, by virtue whereof he shall be in the Custody of such Sheriff or Gaoler; and also a Certificate containing his Age, and an Account of his Behaviour in Prison before and after his Trial, and the Gaoler's Observations on his Temper and Disposition, and such Information concerning his Connections as he may have come to the Gaoler's Knowledge; and such Superintendent or Over-see as aforesaid shall give a proper Receipt in Writing to the Sheriff or Gaoler for the Discharge of such Sheriff or Gaoler.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all reasonable Expences which the Sheriff or Gaoler shall incur in every such Removal shall be paid by the County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Liberty or Place, for which

which the Court in which the Offender was committed shall have been held, and the Sheriff or Gaoler shall receive the Money due for such Expenses from the Treasurer of such County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Liberty or Place; such Expenses being first allowed by the Order of the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter or other General Sessions of the Peace, who are hereby required to make such Order as shall be just in that behalf.

X. And be it further enacted, That where any Offender shall be brought to any such Place of Confinement as aforesaid, in pursuance of the Powers contained in this Act, he shall be washed, cleaned and purified, and the Clothes in which he shall be then clothed shall be honest if necessary, or otherwise shall be purchased and taken Care of for him, by the Overseer of the Place of Confinement, and redelivered to him upon his quitting it, or sold for his Benefit, and the Produce thereof accounted for to him by the Overseer aforesaid; and when such Offender shall be finally discharged, either at the End or other Determination of his Term, such other decent Clothing as shall be judged necessary and proper by the Superintendent aforesaid, shall be delivered to such Offender by the Overseer of the Place of Confinement from which he is discharged, and also such Sum of Money for his immediate Subsistence, as the said Superintendent shall think proper, in as such Sum shall not in any case exceed Three Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That after the Removal of any Offender under this Act, the Superintendent or Overseer who shall have the Custody of him, shall, during the Term of such Custody, have the same Powers over him as are incident to the Office of a Sheriff or Gaoler, and in like manner be answerable for any Escape of such Offender; and also during such Custody shall see him fed and clothed according to a Scale of Diet and Clothing to be fixed on and settled in Writing by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to the Superintendent; and shall keep such Offender in Labour, at such Places, and under such Regulations, Directions, Limitations and Restrictions, as His Majesty, or any Three or more of such Justices so authorized as aforesaid, shall from time to time, by any Order to be directed to such Superintendent or Overseer from their Instructions, appoint: And it is hereby declared, that the time during which any Offender shall have continued in Gaol under Sentence of Transportation, or being removed under the Provisions aforesaid, shall continue confined by virtue of this Act, shall be taken and reckoned in Discharge or part Discharge or Satisfaction of the Term of his Transportation.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender shall, during such Custody under this Act, be guilty of any Misbehaviour or disorderly Conduct, it shall be lawful for such Superintendent or Overseer having the Custody of such Offender, to inflict or cause to be inflicted such moderate Punishment or Correction as may be inflicted by Law on Persons committed to a House of Correction; and if any such Offender shall break from or unlawfully escape from the Custody of such Superintendent or Overseer; or if any Person shall refuse or attempt to refuse, or add in refusing any such Offender from such Custody, or shall convey or cause to be conveyed any Disguise, Instrument for effecting Escape, or Arms, to such Offender, every such Offender shall be punishable in the same manner as if such Offender had been confined in Gaol or Prison in the Custody of the Sheriff or other Gaoler, for the Crime of which such Offender shall have been convicted.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Superintendent of the several Places of Confinement to be appointed by virtue of this Act shall from time to time make returns specifying the Name of every Person in Custody in each of such Places of Confinement, the Officer of which he or she shall have been guilty, to the Court before which he or she shall have been committed, and the Sentence of such Court, together with his or her Age and bodily State, and his or her Behaviour whilst in Custody; and also the Names of such Offenders who shall have died whilst in such Custody, or shall have escaped, or have been lawfully discharged from the same; which Returns shall be made on the First Day of every Eighth Term and the First Day of every Michaelmas Term, to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster, on the Oath of the Overseer of such respective Places of Confinement, such Oaths to be made before the said Court, or any Commissioner authorized to take Affidavits in the same.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to appoint one fit and able Person to be Superintendent of any Place or Places of Confinement, either at Land or on board any Ship or Vessel to which any such Offenders shall be removed by virtue of this Act, and One proper Person to be Overseer or keeper of such Ship or Vessel, who, with a sufficient Number of Officers and Guards, shall constantly reside on board; and said Superintendent shall personally visit and inspect such Places of Confinement Four Times in every Year, or oftener if Occasions shall require, and shall distinctly examine into the State of such Places of Confinement, the Behaviour and Conduct of the respective Offenders, Officers and Guards, the Treatment and Conditions of the Prisoners, and the Amount of the several Expences, and the Expenses attending every such Place of Confinement, and shall make a faithful Report of the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall cause such Report to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, at the beginning of every Session; and such Superintendent shall also, in Matters of extreme Necessity, make a special Report thereof to His Majesty's said Principal Secretary of State, who may, if he shall see fit, submit such special Report to the Justices of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, who are hereby authorized to afford such Redress or provide such Regulations as they shall deem proper; and such Superintendent and Overseers shall continue in Office during His Majesty's Pleasure, and shall receive such Salaries as His Majesty shall appoint; and such Superintendent shall be paid such Travelling and other reasonable Expences as shall be incurred by him in Discharge of his Duty.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender shall already have been ordered to be transported to any Part beyond the Seas, or if any Order shall at any time hereafter be made for the Transportation of any Offender, and such Order cannot be immediately executed with respect to the Place in such Order mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Court of King's Bench, or (in the Vacant Time and out of Term) for any Two Justices

An Act for the better Examination of Witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland; and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant Commissions for taking Affidavits in all Parts of Great Britain. [14th July 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer in Ireland should be respectively empowered to appoint fit Persons in Great Britain to be Examining Commissioners for the Examination of Witnesses and taking Affidavits and Depositions in Suits in Equity depending in such Courts respectively, and that the Power of granting Commissions for taking Affidavits, which is now vested in the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland, shall be enlarged, by enabling such Courts respectively to grant Commissions for the same Purpose in all Parts of Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by His Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, or other Person or Persons having the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the time being, to appoint, and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to appoint one or more fit and proper Person or Persons to go to and examine, in England and Scotland, Witnesses who shall be produced before such Person or Persons in England or Scotland, to be sworn and examined in Suits depending in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, as a Court of Equity, and to take in England or Scotland Affidavits, Pleas and Depositions of Defendants in such Suits and Affidavits of Parties and others in such Suits, in such and the like manner as the Masters in Ordinary of the said Courts of Chancery may direct, and the Examiner of the said Court may examine such Witnesses, and shall send Lord Chancellor may appoint Persons to examine Witnesses and take Affidavits, &c. of Parties in England, &c. in Suits depending in Chancery in Ireland.

Magistrates may take such Affidavits, Pleas and Denials, and such Affidavits, according to the Practice of the said Court.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be in like manner lawful, from and after the passing of this Act, for the Lord Treasurers, Chancellor and Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland for the time being, or any Two or more of them, whereas the Lord Treasurers, Chancellor or Lord Chief Barons for the time being shall be One, to appoint, and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to appoint, One or more fit and proper Persons and Persons to serve and examine in England or Scotland, Witnesses who shall be produced before such Person or Persons in England or Scotland, to be sworn and examined as Witnesses in Suits depending in the said Court of Exchequer in Ireland, as a Court of Equity, and to take, in England or Scotland Affidavits, Pleas and Denials of Defendants in such Suits, and to take Affidavits of Parties and others as Suits depending in the said Court of Exchequer of Ireland, as a Court of Law or of Equity, in such and the same manner as the Barons of the said Court may swear, and may examine such Witnesses, and as the said Barons may take such Affidavits, Pleas and Denials, and such Affidavits, according to the Practice of the said Court.

Lord Treasurers and Barons of Exchequer in Ireland may appoint Persons to serve as Witnesses in England or Scotland.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, the Master of the Rolls, and the Judges of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer, or Five or more of them, of whom the Lord High Chancellor or Lord Keeper for the time being, the Chief Justice of the King's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, or the Chief Barons of the Exchequer, shall be One, shall from time to time order and direct the Fees to be taken by the several Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, exclusive of Travelling Charges and Expenses, when any such Commissioners shall be required to travel from his Place of Abode for any of the Purposes of this Act; and shall also from time to time order and direct the Rates to be taken for such Travelling Charges and Expenses.

Lord Chancellor, &c. may direct Fees to be taken and Travelling Charges.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person or Persons so to be appointed by the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer in Ireland respectively, shall hold such Office during the Pleasure of the Court in appointing them, and shall be deemed and taken to be Officers of the said Court, and shall be called Extraordinary Commissioners thereof, for the Purposes aforesaid; and that such Extraordinary Commissioners respectively shall have full Power and Authority to attend and sit with the said Court respectively at such Times and Places as they shall respectively appoint, to be sworn and examined as Witnesses in Suits depending in the Courts in appointing them, in the same manner as Commissioners appointed by Special Commission by such Courts respectively may examine such Witnesses.

Authority and Title of Officers appointed.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall be appointed as Extraordinary Commissioner under the Authority of this Act, shall, previous to entering upon the Duties of such Office, take the Oath of Office hereinafter mentioned and prescribed; which Oath shall be taken by every such Officer as shall be appointed by the Court of Chancery of Ireland to such Duty in England, before One of the Masters in Ordinary of the Court of Chancery of England, or other Person in England appointed by the Court of Chancery of England to take Affidavits in said Court, who are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer the same; which Oath shall in like manner be taken by every such Officer as shall be appointed by the Court of Chancery of Ireland to such Duty in Ireland, before One of the Lords of the Sessions in Scotland, or other Person or Persons lawfully authorized to take Affidavits in the said Court, who are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer the same; which Oath shall in like manner be taken by every such Officer as shall be appointed by the Court of Exchequer of Ireland to such Duty in England, before One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer of England, or other Person in England appointed by the Court of Exchequer of England to take Affidavits in said Court who are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer the same; and which Oath shall in like manner be taken by every such Officer as shall be appointed by the Court of Exchequer of Ireland to such Duty in Ireland, before One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer of Scotland, or other Person in Ireland appointed by the Court of Exchequer of Ireland to take Affidavits in said Court, who are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer the same; and every Oath so to be taken shall be, immediately after the same hath been taken, transcribed by the Officer so taking the same to the proper Officer for filing Affidavits in the Court by which such Person has been appointed such Extraordinary Commissioner, who shall, upon Receipt thereof, file and preserve the same in such manner as other Affidavits made in said Court are filed and preserved in his Office.

Persons appointed Extraordinary Commissioners under Act shall take Oath.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Oath to be taken in manner before mentioned shall be in the Form following:

I do solemnly and sincerely swear, That I will duly and faithfully, and to the best of my Skill and Power, execute the Office of an Extraordinary Commissioner of the Court of _____ for the Purposes mentioned in an Act passed in the _____ Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled As to the better Examination of Witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland, and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant Commissions for taking Affidavits in all Parts of Great Britain, and shall in every respect, to the best of my Knowledge, conform to the Rules and Orders of the said Court, and Preamble, of the said Act.

Form of Oath.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer of Ireland respectively, shall from time to time make such General or Particular Orders touching the Conduct of such their Officers in their respective Offices, and touching the Examination of such Witnesses, and the taking

C A P. CLVIII.

An Act to enable Grand Jurors to present additional Sums for Costables in Ireland, and for the secure Conveyance of Prisoners.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for regulating the Office of Costables, and for better enforcing the Process of the Criminal Law in certain Parts of the Kingdom; it is, among other things, enacted, that the Grand Jury of each County at large shall and may at each Assizes present any Sum not exceeding Four Pounds for every Costable, in every Barony or Half Barony in which a Costable shall be appointed by the Grand Jurors, in certain Counties in Ireland under the said recited Act; And Whereas by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, entitled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the Laws in Ireland, by appointing superintending Magistrates, and additional Constables in certain Cases, it is enacted by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, Constables may have been appointed or continued by Grand Jurors in certain other Counties in Ireland; and it is expedient to provide for the better Payment of Constables so heretofore appointed or continued, or who may hereafter be appointed or continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Grand Jury of every County at large in Ireland, shall and may at each and every Assizes present any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every Costable who shall have been appointed or continued at any time before the passing of this Act, or who at any time after the passing of this Act shall be appointed by the Grand Jury of such County at large, in every Barony or Half Barony, under the Authority of the said recited Acts, or either of them, not exceeding such Number as may by Law be appointed in any One Barony or Half Barony; and all Sums so to be presented shall be levied and valued out of every such Barony or Half Barony, in such Proportions as the Justices of the Peace of the County at large are rated on such Barones or Half Barones respectively; and such Sums shall be presented and raised for such Constables, and shall be paid to them respectively by the Treasurers of the said Counties respectively, under such and the like Rules and Regulations as are required and so far as respects the performing, raising and paying the Sums payable to such Constables under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Grand Jury, at any Assizes or Performing Term in Ireland, to present such Sum as shall be necessary from time to time for providing such Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition as such Grand Jury shall deem necessary or fit for any and every such Constable to have, in and for the Execution of his Duty; and the said Sums shall be paid by the Treasurers of the County to such Person or Persons as such Grand Jury shall think proper to employ and contract with for providing such Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition as soon as it shall appear to such Treasurer by Receipt of the Constable, certified by the Affidavit of such Constable, that all such Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition have been duly furnished according to the Contract for that Purpose.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to order and direct the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, to issue out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, any such Sum and Sums of Money as he or they shall from time to time think necessary for the providing and paying for any such Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition, or any Part thereof, at such times and in such manner as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall order and direct; and that whenever it shall be ordered by any such Grand Jury, that such Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition have been provided and paid for under such Orders of such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, then and in such case, such Grand Jury shall not enter into any Contract for the Supply of any such Arms, Accoutrements or Ammunition, or of such Part thereof as shall be mentioned in such Notification; and thereafter such Sum or Sums as shall be presented for the same, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the Treasurer of the County to the Collector of Excise of the District, to be by him applied in like manner as other Public Money in his Hands.

IV. And he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, as he or their Excellencies, as the Petition of any such Constable, supported by the Recommendation of the Grand Jury of the County within which such Constable shall be appointed, and by such Constables as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall require or direct, of the Commissioners of the Revenue of such Constable, and of his having executed the Duty of his Office with Diligence and Fidelity, to order that such Constable shall and may be superannuated, and shall and may receive such yearly Allowance, Remuneration or Superannuation, as in such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall from time to time appear, upon the Conditions, and not according to the Provisions in this Act mentioned; and thereupon such Constable shall cease to hold such Office, and the yearly Sum to which he shall be become entitled, shall be preferred by the Grand Jury in Two equal Sums, one at each Alliance, during his Life, on its being proved to the Satisfaction of such Grand Jury that such Person is living.

V. Provided always, and he is enacted, That the Condition and Proportion of such Allowance, Remuneration or Superannuation shall be as follows: Where any Constable shall be under Sixty Years of Age, it shall not be lawful to grant any such Allowance, Compensation, Remuneration or Superannuation, unless upon Certificate from the Grand Jury of the County that such Constable is incapable from Infirmary of Mind or Body to discharge the Duties of his Office; in which case if he shall have served with Diligence and Fidelity for Ten Years, it shall and may be lawful to grant to him by way of Superannuation, any annual Sum not exceeding One third of the Salary of his Office; if above Ten Years and less than Twenty, any such Sum not exceeding One half of such Salary; if above Twenty Years, any such Sum not exceeding Two thirds of such Salary; if such Constable shall be above Sixty Years of Age, and he shall have served Fifteen Years or upwards, it shall and may be lawful, although there shall be no such Certificate of Incapacity, from Infirmary of Mind or Body or Mute, to grant to him by way of Superannuation, any annual Sum not exceeding Two thirds of the Salary of his Office; if Sixty five Years of Age or upwards, and he shall have served Forty Years or upwards, any Sum not exceeding Three fourths of such Salary; if Sixty five Years of Age or upwards, and he shall have served Fifty Years or upwards, any such Sum not exceeding the whole of such Salary.

VI. And Whereas as the Removal of Persons under Sentence of Transportation, or pardoned on Condition of Transportation, from the Gaol of the County to the Place of Embarkation, the usual Course in Ireland hath been, that the Expense of every such Removal hath been borne by the County in which the Person is removed was committed; and it is doubtful whether the same be sufficiently provided for by Law; Be it therefore enacted, That whenever any Person under Sentence of Transportation, or pardoned on Condition of Transportation, shall be so removed, then and in every such case the Amount of all and every the Costs, Charges and Expenses of such Removal, being fully touched by the Affidavit of the Sheriff or Sheriffs or Sub Sheriff of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, in which the Person is removed shall have been committed, or by any other Officer having the Charge of such Removal, shall be preferred by the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, at the next or any subsequent Alliance or Polling Term, to be raised on such County, County of a City or County of a Town; which Sum so preferred shall be so raised accordingly, and paid by the Treasurer thereof to such Sheriff or Sheriffs, or Sub Sheriffs or other Officer.

VII. And he is further enacted, That whenever any Constable shall, by virtue of a Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice of the Peace carry and convey and safely lodge in the County Gaol, any Person or Persons charged with any Treason or Felony, and committed to such Constable by such Justice, the Sums of Three pence per Mile for each Mile such Prisoner or Prisoners shall be carried or conveyed, shall be paid to each of such Number of Persons as such Justice shall think necessary for guarding such Prisoner or Prisoners to the County Gaol, and who shall go along with such Constable to the County Gaol with such Prisoner or Prisoners; which said Sums shall be preferred by the Grand Jury of the respective Counties at the next or any subsequent Alliance, to be raised on such County; which Sum so preferred shall be raised accordingly, and shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County: Provided always, that no such Sum or Sums shall be paid by any such Treasurer, unless such Person or Persons so employed in guarding such Prisoners to any such Gaol aforesaid, shall produce a Copy of the Minutes under which such Prisoner or Prisoners were committed, and a Receipt from the Gaoler of such County Gaol, acknowledging that such Prisoner or Prisoners were safely lodged in Gaol, and provided that the Number of Persons so employed shall not exceed Six on any Occasion.

from and after the passing of this Act, in each of the said recited Acts as relates to the providing of Tickets, as in the said Act mentioned, or delivering any such Tickets to Persons paying Fares, or as prohibits Complainants unless Tickets are produced, or accounting for any such Tickets, and all Provisions, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act contained, in relation to such Tickets, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

§ 11. And Whereas the Hackney Chariots which have been licensed under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament have been found very useful and convenient, and it is expedient to allow of an additional Number of such Chariots: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby empowered, with the Consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, on any Three of them, to license any additional Number of Hackney Chariots not exceeding Two Hundred, over and above the said Number of Two Hundred in the said recited Act mentioned, and in Addition to the Number of Hackney Coaches allowed to be licensed, as and when in their Discretion they shall see fit.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Owner or Driver of any Hackney Chariot shall be compellable or compelled to carry more than Three (a) Persons (not being Children in Arms or Laps) in his Chariot, and a Servant on the Outside at the same time, but every Owner or Driver of any Hackney Chariot who shall actually carry any greater Number shall be entitled to demand and to receive for every such additional Person (not being a Child in Arms or Laps), the Sum of One Shilling, over and above his regular Fare; and if he shall carry any such additional Person into the Country, and bring the same or any other additional Person hack again, shall be entitled to demand and receive, over and above his regular Fare, the Sum of One Shilling for going into the Country, and the Sum of One Shilling for returning; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches to the contrary notwithstanding. (a) [See 54 G. 3. c. 147. § 17.]

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches, by and with the Approbation and Direction in Writing of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered under their Hands and Seals to license each Number of Carriages with Two Wheels and drawn by One Horse, as shall be specified in any such Approbation and Direction as aforesaid; and the Owners and Drivers of such Two Wheeled Carriages shall be chargeable and charged with the like Stew for Licenses as are now payable for Licenses for Hackney Coaches, and shall be entitled to demand, take and receive Two thirds of the Amount of the Fares, Rates and Penalties established by Law for Hackney Coaches and Chariots; and no Owner or Driver of any such Two Wheeled Carriage shall be compellable to carry more than Two Persons; and all Orders, Rules, Regulations, Bye-Laws, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Provisions, Matters and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches or Chariots in the Cities of London and Westminster, shall extend and apply to and be put in force in relation to all such licensed Carriages, and the Owners and Drivers thereof, and to all Persons along the same, in like manner in every respect, and as fully and effectually, as if the same were in this Act severally and respectively re-enacted and repeated in relation to such Carriages, and as if the said Carriages had been included in the said Acts.

§ V. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty relating to Hackney Coaches, Hackney Coachmen are authorized to demand certain Fares over and above the ordinary and established Fares, where Hackney Coaches are hired and driven into the Country after certain Hours, as in the said Act mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient that such additional Fares should be repealed, and other Fares substituted in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, such additional Fares shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that from henceforth the several additional Fares after mentioned shall be payable and paid; that is to say, in case any Hackney Coach or Chariot shall be hired in any Part of the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, the Borough of Southwark, or any Place adjoining thereto, where there is a regular Continuance of Carriage-way Payment, or at any Standing for Hackney Coaches or Chariots beyond any such regular Continuance of Carriage-way Payment, and discharged after the Hour of Seven in the Evening, between the Periods of Michaelmas Day and Lady Day, and after the Hour of Nine in the Evening between the Periods of Lady Day and Michaelmas Day, at any Place where there is not a regular Continuance of Carriage-way Payment as aforesaid, then shall or may be demanded over and above the ordinary and established Fares, the full Rate or Fare allowed by the said recited Act, in the several Extremities of continued Carriage-way Payments, or to any Standing for Hackney Coaches or Chariots beyond any such regular Continuance of Carriage-way Payment, where such Coach or Chariot shall have been hired, at the Option of the Person discharging such Coach or Chariot; and in case any Hackney Coach or Chariot shall be hired and driven into the Country, and then discharged in the Day time, and not after the Hours heretofore respectively mentioned, then shall or may be demanded, for the Return thereof to the source. Extremity of continued Carriage-way Payment, or to any Standing for Hackney Coaches or Chariots beyond any such regular Continuance of Carriage-way Payment where such Coach or Chariot shall have been hired, at the Option of the Person discharging such Coach or Chariot, for each and every Mile above the Number of Four Miles, the additional Rate or Fare of Six pence: Provided nevertheless, no such Allowance for Return shall be made for any lesser Distance than Four Miles, calculated as aforesaid.

§ VI. And Whereas by the Laws (b) now in force, Authority is given to Justices of the Peace to award Satisfaction, in case of Persons refusing or omitting to pay to Coachmen or Chariotmen the Money due for the Hire of their Coaches, or wilfully ignoring such Coachmen or Chariotmen, and to issue their Warrants for bringing such Persons before them, but no Authority is given to enforce the Payment of such Satisfaction is awarded, and it is expedient that such Authority should be given: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person shall refuse or omit to pay the Debt of any Hackney Coach or Chariot, or any Chairmen, the Magistrate justly do so to him for the Hire of the Coach or Chariot or Chair-hire, or shall wilfully deliver or in any manner impair the same, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace upon Complaint thereof to grant a Summons, or if it shall appear to him necessary a Warrant, for bringing before him the offending Party or Parties, and upon Proof made upon Oath to award reasonable Satisfaction to the Party so complaining for his Damage and Costs, and also a reasonable Compensation for the Loss of time on his Attendance in establishing such Complaint, and upon Refusal to pay or make such Satisfaction, to commit such Person or Persons to Prison, there to remain for any time not exceeding One Month, or until the Amount of such Satisfaction shall be paid and discharged.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for regulating Hackney Coaches, or the major Part of them, to direct and regulate the Number or Numbers and Make or Makes of Driftcoaches, as well interior as exterior, to be adopted and used by each Coach and Chariot, and from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations in respect to such numbering or marking, as to them shall seem expedient; and every Owner of any Hackney Coach or Chariot, who shall neglect or refuse to comply therewith, shall be subject to the Revocation of his Licence, or shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them; and in case of Nonpayment, the same may be levied by Distress on his, her or their Goods and Chattels.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That upon any Complaint of the Owner of any Hackney Coach or Chariot licensed by the said Commissioners against his or her Driver, or of a Driver against his Master, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or the major Part of them, and they are hereby empowered to require into the same, and to determine therein, and to award such Compensation to be made to them respectively shall seem proper; and to punish any such Owner or Driver, by affixing any Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in case of Nonpayment the same may be levied by Distress on his, her or their Goods and Chattels.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Driver in whole Coach or Chariot any Property whatever shall be left, by any Person or Persons hiring the same, and who shall not carry such Property within Four Days after the same shall have been so left, to the State in which it was found, to the Hackney Coach Office, and deposit the same with one of the Clerks of the said Office, shall be subject and liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them; and the Clerk with whom such Property is deposited is hereby required to give a Receipt for the same, and to make an Entry in a Book to be kept at the said Office, of the Description thereof, the Name and Address of the Driver bringing the same, and the Day on which it is brought; and the Property so entered shall be returned to the Person or Persons respectively, who shall prove to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, that the same belonged to him, her or them, such Person or Persons previously paying all Expenses incurred, together with such reasonable Sum as the Drivers who brought the same, as well reference to the Value of the Property in Question the said Commissioners shall award; provided nevertheless, that if such Property shall not be proved to belong to said Person or Persons within One Year, the same being been admitted in such manner as the said Commissioners may direct, such Property shall be sold; and after deducting from the Produce of the Sale all the Expenses incurred, the Balance shall be paid to the Driver who deposited the same.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Agreement or Engagement whatever, at any time or on any Occasion made with the Driver of any Hackney Coach or Chariot, for the Payment of more than his established Fare, shall be binding on the Person or Persons making the same, but any such Person or Persons may, notwithstanding any such Agreement or Engagement, refuse, on discharging such Coach or Chariot, the Payment of any Sum beyond the established Fare; and in case such Person or Persons shall actually pay to the Driver of any Hackney Coach or Chariot, whether in pursuance of any such Agreement or Engagement, or not, any Sum exceeding his established Fare, which shall have been demanded or required by such Driver, the Person or Persons paying the same shall be entitled, on Complaint against such Driver, to recover the Overplus paid; and such Driver shall be subject and liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, to be levied in case of Nonpayment by Distress upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offender.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Driver of any Hackney Coach or Chariot shall leave his Coach or Chariot at any Theatre or other Place of Public Resort or Entertainment unattended, whether he shall be heard or not, it shall and may be lawful for any Inspector of Hackney Coaches, Officer of Police, Constable or other Peace Officer, Watchman or Patrolman, to drive away such Coach or Chariot, and deposit the same at the nearest Place of Deposit; and the Driver of such Hackney Coach shall be subject and liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, to be levied in case of Nonpayment, by Distress upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offender.

XII. And Whereas by the Laws (a) now in force, the Drivers of Hackney Coaches are allowed after they have been out with their Coaches Twelve Hours, to refuse to go with Persons desirous of hiring their Coaches: And Whereas, such Permission is frequently made the Plea for Extortion, and is otherwise inconvenient: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Driver who shall ply for Hire shall refuse, on the Pretence of having been out Twelve Hours (although he may have been out that time), to go with any Person or Persons desirous of hiring his Coach or Chariot, in any Direction, or to any Distance prescribed by Law, at the established Fare.

(a) [2 Geo. 4. c. 87. § 4.]

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the time being, or the major Part of them, or any Justice or Justices of the Peace, when it may appear to them necessary, upon any Complaint being lodged before them against any Owner or Driver of any Hackney Coach or Chariot, or against any Waterman or Assistant to Hackney Coaches, or against any Chairmen, to issue their Summons for the Appearance before them, or their Warrant for the Apprehension of such

And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, Fines and Forfeitures, of whatsoever nature the same may be, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches, in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, and for several Statutes, Powers, Provisions and Regulations contained in any such Act or Acts (in which were expressly stated by this Act) shall be, and the same are hereby declared to continue in as full Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made.

C. A. P. CLX.

An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more effectual Manning of His Majesty's Navy during the present War.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS His Majesty by His Order in Council dated the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, was pleased to order that General Exemptions be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of France, subject to such Exemptions as His Majesty may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, in that as well His Majesty's Fleet and Ships, as all its other Ships and Vessels that should be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or General Exemptions, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and lawfully may seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to France, or to any Person being Subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of France, being such Exemptions as His Majesty may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, and bring the same to Judgment: And Whereas His Majesty hath, by His Royal Mandement, been graciously pleased, by His Proclamation dated on the said Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to declare His Intention to give the Benefit of all Prizes taken during the present War to the Captains thereof, being in His Majesty's Service, or duly commissioned, save as therein excepted: Now, for the Encouragement of the Officers and Seamen of His Majesty's Ship of War, and of His Armed Vessels in the Service of His Majesty, and of the Owners, and Officers and Seamen, of all other British Ships and Vessels having Commissions or Letters of Marque; and for inducing all British Seamen, who may be in any Foreign Service, to return into this Kingdom, and become serviceable to His Majesty; and for the more effectual securing and extending the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Flag Officers, Commanders and other Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, on board any Ship or Vessel of War in His Majesty's Pay, shall have the whole Right and Intend to and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods and Merchandise, detained in the said Order in Council by which His Majesty has ordered General Exemptions to be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of France, which they have taken subsequent to the Date of the said Order, or shall hereafter take during the Continuance of Hostilities against France, after the same shall have been adjudged lawful Prize to His Majesty, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, which shall be duly authorized to take Cognizance of the same, to be divided in such Proportions, and after such manner, as His Majesty, by His Proclamation, hath already ordered and directed, or as His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to order and direct by any Proclamations hereafter to be issued; and the Commanders, Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, on board His Majesty's Armed Ships, shall have such Right and Intend to and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods and Merchandise, which they have taken or shall take as aforesaid, after Adjudication as aforesaid, as His Majesty, by His Proclamations, hath been pleased to direct, or as His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, may order and direct by any Proclamations hereafter to be issued: Provided nevertheless, that in all Prizes taken by any of His Majesty's Squadrons, Ships or Vessels, while acting in Conjunction with any Squadron, Ship or Vessel, of any other Power in Alliance with His Majesty, a Share of such Prizes shall be for a part, and be at His Majesty's Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag and other Officers and Crews of such Squadrons, Ships or Vessels, would have been entitled to if they had belonged to His Majesty.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Flag Officers, Commanders and other Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, on board every Ship and Vessel of War in His Majesty's Pay, being armed, officered and employed in His Majesty's Service, who shall take any Fortress upon the Land, or any Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandise and Treasure, belonging to the State, or to any Public trading Company of any of His Majesty's Estates upon the Land, or any Ship or Vessel, or Goods or Merchandise

Inde

Index on board the same, in any Creek, River, Haven or Road, belonging to and defended by such Fortresses upon the Land, shall have the Right and Interest to and in all and every such Ship or Vessel, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandise and Treasure, after final Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize to His Majesty, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, duly authorized as aforesaid (which Courts are hereby required to proceed thereon as in other cases of Prize), to be distributed in such Manner and Proportion as in other cases of Prize.

III. And be it further enacted, That in Conquest Expeditions of the Navy and Army against any Fortresses or Possessions of His Majesty's Enemies upon the Land, the Flag and General Officers, and Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, acting on such Conquest Expeditions, shall have such proportional Right and Interest in His Majesty's Share of the Spoils, as in all the Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandise and Treasure, belonging to the State, or to any Public trading Company of such Enemies, which shall be found in such Fortresses or Possessions, and also in all and every Ship or Vessel, with their Arms, Ammunition, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, and all the Goods, Merchandise and other Effects on board the same, which shall be captured in any Road, Haven, River or Creek belonging to such Fortresses or Possessions, after final Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize to His Majesty in any of the Courts aforesaid (which Courts are hereby required to proceed thereon as lawful Adjudication); and the Share allotted to the Fleet by such Distribution shall be distributed in the same Manner and Proportions as in other cases of Prize; and the Share allotted to the Army shall be distributed amongst the Officers and Soldiers, in such manner as His Majesty shall under His Sign Manual be pleased to direct: Provided nevertheless, that the Right and Interest hereby given to the Army employed on such Conquest Expeditions shall not extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to entitle the said Army to Share in the Distribution of any Ships or Vessels, Goods, Merchandise or Effects captured in the Voyage to or from such Fortresses or Possessions.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons belonging to any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or to any Merchant Ship employed in His Majesty's Service, who shall run away, or withdraw himself or themselves from the Ship or Vessel by which any Prize or Prizes shall be taken from any of His Majesty's Enemies, or shall otherwise desert or withdraw himself or themselves from His Majesty's Service, before or after Notification as by Law directed shall be given, of the Day appointed for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors of the said Prize or Prizes, or who shall be marked on the Books of any Ship or Vessel in the Service of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as having run therefrom, shall have, or be entitled to have or claim, any Lot or Lots in or Benefit from the said Share or Shares of the said Prize or Prizes, or the Bounty Money or number men used, or any Part thereof, that shall then remain unpaid; but such Shares and also the Shares of all Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others, as well on board armed vessels as on board His Majesty's Naval War, which shall not be legally demanded within Six Years after the time have been paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, by virtue of any Law then in force, shall be forfeited, and to the Use of the said Hospital, which with respect to such Officers and Seamen as it shall be marked as "Run," such Mark shall be taken off by Order of the Commanders for securing the Office of Lord High Admiral or Grow Baron, or by Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; provided nevertheless, with respect to the Service of such Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers heretofore mentioned, which shall not be claimed within the time above limited in that behalf, that if reasonable Cause shall be shown and allowed by the Directors of Greenwich Hospital for the time being, or Time or more of them, or by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, why such said mentioned Shares were not claimed in due time, the said Shares shall not be forfeited.

V. Provided Always, and be it enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, or Boat, taken as Prize, or any Goods thereon, shall be proved in any Court of Admiralty having legal Cognizance thereof, so have belonged to any of His Majesty's Subjects (which Ships, Vessels, Boats or Goods were before taken or captured by any of His Majesty's Enemies, and at any time afterwards again captured and retaken by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any Privateer, or other Ship, Vessel or Boat, under His Majesty's Protection and Orders), such Ships, Vessels, Boats and Goods as aforesaid, formerly belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, shall nevertheless (five in such as are hereafter excepted), be adjudged to be restored, and shall be, by the Decree of the said Court of Admiralty, accordingly restored to such former Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or as they pay, for and in lieu of Salvage, if taken by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or by armed vessels, One eighth Part of the true Value of the Ships, Vessels, Boats and Goods respectively to be restored, which said Salvage of One eighth shall be ascribed and paid to the Flag Officer, Captain, Officer, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, in His Majesty's said Ship or Ships of War, to be divided in such manner as before; and the Act is directed, touching the Share of Prizes belonging to the Flag Officer, Captain, Officer, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, whose Prizes are taken by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, and it is enacted, that by any Privateer or other Ship, Vessel or Boat, One sixth Part of the true Value of the said Ships, Vessels, Boats and Goods, all which Payments to be made to the Owner or Owners, Officer or Officers, or Seamen, or other Ship, Vessel or Boat, shall be without any Deductions, and shall be divided in such Manner and Proportions as shall have been agreed on by them respectively: the Distribution of Prizes; and in case such Ship, Vessel, Boat or Goods, shall have been retaken by the joint Operations or Means of One or more of His Majesty's Ships, and One or more Private Ship or Ships, then the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or other Court having Cognizance thereof, shall order and adjudge such Salvage to be paid to the Recaptors by the Owner or Owners of such retaken Ship, Vessel, Boat or Goods, as he shall, under the circumstances of the case, deem fit and reasonable, which Salvage is to be adjusted, shall be accordingly paid by the Owners of such retaken Ship, Vessel or Goods, to the Agents

Enemy of any Ship of War or Enemy taken or destroyed.

VI. And, as a further Encouragement to the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others, on board His Majesty's Ships of War, as also of Privateers, to attack any Ships of War or Privateers belonging to the Enemy, be it enacted, That there shall be paid by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, upon Bills to be made forth by the Commanders of the Navy, to be paid according to the Course thereof, without Fee or Reward, unto the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others, who shall have been actually on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or hired armed Vessels, or of any Privateer, at the actual taking, sinking, burning or otherwise destroying, any Ship or Ships of War, or Privateer belonging to the Enemy, during the period War, Five Pounds for every Man who was being on board any Ship or Vessel so taken, sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed, at the beginning of the Attack or Engagement between them, the Number of such Men to be proved by the Oath of Three or more of the Chief Officers or Men who were belonging to the said Ship or Ships of War, or Privateer of the Enemy, or belonging to any of them at the time of her or their being taken as Prize, sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed; or, in case to many as Three shall not swear the Engagement, upon the Oath of each of them as shall favour, before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of the Port within any of His Majesty's Dominions, whereunto such Prize, or Officers or Men of such Ships as were taken, sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed, shall be brought, or before the British Consul or Vice Consul residing at any Neutral Port to which such Prize, or Officers or Men, shall be brought, which Oaths the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any such Port, or Consul or Vice Consul, are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer; and the said Mayor or other Person shall, without Fee or Reward, forthwith grant a Certificate thereof, and also of the Depositions or Depositions having thereto made Oath that, to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, no other Person belonging to the Enemy's Ships or Ship favored the Engagement, which Certificate shall be directed to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; and, upon the Production thereof to them, together with an authentic Copy of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation of such Ship is taken; or where such Certificate cannot be had and obtained, then upon producing only a Copy of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, whereby the Number of Men on board such Ships of the Enemy shall appear to have been proved; or if such Ships be sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed, on producing only a Certificate from the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or Consul or Vice Consul as aforesaid, the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint for that Purpose, shall, according to the Course of the Navy, within Fifteen Days, make out Bills for the Amount of such Bounty, directed to the Treasurer of the Navy, payable to and to be divided amongst the Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, on board His Majesty's Ships of War, or hired armed Ships, in Manner, Form and Proportion, as by His Majesty's Proclamation for granting the Distribution of Prizes already issued or to be issued, is or shall be directed and appointed, and amongst the Owners, Officers and Seamen, of any Private Ship or Vessel of War, in such Manner and Proportion as by any Agreement in Writing they shall have entered into for that Purpose, shall be directed: Provided nevertheless, that in all cases where such Oath and Certificate cannot be administered and granted at the said Port whereunto any Prize, or Officers or Men of such Ships as have been or shall be taken, sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed, shall be brought, such Oath or Oaths relating to any Prize or Prizes that shall be taken, or to any Ships of His Majesty's Forces that shall be sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed as aforesaid, shall and may be administered and taken by and before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any Port within any of His Majesty's Dominions, or by or before the British Consul or Vice Consul residing at any Neutral Port whereunto such Prize or Prizes, or Officers or Men of such Ships belonging to His Majesty's Forces as have or shall be taken, sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed, shall at any time afterwards be brought, Proof being first made by Affidavit before such Person or Persons, of the Issuance of making such Oath or Oaths, and obtaining such Certificate at the said Port; and the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, Consul or Vice Consul, shall thereupon grant such Certificates as are hereinbefore directed, which Certificates shall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were granted by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, Consul or Vice Consul, of the Port to which such Prize or Prizes, Officers or Men as aforesaid, shall be first brought; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, that where such Oath of the Number of Men on board any Ship or Ships is taken, burnt, sunk or otherwise destroyed, cannot be had by reason of the total Destruction of the Officers and Crew of such Ship or Ships, then, and in every such case, the Number of Men on board such Ship or Ships, at the beginning of the Attack or Engagement, shall be ascertained by such Evidence, as, under the circumstances of the case, shall by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or by the Judge of any other Court of Admiralty duly authorized, be deemed sufficient Proof thereof: Provided likewise, that in any case in which Doubts shall arise, whether the Party or Parties claiming Head Money are entitled thereto, the same shall be summarily determined by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or by the Judge of any other Court of Admiralty, in which the Prize shall have been adjudged, subject nevertheless to an Appeal to the Lords Commissioners of Appeal in Prize Causes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty hereby granted to the Commanding Officers, Seamen, Marines and others of His Majesty's Ships of War, or hired armed Ships, for taking, sinking, burning or otherwise destroying any Ships of War or Privateers belonging to any of His Majesty's Enemies, shall be made payable to such Person or Persons as shall be authorized and appointed, as the Law directs, Agents for Appraisements and Sales of such Prizes in respect of which such Bounty shall be payable, the same Bounty to be distributed and divided by the said Person or Persons so authorized and appointed amongst the Captains, or such Masters, Yards, and Proprietors as aforesaid; and the several Shares of such Captains as shall rise from His Majesty's Service and of such as shall not be legally despoiled within the times prescribed for the Demand of Prize Money, shall be applied to the Use of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, subject to the same Privileges and Exceptions as in the case of Prize Money; and that the said Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty hereby granted to Privateers for taking, burning, sinking or otherwise destroying, any Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Enemies, shall be made payable to such Person or Persons as shall be nominated and appointed by the Ower or Owners, Officers and Seamen of such Privateers or Privateers, who shall have taken, burnt, sunk or otherwise destroyed the same, or the major Part of them, to be divided in such Manner and Proportions as shall have been agreed as by them as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Regulations hereto contained respecting Prizes shall apply to all cases of Bounty Money granted by this Act, and in all cases of Salvage upon Receipts from His Majesty's Enemies.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects to confer, or to enter into any Contract or Agreement for confining any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or any Merchandise or Goods on board the same which shall be captured by the Subjects of any State at War with His Majesty, or by any Persons committing Hostilities against His Majesty's Subjects, whilst in the case of Neutrality, to be allowed by the High Court of Admiralty.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Contracts and Agreements which shall be entered into, and all Bills, Notes and other Securities, which shall be given by any Person or Persons for ransom of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Merchandise or Goods on board the same, contrary to this Act, shall be absolutely void and of no Effect whatsoever.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, contrary to this Act, confer, or enter into any Contract or Agreement for ransoming any such Ship or Vessel, or any Merchandise or Goods on board the same, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Commander of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or of any armed Ship in His Majesty's Service, or of any Private Ship or Vessel of War, shall agree with the Commander or Commanders, or other Persons or Persons or of belonging to any Neutral or other Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, or the respective Cargo or Cargoes thereof, or any Part thereof, for the Ransom of any such Ship, Vessel or Cargo, or any Part thereof, after the same shall have been taken as Prize, and shall, in performance of such Agreement, or otherwise by Collusion, actually quit, set at liberty, release or discharge any such Ship, Vessel or Cargo, or any Part thereof, instead of bringing the same into some Port belonging to His Majesty's Dominion, or after the same shall have been brought into Port, shall by Collusion release the same, that then every such Commander of such Ship or Vessel of War, or armed armed Ship, or Private Ship or Vessel of War, who shall agree for any such Ransom, and shall be as aforesaid quit, set at liberty, release or discharge, any such Ship, Vessel or Cargo, or any Part thereof, solely in case of Neutrality, to be allowed by the High Court of Admiralty, shall forfeit and suffer such Penalty or Fine as the said Court shall adjudge; and the Commander of such Private Ship of War shall likewise forfeit his Letter of Marque.

XIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it hereby enacted, That if any Ship, Vessel or Boat, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, which shall have been taken by the Enemy, shall be retaken before she has been carried into an Enemy's Port, it shall be lawful for her, if the Recaptors consent thereto, to prosecute her Voyage, and it shall not be necessary for the Recaptors to proceed to Adjudication till after Six Months, or till the Return of the Ship to the Port from which she sailed; and it shall be lawful for the Master, the Owners, or their Agents, with the Consent of the Recaptors, to unload and dispose of their Cargoes before Adjudication; and in case the Vessel shall not return directly to the Port from whence she sailed, or the Recaptors shall have had no opportunity of proceeding regularly to the Adjudication within Six Months, on account of the Absence of the said Vessel, the Court of Admiralty shall, at the Instance of the Recaptors, decree the Restoration to the former Owners, paying Salvage, upon such Evidence as to the said Court shall, under the circumstances of the case, appear reasonable.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Ship or Vessel, or any Goods or Merchandise, shall be taken by the Commander, or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Privateer by Collusion or Contrivance, the Ship and Vessel, and Goods and Merchandise so taken, shall upon Proof thereof, and that the said Ship, Vessel, Goods or Merchandise are lawful Prize, to be made in any Court of Admiralty having legal Cognisance thereof, be declared and adjudged to be good Prize to His Majesty; and one Month thereof shall be to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person who shall discover and sue for the same; and the Bread given by the Captain or Commander of such Privateer shall be, and is hereby declared to be, forfeited to His Majesty; and in case any Ship or Vessel, or any Goods or Merchandise as aforesaid, shall be taken by any Commander, Captain or other Officer having the Command of any Ship or Vessel of War belonging to His Majesty, or of any armed Vessel so His Majesty's Service, by Collusion or Contrivance, the said Ship, Vessel, Goods and Merchandise so taken, shall, on Proof thereof, and that the same are lawful Prize, to be made in any Court of Admiralty having legal Cognisance thereof, be declared and adjudged to be good Prize to His Majesty, and shall remain at the Disposal of His Majesty; and the said Commander, Captain or other Officer aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of One thousand Pounds, One Month thereof to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person who shall discover and sue for the same.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Captain, or other Commander of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or hired armed Vessels in His Majesty's Service, having Transports or Merchant Ships or Vessels under Convey, shall wilfully desert or fall away from them, in pursuit of and with the view of capturing any Ship or Vessel of the Enemy (other than Ships or Vessels armed and fitted for War, and which shall be first having aboard or having down upon such Convey), or, having captured a Prize, shall wilfully desert the Convey for the purpose of carrying his Prize into Port; or if the Commander of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, having His Majesty's Dispatches on board, shall fall out of his proper Course in pursuit of and with the view of making Prize of any Ship or Vessel of the Enemy, and shall be duly convicted thereof by Sentence of a Court Martial, such Commander shall forfeit the Share of all and every such Prize to His Majesty, for the Use of Greenwich Hospital.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall enable any Private Ship or Vessel having a Commission for War, and which shall receive General Orders and Instructions thereon, and put herself under the Convey of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, to serve as any Private or Prize taken by such Ships or Vessels of His Majesty, or by such Private Ship or Vessel, having a Commission for War, or Letter of Marque, whilst the said Commissioned Ship or Vessel shall remain under the Care and Protection of such Convey, unless such Private Ship or Vessel shall have received Orders from the Commander of the Conveying Ship to chase, or otherwise act hostily against the Enemy, and shall have been actually sailing and engag- ing as such Captain.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the time being, or any Three or more of them, or any Person or Persons by him or them empowered and appointed, shall, at the Request of any Owner or Owners, whom they shall deem fully qualified, of any Ship or Vessel duly registered according to Law (such Owner or Owners giving such Bill or Security as hereinafter is mentioned or expressed), cause to be issued in the usual manner one or more Commission or Commissions, or Letter or Letters of Marque and Reprieve, to any Person or Persons whom such Owner or Owners shall nominate to be Commander, or in case of Death, successively Commanders, of such Ship or Vessel, for the attacking, pursuing, taking, and taking by and with such Ship or Vessel, or with the Crew thereof, any Place or Fortress upon the Land, or any Ship or Vessel, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods or Merchandise, belonging to or possessed by any of His Majesty's Enemies in any Sea, Creek, Haven or River; and that such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods and Merchandise whatsoever, with all their Tonnage, Tackle and Appurtenances, be taken by or with such Private Owner or Owners' Ship or Vessel, according to such Commission and Commissions, or Letter or Letters of Marque, after such Advertisement as lawful Prize in the High Court of Admiralty, or in any other Court of Admiralty in His Majesty's Dominions, which shall be duly authorized thereto, shall wholly and entirely belong to, and be divided between and among the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and the several Persons who shall be so divided the same, and be adding and adding in the taking thereof, in such Shares and Proportions as shall be agreed on with the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, their Agents or Factors, as the proper Goods and Charities of such Owner or Owners, and the Persons who shall be entitled thereto by virtue of such Agreements among themselves; and that neither His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, nor any Admiral, Vice Admiral, Governor or other Person commissioned by or claiming under His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, nor any other Person or Persons whatsoever, other than the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, being the Captain of such Prize Ship or Vessel, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods and Merchandise, and the Persons claiming under such Agreements shall be entitled to any Part or Share thereof, except as in the Customs and Duties hereafter mentioned; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to enable any Person or Persons to any Interest in such Ship or Vessel, Goods or Merchandise, as may be captured by any Private Ship or Vessel of War belonging to or hired by, or in the Service of His Majesty's Commissioners of Customs or Excise, but that the same Ships or Vessels, Goods and Merchandise, so captured, shall belong to His Majesty, and be applied and disposed of in such manner as His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, shall order and direct, after legal Advertisement thereof.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons, who shall apply to the said Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the time being, or any Person or Persons by him or them empowered and appointed, in order to obtain any Commission or Letter of Marque to be granted or issued forth in pursuance of this Act, shall make every such Application in Writing, and therein set forth a particular, true and exact Description of the Ship or Vessel, for which such Commission or Letter of Marque is required, specifying the Name and Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, what Sort of Built he is, and the Number and Nature of the Guns on board the same, to what Place belonging, and the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and the Number of Men intended to be put on board the same (all which Particulars shall be entered on every Commission or Letter of Marque to be granted in pursuance of this Act), and that every Commander of a Private Ship or Vessel of War, for which a Commission or Letter of Marque shall be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall produce such Commission or Letter of Marque to the Collector, Customhouse or Searcher for the time being, of His Majesty's Customs, residing at or belonging to the Port from whence such Ship or Vessel shall be first sent out, or to the lawful Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Customhouse or Searcher; and the said Collector, Customhouse or Searcher, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies shall, as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, without Fee or Reward, inspect and examine such Ship or Vessel, so as to ascertain the Built and Burthen thereof, and the Number of Men, and the Number and Nature of the Guns on board the said Ship or Vessel shall thereupon be found to be of such Build and Batches, and be manned and armed according to the Tonnage and Description inserted in such Commission or Letter of Marque, as aforesaid, or be of greater Batches or Force than shall be mentioned in such Commission or Letter of Marque, then, and not otherwise, such Collector, Customs or Searcher, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies shall, and he and they are hereby required, immediately upon the Request of the Commander of such Ship or Vessel, to give a Certificate thereof in Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, gratis, to such Commander, which Certificate shall be deemed a necessary Passport, before such Ship or Vessel shall be permitted to sail from that Port; and if the Commander of any Ship or Vessel, for which any Commission or Letter of Marque shall have been granted in pursuance of this Act, shall depart with such Ship or Vessel from such Port of Clearance before he hath received such Certificate, or shall depart from any such Port, or proceed upon a Cruise with a Force inferior to the Force specified in such Commission or Letter of Marque, every such Commission or Letter of Marque, shall from thenceforth be absolutely null and void, and the Commander so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One thousand Pounds, and shall also be imprisoned for each Space of time as the Court in which the same shall be sued for as hereinafter directed, shall order, not exceeding One Year for any One Offence.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That before the granting or issuing of any Commission or Letter of Marque, in pursuance of this Act, such Bill and Security shall be taken as hath been usual in such cases, and that previous thereto the Persons who propose to be bound and give such Security, shall severally make Oath before the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England, or Judge of any other Court of Admiralty, which shall be authorized as aforesaid, in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or his or their Surrogate, or other Person or Persons lawfully constituted by them, that they the said Persons who shall become Sureties are, at the time of their being sworn, respectively worth more than the Sum for which they are so to be bound, to wit and above all their just Debts, and moreover, and the Marshal for the time being of the said High Court of Admiralty, or of any of the said other Courts, or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons so commissioned as aforesaid, shall make diligent Enquiry, and certify himself or themselves of the Sufficiency of such Bill and Security, and make thereupon a Report to such Judge or his Surrogate, before any such Commission or Letter of Marque shall be granted.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Collector, Customs, or Searcher of His Majesty's Customs, or his or their lawful Deputy, or Deputies, shall grant a Certificate for any Ship or Vessel which shall not be of the Batches or Force specified in the Commission or Letter of Marque granted to the Commander or Commanders thereof, or shall certify to a greater Batches or Force than really belongs to her, he shall, for each Offence, forfeit his said Office, and be for ever incapable of holding any Office under Government whatsoever, and shall also forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds: Provided always, that the Batches of such Ship or Vessel to be certified, shall be ascertained by the Certificate of Registry granted for such Ship or Vessel, according to Law, or an authenticated Copy thereof, in case the Ship shall be at Sea, which Certificate or authenticated Copy shall be produced to the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, before the issuing of any Commission or Letter of Marque for such Ship or Vessel: Provided nevertheless, that it shall not be necessary in the case of Ships belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, His Majesty's Commissioners of Customs or Excise, to produce such Certificates or authenticated Copies, in order to the obtaining a Commission or Letter of Marque.

XXXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all and every Ship and Vessel, for which such Commission or Letter of Marque shall be granted as aforesaid, and for and during the time that such Commission or Letter of Marque shall remain in force under the Authority of this Act, and no longer, shall be deemed and taken to be a Ship or Vessel licensed pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling in this Kingdom, although the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel shall not have been furnished with the License required by the said statute Act.

XXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case the Owner or Owners, Commander and Master, or other Persons having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, for which such Commission or Letter of Marque shall be issued as aforesaid, shall be guilty of any Offence contrary to any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, or hereafter to be made, for the Prevention of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise, or for the Prevention of Smuggling in this Kingdom, such Owner or Owners, Commander, Master and other Persons, shall forfeit the Commission or Letter of Marque so issued for such Ship or Vessel over and besides any other Penalties and Forfeitures which be or they shall have incurred by reason of such Offence.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the time being, or any Three or more of them, at any time or times hereafter, to revoke and make void, by any Order or Orders in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, any Commission or Commission, or Letter or Letters of Marque, which hath or have been, or shall be issued forth to any Person or Persons who hath, have been or shall be appointed Commander or Commanders of any Ship or Vessel, either in pursuance of His Majesty's Orders in Council, or of this or any Act of Parliament: Provided nevertheless, that the Secretary of the Admiralty for the time being shall, with all convenient Speed, after every and any such Commission or Letter of Marque shall be so revoked, cause Notice thereof in Writing to be forthwith sent to the Owner or Owners of the Ship or Vessel caused or described in such Order or Revocation, or to his, her or their Agent or Agents, Survey or Surveyors, or some or One of them; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Channel, the said Order of Revocation shall be affixed to the post and sent to the said Commission or Letter of Marque, at the and Certificates granted.

Regulations respecting Condemnation of Prizes.

Explosion of Twenty Days from and after such Notice given as aforesaid, or sooner, if Notice shall be actually given in Writing by the Secretary of the Admiralty to the Captain or Commander thereof; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Northern Sea, at the Expiration of Thirty Days; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Southward of Cape Finisterre, or in the Mediterranean, at the Expiration of Six Weeks; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in North America or the West Indies, at the Expiration of Three Months; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the East Indies, at the Expiration of Six Months from and after such respective Notice shall be given as aforesaid: Provided always, that any Commander or Commanders, Owner or Owners, Agent or Agents, Secretary or Secretaries, of any such Ship or Vessel whom such Commission or Letter of Marque issued or to be issued forth as aforesaid, shall be in violation as aforesaid, may comply thereto in His Majesty in Council within Thirty Days next after the Secretary to the Admiralty for the time being shall cause Notice thereof to be given as aforesaid; and the Determination of His Majesty in Council, touching every such Complaint, shall be final: Provided always, that in case any such Order of Revocation shall be superadded, such Commission and Letter of Marque shall be deemed and taken to have continued in force, and all Prizes taken by virtue thereof shall belong to and be the Property of such Owners and Captains, in such manner as the same would have been in case such Order of Revocation had not been made: Provided also, that no Person shall be liable (before he shall have received a peremptory Notice of such Order of Revocation) to be punished for doing any Matter or Thing which he might have lawfully done under the Authority of such Commission or Letter of Marque, in case such Order of Revocation had not been made.

XXIV. And, for the more speedy proceeding to Condemnation or other Determination of any Prize Ship or Vessel, Goods or Merchandise, already taken, or to be taken as aforesaid, and for lessening the Expenses in such cases, be it further enacted, That the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England, and of any other Court of Admiralty which shall be duly authorized thereto, or such Person or Persons who shall be then constituted for that Purpose, within Five Days after Request made to him or them for that Purpose, shall forthwith the usual preparatory Examination of the Persons commonly examined in such cases, in order to prove the Capture to be lawful Prize, or to enquire whether the same be lawful Prize or not, and that the proper Motion shall in such cases shall be filed by the Person or Persons proper to file the same, and shall be executed by the Person or Persons proper to execute the same, within the space of Three Days after Request in that behalf made, and in case on Claim of such Captured Ship, Vessel or Goods, shall be duly entered in the usual Form, and attested upon Oath, giving Twenty Days' Notice after the Execution of such Motion, or if there be such Claim, and the Claimant or Claimants shall not within Five Days from the time of entering such Claim, give Security in the Sum of Sixty Pounds Sterling, to pay Costs to the Captain or Captain, in case the Judge shall decree Costs to be due, that then the Judge of such Court of Admiralty shall, upon producing to him the said Examination, or Papers thereof, and producing to him upon Oath all the Papers and Writings which shall have been found, taken in or with such Capture, or on board any other Captured Ship or Vessel regarding the same, or upon Oath made that no Papers or Writings were found, proceed with all convenient Speed or Sencure, either to discharge or accept such Capture, or to condemn the same to be good and lawful Prize, according as shall appear to him upon Perusal of such preparatory Examinations, and all the Papers and Writings found, taken in or with such Capture, or on board any other Captured Vessel regarding the same, if any such shall be found, or to allow further time for a Claim to be entered, or Security given; and in case any such Claim shall be duly entered and Security given thereupon, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, and there shall appear on Oath to enter into any other Examination, that then the Judge shall within Ten Days, if possible, after such Claim made and Security given, proceed to Sentence as aforesaid touching such Capture; but in case upon entering such Claim, and the Examination thereupon, or the producing of such Papers and Writings as aforesaid regarding such Captured Ship or Vessel, or Goods, and upon the said preparatory Examinations, it shall appear doubtful to the said Judge whether such Capture be lawful Prize or not, and it shall appear to him to be necessary, according to the circumstances of the case, for the clearing and determining such Doubts, or have an Examination of Witnesses on Affidavits given in by the Parties and admitted by the Judge, or such other lawful Mode of Enquiry as the said Judge may think requisite, that then the said Judge shall forthwith cause such Case to be appointed by Persons well skilled in the same, to be named by the Parties, and approved and appointed by the Court, and sworn truly to appraise the same, according to the best of their Skill and Knowledge, for which Purpose the said Judge shall cause, if he shall think fit, the Goods found on board to be valuated, and an Inventory thereof being first taken, if the Judge shall think necessary, by the Master of the Admiralty or his Deputy, shall cause them to be put into proper Warehouses, with separate Locks, of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and where there is no Comptroller, then of the Naval Officer, and the Agents or Persons employed by the Captains and Claimants, at the Charge of the Party deriving the same, and shall after such Appraisement, and within the Space of Fourteen Days after the making of the said Claims, proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Claimants to pay the Captains the full Value thereof, according to such Appraisement, in case the same shall be adjudged lawful Prize, and shall also proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Captains to pay such Costs, as the Court shall think proper, in case such Ship, Vessel or Goods shall not be condemned as lawful Prize; and after such Security duly given, the said Judge shall make an Involuntary Order for releasing or delivering the same to such Claimant or Claimants, or his or their Agents, and the same shall be actually delivered and delivered accordingly.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Books, Papers and Writings found in any Ship or Vessel taken as Prize, shall, without Delay, be brought into the Registry of the Court of Admiralty, whereas such Ship or Vessel may be proceeded against in order to Condemnation upon Oath, as by Law required; but that only such

Books,

Papers, &c. to be brought into the Registry of Books, Papers and Writings shall be made use of and translated, as shall be agreed or referred upon by the Proctors of the several Parties, Captains or Commanders, or in case of an Claim, shall be deemed by the Captain, his Proctor or Agent, or by the Registrar, to be necessary for ascertaining the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and otherwise thereof.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Claim on behalf of any alleged Joint Captors shall be admitted before Consideration, unless previously be given at the time of entering the same, that the Party shall contribute to the said Captors his Proportion of all Expenses that shall accrue the obtaining the Adjudication, as well in the first Instance as upon Appeal, and likewise his Proportion of all Costs and Damages that may be awarded against the said Captors on account of the Sentence and Detention; and after said Consideration an Allegation setting forth such alleged Interest shall be admitted, unless the Party shall have previously paid his Proportion of all such Expenses as shall have attended the obtaining such said Consideration, and unless he shall have given sufficient Cause to the Court why such Claim was not asserted at or before the Return of the Motion: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to the alleged Interest of any Admiral or Flag Officer claiming to share in any Prize by virtue of his Flag.

XXVII. And, for the Encouragement of the Capture of Armed Ships belonging to the Enemy, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Captors to include in One Adjudication any Number, not exceeding Sixty Tons each, and which shall have been taken within the Space of Three Months preceding the Application to the Court of Admiralty for such Adjudication.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Judge, Registrar or Deputy Registrar, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, or any other Officer whatsoever of or belonging to any Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, or any Person or Persons practising as Advocate, Proctor or otherwise, in any such Court or Courts, shall be concerned or interested directly or indirectly as Owner, Part Owner, Share or Advertiser in any Private Ship or Ships, or Vessel or Vessels of War whatsoever, having any Commission or Commissions, or Letter of Marque as aforesaid; and in case any such Judge, Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Marshal, Deputy Marshal or other Officer, Advocate or Proctor, or other Persons as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding this Act, be directly or indirectly concerned or interested as aforesaid, such Judge, Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Marshal, Deputy Marshal or other Officer respectively, shall, for every such Office (being thereof lawfully convicted in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or at any General Session of the Peace in any of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations), absolutely forfeit his Office and Employment in and belonging to any such Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, of what Kind or Nature forever such Office or Employment may be, and shall also forfeit and pay to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and every such Advocate or Proctor, or other Person as aforesaid, respectively, shall for each last mentioned Office (being thereof lawfully convicted in manner aforesaid) be from thenceforth absolutely disqualified, and rendered incapable of practising either as an Advocate or Proctor, or otherwise, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty whatsoever.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Registrar or Deputy Registrar, nor any Marshal or Deputy Marshal, or of or belonging to any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty whatsoever, shall either directly or indirectly, by himself or themselves, or by any Agent or Agents, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, all or be concerned in any manner, either as an Advocate or Proctor in any Cause, Matter or Business whatsoever, that shall be depending in any such Court or Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, to which such Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, shall then belong; and that every Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, who shall be guilty of such Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon an Information or Indictment in manner aforesaid), shall from thenceforth absolutely forfeit his respective Office and Employment of Registrar or Deputy Registrar, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, in and belonging to the same Court.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Proctor or other Person practising as Proctor in any Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Appeal therefrom, being employed by any Captain or Captain, Command or Commandant, shall be concerned by himself or his Partner, or by any Person or Persons, directly or indirectly, as behalf of the adverse Party or Parties, in the Suit or Matter wherein he may be employed, nor shall receive any Allowance from the Bills, nor in any manner whatsoever participate in the Profits of the Proctor or other Person conducting or employed in the Cause of the adverse Party or Parties; and in case any Proctor or other Person practising as Proctor in any such Court shall, notwithstanding this Act, be directly or indirectly concerned or interested as aforesaid, he shall, for every such Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon Information or Indictment in manner aforesaid), absolutely forfeit his Office or Employment in or belonging to any such Court of what Kind or Nature forever, and shall forfeit and pay to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for every such Offence, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and such Proctor or other Person respectively shall for each last mentioned Offence, being thereof lawfully convicted in manner aforesaid, be from thenceforth absolutely disqualified and rendered incapable of practising as a Proctor or otherwise in any of His Majesty's said Courts whatsoever.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Proctor of the High Court of Admiralty shall act as such, or permit or suffer his Name to be in any manner used in any Suit, the Prosecution or Defence wherein shall appertain to the Office of a Proctor, or as for or on account, or for the Profit and Benefit of any Person or Persons not entitled to act as a Proctor, or shall permit or suffer any such Person or Persons to demand or participate in such Profit and Benefit, and Complain thereof shall be made to the said Court, and Proof given to the Satisfaction of the said Court, that such Proctor hath offended therein as aforesaid, then and in such case every such Proctor

Table of Fees kept up in Courts of Vice Admiralty.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That a Table of Fees, authorized by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, shall be kept up in some conspicuous Part of the Court in which the several Judges of the Vice Admiralty Courts shall hold their Courts, and that no Judge or Sargeant, Registrar or Deputy Registrar, nor any Marshal or Deputy Marshal, of or belonging to any of His Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, shall, either directly or indirectly by himself, or themselves, or by any Agent or Agents, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, receive or take any Fee beyond those specified in the Table aforesaid; and that every Judge or Sargeant, Registrar or Deputy Registrar, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, who shall be guilty of such Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon Information or Judgment so aforesaid), shall from thenceforth absolutely forfeit his respective Office and Employment of Judge or Sargeant, Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, or be belonging to the same Court.

Penalty.

Misdemeanor.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the demanding or receiving any Sum or Sums of Money, other than the Fees aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Extortion and a Misdemeanor at Law, and shall be proceeded against and punished as such under and by virtue of this Act.

All not to interfere His Majesty from giving Directions in Courts and otherwise from.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to restrain His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from giving such further Rules and Directions from time to time as his respective Courts of Admiralty and Vice Admiralty, for the Advancement and Goodness of Peace, and for regulating the Fees of the said Courts, and amending and altering the Table of Fees therein, as by His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, shall be thought necessary or proper.

Appeal.

XXXVII. And be it hereby further enacted, That if any Captor or Captors, Claimant or Claimants, shall set out, satisfied with the Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in the High Court of Admiralty in England, or in any Court of Vice Admiralty, duly authorized to proceed in Prize Causes, or shall and may be liable for the Party or Parties thereby aggrieved to appeal from the said High Court of Admiralty, or from any of the said Courts of Vice Admiralty, to the Commissioners appointed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for receiving and determining Appeals in Causes of Prize, such Appeals to be incorporated and received in the like manner as Appeals to the Commissioners in Prize Causes have been usually incorporated and received from the said High Court of Admiralty, and good Security to be likewise given by the Appellant or Appellants, that he or they will officially prosecute such Appeal, and also pay such Costs as shall be awarded in case the Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence of such Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, be affirmed; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, that the Execution of any Definitive Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, appealed from as aforesaid, shall not be suspended by reason of such Appeal, save as in hereinafter provided, in case the Party or Parties appellant shall give sufficient Security, to be approved of by the Court in which such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be given, to render and deliver the Ship, Vessel, Goods or Effects, concerning which such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be pronounced, or the full Value thereof, to the Appellant or Appellants, in case the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree is appealed from shall be reversed.

He who calls Execution of Sentence not suspended.

Persons interested in Appeal not to interfere with Appeal.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case any Person, who was not a Party in the said Judgment of the Court, shall intervene or interfere in Appeal from a Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in any Admiralty Court, such Person, or his or her Agent or Agents, shall at the same time enter his or her Claim, otherwise such Appeal shall be null and void.

Appeal prohibited unless within Twelve Months.

XXXIX. And Whereas great Inconveniences have arisen by Appeals in Prize Causes not being presented in a reasonable time, and from frequent Appeals, or Petitions of Appeal, being entered before a Notary Public, without any Notice given to the Court or Parties appellant, or their Proctors: For remedy thereof, be it enacted, That every Petition given to a Party or not a Party in a Prize Cause, in the High Court of Admiralty of England, or in any Vice Admiralty Court, and signed when a Sentence shall be thereupon given, or an Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence pronounced, and who shall appeal therefrom, shall prosecute such Appeal by taking out the usual Subpoena within Twelve Months after the time such Sentence

Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be given; and that after the Expiration of the said Term of Twelve Months, without any Requisition having been taken out, no Appeal shall be allowed to be prosecuted by any Person, being a Party or not a Party, in the said High Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, nor shall any Requisition be granted at the Prayer of such Person or his Proctor, but the said Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall stand confirmed as to such Person: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Appeals, in all cases in which it shall appear that a Distribution has not taken place, to permit an Appeal to be prosecuted after the Term of Twelve Months elapsed, where, upon special Case shewn, they shall deem such Permission fit and reasonable to be given.

XL. And be it enacted, That in case any Appeal shall be interposed from a Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in any Court of Admiralty, or Vice Admiralty, concerning any Ship or Vessel, or Goods or Effects, seized and taken as Prize, then and in such case, the Judge of such Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty shall and may, at the request, Costs and Charges, either of the Captor or Claimant (or of the Claimant only, in case where the Privilege is referred in Favour of the Claimant by any Treaty or Treaties subsisting between His Majesty and Foreign Powers), make an Order to have such Ship or Vessel, Goods or Effects, appraised, unless the Parties shall otherwise agree upon the Value thereof, and an Inventory to be made, and then take Security for the full Value thereof accordingly, and thereupon cause such Ship or Vessel, Goods or Effects, to be delivered to the Party giving such Security in like manner as a lien-estate is made, notwithstanding such Appeal; and if there shall be any Difficulty or Dispute as to the giving or taking Security, the Judge shall, at the Request of either of the Parties, order such Goods and Effects to be entered, landed and sold by Public Auction, under the Care and Colliery of the proper Officers of the Customs, and under the Direction and Inspection of such Person as shall be appointed by the Claimants and Captors; and the Moneys arising from the Sale shall be brought into Court, and, by the Registrar, Deputy Registrar or Deputy Registrar, of the said Court, be deposited in the Bank of England, or in safe the Captors and Claimants shall agree therein, in some Public Securities at Interest, in the Names of such Registrar and of such Treasurers as they the said Captors and Claimants shall appoint, and the Court shall approve; and if such Security shall be given by the Claimants, then the Judge shall give such Captured Ship or Vessel a Pais under his Seal, to prevent its being again taken by His Majesty's Subjects in its destined Voyage.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the force of a Definitive Sentence of such Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, shall be finally reversed after Sale of any Ship or Goods, pursuant to the Direction in this Act contained, the Net Proceeds of such Sale (after Payment of all Expenses attending the same) shall be secured and taken to be the full Value of such Ship and Goods, and that the Party or Parties applicant, and their Securities, shall not be answerable for the Value beyond the Amount of such Net Proceeds, unless it shall appear that such Sale was made fraudulently or without due Care.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That no Agent shall be compellable to distribute any Proceeds of any Prize, except in the cases in this Act directed, until after the time of Appeal has elapsed.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or of the Vice Admiralty Court, in which any Prize shall have been condemned, shall certify that the Ship or Vessel is condemned taken under the Flag and Pais of the Enemy, or under any Commission of War granted by the Enemy, then and in such case, on the Application or by the Direction of the Captain or other Commander of the Ship or Vessel making such Capture, the Proceeds shall be distributed, and an Order of the Court may be obtained, at his Prayer, on the Agent or Agents, to distribute the Proceeds of such Prize before the time of Appeal is elapsed, subject nevertheless to the Liability of the Captor to answer any Appeal that may be returned thereafter during the time limited by Law for Appeals.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all cases in which the regular time of Appeal has elapsed, or in which the Appeal hath been discontinued, or for any Judge of any Court of Vice Admiralty Abroad in any such case as aforesaid, to which any Certificate from the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty shall be transmitted of the time of Appeal being elapsed, without further Production, together with an Order of Distribution thereon, to make an Order for Production and Verification of Accounts, and for the Distribution of the Proceeds, and to enforce the same by the Proceeds of the said Court, by Monition and Attachment upon the Agent or Agents in whose Hands the Proceeds may be lodged, or any other Person whomsoever to whom such Proceeds may have been committed, and likewise by further Process against the Sureties of the said Agent or Agents; and all Courts of Vice Admiralty are hereby empowered, directed and required to enforce upon all Persons within their Jurisdiction all such Orders, and all other Orders of the High Court of Admiralty, whether relating to Prizes, or to any Matter or Thing relating thereto, within their respective Jurisdictions.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all the Prerogatives, Rights, Regulations, Furniture and Privileges respecting the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize in this Act contained, shall be extended to all Sessions under the Revenue Laws, all Grants of His Majesty, all Bounties granted by him or any other Act of Parliament, and all other Moneys whatever coming to and being in the Hands of the Prize Agents of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, for their Use and Benefit, by reason of any Capture or Seizure made by the said Ships.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of Conviction in the High Court of Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Applicant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to award the Agents, by Process of Monition and Attachment, to sell the Proceeds of the Property condemned in such Public Securities as the Captors shall elect, there to remain and accumulate, for the Wrights or imported into this Kingdom, or any of His Majesty's Dominions, from the Pressing of any Customs or Duties, or from being sold to the Refractories and Regulations to which the same may or shall hereafter be liable by virtue of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Commissioners of the Customs, or such other persons whose Goods shall for the Market of this Kingdom have been brought as Prize into the Ports thereof, and have been sold from Necessity under an Order of the High Court of Admiralty, to reset the Whole or any Part of the said Duties, upon a Certificate from the Judge of the said Court, that the Goods have, since for the Markets of this Kingdom, have been sold as aforesaid, and that the Proceeds of such Sale, after Payment of Duties, will be sufficient to satisfy just and reasonable Claims.

LVI. And Whereas every Merchant of Ships of Foreign Nations may sell the Goods laden with Naval Stores, or other Goods carried to the Port of Commerce at War with His Majesty, whereby His Majesty's Enemies may be enabled to be fitted out and armed, and to destroy the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, and may also be supplied with Materials to build and fit out Ships of War to annoy and invade His Majesty's Dominions: And Whereas every Ship of Foreign Nations laden as aforesaid, may be taken and brought into the Ports of Great Britain, and the Port of London, or any Naval Stores laden on board such Ships of Foreign Nations for the Service of His Majesty, may in many Cases be captured, without proceeding to the Condemnation thereof: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy or Victualling for the time being, or their Officers or Agents, that in the Contract of the prime War, to purchase as the Accessory, or for the Service of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors only, all or any such Naval Stores found on board any such Ships of Foreign Nations, which have been, or shall or may hereafter be brought into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or by any Private ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels having a Commission or Letters of Marque; and that the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs for the time being shall and may permit and suffer such Naval Stores, so purchased as aforesaid, to be entered and landed within any of the Ports of this Kingdom; any thing in an Act of Parliament, passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, entitled An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, or in any other Statute made subsequent thereto, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Commodore or Commander, Officer or Officers, Seamen, Mariners, Soldiers or others, shall break Bulk, as aforesaid (except in case of Necessity, to be allowed by the Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty in which the same shall be brought to Adjudication), or embargo any of the Money, Jewels, Plate, Goods, Merchandise, Tackle, Furniture or Apparel, or of or belonging to any Prize or Prizes, such Commodore, Officer, Seamen, Soldier or other Person, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit his whole Estate as such Prize to His Majesty, for the Use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, to be so applying in Proof thereof by the Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty as aforesaid, in which such Proof shall be made, and shall also forfeit Treble the Value of all such Money, Jewels, Plate, Goods, Merchandise, Tackle, Furniture or Apparel, as he or they shall embargo.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That all Captains as aforesaid, which shall be brought into any of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad, in order to be proceeded against to Condemnation in any of His Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, being the strictly authorized, shall, without exception, Bulk, Baggage, and be under the strict Care and Custody of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and where there is no Comptroller, then of the Naval Officer of the Port or Place where the same shall be brought; and the Captain or Officers thereof, or their Agent or Agents, shall to the Directors of such Court of Vice Admiralty, upon the same Bulk, by such Seamen, have been either cleared and discharged, or adjudged and condemned as lawful Prize, or that such extraordinary Order as aforesaid shall have been made for the releasing or discharging the same; and upon the said Condemnation or Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize, shall be immediately delivered into the Captors thereof or their Agents.

LVIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or the Judge of any other Court lawfully commissioned to take Cognizance of Prizes, upon due Proof of the Breach of any of His Majesty's Instructions relating to Prizes, or of any Offence against the Law of Nations committed by the Captors in relation to any Prize, or to the Persons thereon, on board the same, to condemn the Prize, to His Majesty's Use and Disposal, five or one-half of the same with respect to break up of Bulk or Embargo; and where the Prize Bulk has been taken by a Ship having a Commission or Letter of Marque, to revoke the same, and to press the same to be forfeit to, and to compel Payment of the Penalty therein thereby, subject nevertheless to an Appeal to the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Cases.

LIX. And Whereas good and necessary Laws are in force within several of His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions, for preventing the carrying off from the said Colonies or Possessions any Corn or Grain, or the Coast of the Owners, or the carrying off from thence any other Persons or Persons whatsoever, and such Persons shall have taken out his Ticket from the Secretary's Office within such respective Colonies or Possessions, as such persons, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as is and be the said Statute: Let it be declared and provided, Be it therefore enacted, That all Commodore of Private Ships of War, or Merchant Ships having Letters of Marque, shall, upon their going into any of the Ports or Places in the said Colonies or Possessions, be subject to, and they are hereby declared to be subject to, the said Laws, Penalties, Forfeitures, and to press the same to be forfeit to, and to compel Payment of the Penalty therein thereby, subject nevertheless to an Appeal to the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Cases.

LX. And in Cases

* LIX. And Whereas in all Private Ships or Vessels of War, or Merchant Ships or Vessels for which Commissions or Letters of Marque shall be taken out, and likewise hired armed Vessels taken into His Majesty's Service, it is expedient, for the better Discipline and Government of such Ships and Vessels, that all Persons who enter themselves on board the same should be under proper Regulations, and pay Obedience to the lawful Commands of the Captains and Chief Commanders of the said Ships and Vessels: Be it therefore

And it is hereby further enacted, That each of the Commissioners or Justices of the Peace, who shall cause any such Person or Persons to be committed as is last mentioned, shall be and he or they is and are hereby, by expressethy required, at the same time, to oblige all and every such other Person or Persons, whom such Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace shall judge necessary, to prosecute and give Evidence against the Person or Persons who shall be so committed as aforesaid, to answer One or more Recognizance or Recognizances to His Majesty, in a sufficient Penalty for him, her or their appearing at the next Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be held for the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, there to prosecute and give Evidence against the Person or Persons who shall be committed as aforesaid; and if any Person

Perfon shall refuse to enter into fuch Recognizance to prosecute or give Evidence as shall be required, he, she or they so refusing, shall be committed by any such Commissioner or Commissioners, Justice or Justices, to the Gaol of the County or Place in which the Perfon so refusing shall be, and the next Sessions of Admiralty shall be held, or such Persons shall enter into fuch Recognizance as shall be required as aforesaid, which Recognizance or Recognizances together with the Informations or Informations taken touching the Offence or Offences whereof the Perfon or Persons to be committed as aforesaid shall be charged, the said Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the same shall be taken, shall and they are hereby respectively required to transmit with all convenient speed, to the Register for the time being of the High Court of Admiralty of England, to be by him forthwith laid before the Judge for the time being of the same Court, and afterwards to be kept among the Records of that Court.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Marshal of the Admiralty for the time being, and his Deputy or Deputies, and all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Stewards, Constables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, Keepers of Gaols and Prisons, and all other Officers whatsoever for keeping of the Peace (as well within Liberties as without), shall and they are every of them are hereby respectively authorized and required, from time to time diligently to execute, perform and obey all such Precepts and Proceps, Warrants and Warrants, and other Order and Orders, as shall at any time or times hereafter be made, directed, issued or given to them, or any of them respectively, by One or more of the said Commissioners named in the Commission of Oyer and Terminer, or Justices of the Peace, by writ or in pursuance of this Act, touching any of the Matters or Things herein contained.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That where the Offence of taking a false Oath, or falsifying any Person as to do, or any of the Offences by this Act made cognizable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, shall be committed out of the Realm, the same may be alleged to be committed, and may be laid, enquired of, tried and determined, in any County in England, in the same manner, to all Intent and Purposes, as if the same had been actually done or committed within the Body of such County.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, whensoever the same shall arise or become forfeited, may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or Motion and Attachment thereon in His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty, unless in cases where any other Mode is by this Act particularly directed; and all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, which shall arise or become forfeited in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad, may be recovered in any Court of Record of His Majesty in the Colony, Territory or Place where the same shall arise or have become forfeited, or in any of His Majesty's Vice Admiralty Courts having Jurisdiction there.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Agent or Person is by this Act made subject to the Forfeiture of any Sum of Money equal to any Money remaining in his Hands, or to the Amount of any Balances or Shares, such Sum or Sums of Money shall, on Recovery thereof, go and be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who shall have been aggrieved by the Misconduct of such Agent or Person, and all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, other than as aforesaid, and other than such as are by this Act directed to be otherwise applied and disposed of, shall go and be applied to the Use of the Royal Hospital for Sailors at Greenwich, and shall be paid for in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors thereof.

LXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons whomsoever, for any Matter or Thing whatsoever, done or committed under or by virtue or in the Execution of this Act, unless such Action shall be brought within Three Years next after doing or committing such Matter or Thing: Provided also, that if any Action or Suit shall be lawfully commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Matter or Thing done under, by virtue, or in the Execution of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become convicted, or suffer Discontinuance, or further further Prosecution, or if Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, such Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, for which he, she or they shall have the like Remedy as where Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Order in Council, from time to time, to fix and ascertain proper and adequate Salaries for the Judges of Vice Admiralty Courts established or to be established in the Barbadoes and Bermuda Islands, or in Jamaica or Barbadoes, and likewise at the Island of Antigua in the West Indies, not exceeding the Sum of Two thousand Pounds per Annum for any of such Judges; and such Salaries shall be fixed, payable and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain; and further, that such Salaries shall be charged and chargeable, and paid and payable, in like manner in every respect, and under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are contained in an Act, passed in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Judges of the Courts in Westminster Hall, and of the Lords of the Session, Lords Commissioners of Admiralty and Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland; and for enabling His Majesty to grant Annuities to Persons in certain Offices in the said Courts of Westminster Hall, in their Resignation of their respective Offices.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to give and grant to any such Judge, upon his Resignation of any such Office, an Annuity for the Term of his Life, not exceeding One thousand Pounds, to be issued and payable, and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain; and such Annuity shall be charged and chargeable, and paid and payable in like manner in every respect, as the Salaries of the said Judges: Provided always, that no such Annuity granted to any such Judge shall be valid, unless such Judge shall have continued in One or more

C A P. CLXI.

AN Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, to amend and regulate the Assessment and Collection of the Assessed Taxes, and of the Rates and Duties on Profits arising on Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. [18th July 1815.]

51 G. 3. c. 93.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend and regulate the Assessment and Collection of the Assessed Taxes, and of the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Mode of collecting the said Assessed Taxes in Scotland has, as far as circumstances will admit, been assimilated to that of England, and it is just that the same Power and other Allowances paid to the Recovers General and Parochial Collectors in England, as respects the said Assessed Taxes, should be allowed to the Principal and Sub Collectors in Scotland, as respects the same Taxes; May it therefore please pleaseth Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Principal Collector of Assessed Taxes of every County, Stewartry, City, Burgh or District in Scotland, shall have an Allowance of Three Halfpence in the Pound on all Money received by them at any time since the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, or which shall be hereafter received by them, under the Authority of any Act or Acts for the Assessment and Collection of the said Taxes, and paid over to the Receiver General at Edinburgh, his Deputy or Deputies, and also for what Money such Principal Collector shall pay out of such Duties to any Person or Persons in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, and shall duly account to the said Receiver General, or his Deputy, for such Payments; and that in every County, City, Burgh or District where a Sub Collector or Sub Collectors shall be nominated and appointed in pursuance of the above recited Acts, an Allowance of Three pence in the Pound on all Moneys received by them at any time since the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, or which shall hereafter be received by them and paid to the Principal Collector of the said County, City or Burgh, shall be allowed to the said Sub Collector or Sub Collectors in each County or City, in each Preboscote, and to such Assessor among the several Sub Collectors of each County, City, Burgh or District, as the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, on due Consideration of the circumstances of each particular case, and of the Trouble, Expence and Responsibility of the several Sub Collectors of each such County, City, Burgh or District, shall from time to time allow and assign for their Recompensation: Provided always, that in the Event of any County, Stewartry, City or Burgh, not being divided into Districts, and consequently as Sub Collector or Sub Collectors being appointed therein, the Collector nominated and appointed under the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to the Assessed Taxes, and doing the respective Duties of both Collector and Sub Collector, shall be entitled to the Allowance of Three Half pence in the Pound granted as aforesaid, to Principal Collectors, as also to an additional Allowance of Three Half pence in the Pound, amounting in whole to an Allowance of Three pence in the Pound, for all Moneys which shall be received and paid over by him to the Receiver General at Edinburgh, or his Deputy or Deputies, and also for what Money he shall pay over of such Duties to any Person or Persons in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, and for which he shall duly account to the said Receiver General or his Deputy, but declining always, that in every County, City or Place which shall here be divided into Districts, and Sub Collectors appointed, it shall not be lawful for any principal Collector to act also as Sub Collector, nor for any Sub Collector to act as Sub Collector for more than One District of any such County or Place, without the special Authority of the said Barons.

II. And Whereas by the aforesaid Statute, it is enacted, that the said Sub Collectors shall pay over the several Duties so received by them without Delay, or at furthest on or before the Fifth Day of next Month after receiving the said Duties to the Collector of the same Duties respectively, for the County, Stewartry, City or Burgh, within which such District or Division or Part thereof is situated; and Intention having arisen from the said Mode of Payment by the principal Collectors being obliged upon the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July and Tenth Day of October, to pay over the whole of the Duties received by them to the Receiver General, by which means it frequently happens that they have not Money in their Hands to make Payments of the several Sums directed to be paid by various Acts of Parliament: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Barons to allow the said several Sub Collectors to retain in their respective Hands so much of the said Moneys as shall appear to the said Barons to be necessary to enable the said Sub Collectors to advance the Payments to be made by them, under and by virtue of the said Acts of Parliament, for and during such time as the said Barons shall order, not later than the Twelfth Day of the succeeding Month after the said Sub Collectors shall have received the same; any thing in the aforesaid Statute contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas by an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Acts, as far as the same relate to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and by the said Act made to the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, it is enacted, that the respective Collectors of the Duties therein mentioned to be appointed for the several Counties, Cities and Burghs, shall make Returns of quarterly Statements of Taxes, and of Lists of Annors of Taxes, which said Returns and Lists shall be verified on Oath before the Sheriff Depute or Sub Sheriff of the Shire or Stewartry, or before the Chief Magistrate of the City or Burgh for which he or they is or are Collector or Collectors, Sub Collector or Sub Collectors of the said several Duties: And Whereas from the Pictors of Residence of many of the Collectors and Sub Collectors, the Verification of the said Statements and Lists before Sheriffs and Stewards Depute, or their Substitutes, or the Chief Magistrates of Burghs, has in certain cases been found inconvenient: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Collectors and Sub Collectors appointed or to be appointed to verify the said Statements and Lists before any of His Majesty's Justices of Peace in the Countess or Burghs in which they shall be Collector or Sub Collector, as well as before the Sheriffs and Stewards Depute, or their Substitutes, or the Chief Magistrates of Burghs; any thing in the Two recited Statutes before mentioned notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who shall wilfully give false Evidence, or make any false Oath or Affirmation or Avertise before the Commissioners for executing this or any other Act or Acts for granting Duties to be assessed under the Regulations of the Act, made in the Forty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amend-

An Act to regulate the issuing of Licences to allow Open Boats to proceed to Foreign Parts, and for revoking the same when necessary.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Commissioners of the Customs in England, Scotland and Ireland respectively, to revoke Licences which have been issued for Open Boats not belonging to Ships or Vessels, allowing such Boats to proceed to Foreign Parts, and in future either to refuse Licences for such Boats or to limit and confine their Employment or Navigation, in such manner as the said Commissioners respectively may see fit, whenever it shall appear to them expedient so to do, for the Prevention of Smuggling, and the Safety and Protection of the Revenue; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners respectively, or any Three or more of them, to revoke Licences which have been issued for Open Boats not belonging to Ships or Vessels, allowing such Open Boats to proceed to Foreign Parts, and in future either to refuse Licences for such Open Boats, or to limit and confine the Employment or Navigation thereof in any manner and within any Limits and Distances of the Coast of Great Britain or Ireland, as they the said Commissioners respectively may deem fitting and proper, whenever it shall appear to the said Commissioners respectively that such Revocation, Refusal or Limitation is expedient for the Prevention of Smuggling, and the Safety and Protection of the Revenue.

II. And be it further enacted, That after the said Commissioners respectively shall by any Order in Writing under their Hands have revoked any such Licence, a Copy of the Order of Revocation shall be left either with any One of the Owners of such Open Boat or with the Person having the Care or Custody thereof, and from and after the Delivery of a Copy of such Order as aforesaid, the Licence granted for such Boat shall and the same is hereby declared to be null and void, and the Owner and Owners in and are hereby required to cause the said Licence to be delivered up to the Collector of the Customs of the Port to which such Boat shall belong, within Three Months from the Day on which the Order of Revocation shall have been delivered as aforesaid; or in case of the said Licence being lost or taken by the Enemy, satisfactory Proof on Oath shall be within the same Period made before the Collector or Comptroller of such Port, which Oath they are hereby authorized and required to administer; and in case such Licence shall not be delivered up, and no such Proof shall be made within such Period as aforesaid, the Owner or Owners of such Open Boat shall within the Sum of Twenty Pounds; or if such Open Boat shall be used or availed after a Copy of the Order revoking the Licence shall have been delivered as aforesaid, every such Open Boat shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures created or imposed by this Act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and disposed of, in such manner and by such ways, means and methods, as any Penalties or Forfeitures for any Offence against the Laws of Customs may now legally be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and disposed of.

C A P. CLXIV.

An Act to enact, in certain Cases, Foreign Spirits imported during the Suspension of the Spirit Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland, from the additional Duty imposed thereon.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled *An Act to revive and continue until the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, so much of an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty, to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom as relates to Great Britain; and to revive and continue another Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty, to prevent the Importation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain or Ireland respectively; and for granting certain Duties on Wines or Wines made from Sugar, during the Prohibition of Distillation from Corn or Grain in Great Britain; it was enacted, that during the Continuance of the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain mentioned in the said Act, all and singular the Duties in the said Act as that behalf mentioned should be suspended; and that during such Suspension there should be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite, or Strong Waters (except Rum of the Produce of the British Plantations), imported into Great Britain, and for which the Duties chargeable thereon should not have been paid on the Fourteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, or imposed after that Day, an additional Duty of Twelve Pounds and Ten Shillings per Cask upon the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Excise imposed for or in respect thereof by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of the said Act: And Whereas by another Act made in the Fifty third Year of His said Majesty's Reign, among other things, to suppress the Importation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain and Ireland respectively, the said Suspension was continued, and the same, in consequence and by virtue of His Majesty's Order in Council published in the London Gazette, created on the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, on which Day there were remaining in the Warehouse in which the same had been lodged and incured under the Regulations of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His said Majesty's Reign, entitled *An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be stored in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, and other Acts of Parliament relating to the warehousing of imported Goods without Payment of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, under the Joint Locks of The Customs and the Merchant, large Quantities of such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite and Strong Waters (out of the Produce of the British Plantations), and on which the said additional Duty of Twelve Pounds and Ten Shillings per Cask had become and was chargeable and charged, and which remained in the said Warehouse subject to the said additional Duty until the Month of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, at and after which time the said Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite and Strong Waters, were, under and by virtue of Orders given and issued by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or some of them, for that Purpose, to the Commissioners of Excise, delivered by the Officers of Excise from or out of the said Warehouse, without Payment of the said additional Duty; and it is expedient to encrease all such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite and Strong Waters, so delivered from the said additional Duty, and also to grant and give the Indemnifications hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite and Strong Waters respectively, so delivered from or out of any such Warehouse or Warehouses, in or after the said Month of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, without Payment of the said additional Duty of Twelve Pounds and Ten Shillings per Cask, shall be and the same are hereby recovered from the said additional Duty, and every Part thereof; and the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, concerned in the giving or issuing any such Order or Orders, shall and they are hereby fully indemnified, for or in respect of giving or issuing any such Order or Orders, and the said Commissioners of Excise, concerned in causing any Officer or Officers of Excise to deliver any such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite or Strong Waters, in or after the said Month of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, from or out of any such Warehouse or Warehouses, without Payment of the said additional Duty, or to forward or collect or receive any such additional Duty for or in respect of any such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite or Strong Waters so delivered; and all such Officers of Excise who have so delivered any such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite or Strong Waters, or who have forborne to collect or receive the said additional Duty, or any Part thereof, for or in respect of any such Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Fite or Strong Waters so delivered, shall be and they respectively are hereby also fully indemnified for or in respect thereof respectively.

[Statute 3. in the 5th year of 16 G. 3. c. 183.]

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Purse Men of the Regular Militia, shall for the Period or Periods during which they shall be called out for the Purpose of annual Exercise or Training, or when called out for the suppressing Riots or Tumults, be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Purse Men of the Militia when embodied.

V. And Whereas it is expedient to grant Allowances to certain Officers of the said Militia Forces of Great Britain while disembodied, under certain Regulations: Be it further enacted, That the following Allowances over and above the Pay to which they are entitled during the time of annual Exercise, or when called out for the suppressing of Riots or Tumults, shall be made and paid to the Amount, under the Regulations, and in the manner hereinafter expressed, to every Subaltern Officer and Sergeant's Mate who hold or shall hold a Commission in the Militia of Great Britain, and who or shall be serving therein, when the Corps was or shall be disembodied: that is to say,

To a Lieutenant, Two Shillings and Six pence per Diem;

To an Ensign, Two Shillings per Diem;

And to a Sergeant's Mate, Two Shillings and Six pence per Diem;

Provided always, that all Officers of the Militia serving with the Rank of Captain Lieutenant, shall be deemed to be Lieutenants, and all Officers serving with the Rank of Second Lieutenant shall be deemed to be Ensigns for the Purpose of this Act.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person who is or shall during the Continuance of this Act become possessed of such an Estate or Income as would by Law qualify him to hold the Commission of Captain of a Company in the said Militia, or who is or shall be appointed Adjutant, Surgeon, Paymaster or Quartermaster in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, nor any Officer on Full Pay of the Navy, Army or Marines, shall have or be in any way entitled to the said Allowances or any Part or Share thereof; any thing herein contained to the contrary in and in any wife notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers and Sergeant's Mates of the Militia who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle themselves thereto, take and subscribe an Oath before some One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom, in the Words, or to the Effect following, to wit,

"I, A. B. do swear, That I belonged to the _____ of Militia when the same was disembodied, and that I have continued to serve therein from that time until the _____ Day of _____ last; and that I have continued to serve therein from that time until the _____ Day of _____ last; and that I was not in my own Right, or in Right of any Wife during the said Period in the actual Possession and Enjoyment or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements or Households of such an annual Value above _____ Repenses, as would qualify me to hold a Commission of Captain of a Company in the Militia; that I have not during the said Period held the Appointment of Adjutant or Surgeon in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia; that I did not hold or enjoy, nor had any Person for me held or enjoy during the said Period any Office or Income whatsoever from the Public, except my Pay as _____ for the Period of _____ the Corps having afforded to be trained and exercised, or for the suppressing of Riots or Tumults, and my Half Pay as _____ So help me GOD."

Which Oath is taken and subscribed shall be produced to the Paymaster of the Regiment of Militia by the Subaltern Officer or Sergeant's Mate claiming the Allowance.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Subaltern Officer and Sergeant's Mate of the Militia who shall be entitled or claim to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall regularly attend the annual Exercise and Training of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, during the whole of the time by Law appointed for that Purpose, or during the Period of being called out for suppressing Riots or Tumults, and shall during the said time punctually do and perform his Duty as a Subaltern Officer or Sergeant's Mate of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, on Pen of forfeiting the said Allowance as well as the Ref. of his Pay, and every Part thereof, which may be due for the Current Year in which he shall neglect or refuse to attend, and Commission of him having so attended and performed his Duty signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he may belong, shall be forfeited by the said Commanding Officer to the Paymaster of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia to which the Officer shall belong: Provided always, that in case any such Subaltern Officer or Sergeant's Mate claiming to be entitled to such Allowance shall by his Commanding Officer be permitted or suffered for any special Cause or unavoidable Necessity to be absent during the Whole or any Part of such annual Exercise, or assembling for the suppressing of Riots or Tumults, for which Purpose it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer to grant such Leave of Absence, then

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia after the disembodiment thereof, and before the respective Days hereinafter fixed for the Half-yearly Payment of the said Allowances, shall not be called out for the annual Exercise and Training thereof, or for the Suppression of Riots or Tumults, every Subaltern Officer and Surgeon's Mate belonging to any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and coming within the Definition of the said Act, who shall have taken and subscribed the Oath hereinbefore mentioned before any Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Allowance as if such Subaltern Officer or Surgeon's Mate had regularly attended the annual Exercise and Training of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps during the whole of the time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and as if a Certificate of such Attendance signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps had been furnished to the Paymaster of the Regiment.

X. And be it further enacted, That upon each Oath and Certificate as aforesaid, or where any Regiment of Militia shall not have been called out to their annual Exercise as aforesaid, upon the said Oath being presented to the respective Paymasters, it shall be lawful for such Paymasters and they are hereby authorized and required to pay to the said Subaltern Officers and Surgeons' Mates according to their respective Commissions of Lieutenant, Ensign or Surgeon's Mate, in Addition to their Pay for the time of Training and Exercise or for the time of attending for the Suppression of Riots and Tumults, the Allowance above mentioned for Six Months or other proper Period, on the Twenty fourth Day of December next, and the other proper Proportion of the same, on the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, without any Deduction whatsoever; the Oath and Certificate before mentioned to be by them presented and produced among the Vouchers for the Payments from time to time made by them in pursuance of this Act.

On Neglect of Attendance of Subalterns, &c. being certified by Colonel, &c. his Clerk in Allowance for. fixed.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers and Surgeons' Mates of the Militia entitled or claiming to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act shall at all times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments, Battalions or Corps to which they belong, whenever the same shall be embodied and called out upon actual Service, and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon at such Times or for such Occasions as may be required, of them in pursuance of the Laws now in force respecting the Militia when disembodied, each and every such Subaltern Officer and Surgeon's Mate shall on such Neglect or Refusal being established to the Lord Lieutenant and Paymaster, by the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Subaltern or Surgeon's Mate shall belong, forfeit his Claim to the said Allowance, and every Part thereof, and shall also be considered as having resigned and vacated his Commission to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or being entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of His Majesty's Forces, or Navy or Marines, and serving in the Militia, shall and may, and he is hereby empowered, to receive and take the Subsidence Money and Allowance by this Act directed to be paid to Field Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quarter Masters, Surgeons and Surgeons' Mates, when assembled for annual Training, or for the Suppression of Riots or Tumults; and the receiving and taking any such Subsidence Money and Allowance by any such Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Quarter Master, Surgeon or Surgeon's Mate, shall not be deemed receiving or taking of Pay, but as in any manner to prove such Person on Half Pay or being entitled to any such Allowance from receiving his Half Pay or such Allowance; and such Person shall take the following Oath before some Justice of the Peace, who is hereby empowered to administer the same.

I, A. B. do swear, I had not between the _____ and the _____ any Place or Employment of _____ Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides any Allowance of Half Pay as a Retired _____ to His Majesty's Navy, [or, in the Marine, or, in _____ late Regiment of _____], or, Allowance as a _____ late Troop of Horse Guards, [or _____ Regiment of Horse reduced], and except my Subsidence or Allowance as a Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Paymaster, or, Quarter Master, Surgeon, or, Surgeon's Mate, [as the case may be] for serving in the Militia of the County of _____

And the taking the said Oath shall be sufficient to enable such Person to receive his Half Pay or the said Allowance without taking any other Oath; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Adjutants, after Service of 10 Years and with.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, every Adjutant of Regular Militia who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty's Regular Regular Forces, or is the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Twenty Years as the Whole, whereof Ten shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, who shall have been or shall be by Age or Infirmary rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Paymaster of the Regiment a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years as aforesaid, from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, together with an Order from the Secretary at War be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster aforesaid shall be and is hereby authorized to pay to such Person producing such Certificate and Order as aforesaid, an Allowance at the Rate of Eight Shillings per Diem: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall have served for a less Term than Ten Years as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, or who shall hold any Office or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military under His Majesty: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Sergeant of Regular Militia, having faithfully served either in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Militia for the full Term of Twenty Years, shall by Age or Infirmary be rendered unfit for further Service, he shall, on producing to the Paymaster of the Regiment a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years in the whole (Ten of which he shall have served as a Sergeant of Militia), from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, be entitled to receive, and the said Paymaster shall be and is hereby authorized and required to pay to such Person producing such Certificate as aforesaid, together with an Order from the Secretary at War, an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings per Diem, commencing the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall hold any Office or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty: but no Person receiving such Allowance, shall, by reason thereof, forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in and to every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia shall have already existed and determined, or been reduced in its Establishment, or shall exist and determine, or be reduced in its Establishment during the Continuance of this Act, the Sum of Four Shillings per Diem shall be paid to such Person as has actually served as Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, from the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or from the time such Regiment shall exist and determine, or be reduced in its Establishment, as the case may be, to the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay, by reason of receiving such Allowance as last aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

XIX. And Whereas it is expedient, that an Act passed in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Year of the said Majesty King George, intituled An Act for granting, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Allowances to Adjutants and Sergeant Majors of Militia, disbanded under an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for enabling His Majesty to accept the Services of an additional Number of Volunteers from the Militia, under certain Regulations, which has been revised and continued by several subsequent Acts until the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, should be again revised and further continued, so far as the same relates to Adjutants and Sergeant Majors: Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Act, and the Allowances therein granted and mentioned, to Adjutants and Sergeant Majors, and all the Provisions relating thereto, shall be revised from the said Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and be further continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in so far as the same relates to Adjutants and Sergeant Majors: Provided always, that the Allowance to such Adjutant disbanded as aforesaid, shall, from the said Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, be issued at the augmented Rate of Four Shillings per Diem.

Section 20. is the same as §. 20. of 54 G. 3. c. 189.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money granted for the Pay, Clothing, Allowances and Consequent Expenses for the Regular Militia when disbanded as aforesaid, shall be issued and paid under the Direction of the Secretary at War, who is hereby empowered to issue such Regulations as he may deem it expedient to adopt from time to time in that behalf, and to authorize, empower and require the Agent General of the disbanded Militia to make such Payments accordingly.

[Section 22-23. are the same (except the Date) as the like Sections of 54 G. 3. c. 189.]

C A P. CLXVI.

An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Clothing of the Local Militia in Great Britain, to the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen. [15th July 1815.]

WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and Consequent Expenses of the Local Militia in Great Britain, from the Twenty fifth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen to the Twenty fifth March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every County, Riding or Place in England, and in every County, Sovereignty, City or Place in Scotland, where the Local Militia is or shall be raised, the Secretary at War for the time being is hereby authorized and empowered and required to cause to be issued and paid the within Sums required for the Local Militia, in the Manner and for the several Uses

Rate of Pay.

From hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For the Pay of the said Local Militia at the Rate of Eight Shillings a Day for each Adjutant, where an Adjutant is appointed; and at the Rate of Five Shillings a Day for each Quarter Master, where the Establishment of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which he is appointed, shall not be less than Three hundred and Forty Private Men; and at the Rate of Three Shillings a Day for each Quarter Master, where the Establishment shall be under that Number; and at the Rate of One Shilling and Six pence a Day for each Sergeant resident at the Head Quarters of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, with the Addition of Two Shillings and Six pence a Week for each Sergeant Major, where a Sergeant Major is appointed; and at the Rate of One Shilling and Two pence a Day for every Corporal retained by Order of His Majesty; and so resident as aforesaid; and at the Rate of One Shilling a Day for each Drummer to reside as aforesaid, with the Addition of Six pence a Day for each Drum Major, where a Drum Major is appointed: Provided always, that when any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall be absent on Furlough or Licence, such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall draw such Absence money Pay at the following Rates, instead of the above mentioned; that is to say, Every Sergeant the Sum of One Shilling per Day, every Corporal the Sum of Eight pence per Day, and every Drummer the Sum of Six pence per Day respectively, and no more: And also for the Clothing of the Local Militia for each Century, Riding, Drummary, City or Fleet, at the Rate of Four Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Two pence for each Sergeant Major, Three Pounds Nine Shillings and Eight pence for each Sergeant, Two Pounds One Shilling and Two pence for each Corporal, Four Pounds Six Shillings and Seven pence for each Drum Major, Three Pounds Five Shillings and Two pence for each Drummer, and Two Pounds One Shilling and Four pence for each Private Man, together with the actual Expense of Passage and Carriage, and such Charges for storing and fitting the Clothing as shall have been settled by the Secretary at War; and that such Sergeant Majors, Drum Majors, Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, who may be retained on constant Pay, and resident at the Head Quarters, shall be clothed once in Two Years; and that such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, of Local Militia, beyond the regular Establishment of the Permanent Staff thereof, as may be serving on detached Pay, under the Provision of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Local Militia of Great Britain, shall be clothed as new Clothing when their present Clothing shall have been actually and lawfully worn for Two Years: And also at the Rate of Three pence per Mile per Month for each Private Man and Drummer, for defraying the Contingent Expenses of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers of Local Militia serving upon Permanent Pay, shall be subject to the Provision of Two Acts made in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reige for amending the Laws relating to the Local Militia of England and Scotland respectively, as far as relates to the Allowance for Needles, although they may have been enrolled previous to the passing of the said Acts.

III. And be it further enacted, That there shall be granted to the Surgeon of each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Local Militia assembled for Training in Addition to his Pay, the Sum of Five Shillings and Three pence per Week for every Hundred Rank and File for the Expense of the necessary Medicines for the Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, and an Allowance of Six pence per Month for each of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, on constant Pay at Head Quarters, for the Expense of necessary Medicines and Apparatus given to the Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers on constant Pay at Head Quarters, while such Regiment, Battalion or Corps is not called out for annual Training and Exercise.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Quarter Master of each Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, or in his Absence the Adjutant, shall have the Charge and Care of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing or Needles, and other Stores, under the Superintendence of the Colonel or Commandant, and fulfilment of the Money hereby directed to be paid and paid for defraying the Contingent Expenses of each Regiment, Battalion or Corps, from time to time after tax and pay such Sum of Money as may be necessary for the Repair of Arms, or other usual incidental Expenses, upon an Order in Writing signed by the Colonel or other Commandant, and after Payment of such Sums as shall be drawn upon him by the Colonel or other Commandant as aforesaid, he shall Three times in the Year make up Accounts of all such Money, and of the Expensiture thereof, and of the Balance remaining in his Hands; which said Balance shall form a Book Pass for the Use of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and shall transmit the said Account to the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps to be by him examined, allowed and signed, and the said Accounts so allowed and signed, shall be and are hereby directed to be the proper Vouchers and Receipts of such Quarter Master for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of the Local Militia when assembled for Training shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowance as the Regular Militia when drawn out and embodied: Provided always, that the said Pay and Allowances shall only extend to such Period or Periods for which the said Local Militia shall be called out for the Purpose of Annual Exercise or Training, or for supplying Rans or Tonnages, with the Addition of the Days of arriving at and Departure from and marching to and from the Place appointed for Exercise; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Section 5. is the same as § 5. of 34 G. 3. c. 1176 Section 6. of the former Act is omitted.]

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Adjutant, Quarter Master, Non-Commissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man in the Local Militia entitled to receive any Gratuity Pension or Allowance, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the Local Militia.

C A P. CLXVIII.

An Act to explain and amend the Laws relating to the Militia of Great Britain and Ireland.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS Doubts have arisen whether Officers, Non Commissioned Officers or Private Men, in the Militia, can be tried or punished after the Expiration of Periods of Training and Exercising, or after the Militia shall be disbanded, for any Offence committed against any Act in force for the Peace; of Mutiny and Desertion, or the Articles of War made in pursuance thereof, during the Period of each Regiment being embodied for Training and Exercise, or of such Regiment being embodied, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Officer, Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man of the Militia of Great Britain or Ireland, who shall, during the Period of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong being assembled for Training and Exercise, or being embodied, have been guilty of any Offence against any Act of Parliament in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, or any Articles of War made in pursuance thereof, may be tried by any General or Regimental Court Martial, consisting of Officers of the Militia, and if found guilty may be punished for such Offence, although the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Officer, Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man shall belong, shall have been disbanded after Training and Exercise, or shall have been disbanded, in the manner as any Officer, Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man may be tried and punished during the Period of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps being assembled for Training and Exercise, or embodied.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as such Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummer or Private, shall be liable to be tried or punished for any such Offence committed during the Period of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps being assembled for the Purpose of Training and Exercise, or embodied, unless the Charges against such Officer, Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer, or Private Man, shall have been made out and delivered within Six Months after the Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall have been disbanded after Training and Exercising, or disembanded.

III. And be it further enacted, That whatsoever in any of the said cases it shall be necessary that a General Court Martial should be held for any such Trial, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to signify His Pleasure to such and to every Lieutenant of Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Sheres or Places in Great Britain as His Majesty shall deem necessary, that Officers of their respective Counties will be required to assemble to form such Court, and every such Lieutenant shall thereupon give Orders to such Number of Officers as shall be required, who shall forthwith attend to form such Court, and that every such General Court Martial for the Trial of any Officer, Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man of the Militia of Ireland, shall be appointed in the same manner, and by and under the same Orders and Authority in all respects, as if that Part of the Militia of the United Kingdom which shall have been raised and bound in Ireland were there drawn out and embodied as aforesaid; and all Officers who shall refuse or neglect to attend any such Courts Martial, shall be liable to be tried by a General Court Martial, to be assembled according to the Regulations of this Act, for such Disobedience of Orders; and all Officers attending to form such Courts shall be entitled to Pay during such Attendance, and to Two Shillings for every Mile for going to such Court Martial at the Commencement thereof, and returning after the Conclusion of the Proceedings of the

the Court; and every General Court Martial so appointed shall be sworn and held in the same manner as if the said respective Missions were drawn out and embodied at the time of holding the said Court Martial; and every such Court Martial shall have all such and the like Powers and Authorities, and shall be of the same Force and Effect in all respects as if the Missions from which the Officers thereof are appointed were then drawn out and embodied.

IV. And be it further enacted, That for holding a Regimental Court Martial in any of the said cases for which such Court Martial shall be proper, it shall be lawful for the Colonel of the Regiment or Battalion to appoint any Place which he shall think proper, within the County, City, Town or District to which such Regiment or Battalion shall belong, and to order any Officers of such Regiment or Battalion to attend and assist as Members of such Court Martial, who shall thereupon attend at the time required, and assist accordingly; and in Default of such Attendance shall be liable to be tried by a General Court Martial to be appointed pursuant to the Regulations of this Act, for such Disobedience of Orders, and the Officers who shall be Members of such Court Martial shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as Officers who shall be Members of any General Court Martial, under the Authority of this Act.

An Act to provide for the Charge of the Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen. [14th July 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign relating to the Redemption of the National Debt, and for making further Provision in respect thereof, it was enacted and declared, that for the Purposes of the said Act, an Amount of Public Debt equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt in Perpetual Redeemable Annuities existing on the Fifth Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be deemed to be satisfied and discharged, and so much of the Capital Stock so purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Redemption of the National Debt to the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the said Session should or might direct, should be cancelled in like manner as if the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of Lord Tax, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts thereto relating, so order to make Provision for the charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan, or in any other manner for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that where and so soon as such further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the Redemption of Lord Tax, or the Purchase of Life Annuities, as together with the Amount so already purchased or transferred as aforesaid, should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole annual Charge in Perpetual Redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Great Britain, existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should correspondently and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should cause the said Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament (if Parliament should be then sitting), but if Parliament should not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, and from time to time whenever such further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased or transferred as aforesaid, as should be equal to the whole Capital, and should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole annual Charge in Perpetual Redeemable Annuities of such Loan contracted since the said Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should from time to time correspondently in like manner certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should in like manner cause every such Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament; and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration should have been so made, published and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount of Public Debts to which such Certificate and Declaration should relate should from time to time be deemed and taken to be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the South Sea Company, should be considered to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to time be cancelled as above mentioned, at such times and in such Proportions as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain by way of Loan or in any other manner; and it was thereby further enacted, that whenever the Amount of the same to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner, which might enter in Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, so that on any future Year, should exceed the Sum which on the First Day of February should have been or should be estimated to be applicable in the same Year to the Redemption of the National Debt, then and in every such case an annual Sum, amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, in the Year, as should be equal to the Sum so estimated to be applicable to the Redemption of the National Debt within the same Year, should be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Account of the said Commissioners in the manner directed by the said therein recited Act of the

That second Year of His present Majesty, and with respect to the Excess of the Monies which might be so raised in any Year by way of Loan or in any other manner as aforesaid, above the estimated Sum applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, such an annual Sum as should be equal to One Half of the Interest of such Excess, should be set apart out of the Monies composing the Consolidated Fund, and should in like manner be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners: And Whereas the Sum which on the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen was estimated to be applicable in the present Year to the Reduction of the National Debt amounted to Eleven millions three hundred and twenty four thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds: And Whereas by Two several Acts passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for granting Annuities and to discharge certain Exchequer Bills; and also, intitled An Act for granting Annuities in discharge certain Exchequer Bills; and for raising a Sum of Money by Annuities, for the Service of Great Britain, the Sum of Eleven Millions one hundred and twenty seven thousand five hundred Pounds in Exchequer Bills, and the Sum of Seven millions and eight thousand and eighty nine Pounds Three Shillings and Six pence in Money have been solemnly to be issued in the First Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities: And Whereas by another Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for raising the Sum of Thirty six Millions by way of Annuities, the Sum of Twenty seven Millions was raised for the Service of Great Britain: And Whereas the Charge of the said several Sums will amount to the Sum of Three millions six hundred and eighty nine thousand three hundred and fifty one Pounds Ten Shillings and Two pence: One Farthing: And Whereas it is expedient to make Provision for a Part of such Charge in the manner directed by the said several Acts: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Sum of Seven Millions seven hundred and twenty six thousand four hundred Pounds, Four Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, and the Sum of Fifty one millions two hundred seventy one thousand four hundred and fifty seven Pounds, Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, bearing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, be respectively cancelled, and the Interest or Dividends which would have been payable thereon shall from thenceforth respectively cease to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer, or to be charged upon the Consolidated Fund; and the Money which would have been applicable to the Payment thereof shall remain and be a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, for the Purpose of defraying in Part the Charge occasioned by the Additions made or to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain in the present Year.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Monies arising from the Permanent Duties of Customs, Excise and Postage granted by several Acts in the last present Session of Parliament, shall be deemed a permanent Increase to the Public Revenue of Great Britain, for the Purpose of defraying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made or Stock created by Authority of any Act of Parliament passed in the present Session of Parliament.

C. A. P. CLXX.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for better regulating the Office of Agent General for Volunteers and Local Militia, and for the more effectually regulating the same. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, for better regulating the Office of Agent General for Volunteers and Local Militia; and for the more effectually regulating the said Office, and to make further Provision for the Regulation of the Office of Agent General: And Whereas it is in the said several Acts enacted, that the Agent General should be authorized and empowered to apply for Money for the Militia when disembodied, the Local Militia and Volunteers, or any other Service to which he should be authorized by the Secretary at War to act as Agent General, and to issue and account for the same agreeably to the Provisions in the said Act contained: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Agent General should also be empowered to act as Agent General for the Militia when embodied or called out into actual Service, or for any Part thereof, if authorized by the Secretary at War as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Agent General, if authorized as aforesaid, to apply for, receive, disburse and account for all Sums of Money granted for the Pay, Clothing and Contingent Expenses of the Regular Militia, or any Part thereof, when embodied or ordered out on actual Service, in the same manner as the Monies required for the Service of the Militia when disembodied have hitherto been applied for, received, disbursed and accounted for.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Matters and Things whosoever in the said several Acts of the last Session of Parliament shall extend and be construed to extend to all Sums to be issued or received by and to all Payments made by each Agent General, on account of the Regular Militia when embodied or called out on actual Service.

CAP. CLXXI.

An Act to continue, for One Year, certain Acts for the better Prevention and Punishment of Attempts to induce Persons Serving in His Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land from their Duty and Allegiance to His Majesty, or to incite them to Mutiny or Disobedience. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS the several Acts heretofore mentioned have by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Two Acts made in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the One in the Parliament of Great Britain, and the other in the Parliament of Ireland, for the better Prevention and Punishment of Attempts to induce Persons Serving in His Majesty's Forces by Sea or Land from their Duty and Allegiance to His Majesty, or to incite them to Mutiny or Disobedience, which Acts were to continue in force for the Term in the said recited Acts respectively mentioned; and which said recited Acts, by several Acts made in the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland, have been further continued, and are now in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be and the said Acts are hereby further continued, on and from the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, for the Space of One Year and no longer.

CAP. CLXXII.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS the Acts now in force for the Abolition of the Slave Trade have not sufficiently provided for the Support and Maintenance of Slaves during the time when they may be waiting Adjudication as Prisoners of War, or as forfeited or liable to Forfeiture to His Majesty, or otherwise proceeded against under and by virtue of any Law: And Whereas it is expedient that further Provisions be made, in order to secure the necessary Support and Maintenance for such Slaves during the time they may be so waiting Adjudication: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when any Native or Natives of Africa, held and treated as Slaves, or other Persons or Persons held or treated as Slaves, within the Provisions of any Act of Parliament passed for the Abolition of the Slave Trade, shall be captured or seized as Prisoners of War, or as forfeited or liable to Forfeiture to His Majesty, or otherwise proceeded against in and by virtue of any Law, and brought to Adjudication in the High Court of Admiralty, or in any Court of Vice Admiralty, or in any Court in His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, or elsewhere within His Majesty's Dominions, which is or may be authorized to hold Jurisdiction in such cases, it shall be lawful for the Persons or Persons claiming any Right or Property in, or the Possession of such Slaves, and he is hereby required to put such Slaves on Shore; and it shall be lawful for the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs in each Port or Place to which such Slaves shall be brought to Adjudication, and he is hereby required, to direct Enquiry to be made, whether the Persons or Persons claiming any Right or Property in or the Possession of such Slaves, shall have furnished, or shall be willing and able to furnish, sufficient Food and Necessaries for the Support and wholesome Maintenance of the said Slaves during the Proceedings which may have been or may be instituted respecting such Slaves; and such Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs shall, as soon as may be, report to the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or other Person exercising the Authority of Governor in such Colony or Plantation or Place, the result of such Enquiry; and if it shall appear to the said Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or other Person exercising the Authority of Governor, that sufficient Food and Necessaries for the wholesome Maintenance of such Slaves during the Proceedings so instituted, or to be instituted as aforesaid, have not been furnished; and if the Persons or Persons claiming any Right or Property in or to such Slaves shall refuse or afterwards neglect or omit to supply proper Food and Necessaries for the Support and wholesome Maintenance of the said Slaves during such Proceedings, the said Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or other Person exercising the Authority of Governor, in such Colony or Plantation or Place, being satisfied of the Truth of the Report so made to him, shall authorize the said Collector or Chief Officer of the Customs to take on himself the immediate Care and Custody of such Slaves, and to provide proper Food and Necessaries for such Slaves during the Proceedings so instituted or to be instituted in any such Court as aforesaid, until the said Court shall have made its Decree, hereafter the Force and Effect of a definitive Sentence, condemning or releasing the said Slaves; and in case the said Court shall by such Decree absolutely release or condemn such Slaves, the said Court shall, on Application made to him by the said Collector or Chief Officer of the Customs for providing or having provided for the Support and Maintenance of such Slaves as aforesaid, direct the Accountants for the Provisions and Necessaries to be supplied for the said Slaves, as he brought into the Registry of the Court and examined, and direct the same, when confirmed, to be a Charge on the said Slaves, to be defrayed by the Persons retaining Possession thereof under the Decree of such Court.

§ 4.

11. Provided nevertheless, That in case the Court shall not immediately release or condemn the said Slaves, by Decree having the Force and Effect of a definitive Sentence, he shall direct further Proof to be made in the Cause, whereby the Release or Condemnation shall be deferred, and the Persons claiming any Right or Property in or the Possession of the said Slaves, shall not have happened, or at any time pending Proceedings in that Court shall refuse or neglect to supply proper Food and Necessaries for the said Slaves, it shall be lawful for the Court to direct a Valuation to be made of such Slaves, and to remove such Slaves, after such Valuation had and approved by the Court, to be delivered over to such Officer or Person as may be appointed by His Majesty to receive Slaves condemned to His Majesty's Use, according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Abolition of the Slave Trade; and the same shall be dealt with and treated in all respects according to the Provisions of the said Act; save and except that the Bounty shall not be due or payable for such Slaves but in the Event of final Condemnation according to the Provisions of the said Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That if on further Proof the Slaves shall be decreed to be released, and there be no Appeal, and the said Slaves shall have been delivered over as above directed, Restitution shall be made in the Value of the said Slaves, according to the Valuation as above directed, together with Interest thereon, such Sum being deducted therefrom as may have been expended for the Support and Maintenance of the said Slaves by the Collector or Chief Officer of the Customs, as before directed, and shall remain unpaid; and the Value so adjusted shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy, in the same manner as Bounties are now paid for Slaves condemned to His Majesty's Use under the aforesaid Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, on the Production of the official Copy of the Sentence of Restitution, with the Valuation endorsed thereon by the Registrar of the said Court or his Deputy.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which there shall have been a Decree, having the Force and Effect of a Definitive Sentence, restoring or condemning the said Slaves, and the same shall be suspended by Appeal, it shall be lawful for the Court, notwithstanding such Appeal, and it is hereby required, to proceed forthwith to direct the Slaves so detained, to be valued as above directed; and after such Valuation had and approved by the Court, to be delivered over to such Officer or Person as may be appointed to receive Slaves condemned to His Majesty's Use, according to the Provisions of the aforesaid Act, passed in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, as if the same had been finally condemned to His Majesty; and such Slaves shall be treated and dealt with, in all respects, in the same manner as if they had been finally condemned to His Majesty; save and except that the Bounties shall not be due or payable thereon but in the Event of final Condemnation to His Majesty, according to the Provisions of the said Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which such Slaves shall be finally restored in the Court of Appeal, Restitution in Value shall be made, for the Use of the Claimant or Proprietor thereof, according to the Valuation made as above directed, subject always to Revision in the Court of Appeal, together with Interest thereon, such Sum being deducted therefrom as may have been expended for the Support and Maintenance of the said Slaves by the Collector or Chief Officer of the Customs, as above directed; and the Value so adjusted shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy, in the same manner as Bounties are directed to be paid for Slaves condemned to His Majesty under the aforesaid Act, passed in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, on the Production of an official Copy of the final Sentence of Restitution, with the Valuation of the said Slaves endorsed thereon by the Registrar of the said Court or his Deputy.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the said Courts, or any of them, having Jurisdiction in the principal Cause, from adjudging and determining the Captions, Seizures or Prosecutions in any such Cause as aforesaid, to pay out of their own proper Monies, in addition to the Restitution in Value directed to be made as aforesaid, such further Sums in the nature of Costs or Damages, as the said Court shall decree, where it shall appear to such Court that the Captains, Seizors or Prosecutors, or the Appell thereon as the behalf of the Captain, Seizor or Prosecutor, shall not be justified by the circumstances of the case.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Provisions of the said Act, passed in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, for the Disposal of Slaves condemned to His Majesty's Use, and for the Payment of Bounties thereon, in cases of Capture by Ships of War or Privateers, shall be applied to all cases of Slaves captured or seized and condemned as Prize of War, during the late War, or that may hereafter be captured, seized or condemned as aforesaid, or otherwise forfeited, or liable to Forfeiture to His Majesty, or subject to confiscation, by any Law whatsoever.

C A P. CLXXXII.

An Act for the better Prosecution of the Trade of the United Kingdom during the present Hostilities with France.

WHEREAS it will add to the Security of Trade to prevent Ships sailing without Coaveys, except in certain cases; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Ship or Vessel belonging in any of His Majesty's Subjects (except as hereinafter provided) to sail or depart from any Port or Place whatever, unless under the Escort and Protection of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels as shall or may be appointed for that Purpose.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel which shall sail or depart under the Protection of Coaveys, shall and is hereby required to affix its utmost address to continue with such Coaveys during the whole of the Voyage, or during such Part thereof, as such Coaveys shall be directed to accompany and protect such Ship or Vessel, and shall not wilfully separate separate or depart therefrom upon any Pretence whatever, without Order or Leave for that Purpose from the Officer having the Command of such Convoy.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel which by this Act is required not to sail or depart without Convoy, shall, contrary to the Directions contained in this Act, fail or depart from any Port or Place whatever (except as hereinafter is provided) without such Convoy as shall be appointed for that Purpose, or shall afterwards desert or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy, without Leave obtained from the Captain or other Officer in His Majesty's Navy entrusted with the Charge of such Convoy, before such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at the Port or Place of her Destination, or is so far on her Voyage as such Convoy shall be directed to accompany and protect such Ship or Vessel, every such Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One thousand Pounds; and in case the Whole or any Part of the Cargo of any such Ship or Vessel shall consist of Naval or Military Stores, every Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel so loaded with Naval or Military Stores, who shall fail or depart without such Convoy as aforesaid, or shall afterwards desert or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy without Leave obtained as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Court out of which the Record for the Trial of any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any such Penalty shall issue, to mitigate or lessen the same as the said Court in their Discretion shall think fit, having regard to the circumstances of the case and the Value of the Ship and Cargo, so as by such Mitigation the Penalty be made not less than Fifty Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Ship or Vessel shall fail or depart without Convoy, or shall afterwards desert or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy contrary to the Provisions of this Act, every Policy of Insurance, or Contract or Agreement for any Insurance upon such Ship or Vessel, or upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, laden or to be laden on board thereof, or upon any Property, Freight or other Interest arising out of the same, wherein Insurances may lawfully be made, and which shall be the Property of the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel so failing without Convoy, or wilfully quitting the same, or of any Person interested in such Ship or Vessel or Cargo, who shall have effected or have been any way privy to or instrumental in causing such Ship or Vessel to fail without Convoy or wilfully separating therefrom, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes, both at Law and in Equity, any Contract or Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; and that nothing shall be recovered thereon by the Assured for Loss or Damage, or for the Premium or Consideration in the nature of a Pension which shall have been given for such Insurance; and if any Party to such Insurance, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, any Broker, Agent or other Person, shall knowingly make or effect, or procure to be made or effected, or shall negotiate or transfer any Settlement upon such Insurance, or pay or allow in Account, or agree to pay or allow in Account, or otherwise, any Sum or Sums of Money upon any Loss, Peril or Contingency, relating to any such Insurance, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain or Ireland to permit or suffer any Ship or Vessel, which is by this Act required not to fail or depart without Convoy, to be cleared Outwards from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom to Foreign Parts, until the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall have given Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with One sufficient Surety, in the Penalty of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, which Bond shall be taken by the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs at such Port or Place, who is lawfully authorized and required to take such Security with Condition that such Ship or Vessel shall not fail or depart without Convoy, contrary to the Directions contained in this Act, and shall not afterwards desert or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy without Leave obtained from the Captain or other Officer in His Majesty's Navy, entrusted with the Charge of such Convoy, before such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at her Port or Place of Destination, or is so far on her Voyage as such Convoy shall be appointed to accompany and protect such Ship or Vessel.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained by which Ships or Vessels are required not to fail or depart without Convoy, shall extend or be construed to extend to any Ship or Vessel which is not required to be registered by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force or so immediately before the passing of this Act, or to any Ship or Vessel for which a License shall be granted to fail or depart without Convoy either by the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, or any Three or more of them; or to any such Person or Persons as shall be duly authorized by him or them or any Three or more of them for that Purpose, or to any Ship or Vessel proceeding with due Diligence to join Convoy from the Port or Place at which the same shall be cleared Outwards, in case such Convoy shall be appointed to sail from some other Port or Place, except nevertheless as to the Bond hereby required to be taken upon the Clearance Outwards of such Ship or Vessel, or to any Ship or Vessel bound from any Port or Place within the United Kingdom to any other Port or Place within the same.

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity or Reward shall be demanded or received for any License granted in pursuance or under the Authority of this Act.

VIII. And Whereas it would not be expedient or possible to appoint separate Comvoys to sail from each of several contiguous Foreign Ports: Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom for the time being, or any Three or more of them, whenever

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, with respect to Ships or Vessels sailing or departing without Convey, or afterwards departing or wilfully separating from such Convey, shall extend or be construed to extend to any Ship or Vessel which shall sail or depart from the Islands of Greensey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Rhé, or either of them, for or on account of such sailing or Departure on or before the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or from any other Port or Place in Europe, on or before the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or from any other Port or Place in the West Indies, or any other Part of America, on or before the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or from any Port or Place in Africa or Asia, on or before the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

Penalty for not doing so
1 year

XIII. And be it further enacted, That One Month of all Pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed, as far as the same relate to Ships or Vessels sailing without Convey, or wilfully separating or departing from such Convey, or not proceeding to join and take the Benefit of Convey as hereinbefore mentioned, or to Indemnities, shall, if paid for within the Space of One Year from the time of any such Penalty or Forfeiture being incurred, be to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Money thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or farther prosecute the same aforesaid, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be paid for by His Majesty's Attorney General in England or Ireland, or his Agent in Scotland, in which case the whole thereof shall belong to His Majesty: and which Penalty or Forfeiture shall and may be paid for as any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in England, or His Majesty's Court of Exchange at Edinburgh, or in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, whether the Office shall have been constituted in any Part of the United Kingdom, or at Sea, or in Parts beyond the Seas, provided the Person securing such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be within the Jurisdiction of the Court in which such Action shall be brought at the time of the Commencement thereof, or of Service of Process upon him, and in which Action no Effray, Privilege, Waiver of Law, or more than Due Impudence, shall be allowed; and in Default of Prosecution within the time herebefore limited, no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the name of His Majesty's Attorney General in England or Ireland, or Advocate in Scotland, by Information in the respective Courts aforesaid, in which case the whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred as aforesaid, belonging to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs in England, Ireland and Scotland respectively, for the time being, and shall go to and be deemed and taken as Part of the Consolidated Funds of Great Britain and Ireland respectively.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any such Prosecution shall be commenced by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Penalty or Forfeiture as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General in England and Ireland, or Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to their Satisfaction respectively that such Penalty or Forfeiture was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, to stop all further Proceedings on every such Prosecution of such Penalty or Forfeiture to which any such Person may claim to be entitled, upon such Terms as shall seem to the Court and otherwise as any such Attorney General or Advocate shall think reasonable.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Senior Officer of every Convoy to be appointed for the Protection of Trade shall cause to be endorsed on a Copy of the Instructions and Orders to the respective Masters or other Persons having the Charge or Command of the different Ships and Vessels sailing under his Protection, the Days of the Month and Year when Copies of such Instructions and Orders were delivered on Board such respective Ships and Vessels, and the Names of the Persons respectively to whom the same were so delivered, and the Names of the Persons delivering the same.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That none of the Provisions of this Act shall be in force until His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall order the same to be carried into Execution.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be acquitted or discontinued, his, her or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Triple Costs and have the like remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in any other case to recover Costs by Law.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Ship or Vessel employed in the Newfoundland Fishery, being wholly laden with Fish or other Produce of the said Fishery, or with Articles of the Growth or Produce of the said Island of Newfoundland, or Coast of Labrador, to sail or depart from any Port or Place within the said Island or on the said Coast (except as hereinafter is provided) without being accompanied with or being under the Protection of Convoy, or without a License having been obtained, authorizing such Ship or Vessel so to sail or depart.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to permit or allow any Ship or Vessel to sail or depart from the Port of Saint John's in the said Island of Newfoundland, without being under the Protection of Convoy, or without a License being first obtained for that Purpose, during the time any Admiral or other Person duly authorized by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or by the Commanders-in-Chief for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, to grant Licenses for permitting Ships or Vessels to sail or depart without being under the Protection of Convoy, shall be stationed or resident at the said Port of Saint John's.

XX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force during the present Session with France.

C. A. P. CLEXXIV.

An Act to extend the Exemption granted by Law on Coals and Cakes for which the Coast Duties have been duly paid, on being again exported and carried to any other Place in this Kingdom, to Cinders or Colored Coals burnt from Pea Coal, which has paid the Coast Duties. [18th July 1815.]

WHEREAS Coals or Cakes for which the Coast Duties have been duly paid or ferried at the Importation or Landing thereof are by the Laws in force exempted from the Payment of any further Duty upon being again exported and carried to any other Place in this Kingdom; and it is expedient to extend this Exemption to Cinders, or Colored Coals burnt from Pea Coal, which has paid the Coast Duties; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of

An Act for the further Prevention of Frauds in the Manufacture of Sweets. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the Laws in force for the Prevention thereof, Makers of Sweets see Sale when they have Occasion to send or deliver Sweets to their Customers, do from time to time draw and take the same from their Stocks of Sweets containing greater Quantities than the Quantities for sent or delivered, and having so done, do immediately make Quantities of new Sweets equal and answerable to such Quantities so sent or delivered, and do then put in or mix such new Sweets to and with the remaining Part and Parts of such their Sweets in the Store, all which being frequently done and performed without the least Priority or Knowledge of the Officers of Excise, who should make Charges of the Duties for and in respect of such new Sweets so made as aforesaid, they the said Officers of Excise for the Want of Discovery and due Notice thereof, neither do or can make such Charges, whereby His Majesty is very much defrauded of and in his Duties upon such Sweets; For the Prevention whereof, he it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, all and every Maker and Makers of Sweets or Made Wines for sale shall before he, she or they shall begin to draw off any Sweets or Made Wine from any Store, or from any Vessel or Urnstill in which the same shall have been made or manufactured, give to the Officer of Excise, under whose Survey such Maker or Makers shall then be, Six Hours' Notice in Writing within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, and Twelve Hours' Notice in Writing in other Places in Great Britain, of his, her or their Intention to so draw off any Sweets or Made Wine; and of the time when and the particular Store, Vessel or Urnstill from or out of which such Sweets or Made Wine shall be intended to be drawn off, and the Quantity thereof; and such Officer shall, if he shall deem it expedient so to do, attend to for such Sweets or Made Wine so drawn off; and if such Officer shall attend for that Purpose, all such Sweets or Made Wine shall at the time specified in such Notice be, with all due Diligence and Dispatch, drawn off in the Presence of such Officer; and if any such Maker or Makers shall draw off any Sweets or Made Wine without giving such Notice as is so then behalf hereinbefore directed to be given, or shall neglect or refuse to draw off with all due Diligence and Dispatch, such Sweets or Made Wine on such Officer's Attendance, such Maker or Makers so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds, together with all such Sweets or Made Wine drawn off without such Notice having been given as aforesaid.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to subject any Maker or Makers of Sweets or Made Wines for Sale to the said last mentioned Penalty or Forfeiture, for or by reason of his, her or their not specifying in his, her or their Notice of his, her or their Intention to draw off any Sweets or Made Wines the Quantity thereof, in case the whole of the Sweets or Made Wines at that time contained in the Store, Vessel or Urnstill mentioned in such Notice, shall either by or virtue of such Notice, be intended to be drawn off; and such Maker or Makers shall have specified in such Notice that the whole of such Sweets or Made Wines are to be intended to be drawn off; and if the whole thereof shall be actually drawn off with all due Diligence and Dispatch, and the putting out of the Remains of such Sweets or Made Wines from the Vessel within the Space of Twenty two Hours at the farthest from the time of the Commencement of such drawing off; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Maker or Makers of any Kind of Sweets or Made Wines, other than Mead, for Sale, shall sell or send out any Liquor made by Infusion, Fermentation or otherwise, from Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients or Materials whatsoever, commonly called Sweets, or called or distinguished by the Name of Made Wines, in any less Quantity than in a whole Cask containing Twelve Gallons, on Pain of forfeiting for each and every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, all and every Person and Persons whatsoever who shall have in his, her or their Cellar or Possession any Liquor made by Infusion, Fermentation or otherwise, from Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients or Materials whatsoever commonly called Sweets, or called or distinguished by the Name of Made Wines, exceeding the Quantity of One hundred Gallons, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Sweets or Made Wines, other than Mead, for Sale, and shall be subject to the Survey of His Majesty's Officers of Excise.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall be paid for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such ways, means or methods as any Pains, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Inform.

C A P. CLXXVIII.

An Act to revive and continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, an Act of the Twenty eighth Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Encouragement of the Manufacture of Flax and Cotton in Great Britain. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS the Law heretofore mentioned has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be revived and further continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the Manufacture of Flax and Cotton in Great Britain, which was to continue in force for Two Years from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which said Act was by several subsequent Acts revived and further continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be and the same is hereby revived and further continued from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, except in much of either of the said Acts as relates to allowing a Drawback of the Duties of Customs on the Importation of Brimstone used and consumed in making Oil of Vitriol.

C A P. CLXXIX.

An Act to revive, amend and continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, so much of an Act of the Forty first Year of His present Majesty as allows the Use of Salt, Duty-free, for curing Fish in Bulk or in Barrels; and to repeal certain Laws relating to the Allowance of Salt, Duty-free, for the North Sea and Scotch Fisheries. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS the Law heretofore mentioned has, by Experience, been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be revived and continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act made in the Forty first (a) Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, among other things, for allowing until the Fifteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, the Use of Salt, Duty-free, in the preserving of Fish in Bulk or in Barrels; and for discountenancing the Bounty payable on White Herrings exported, as relates to allowing the Use of Salt, Duty-free, in the preserving of Fish in Bulk or in Barrels, as was continued by Four Acts of the Forty second, Forty third, Forty fourth and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen (since where the same is altered by this Act), shall be and the same is hereby revived and further continued, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

(a) [The Act 41 G. 3. is referred to the End of this Act.]

II. And Whereas it is expedient that the proportional Credit or Allowance by the said Act preferred should be altered, so far as the same relates to Cod, Ling or Hake, cured and preserved under the Authority of the said Act by dry-salting in Bulk; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there may be given for or in respect of Cod, Ling or Hake, cured and preserved by dry-salting in Bulk, and produced to the proper Officer of Excise in a good, wholesome and merchantable state, a Credit or Allowance not exceeding Fifty Pounds of Salt for every one hundred Weight of such Cod, Ling or Hake, in cured, preserved and produced as aforesaid: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing heretofore contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to authorize the making or giving any Credit or Allowance for Salt used in the salting, curing or preserving any such Cod, Ling or Hake, beyond the Quantity of Salt actually and lawfully employed and spent in the curing and preserving thereof by dry-salting in Bulk; any thing herein before contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And, to the Intent that no Bounty may be given, granted, allowed or paid for or in respect of any such Cod, Ling or Hake, so cured or preserved by dry-salting in Bulk, be it further enacted, That the Master of every Vessel in or on board of which any such Cod, Ling or Hake, so cured or preserved by dry-salting in Bulk, shall be imported or brought into any Port in Great Britain, in which the same are intended to be shipped, landed or put on Shore, or the Owner or Proprietor of such Cod, Ling or Hake shall, on the shipping or landing thereof, and before the same shall be removed from the Ship, set off in the Presence and to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer of Excise, Part of the Tonnage of all such Cod, Ling or Hake; and in case any such Cod, Ling or Hake shall be removed from the Shore before the Part of the Tonnage thereof shall be set off in manner aforesaid, the same shall be forfeited, and the Master of the said Vessel, or the Owner or Proprietor of such Cod, Ling or Hake so removed, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

IV. And Whereas it is expedient that an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intitled An Act for allowing a Drawback upon the Exportation of Salt as is made use of for the curing of Fish taken at North Sea, or at Scotland; and also that so much and such Parts of an Act made in the ' Twenty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, both cited de Atq for the further Encouragement of the British Fisheries, as heretofore intimated, should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, and also in each and each Part of the said Act made in the said Twenty fifth Year of His said present Majesty's Reign, as relates to the Taking from any Salt Works or Salt Pits Brine's Salt for the salting or curing of Fish without paying any Duty for the same, and the Provisions of the said Act for the Prevention of Frauds relating to such Salt, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

' WHEREAS in order to procure a large Supply of good and wholesome Fish, it is expedient to allow Salt to be sold Duty-free, for a limited time, for the Purpose of curing or preserving Herrings, Pilchards, Mackerels, and all other Kinds or Species of wholesome Fish, either in Salt, or in Brine: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, whosoever the Continuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall catch or take, or purchase and cure or preserve any Herrings, Pilchards, Mackerels, or any other Kind or Species of wholesome Fish, or who shall fit out any Vessel for such Purpose, or to take and ship on board his or their Vessel, from his or their own Dock or Salt, or from the Dock or Salt of any other Fish Curer, or whom such Person or Persons shall purchase, or with whom he or they shall contract for Salt, any Quantity of Salt, Duty-free, that shall be deemed necessary for curing or preserving the Fish which may be exported to be taken or purchased in the Trip or Passage in or upon which he or they shall immediately intend to dispatch or convey his or their Vessel: Provided always, that any Person or Persons shall be allowed to ship or have on board any Vessel, at any time, any greater or larger Quantity of Salt, than in the Proportion of Ten Bushels for every Tonnage Burthen, by a Measurement of the Vessel in or on board of which such Salt shall be taken or shipped: Provided also, that before any Person or Persons whatsoever shall receive into his or their Custody or Possession, or take on board any Vessel or Vessels, any Quantity of Salt, free of Duty, for the Purpose of salting, curing or preserving Fish, such Person or Persons shall make Entry in Writing at the next Office of Excise, of his or their Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode, and of the Number and Location of every Warehouse, in which he or they shall intend to make use of for the keeping or curing of Salt, and shall also give Bond or Surety (as it is expressed by the Commissioners of Excise, in the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, that he or they will duly account (a) with His proper Officer or Officers of Excise, according to the Direction of this Act, for all the Salt which he or they shall at any time take, ship, receive or have on board his or their Vessel or Vessels, for the Purpose of salting, curing or preserving Fish, and that such Salt, and every Part thereof, shall be fairly and bona fide employed, kept and consumed, in salting, curing or preserving Fish as aforesaid, so shall be returned into the Warehouse intended for the keeping or curing of Salt, Duty-free, from whence the same was taken: and that no Part of such Salt, so taken, shipped, received or had on board any such Vessel or Vessels as aforesaid, shall be fraudulently sold or disposed of, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act. (a) [See 51 G. 3. c. 22. 17.]

II. And he is further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons intending to ship any such Salt for the Purpose aforesaid, shall give to the proper Officer of Excise of the Port or Place from whence such Salt shall be taken and shipped, a Notice in Writing specifying his or their Name or Names, the Name of the Vessel on board which the Salt is intended to be shipped, the Name of the Master thereof, the Burthen or Tonnage of such Vessel, the Place to which such Vessel is bound, the particular Sort or Species of Fish intended to be taken or purchased and cured, and the exact and true Quantity and Species of Salt intended to be shipped or put on board such Vessel.

III. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any lawfully entered Fish Curer or Fish Curers, in delivery any Part of his Stock of Salt, Duty-free, into the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons who shall have made Entry and given Bond or Surety, as purchaser of and according to the Direction of this Act, for taking, or purchasing and curing or preserving Fish: Provided always, that such Salt shall be delivered under, subject and according to the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions provided and prescribed by an Act passed in the Thirtieth eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for transferring the Management of the Salt Duties to the Commissioners of Excise, and for other Purposes.

IV. And he is further enacted, That when and so far as any Salt shall have been shipped or taken on board any Vessel for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the proper Officer of Excise in whom the Notice of shipping such Salt shall have been delivered as aforesaid, and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to give and grant to the Owner, Proprietor or Master of such Vessel, a Certificate specifying the Name of the Vessel and of the Master thereof, the Tonnage or Burthen of such Vessel, the Quantity and Species of Salt taken, and so received on board such Vessel, and the Name or Names of the Person or Persons from whose Dock or Salt the same was taken and shipped, the Place from whence taken and shipped, the time when shipped, and the Place to which the Vessel on board which the same Salt is so shipped is bound.

V. And he is further enacted, That if any Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Master of any Vessel on board which any Salt shall be so taken or shipped as aforesaid, shall employ or employ, or single or procure to be employed or employ, or wilfully or knowingly permit or suffer to be employed or employ, any Part of any Cargo of salted or cured Fish, except as from a lawful Quay within the Kingdom of Great Britain, his or their Vessel, shall forfeit for every such Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VI. And it is further enacted, That within Twenty four Hours after any such Vessel on board of which any such Fish shall have been taken or shipped as aforesaid, shall arrive at the Port of which the Cargo of such Fish is to be landed or delivered, the Master of such Vessel shall make Entry in Writing with the proper Officer of the Customs of such Port, specifying the Quantity and Kind or Species of salted or cured Fish of which the Cargo of such Vessel shall consist; that as to the Quantity, according to the exact and true Number of Casks or Thirty four Gallons each, English Wine Measure, of fresh Herrings, which were taken or received on board the Vessel; of Pickled or Pickled, the exact and true Number of Barrels, consisting of Fifty Gallons each of the like Measure, which were taken or received on board the Vessel; and of any other Kind or Species of Fish, the exact and true Number of Barrels of Two hundred Pounds Weight each, or the exact and true Weight of such Fish; and also the exact and true Quantity of Salt actually employed and spent in curing and preserving such Fish respectively, and likewise the true Quantity of Salt which shall be then remaining, in or on board the Vessel, as aforesaid; and thereupon the proper Officer of the Customs shall go on board and inspect and examine all such Fish and Salt, and shall cause Permits, in Writing under his Hand, for unloading and landing all such Fish, which, if required by such Officer, shall be sealed (and if in Bulk, weighed) by such Officer, in the Presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, or shall refuse to unseal the sealed Fish of which his Cargo shall consist, and to unseal or weigh such Part thereof as shall be imported in Bulk, in the Presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, he shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VII. And it is further enacted, That the Certificate which shall have been received by any such Master for or in respect of any such Salt as aforesaid, shall be produced to the proper Officer of the Customs by whom the Cargo of the Vessel on board of which the Salt, for or in respect of which such Certificate as aforesaid shall have been granted, shall be imported, examined and taken account of; and if such Officer shall be satisfied that the Salt specified in such Entry to have been sold, shall have been fairly and bona fide sold and consumed in preserving or curing the salted Fish of which the Cargo shall consist, according to the Direction of this Act, then and in such case such Officer shall indorse on such Certificate the true Quantity of Fish cured or preserved and landed out of such Vessel, and the exact Quantity of Salt remaining on board; which Certificate, being produced to and left with the proper Officer of the Customs of the Port or Place at which or from whence the Salt to which such Certificate may have been received shall have been shipped or taken on board such Vessel, such last mentioned Officer shall give Credit for or write off from the Account of the Person or Persons who shall have charged in the Books or Accounts of the Customs with such Salt, in such Salt as shall appear by the Indorsement of the proper Officer of the Customs on such Certificate to have been actually sold, spent and consumed, in curing and preserving Fish, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall permit and allow all the Salt remaining unpaid in or on board such Vessel, as is returned upon the Warrant from whence the same was taken, and shall write off or give Credit for the Quantity of Salt actually so returned, or shall permit the same to be taken out, by and at the Option of the Master or Owner of the Vessel, for curing or preserving Fish on his next subsequent Trip or Passage, either with or without any additional Quantity of Salt (and according to the whole the Proportion heretofore mentioned), as he or they shall deem necessary; and every such Officer of the Customs shall, upon such subsequent Trip or Passage, and upon such Notice as he heretofore required, give to the Master of such Vessel, such and the like Certificate as it is by this Act before directed.

VIII. Provided always, and it is further enacted, That immediately upon the Delivery in the proper Office of the Customs of any such Entry as is heretofore directed, the Master of the Vessel making or giving the same shall make Oath before the proper Officer of the Customs (which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer) in the Truth of such Entry, and every Part thereof, and that he has not taken or received on board his Vessel, or included in his Entry, any Fish whatever, live and except such Fish only as hath been fairly and bona fide sold, cured and preserved, on board the Vessel of which he is the Master, nor any Fish which he has any reason to know or believe have been imported on board any other Vessel whatever; that he has not directly or indirectly sold, consumed or fraudulently disposed of, or consumed, or consumed away, or suffered any other Person or Persons to sell, consume, dispose of, or consume or consume away, any Part of the Salt taken, shipped or taken on board his Vessel, for salting, curing or preserving Fish.

IX. And it is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs, at all times, to go and examine on board any such Vessel as aforesaid, and to inspect, examine and take Account of all Salt, and salted Fish, and other Articles or Commodities whatsoever, in or on board such Vessel.

X. And it is further enacted, That if the Quantity of salted or cured Fish actually unloaded or delivered from on board any such Vessel as aforesaid in the Presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, shall fall short of the Quantity specified in such Entry as aforesaid, in the Proportion of One Part in Five of the whole Quantity specified in such Entry, then and in such case such Entry shall be deemed and taken to be a false and untrue Entry, and the Master making the same shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XI. And it is further enacted, That no Credit or Allowance for Salt used in the salting, curing or preserving Fish, under the Direction or Authority of this Act, shall, at any time or in any case, be made or given beyond the Quantity of Salt actually and bona fide employed and spent in the salting, curing and preserving the Fish, for which such Credit or Allowance shall be claimed; nor shall any such Credit or Allowance exceed the following Proportions; that is to say, for every Cask consisting of Thirty four Gallons, English Wine Measure, of Herrings, actually salted, cured, preserved and produced to the proper Officer of the Customs in a good, whole and unbroken State, twenty five Pounds Weight of Salt; for every Barrel of Fifty Gallons, of the like Measure, of Pickled or Pickled, so salted, cured, preserved and produced as aforesaid, twenty five Pounds Weight of Salt; for every One hundred Weight of all other Fish, so salted, cured, preserved and produced as aforesaid, twenty five Pounds Weight of Salt; any thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XII. And

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Credit or Allowance for Salt shall be made, given or granted, for or in respect of any Fish for which the Credit or Allowance of Salt, by this Act given or granted, shall be claimed, for or allowed.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Bounty shall be given, granted, allowed or paid for or in respect of any Fish whatever, salted, cured or preserved, under the Authority, Directions or Privileges of this Act, other than and except such Herrings as shall be cured and legally packed as Red Herrings.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every Vessel in or on board of which any salted Fish taken and cured under the Authority and Direction of this Act, shall be imported or brought into the Port of London, shall make the Entry and Oath heretofore directed, with and before the proper Officer of Customs at Gravesend, and shall then and there take out and send into the proper Bays or Lighters, all his Cargo of salted Fish, in the Presence of the proper Officer of Customs, in the manner, according to the Directions, and subject to the Penalty in case of Neglect, Refusal or false Entry, which is heretofore directed, in respect of Vessels arriving with and unloading salted Fish at any lawful Quay in Great Britain.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatever shall clandestinely or fraudulently conceal, concealment, sell, dispose of, or carry or convey away, any Salt that shall be taken or shipped on board any Vessel for the salting, curing or preserving of Fish, under the Powers and Authorities by this Act given or granted, every such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and all Salt so concealed, concealment, sold, disposed of, or carried or conveyed away, together with the Packages containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs at Customs.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to take, purchase and sell and preserve Herrings in Salt, either for the Purpose of curing the same as Red Herrings, or for immediate Exportation to Ireland; and such Person shall be allowed such and the like Quantity of Salt for every Cask (consisting of thirty four Gallons of such Herrings) as is allowed for curing and preserving Herrings in Salt for Home Consumption; provided the Master of such Vessel shall comply with and conform to the several Rules, Regulations and Restrictions by this Act directed; and provided also, that the Master of every Vessel intending to export Herrings in Salt to Ireland, shall make a like Entry and Oath, with the Officer of Customs, at the Port through which the Herrings on board his Vessel, shall have been taken, or is required by this Act to be made for or in respect of Vessels arriving with salted Fish to be landed at any Port in Great Britain, and shall permit and allow the proper Officer of Customs, in respect, examine and take Account of all such Herrings accordingly.

"Customs Officers may take Account of Pickleds cured and packed in Casks of salted Fish Casks, and at Expiration of a Month give in a Declaration of Number of Barrels.—Before such Account taken, Owner, upon long request, shall deliver Declaration of Number of Barrels of Pickleds in his Custody, and whether any Declaration has been made out, or Bounty allowed, Penalty. 117. On Production of Declaration to Collector of Customs, he shall pay such Bounty as on Pickleds exported. 118. Officer shall brand Barrels of which an Account shall have been taken. 119. Altering, &c. Marks on Barrels. 120. Penalty. 120. Before any Bounty paid on Pickleds, Owner to make Oath that no Bounty has been paid, and that they are unbranded Fish. 121. Salt Pickleds may be sold for Home Consumption, or for Exportation, but only in original Barrels, which sold by Retail, in less Quantity than a Barrel. 122. No other Bounty than that given by Act paid for such Pickleds exported. 123. [Sections 17—23. are omitted.]

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Bond or Security given or taken for Salt to be used or employed in curing or preserving Fish, nor any Certificate made out in relation to any such Salt, shall be subject to any Stamp Duty; any thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity or Reward, shall be taken or received by any Officer or Officers of the Revenue for or on Pretence of preparing or making out any Bonds, Certificates or Privileges required by this Act, or for or under any other Account or Pretence whatever, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Five Pounds.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, forge or alter, or cause to be counterfeited, forged or altered, any Certificate in any case in which a Certificate is by this Act required to be given, given or granted, or shall forge, counterfeit or alter, or cause to be forged, counterfeited or altered, any Instrument or any such Certificate, every such Person so offending shall suffer Three hundred Pounds.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall be convicted of wilfully taking a false Oath in any of the cases in which an Oath is required to be taken by this Act, shall be liable to the same and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatever shall resist, oppose, molest, hinder or obstruct, any Officer or Officers of the Customs at Customs, in the due Execution of this Act, every such Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners or Consignors of any such Cargo of Fish, salted or cured under the Privileges of this Act, or the Master of any such Vessel laden with any such Fish as aforesaid, under this Act, to discharge and unload, and cause to be discharged and unloaded, all such Fish as aforesaid, by such Person, and in such Manner, and at such Times and Places (except as is provided by this Act with respect to the Officers of Customs), as such Owners, or Consignors, or Masters, respectively, shall judge proper; and no Person or Persons employed by any such Owner, Consignor or Master, in unloading any such Fish, or discharging any such Vessel, shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture, or subject to any Distinction in respect thereof; and no Port or other Fee or Duty shall be payable or paid in respect of the unloading of any such Fish or discharging of any such Vessel; any Act or Acts, Laws, Customs or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for repealing the Stamp Duties on Deeds, Law Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Fire Insurances, and on Legacies and Successions to Personal Estate upon Intestates, now payable in Great Britain; and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof. [11th July 1815.]

• Most Gracious Sovereign,

• WHEREAS it is expedient to grant certain additional Stamp Duties towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be equal to the increased annual Charge, occasioned by the Funding of Eachquer; and also, and by the same made pursuant to any Act or Acts passed or to be passed for that Purpose, in this Session of Parliament; and it is also expedient to consolidate the additional with the existing Duties; We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the several Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Duties granted by the Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for repealing the Stamp Duties on Deeds, Law Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Legacies and Successions to Personal Estate upon Intestates, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof; and also the Duties on Licences for using and exercising the Trade or Business of a Pawnbroker, granted by the Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, in Great Britain, and to grant new additional Duties in lieu thereof; and also the Duties granted by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, on Policies of Insurance of Property in the West Indies or elsewhere beyond the Seas, from Loss by Fire; shall cease and determine from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fiftyeth; and that the yearly Per Centage Duty on Insurances from Loss by Fire granted by the said Act, passed in the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall cease and determine from and after the Twenty eighth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fiftyeth; and except such of the said respective Duties, or so much and such Part or Parts thereof respectively, as shall have become due or payable before or upon these Days, and remain in arrear or unpaid afterwards; and also save and except so much and such Part or Parts as shall remain to be paid of any Duties in respect of Legacies given by way of Annuity, or so that the Value thereof cannot be ascertained at once where Part of such Duties shall have been paid, or have become payable before or upon the said Thirty first Day of August; all which Duties or Parts of Duties so to arrear or remaining to be paid as aforesaid, shall be recoverable by the same ways and means, and with such and the same Privileges, and in such and the same Manner, in all respects, as if this Act had not been made.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in and throughout the Whole of Great Britain, for and in respect of the several Instruments, Matters and Things, mentioned or described in the Schedule hereunto annexed (except those falling under the Head of Exemptions) or for or in respect of the Vellum, Parchment or Paper, upon which such Instruments, Matters and Things or any of them shall be written or printed, the several Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively, or otherwise specified, and set forth in the same Schedule; and that the yearly Per Centage Duty on Insurances from Loss by Fire therein mentioned, shall commence and take place from and after the Twenty eighth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fiftyeth; and that all the other Duties therein mentioned, shall commence and take place from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fiftyeth; and that the said Schedule, and all the Provisions, Regulations and Directions therein contained, with respect to the said Duties, and the Instruments, Matters and Things charged therewith, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, and shall be read and construed as if the same had been referred herein at this Place, and shall be applied, observed and put in Execution accordingly.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties hereby granted, shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners for the time being appointed and authorized by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to manage the Duties on Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper in Great Britain; which said Commissioners (who shall be called "The Commissioners of Stamps in Great Britain") and the major Part of them, are hereby empowered and required to provide proper and sufficient Stamps or Dies for expediting and denoting the several Duties hereby granted, or the Amount thereof in the case of Per Centage Duties (except those on Legacies and Successions to Personal Estate, and the yearly Duties on Fire Insurances) upon the Vellum, Parchment or Paper chargeable therewith, and for expediting and denoting the Rate per Cent. of the Legacy Duties upon the Receipts and Discharges to be paid for Legacies and Shares of Personal Estate, and for otherwise denoting or testifying the Payment of any Duty or Duties hereby granted, where necessary; and to order and receive such Stamps or Dies from time to time as Occasion shall require; and also to employ such Officers and Persons under them, and to do all such other Acts and Things as shall be deemed necessary or expedient for effectually raising and collecting the Duties hereby granted, and for putting this Act into Execution, in the like and in as full and ample manner as they or any former Commissioners are or have been authorised to do for the raising and collecting of any former Stamp Duties, or for putting into Execution any Act or Acts of Parliament relating therein.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to use any of the Stamps or Dies heretofore provided to denote any former Stamp Duties, for the Purpose of expelling and denoting any of the Duties hereby granted of the same Amount, and also to use Two or more Stamps or Dies for denoting the Amount of any One Duty hereby granted, as Occasion may require, until a single Stamp or Die shall be provided for that Purpose; and that all Instruments which shall be stamped with Two or more Stamps, for denoting the Amount of any single Duty charged or chargeable thereon, shall be as valid as if the same had been stamped with a single Stamp for denoting such Duty; but no Stamp appropriated to denote the Duty charged on any particular Instrument, and bearing the Name of such Instrument on the Face thereof, shall be used for denoting any other Duty of the same Amount, or if so used, the same shall be of no Avail.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to issue for the supply of the Country, any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, which shall have been stamped for denoting any Duties hereby repealed, to be used for any of the Instruments hereby charged with Duties of the same Amount, and also, if deemed expedient, to cause any such Vellum, Parchment or Paper, to be stamped with any additional Stamp or Stamps, in order to make up the Amount of the increased Duty hereby charged on any of the Instruments for which such Vellum, Parchment or Paper, shall have been originally intended, and thereupon to issue the same to be used for such Instruments, or for any other Instruments charged with the same Amount of Duty; and it shall also be lawful for any Person having in their Possession any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, stamped with any of the Duties repealed by this Act, or by the aforesaid Act of the Forty-fourth or Forty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and not already made use of, to use the same for any of the Instruments hereby charged with Duties of the same Amount: Provided always, that no Vellum, Parchment or Paper, bearing a Stamp appropriated by Name to any particular Instrument, shall be used for any other Purpose, or if so used, the same shall be of no Avail.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Persons having in their Possession any Stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper, not made use of, and which by the Operation of this Act shall have been rendered unfit for the Instruments for which the same was originally designed, to send the same to the Head Office of Stamps, at any time within Twelve Calendar Months from the first Thirty-first Day of August, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause the same to be re-embossed, and to deliver out or use thereof other Stamps of the same Kind and Description, as near as may be, and of equal Value to the Whole with the Stamps so returned; or otherwise at their Discretion to cause any additional Stamp or Stamps to be impressed on any such Vellum, Parchment or Paper, to make up the full Amount of the Duty hereby charged on the Instruments for which the same was designed, on Payment of the Duty or Duties denoted by such additional Stamp or Stamps.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Stamp or Die, or any Part of any Stamp or Die, which shall have been provided, made or used, in pursuance of this Act, or in pursuance of any former Act or Acts, relating to any Stamp Duty or Duties, or shall forge, counterfeit or resemble, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited or resembled, the Impression or any Part of the Impression of any such Stamp or Die as aforesaid, upon any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, or shall stamp or mark, or cause or procure to be stamped or marked, any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, with any such forged or counterfeited Stamp or Die, or Part of any Stamp or Die as aforesaid, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the Duties hereby granted, or any Part thereof, or if any Person shall utter or sell or expose to Sale any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, having thereupon the Impression of any such forged or counterfeited Stamp or Die, or Part of any Stamp or Die, or any such forged, counterfeited or resembled Impression or Part of Impression as aforesaid, knowing the same respectively to be forged, counterfeited or resembled; or if any Person shall privately and secretly use any Stamp or Die which shall have been provided, made or used as aforesaid, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties or any Part thereof; or if any Person shall fraudulently cut, tear or get off, or cause or procure to be cut, torn or got off, the Impression of any Stamp or Die which shall have been provided, made or used in pursuance of this or any former Act, for expelling or denoting any Duty or Duties under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, or any Part of such Duty or Duties, from any Vellum, Parchment or Paper whatsoever, with Intent to use the same for or upon any other Vellum, Parchment or Paper, or any Instrument or Writing charged or chargeable with any of the Duties hereby granted; then and in every such case every Person so offending, and every Person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting or assisting any Person or Persons in committing any such Offence as aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

[See 52 G. 3. c. 143. § 7.]

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations and Directions, Fines, Penalties, Punishes and Penalties contained in and imposed by the several Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties hereby repealed, and the several Acts of Parliament relating to any prior Duties of the same Kind or Description, shall be of full force and effect with respect to the Duties hereby granted, and to the Vendors, Purchasers and Papers, Instruments, Matters and Things, charged or chargeable therewith, as far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, enforced and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting and receiving of the said Duties hereby granted and otherwise relating thereto, so far as the same shall not be superfluous by, and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been hereto repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Provisions and Regulations of former Acts relating to Agreements, shall be applied only to such Agreements as are hereby charged with a Duty of One Pound; and that the Agreements hereby charged with a Duty of One Pound Fifteen Shillings shall be subject and liable to the same Provisions and Regulations as Deeds hereby charged with a like Duty.

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Instruments for or upon which any Stamp or Stamps shall have been used of an improper Denomination or Rate of Duty, but of equal or greater Value in the whole with or than the Stamp or Stamps which ought regularly to have been used thereon, shall nevertheless be deemed valid and effectual in the Law; except in cases where the Stamp or Stamps used on such Instruments shall have been specially appropriated to any other Instrument, by having its Name on the Face thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall make, sign or affix, or cause to be made, signed or affixed, or shall accept or pay, or cause or permit to be accepted or paid, any Bill of Exchange, Draft or Order, or Promissory Note for the Payment of Money, liable to any of the Duties imposed by this Act, without the same being duly stamped for discharging the Duty hereby charged thereon, he, she or they shall, for every such Bill, Draft, Order or Note, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall make and issue, or cause to be made and issued, any Bill of Exchange, Draft or Order, or Promissory Note for the Payment of Money, at any time after Date or Sight, which shall bear Date subsequent to the Day on which it shall be issued, so that it shall not in fact become payable in Two Months, if made payable after Date, or in Sixty Days, if made payable after Sight, next after the Day on which it shall be issued, unless the same shall be stamped for discharging the Duty hereby imposed on a Bill of Exchange and Promissory Note for the Payment of Money at any time exceeding Two Months after Date, or Sixty Days after Sight, he, she or they shall, for every such Bill, Draft, Order or Note, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XIII. And, for the more effectually preventing of Frauds and Evasions of the Duties hereby granted on Bills of Exchange, Drafts or Orders for the Payment of Money, under Colour of the Exemption in favour of Drafts or Orders upon Bankers or Persons acting as Bankers, contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, make and issue, or cause to be made and issued, any Bill, Draft or Order, for the Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, upon any Banker or Bankers, or any Person or Persons acting as a Banker or Bankers, which shall be dated on any Day subsequent to the Day on which it shall be issued, or which shall not truly specify and express the Place where it shall be issued, or which shall not in every respect fall within the said Exemption, unless the same shall be duly stamped as a Bill of Exchange according to this Act, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Bill, Draft or Order, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Person or Persons shall knowingly receive or take any such Bill, Draft or Order, in Payment of or as a Security for the Sum therein mentioned, he, she or they shall, for every such Bill, Draft or Order, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if any Banker or Bankers, or any Person or Persons acting as a Banker, upon whom any such Bill, Draft or Order, shall be drawn, shall pay, or cause or permit to be paid, the Sum of Money therein expressed, or any Part thereof, knowing the same to be post dated, or knowing that the Place where it was issued is not truly specified and set forth therein, or knowing that the same does not in any other respect fall within the said Exemption, then the Banker or Bankers, or Person or Persons so offending, shall, for every such Bill, Draft or Order, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and moreover shall not be allowed the Money so paid or any Part thereof, in Account against the Person or Persons, by or for whom such Bill, Draft or Order, shall be drawn, or his, her or their Executors or Administrators, or his, her or their Assigns or Creditors in case of Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or any other Person or Persons claiming under him, her or them.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall be lawful for any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons, who shall have made and issued any Promissory Notes for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand, of any Sum of Money not exceeding One hundred Pounds each, duly stamped according to the Directions of this Act, to re-issue the same from time to time, after Payment thereof, as often as he, she or they, shall think fit, without being liable to pay any further Duty in respect thereof; and that all Promissory Notes, so to be re-issued as aforesaid, shall be good and valid, and as available in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as they were upon the first issuing thereof.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Promissory Note for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand, of any Sum of Money not exceeding One hundred Pounds, which shall have been made and issued by any Bankers or other Persons in Partnership, and for which the proper Stamp Duty shall have been once paid according to the Provisions of this Act, shall be deemed liable to the Payment of any further Duty, although the same shall be re-issued by and as the Note of some only of the Persons who originally made and issued the same, or by and as the Note of any One or more of the Persons who originally made and issued the same, and any other Person or Persons in Partnership with him or them jointly; nor although such Note is made payable at any other than the Place where drawn, shall be re-issued with any Alteration therein only of the Date or Place at which the same shall have been at first made payable.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all Provisional Notes for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand, of any Sum of Money, which shall have been actually and bona fide issued and in Circulation, before or upon the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, duly stamped according to the aforesaid Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and which shall then be re-issuable within the Interest and Meaning of that Act, or of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, for altering, explaining, and amending the said former Act, with regard to the Duties on re-issuable Provisional Notes, shall continue to be re-issuable until the Expiration of Three Years from the Date thereof respectively, but not afterwards, without Payment of any further Duty for the same; and if any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons, shall at any time after the said Thirty first Day of August, issue or cause to be issued for the first time, any Provisional Note for the Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, bearing Date before or upon that Day, he, she or they, shall, for every such Provisional Note, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XVII. Provided always, and, in regard that certain Bankers in England have issued Provisional Notes for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand, of a Sum not exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings each, until the Dates thereof printed thereon, and many such Notes have been and recently issued for the first time, although they may appear by the Date to be of more than Three Years' standing, be it further enacted, That all such Provisional Notes so last mentioned, which shall have been actually and bona fide issued and in Circulation before or upon the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, duly stamped according to the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and which shall bear a printed Date prior to the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall continue to be re-issuable until the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, but not afterwards, without Payment of any further Duty for the same; and if any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons, shall at any time after the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, issue or cause to be issued, for the first time, any such Provisional Note, bearing a printed Date prior to the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, he or they shall, for every Provisional Note so issued, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall not be lawful for any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons, to issue any Provisional Note for the Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, liable to any of the Duties imposed by this Act, with the Date printed thereon; and if any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons, shall issue or cause to be issued any such Provisional Note with the Date printed thereon, he or they shall, for every Provisional Note so issued, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Provisional Notes hereby allowed to continue re-issuable for a limited Period, but not afterwards, shall upon the Payment thereof at any time after the Expiration of such Period, and all Provisional Notes, Bills of Exchange, Drafts or Orders for Money, not hereby allowed to be re-issued, shall, upon any Payment thereof, be deemed and taken respectively to be thereupon wholly discharged, satisfied and satisfied, and shall be no longer negotiable or available in any manner whatsoever, but shall be forthwith cancelled by the Person or Persons paying the same; and if any Person or Persons shall re-issue or cause or permit to be re-issued, any Provisional Note hereby allowed to be re-issued for a limited Period as aforesaid, at any time after the Expiration of the Term or Period allowed for that Purpose; or if any Person or Persons shall re-issue or cause or permit to be re-issued any Provisional Note, Bill of Exchange, Draft or Order for Money, not hereby allowed to be re-issued at any time after the Payment thereof; or if any Person or Persons paying or causing to be paid any such Note, Bill, Draft or Order as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to cancel the same, according to the Direction of this Act, then and in either of those cases, the Person or Persons so offending, shall for every such Note, Bill, Draft or Order so re-issued, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and in case of any such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, being re-issued contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Person or Persons re-issuing the same, or causing or permitting the same to be re-issued, shall also be answerable and accountable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for a further Duty in respect of every such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, of such and the same Amount as would have been chargeable thereon, in case the same had been then issued for the first time, and so from time to time as often as the same shall be so re-issued; which further Duty shall and may be paid for and recovered accordingly, as a Debt to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and if any Person or Persons shall receive or take any such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, in Payment of or as a Security for the Sum therein expressed, knowing the same to be re-issued contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, he, she or they shall, for every such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Provisional Notes and Bank Post Bills, which shall be issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, from and after the said Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be freed and exempted from all the Duties hereby granted; and that it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to re-issue any of their Notes after Payment thereof, as often as they shall think fit.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Composition payable by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Stamp Duties on their Provisional Notes and Bank Post Bills, under the aforesaid Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall cease from the Fifth Day of April last; and that the said Governor and Company shall deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamps, within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, and afterwards on the Fifth Day of May in every Year while the preface perfect Stamp Duty, full money in force, a full and true Account, verified by the Oath of their Chief Accountant, of the Amount or Value of all their Promissory Notes and Bank Post Bills in Circulation, on some given Day in every Week, for the Space of Three Years preceding the Sixth Day of April in the Year in which the Account shall be delivered, together with the average Amount or Value thereof according to such Account; and that the said Governor and Company shall pay into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties in Great Britain, as a Compensation for the Duties which would otherwise have been payable for their Promissory Notes and Bank Post Bills issued within the Year, reckoning from the Fifth Day of April preceding the Delivery of the said Account, the sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds for every Million, and after that Rate for Half a Million, but not for a half less than Half a Million, of the said average Amount or Value of these said Notes and Bank Post Bills in Circulation; and that One Half Part of the Sum so to be ascertained as aforesaid for each Year's Compensation, shall be paid on the First Day of October, and the other Half on the First Day of April next after the Delivery of such Account as aforesaid.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the said Governor and Company refusing their Payments in Cash, a new Arrangement for the Compensation for the Stamp Duties, payable on their Promissory Notes and Bank Post Bills, shall be submitted to Parliament.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland, and the Royal Bank of Scotland, and the British Linen Company in Scotland respectively, to issue their Promissory Notes for the Sums of One Pound, One Guinea, Two Pounds and Two Guineas, payable to the Bearer on Demand, on unstamped Paper, in the same manner as they were authorized to do by the aforesaid Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign; they the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland, and the Royal Bank of Scotland, and British Linen Company, respectively giving such Security, and keeping and producing true Accounts of all the Notes so to be issued by them respectively, and accounting for and paying the several Duties payable in respect of such Notes, in such and the same manner, in all respects, as in and are prescribed and required by the said last mentioned A.D. with regard to the Notes thereby allowed to be issued by them on unstamped Paper, and also to receive such Promissory Notes respectively, from time to time after the Payment thereof, as often as they shall find fit.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall not be lawful for any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons (except the Governor and Company of the Bank of England), to issue any Promissory Notes for Money payable to the Bearer on Demand, hereby charged with a Duty and allowed to be re-issued as aforesaid, without taking out a License yearly for that Purpose; which License shall be granted by Two or more of the said Commissioners of Stamps for the time being, or by some Person authorized in that behalf by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, on Payment of the Duty charged therein in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and a separate and distinct License shall be taken out, for or in respect of every Town or Place where any such Promissory Notes shall be issued by, or by any Agent or Agents for or on account of, any Banker or Bankers or other Person or Persons; and every such License shall specify the proper Name or Names and Place or Places of Abode of the Person or Persons, or the proper Name and Description of any Body Corporate, to whom the same shall be granted, and also the Name of the Town or Place where, and the Name of the Bank, as well as the Partnership, or other Name, Style or Firm under which such Notes are to be issued; and where any such License shall be granted to Persons in Partnership, the same shall specify and set forth the Names and Places of Abode of all the Persons concerned in the Partnership, whether all their Names shall appear on the Promissory Notes to be issued by them, or not; and in Default thereof such License shall be absolutely void; and every such License which shall be granted between the Tenth Day of October and the Eleventh Day of November in any Year, shall be dated on the Eleventh Day of October; and every such License, which shall be granted at any other time, shall be dated on the Day on which the same shall be granted; and every such License respectively shall have Effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Tenth Day of October following, both inclusive.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Banker or Bankers, Person or Persons, shall be obliged to take out more than Four Licenses in all for any Number of Towns or Places in England; and in case any Banker or Bankers, Person or Persons shall issue such Promissory Notes as aforesaid, by themselves or their Agents, at more than Four different Towns or Places in Scotland, then after taking out Three distinct Licenses for Three of such Towns or Places, such Banker or Bankers, Person or Persons shall be entitled to have all the rest of such Towns or Places included in a Fourth License.

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where any Banker or Bankers, Person or Persons applying for a License under this A.D. would under the said Act of the Forty eighth (a) Year of His Majesty's Reign have been entitled to have Two or more Towns or Places in England, included in One License, if this A.D. had not been made, such Banker or Bankers, Person or Persons, shall have and be entitled to the like Privilege under this A.D.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons applying for any such License as aforesaid, shall produce and leave with the proper Officers, a Specimen of the Promissory Notes proposed to be issued by him or them, on the latest that the License may be framed accordingly; and if any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons (except the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England) shall issue or cause to be issued by any Agent, any Promissory Note for Money payable to the Bearer on Demand, hereby charged with a Duty, and allowed to be re-issued as aforesaid, without being licensed to do in the manner aforesaid, or in any other Town or Place, or under any other Name, Style or Firm, Firm, then shall be specified in his or their License, the Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons to be offering, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any such License as aforesaid shall be granted to any Person in Partnership, the same shall continue in force for the issuing of Promissory Notes duly stamped, under the Name, Style, or Firm therein specified, until the Tenth Day of October inclusive following the Date thereof, notwithstanding any Alteration in the Partnership.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, Promissory Notes for the Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, made out of Great Britain, or purporting to be made out of Great Britain, or purporting to be made by or on the behalf of any Person or Persons resident out of Great Britain, shall not be negotiable or be assigned, or be circulated or paid in Great Britain, whether the same shall be made payable in Great Britain, or not, unless the same shall have paid such Duty, and be stamped in such manner, as the Law requires for Promissory Notes of the like Tenor and Value made in Great Britain; and if any Person or Persons shall circulate or negotiate, or offer in Payment, or shall receive or take in Payment any such Promissory Note, or shall demand or receive Payment of the Whole or any Part of the Money mentioned in such Promissory Note, from or on account of the Drawer thereof, in Great Britain, the same not being duly stamped as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons in Great Britain shall pay or cause to be paid the Sum of Money expressed in any such Note, not being duly stamped as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, either as Drawer thereof, or in pursuance of any Negotiation or Appointment for that Purpose therein contained, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Promissory Note, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that this Clause shall not extend to Promissory Notes made and payable only in Ireland.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That any Conveyance to be made after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, of Lands or other Property controlled to be sold prior to the Twelfth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eight, which, under the Provision of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Regency, would have been exempted from the ad valorem Duty thereby granted, shall be exempted from the ad valorem Duty imposed by this Act, and shall be charged with the ordinary Duty of One Pound fifteen Shillings in lieu thereof, together with the Progressive Duty of One Pound five Shillings, if any progressive Duty shall be chargeable thereon, under and subject nevertheless to the Conditions and Regulations prescribed by the said last mentioned Act.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Reliefes and other Conveyances of Annuities or Rent Charges made in the original Grant thereof, subject to be redeemed or repurchased, shall, as the Repurchase thereof, be exempted from the ad valorem Duty hereby imposed on Conveyances on the Sale of any Property, and shall be charged only with the ordinary Duty on Deeds or Instruments of the like Kind, not upon a Sale.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Pro Charge Duty on Inferences against Loss by Fire granted by this Act, shall be collected and received of and from the Persons whose Property shall be insured, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by the Public Companies or other Person or Persons licensed or who ought to be licensed by the said Commissioners of Stamps, pursuant to the Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Regency, intitled An Act for charging a Duty on Persons whose Property shall be insured against Loss by Fire, and by the Royal Exchange and London Assurance Corporations respectively, at the time of their making, renewing or continuing of, or receiving the Premium for the Inferences in respect of which the Duty shall be payable, and for the whole Term or Period for which the Inferences shall be made, renewed or continued; and such Duty shall be accounted for and paid over, in the manner directed by this and the said last mentioned Act; and the Royal Exchange and London Assurance Corporations shall be subject to all the Provisions and Regulations of this and the said last mentioned Act, in the same manner as any other Public Companies, except only as to the taking out of a License from the said Commissioners of Stamps.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Quarterly Account to be delivered to the said Commis- sioners of Stamps, or their Officers, by the Corporations or Companies, or others insuring against Fire, pursuant to the Direction of the said Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Regency, shall contain a true and faithful Account of all the Policies and Inferences which shall have been issued and made or renewed or continued by them, whether for a Year or for more Years than one, or for any Period exceeding or falling short of a Year, from the first to the last Day of the Quarter (both inclusive) for which such Account shall be rendered; together with the Numbers and Dates of the Policies, the Names and Places of Abode of the Persons whose Property shall be insured, the Sum or Amount of the Sums insured by each Policy, the time for which each Inference shall be made or renewed or continued, and the Duty which shall have been received for the same; and there shall be annexed to and delivered with every such Quarterly Account, an Affidavit, or solemn Affirmation in the case of Quakers, made by the Secretary, or by the Secretary, by the Chief Clerk of the Corporation or Company, by whom it shall be delivered, stating that he has examined and checked the same with the Books of such Corporation or Company, and that to the best of his Knowledge, Information and Belief, it does contain a true and faithful Account of the several Matters and Things required by this Act, and also of any Allowances or Returns of Duty, in respect of trees cut down on Policies forwarded, which may be therein stated to have been made pursuant to the said Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Regency; and for any Defect in the Delivery of such Account, with such Affidavit or Affirmation therein annexed as aforesaid, the Corporation or Company, or Person or Persons making such Default, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XXXIV. And

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That any Public Companies who shall use any other Quarter Days than those mentioned in the said Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, as the Period of the Commencement or Termination of their Infurances, shall be at Liberty to make up their Quarterly Accounts to the Quarter Days used by them, and to deliver the same to the said Commissioners of Stamps or their Officers, within Two Calendar Months after the Expiration of the Quarter for which they shall be made up.

Infurance Company may make

22 G. 3. c. 48.

XXXVII. And for better securing the Duties on Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration, be it further enacted, That, from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, if any Person shall take Possession of, and in any manner administer, any Part of the Personal Estate and Effects of any Person deceased, without obtaining Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent, within Six Calendar Months after his or her Death, or within Two Calendar Months after the Termination of any Suit or Dispute respecting the Will or the Right to Letters of Administration, if there shall be any fact, which shall not be ended within Four Calendar Months after the Death of the Decedent; every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and also a further Sum, at and after the Rate of Ten Pence per Crown on the Amount of the Stamp Duty payable on the Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Estate and Effects of the Decedent.

Penalty.

said Commissioners to cancel and expunge the Stamp on the Probate or Letters of Administration, and to falsify another Stamp for denoting the Duty which ought to have been paid thereon, and to make an Allowance for the Difference between them, as in the cases of Impaired Stamps, or, if the Difference be considerable, to repay the same in Money, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person, on applying for the Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration, shall have obtained the Estate and Effects of the Deceased to be of 5*l*. Value than the same shall have afterwards proved to be, and shall in consequence have paid too little Stamp Duty thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, on Delivery to them of an Affidavit or solemn Affirmation of the Value of the Estate and Effects of the Deceased, to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped, on Payment of the full Duty which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such Value, and of the further Sum or Fractions payable by Law for stamping Deeds, after the Revision thereof, without any Deduction or Allowance of the Stamp Duty originally paid on such Probate or Letters of Administration; Provided always, that if the Application shall be made within Six Calendar Months after the true Value of the Estate and Effects shall be ascertained, and it shall be discovered that too little Duty was at first paid on the Probate or Letters of Administration, and if it shall appear by Affidavit or solemn Affirmation, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that such Duty was paid in consequence of any Mistake or Misapprehension, or of its not being known at the time that some particular Part of the Estate and Effects belonged to the Deceased, and without any Intention of Fraud or to delay the Payment of the full and proper Duty, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to remit the before mentioned Penalty, and to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped, on Payment only of the Sum which shall be wanting to make up the Duty which ought to have been at first paid thereon.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in cases of Letters of Administration on which too little Stamp Duty shall have been paid at first, the said Commissioners of Stamps shall not cause the same to be duly stamped, in the manner aforesaid, until the Administrator shall have given such Security to the Ecclesiastical Court or Ordinary by whom the Letters of Administration shall have been granted, as ought by Law to have been given on the granting thereof, in case the full Value of the Estate and Effects of the Deceased had been then ascertained, and also that the said Commissioners of Stamps shall yearly or oftener transmit an Account of the Probates and Letters of Administration, upon which the Stamps shall have been reduced in pursuance of this Act, to the several Ecclesiastical Courts by which the same full have been granted, together with the Value of the Estate and Effects of the Deceased, upon which such Reductions shall have proceeded.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That where too little Duty shall have been paid on any Probate or Letters of Administration, in consequence of any Mistake or Misapprehension, or of its not being known at the time that some particular Part of the Estate and Effects belonged to the Deceased, if any Executor or Administrator willing under such Probate or Letters of Administration shall sue, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or after the Discovery of the Mistake or Misapprehension, or of any Estate or Effects not known at the time to have belonged to the Deceased, apply to the said Commissioners of Stamps, and pay what shall be wanting to make up the Duty which ought to have been paid at first on such Probate or Letters of Administration, he or she shall receive the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and also a further Sum, at and after the Rate of Ten Pence per Centum on the Amount of the Sum wanting to make up the proper Duty.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months from the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Court or Person to call in and revoke, or to accept the Surrender of any Probate or Letters of Administration, on the Ground only of its being or too low a Stamp Duty having been paid thereon, as heretofore hath been practised; and if any Ecclesiastical Court or Person shall do so, the Commissioners of Stamps shall not make any Allowance whatever for the Stamp Duty on the Probate or Letters of Administration which shall be so recalled.

XLVI. And Whereas it has happened in the case of Letters of Administration on which the proper Stamp Duty hath not been paid at first, that certain Debts, Chattels and other Effects, due or belonging to the Deceased, have been found to be of such great Value, that the Administrator hath not been possessed of Money sufficient either of his own or of the Deceased to pay the requisite Stamp Duty, in order to render such Letters of Administration available for the Recovery thereof by Law: And Whereas the like may again happen, and it may also happen that Executors or Persons entitled to take out Letters of Administration may, before obtaining Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration of the Estate and Effects of the Deceased, find some considerable Part or Parts of the Estate and Effects of the Deceased to be circumvented as (not to be immediately got Possession of, and may not have Money sufficient either of their own or of the Deceased to pay the Stamp Duty on the Probate or Letters of Administration which it shall be necessary to obtain: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, on satisfactory Proof of the Facts by Affidavit or solemn Affirmation, in any such case as aforesaid which may apply to them to require Relief, to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped, for denoting the Duty payable or which ought originally to have been paid thereon, and to give Credit for the Duty, either upon Payment of the before mentioned Penalty, or without, in cases of Probates or Letters of Administration already obtained, and upon which too little Duty shall have been paid, and either with or without Allowance of the Stamp Duty already paid thereon, in the same manner as, under the Provisions of this Act, provided in all such cases of Credit that Security be first given by the Executors or Administrators, together with Two or more sufficient Sureties to be approved of by the said Commissioners.

Commissioners, by a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in Double the Amount of the Duty, for the day and full Payment of the Sum for which Credit shall be given, within Six Calendar Months, or any less Period, and of the Interest for the same, at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Expiration of such Period until Payment thereof, in case of any Default of Payment at the time appointed; and such Probate or Letters of Administration being duly stamped in the manner aforesaid, shall be as valid and available as if the proper Duty had been as first paid thereon, and the same had been stamped accordingly.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at the Expiration of the time to be allowed for the Payment of the Duty on such Probate or Letters of Administration, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that the Executor or Administrator to whom such Credit shall be given as aforesaid, shall not have recovered Effects of the Deceased to an Amount sufficient for the Payment of the Duty, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to give such further time for the Payment thereof, and upon such Terms and Conditions as they shall think expedient.

XLVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Probate or Letters of Administration is to be stamped on Credit as aforesaid, shall be deposited with the said Commissioners of Stamps, and shall not be delivered up to the Executor or Administrator until Payment of the Duty, together with such Interest as aforesaid, if any shall become due; but the same shall nevertheless be produced in Evidence by some Officer of the Commissioners of Stamps, at the Expense of the Executor or Administrator, as Occasion shall require.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty for which Credit shall be given as aforesaid, shall be a Debt to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, from the Personal Estate of the Deceased, and shall be paid in preference to and before any other Debt whatsoever due from the same Estate; and if any Executor or Administrator of the Estate of the Deceased shall pay any other Debt in preference thereto, he or she shall not only be charged with and be liable to pay the Duty out of his or her own Estate, but shall also forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if before Payment of the Duty for which Credit shall be given in any such case as aforesaid, it shall become necessary to take out Letters of Administration à lauds non of the Deceased, it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause such Letters of Administration à lauds non, to be duly stamped with the particular Stamp provided to be used on Letters of Administration of that Kind, for denoting the Payment of the Duty in respect of the Effects of the Deceased, on first prior Probate or Letters of Administration of the same Effects, in such and the same manner as if the Duty had been actually paid, upon having the Letters of Administration à lauds non deposited with the said Commissioners, and upon having such further Security for the Payment of the Duty, as they shall think expedient; and such Letters of Administration shall be as valid and available as if the Duty for which Credit shall be given had been paid.

L. And be it further enacted, in regard to Probate of Wills and Letters of Administration, That where any Part of the Personal Estate which the Deceased was possessed of or entitled to, shall be alleged to have been Trunk Property, if the Person or Persons who shall be required to make any Affidavit or Affirmation relating thereto, conformably to the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall retire out of England, such Affidavit or Affirmation shall and may be made before any Person duly commissioned to take Affidavits by the Court of Session or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Scotland, or before a Master in Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary in Ireland, or before any Judge or Court Magistrate of any other Country or Place where the Party or Parties shall happen to reside; and every such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be as effectual as if the same had been made before a Master in Chancery in England, pursuant to the Directions of the said last mentioned Act.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where it shall be proved by Oath or proper Vouchers to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamps, that an Executor or Administrator had paid Debts due and owing from the Deceased, and payable by Law out of his or her Personal or Moveable Estate, to such an Amount as being deducted from the Amount or Value of the Estate and Effects of the Deceased, for or in respect of which a Probate or Letters of Administration, or a Confirmation of a Testament, Testamentsary or Dative, shall have been granted after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or which shall be included in any Inventory calculated and recorded in a Consistory Court in Scotland as the Law requires, after that Day, shall reduce the sum to a Sum, which, if it had been the whole gross Amount or Value of such Estate and Effects, would have occasioned a less Stamp Duty to be paid as such Probate or Letters of Administration, or Confirmation or Inventory, then shall have been actually paid thereon under and by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to return the Difference, provided the same shall be claimed within Three Years after the Date of such Probate or Letters of Administration, or Confirmation or the recording of such Confirmation as aforesaid; but where by reason of any Proceeding at Law or in Equity, the Debts due from the Deceased shall not have been ascertained and paid, or the Effects of the Deceased shall not have been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the Executor or Administrator shall be prevented from clearing such Return of Duty as aforesaid, within the said Term of Three Years, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to allow such further time for making the Claim, as may appear to them to be reasonable under the circumstances of the case.

LII. And be it further enacted, That all Affidavits and solemn Affirmations in the case of Quakers, required by that or any former or future Act of Parliament, or which shall be required by the said Commissioners of Stamps, to be made for the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, of and concerning any Facts or Circumstances upon which they are to exercise the Powers vested in them by this or any other Act, or for the said ad valorem Duty, in respect of the aggregate Amount of the Purchase or Consideration Monies therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid, for the Lands or Property thereby conveyed.

And where any Person, having contracted for the Purchase of any Lands or other Property, but not having obtained a Conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell to any other Person, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed immediately to the Sub Purchaser, the principal or only Deed or Instrument of Conveyance shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty, in respect of the Purchase or Consideration Money therein mentioned to be paid, or agreed to be paid, by the Sub Purchaser.

And where any Person, having contracted for the Purchase of any Lands or other Property, but not having obtained a Conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell the whole or any Part or Parts thereof, to any other Person or Persons, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed, by the original Seller, to different Persons, in Parts or Parcels, the principal or only Deed or Instrument of Conveyance, of each Part or Parcel thereof, shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty, in respect only of the Purchase or Consideration Money which shall be therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same, by the Person or Persons, to whom or to whose Use or in Trust for whom the Conveyance shall be made, without regard to the Amount of the original Purchase Money.

And in all cases of such Sub Sales as aforesaid, the Sub Purchasers, and the Persons immediately selling to them, shall be deemed and taken to be the Purchasers and Sellers, within the Intent and Meaning of the Provisions and Regulations of the aforesaid Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, relating to the ad valorem Duties on Conveyances on the Sale of Property thereby imposed, and which are to be observed and enforced with regard to the said ad valorem Duties hereby granted.

But where any Sub Purchaser shall take an actual Conveyance, of the Interest of the Person immediately selling to him, which shall be chargeable with the said ad valorem Duty, in respect of the Purchase or Consideration Money paid or agreed to be paid by him, and shall be duly stamped accordingly, any Deed or Instrument of Conveyance to be afterwards made to him, of the Property in question, by the original Seller, shall be exempted from the said ad valorem Duty, and be charged only with the ordinary Duty on Deeds or Instruments of the same Kind not upon a Sale.

And where any Lands or other Property separately contracted to be purchased of different Persons, at separate and distinct Prices, shall be conveyed to the Purchaser, or as he shall direct, in and by one and the same Deed or Instrument; such Deed or Instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem Duty, in respect of the aggregate Amount of the Purchase or Consideration Monies, therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same.

PROMISSORY NOTE for the Payment of any Sum of Money by Installments, or for the Payment of several Sums of Money at different Days or Times, so that the whole of the Money to be paid shall be definite and certain.

The first Duty is on a Promissory Note payable on less than Two Months after Date for a Sum equal to the whole amount of the Money to be paid.

And the following Instruments shall be deemed and taken to be Promissory Notes, within the Intent and Meaning of this Schedule; viz.

All Notes, promising the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money out of any particular Fund, which may or may not be available; or upon any Condition or Contingency, which may or may not be performed or happen; if the same shall be made payable to the Bearer, or to Order, and if the same shall be definite and certain, and not amount in the whole to Twenty Pounds.

And all Receipts for Money deposited in any Bank, or in the Hands of any Banker or Bankers, which shall contain any Agreement or Memorandum, imposing that Interest shall be paid for the Money so deposited.

Exceptions from the Duties on Promissory Notes.

All Notes, promising the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money out of any particular Fund, which may or may not be available; or upon any Condition or Contingency, which may or may not be performed or happen; where the same shall not be made payable to the Bearer or to Order, and also where the same shall be made payable to the Bearer or to Order, if the same shall amount to Twenty Pounds, or be indefinite.

And all other Instruments, bearing in any Degree the Form or Style of Promissory Notes, but which in Law shall be deemed Special Agreements, except those hereby expressly directed to be deemed Promissory Notes.

But such of the Notes and Instruments here exempted from the Duty on Promissory Notes shall nevertheless be liable to the Duty which may attach thereon, as Agreements or otherwise.

Exceptions from the preceding and all other Stamp Duties.

All Promissory Notes for the Payment of Money, issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

CAP. CLXXXV.

An Act for repealing the Stamp Office Duties on Advertisements, Almanacks, Newspapers, Gold and Silver Plate, Stage Coaches, and Licences for keeping Stage Coaches, now payable in Great Britain: and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof. [11th July 1815.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS it is expedient to grant certain additional Stamp and other Duties, towards raising the necessary Supplies, to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, as shall be equal to the increased annual Charge occasioned by the Funding of Exchequer Bills, and by any Loan made, pursuant to any Act or Acts passed or to be passed for that Purpose in this Session of Parliament; and it is also expedient to consolidate the additional with the existing Duties: We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the several Duties hereafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Duties upon Advertisements, Almanacks, Newspapers, Pamphlets and Gold and Silver Plate, granted by an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof, shall cease and determine from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that all the Duties on Stage Coaches and on Licences for keeping Stage Coaches, granted by the same Act, shall cease and determine from and after the Fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; five and except each of the said Duties, or so much and such Parts thereof, as shall have become due or payable before or upon these Days respectively, and remain in Arrear, or unpaid afterwards; all which Duties so in Arrear, or remaining to be paid, shall be recoverable by the same ways and means, and with such and the same Privileges, and in such and the same manner, in all respects, as if this Act had not been made.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in and throughout the whole of Great Britain, for and in respect of the several Articles, Matters and Things mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunto annexed (except those standing under the Head of Exemptions) the several Duties or Sums of Money, set down in Figures against the same respectively, or otherwise specified and set forth in the said Schedule; and that the Duties on Stage Coaches and on Licences for keeping Stage Coaches therein mentioned, shall commence and take place from and after the Fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that all the other Duties therein mentioned shall commence and take place from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that the said Schedule, and all the Regulations and Directions therein contained, with respect to the said Duties and the Articles, Matters and Things charged therewith, shall be deemed and taken to be part of this Act, and shall be observed and enforced accordingly.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties hereby granted shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Stamps in Great Britain, which said Commissioners and the major Part of them are hereby empowered and required to provide and use proper and sufficient Plates, Stamps or Dies, for expressing and drawing the Duties hereby granted on Almanacks, Newspapers and Licences to keep Stage Coaches, upon the Paper on which the same shall be printed or written, and to alter and renew such Plates, Stamps or Dies in so much time as Occasion shall require; and also to employ such Officers and Persons under them, and to do all such other Acts and Things as shall be thought necessary or expedient for effectually raising and collecting the several Duties hereby granted, and for putting this Act into Execution, in the like and in as full and ample manner as they or any former Commissioners of Stamps are or have been authorized to do, for the raising and collecting of any former Duties under their Care and Management, or for putting into Execution any Act or Acts of Parliament relating thereto.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Penalties, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, Penalties contained in and imposed by the several Acts of Parliament, relating to the Duties hereby granted, and to any prior Duties of the same Kind or Description, shall be of full Force and Effect, with respect to the Duties hereby granted, and to the Articles, Matters and Things charged or chargeable therewith, as far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, enforced and put in Execution, for the raising, levying, collecting and bearing of the said Duties hereby granted and otherwise relating thereto, so far as the same shall not be repealed or altered, and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and Purposes, as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted, with Reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

V. And be it further enacted, That in and under an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Queen Anne, intitled An Act for laying several Duties upon all Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and upon chequerd and striped Linens imported; and upon certain Silks, Calicoes, Linens and Woollens, printed or stained; and upon several Kinds of Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and upon certain printed Papers, Pamphlets and Advertisements; for raising the Sum of Eighteen hundred thousand Pounds by way of Lottery, towards His Majesty's Supply; and for levying an additional Number of Hackney Chaises; and for charging certain Stacks of Cardboard Dues; and for better securing His Majesty's Duties in wigs in his Office for the Stamp Duties by Licences for Marriages; and otherwise; and for Relief of Persons who

IX. And be it further enacted, That a Discount, after the Rate of Twenty Pounds per Centum, on the gross Payment of any Sum of Ten Pounds or upwards for the Duties on Newspapers granted by this Act, shall be allowed to all Proprietors of Newspapers, who shall sell their Papers to the Public at a Price not exceeding Seven pence each, or at a Price not exceeding Two pence Halfpenny each, above the Price at which their Papers were sold, for the Space of Three Calendar Months or more, prior to the Twenty second Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven; and that a Discount, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum and no more, on the gross Payment of any Sum of Ten Pounds or upwards for the Duties on Newspapers granted by this Act, shall be allowed to the Proprietors of Newspapers, who shall sell their Papers to the Public at any higher Price than that above mentioned.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Stamps shall provide Two Sets of Stamps for denoting the Duties hereby granted on Newspapers, one of which shall express the Allowance of Discount of Twenty Pounds per Centum, and the other not; and the Set of Stamps to express the Discount of Twenty Pounds per Centum shall be used for stamping the Paper of the Person to whom that Discount shall be allowed; and the other Set of Stamps shall be used for stamping the Paper of the Person to whom the Discount of Four Pounds per Centum shall be allowed: And if any Person or Persons shall print or cause or procure to be printed, any Newspaper, or Paper containing Public News, Intelligence or Communications, without printing thereon the full Price at which the same is to be sold, or shall sell or expose to Sale any such Paper or Newspaper at any greater Price than shall be printed thereon, or shall print or cause or procure to be printed on any such Paper or Newspaper, which shall be stamped with the Stamp expressing the larger Discount, any Price exceeding that, in respect of which the larger Discount is hereby directed to be allowed, or shall sell or expose to Sale any such Paper or Newspaper so stamped as last mentioned, at or for any Price exceeding that, in respect of which the larger Discount is hereby directed to be allowed, the Person or Persons in offending shall for every such Paper or Newspaper so printed or sold or exposed to Sale as aforesaid, contrary to the intent and Meaning of this Act, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XI. And Whereas divers Hackney Coaches have hitherto been licensed by the Commissioners of Hackney Coaches to be used as Stage Coaches, and the Coaches so licensed have been exempted from the Mileage Duties on Stage Coaches, and have paid only the same Duties as Hackney Coaches regularly employed as such, although they are prohibited from plying as Hackney Coaches, and are Stage Coaches to all Intents and Purposes: And Whereas it is expedient that all Stage Coaches should be placed on the same Footing and be subject to the same Duties: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, all such Parts of any Act or Acts of Parliament as authorize the Commissioners of Hackney Coaches to license any Hackney Coaches to be used as Stage Coaches, and as exempt the Owners of Hackney Coaches already so licensed, from taking out Licences from the Commissioners of Stamps; and from the Payment of the Mileage Duties on Stage Coaches, and from the Provisions of any Act or Acts relating to Stage Coaches, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and thus, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, the Owners of Hackney Coaches now employed as Stage Coaches shall be liable to take out Licences from the Commissioners of Stamps, and be subject to such and the same Duties and to such and the same Provisions and Regulations as the Owners of any other Stage Coaches.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, none of the Provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches shall be deemed or construed to extend to prevent the Owners or Drivers of Stage Coaches, duly licensed by the Commissioners of Stamps, and paying the Mileage Duty, from taking up Passengers, within the Bills of Mortality, out of the Paved Streets of London or Westminster or Borough of Southwark, and any Continuation thereof, so that they do not deviate from their regular Road for such Purpose.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies to arise from the Duties granted by this Act, and from the Duties granted by another Act of the present Session of Parliament, and thereby placed under the Management of the said Commissioners of Stamps, and from the several other Duties now under the Management of the same Commissioners, together with the Sums to be paid by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as a Compensation for the Exemption of their Promissory Notes and Bills from Stamp Duty, pursuant to the Directions of the last other Act of the present Session, shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties in Great Britain; who shall from time to time pay the same into the Bank of England for safe Custody, pursuant to the Act in that behalf made and provided, and shall thereupon pay the same (after deducting the Charges of raising, collecting and accounting for the same and all other Charges first payable thereout, and with the Exemption of any Duties on Lottery Licences and Shares of Tickets) into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster in one Sum, and at such times and in such manner as the present Stamp Duties are by the Laws in force directed to be paid; and that the Monies so paid into the said Receipt shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, out of the Monies to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer as aforesaid, there shall be set apart, on the Fifth Day of January in every Year, so much of the Net Produce of the Duties on Advertisements, Almanacks, Newspapers, Pamphlets, Gold and Silver Plates and Stage Coaches, hereby granted, and of the yearly Per Contage Duty on Fire Insurances, and the augmented Legacy Duties, granted by the aforesaid Act of the present Session of Parliament, as shall be the just and due Proportion thereof, in respect of the Augmentations made by this and that Act to the present Duties on these several Articles; and there shall also be set apart, at the same time, the Surplus of the Net Produce of the Duties hereby granted on Stage Coach Licences, and of the several Duties granted by the aforesaid Act of the present Session of Parliament, except the Yearly Per Contage Duty on Fire Insurances, and the several Legacy Duties, after deducting out of each Net Produce Yearly (and to be Proportion for less than a Year) the Sums of Three Millions three hundred and thirty three thousand six hundred and forty two Pounds Three Shillings and Five Pence, being the aggregate Amount of the Net Yearly Produce of the Duties on Stage Coach Licences hereby granted, and of the Duties granted by the aforesaid Act of the present Session of Parliament, (except the yearly Per Contage Duty on Fire Insurances, and the several Legacy Duties) upon an Average of Two Years ending on the Fifth Day of January last; and there shall also be set apart, at the

An Act for granting an additional Sum of Money for providing a suitable Residence and Estate for the Duke of Wellington and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent and signal Services performed by the said Duke to His Majesty and the Public. [11th July 1815.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting a Sum of Money for purchasing an Estate for the Marquis of Wellington and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent and signal Services performed by the said Marquis of Wellington to His Majesty and the Public: And Whereas another Act, passed in the said Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the previous Session of Parliament, for granting a Sum of Money for purchasing an Estate for the Marquis of Wellington and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent and signal Services performed by the said Marquis of Wellington to His Majesty and the Public: And Whereas an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for joining and joining an Act as an Act of Wellington and his Heirs; and for empowering His Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to advance, out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, a Sum of Money in lieu of such Sum of Money in purchase an Estate, in order to accompany the said Title in Consideration of the eminent signal Services performed by the said Duke of Wellington to His Majesty and to the Public; and for making further Provision for the Disposal of a Sum of Money granted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament for purchasing an Estate for the said Duke then Marquis of Wellington: And Whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the Name and on the behalf of Your Majesty, by His most Gracious Message to Your Majesty's most faithful Commons, hath been pleased to declare, that having taken into His Consideration the most important and glorious Victory obtained by Field Marshal the Duke of Wellington over the French Army under the immediate Command of Buonaparte on the Eighteenth Day of June, in defence of manifesting the Stroke extended by His Royal Highness and the Country of this signal and splendid Achievement which has added fresh Renown to the British Arms, and which cannot fail to be productive of the most essential Advantages to Europe; and therefore recommended to Your Majesty's faithful Commons to enable His Royal Highness to grant such additional Provision to Field Marshal the Duke of Wellington as should afford a further Proof of the Opacity maintained by Parliament of the Duke of Wellington's transcendent Services, and of the Gratitude and Maintenance of the British Nation: Now, We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom, in Parliament assembled, do hereby considering

Your Majesty's most gracious Intention, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies granted to His Majesty for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, there shall and may be issued any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, to the Treasurers under the said second Acts for better enabling the said Treasurers to build or provide or purchase a suitable Residence and Estate for the said Duke of Wellington and his Heirs.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurers for the time being for the Purposes of the said second Acts shall be Treasurers for the Purposes of that Act, and shall have all such Powers and Authorities, and be entitled to all such Rights, Privileges and Exemptions, and shall be subject to all the same Provisions and Regulations in the Execution of the Trust reposed in them by this Act, as they have and are entitled to in relation to the Trusts of the said second Acts.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain now being, or any Three or more of them, and the Lord High Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, and Commissioners of the Treasury of Great Britain for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under their Hands, to direct the Auditor of the Receipts of the Exchequer as Great Britain now and for the time being, to make forth and pass Disbursements for paying the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same or any Part thereof; which said Warrant, and the Disbursements to be made forth and passed thereupon, shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds to such Treasurers respectively as aforesaid, to the said Duke of Wellington and the Heirs of the said Duke of Wellington, or to such other Person or Persons as shall be entitled to receive the same without any further or other Warrant to be sent for, had or obtained in that behalf.

IV. And be it further enacted, That after signing of any such Warrant, the same shall be good, valid and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof and of this Act, and shall not be determinable or revocable by or upon the Death of His Majesty (whom God long preserve!) or any of his Heirs or Successors, or by or upon the Death or Removal of any of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer or Under Treasurer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Office of them, or any of them.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the said Treasury now being, and the Lord High Treasurer of the said Treasury for the time being, Chancellor and Under Treasurer, Chamberlains and Barons of the said Exchequer, and all other the Officers and Ministers of the Court of Exchequer and the Receipt thereof, now and for the time being, shall and they are hereby authorized and strictly required and required to do, without Fee or Reward, all such Acts, Matters and Things as are hereinafter directed and required, or shall be necessary to be done and performed by them or any or either of them, in order to render this Act and the Payments hereby directed effectual.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Acquittance and Acquittances, Receipt or Receipts of the said Treasurers respectively for the Sum so to be advanced to them, and of the said Duke of Wellington, or the Heirs of the said Duke of Wellington jointly with the four Treasurers, or of such other Person or Persons as shall be entitled or authorized to receive such Sum or Sums aforesaid, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment of such Sum so to be advanced, without any further or other Warrant to be sent for or obtained in that behalf; and that such Sum so to be advanced and every Part thereof shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Imposts, and other Public Charges whatsoever; and in case any of the Officers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Sum so to be advanced, or any Part thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or shall refuse to do any Act necessary to enable the said Treasurers respectively, and the said Duke of Wellington and the Heirs Male of the Body of the said Duke, or such other Person or Persons as shall be entitled to receive the same, then the said Treasurers respectively, and Duke, and the Heirs of the said Duke, and such other Person or Persons as shall be entitled to receive the same, or any Part thereof, may from time to time sue, prosecute and impound such Officers, or any of them, their Executors and Administrators, by Bill, Plaint or Action of Debt, and shall or may recover judgments, and for such Executions thereupon against such Officers respectively, their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, for so much of such Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds as shall have been in the Hands of the Officer or Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, at the time or times when Demands shall have been legally made of the Paymaster of the said Sum, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, or for the Refusal or Neglect to do any Act necessary to be done by such Officer or Officers respectively.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if so the Payment of the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds to such Treasurers as aforesaid, the said Treasurers shall not be able immediately to invest the same in the building, providing or purchasing of any such Residence or Estate as aforesaid, then and in such case the said Treasurers shall, and they are hereby required to lay out such Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, as so to be advanced or paid to them, or such Part thereof as cannot be so invested as aforesaid in Exchequer Bills, or in any other Government Securities, and to keep the same so invested in Exchequer Bills, or some other Government Securities, bearing Interest, until the same can be invested in any such Purchase as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations and Clauses in the said second Acts contained, for enabling the said Treasurers therein mentioned to build or repair or alter

C A P. CLXXXVIII.

An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant to John Francis Esquire of Mar Eglishe, and his Heirs and Assigns, the Feu Duties and Quit Rents arising in the Lordship of Strirling, in Discharge of a Debt of greater Value created upon the said Feu Duties by a Grant from His Majesty King George the First.

[11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, in the 1. Stat. 1. c. 2. intituled *An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire of the Estates of certain Treasurers, and of Peppin Recorders, and of Estates given to religious Uses, in order to raise Money out of them generally for the Use of the Public: And Whereas His said Majesty was, by the said Act, empowered to make Provisions for the Daughter of John Earl of Mar, who was attainted for his Assistance in the Rebellion in the Year One thousand seven hundred and Threes, out of His Estates, which were forfeited to The Crown: And Whereas His said Majesty George the First did, in pursuance of the said recited Act, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Threes, grant to Lady Francis Esquire, the only Daughter of the said John Earl of Mar, a Portion or Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, together with the due and customary Interest for the time, to be payable forth of the said Earl of Mar's forfeited Estates, beginning the first Term's Payment of the said Interest at Martinmas One thousand seven hundred and Threes; and in Security of the said Sum and Interest thereof, His Majesty disposed the forfeited Estates of the said Earl, and the Feu Duties of the Lordship of Strirling, which belonged to The Crown, declaring always that the said Estates and Feu Duties should be redeemable by The Crown, on Payment of the said Portion or Sum of Money, and the Annual Rent which should be due thereon at the time of the Redemption: And Whereas John Francis Esquire of Mar (the Son and Heir of the said Lady Francis Esquire), who now claims to be entitled to the said Portion, and the Money remaining due thereon, and Interest thereof, has applied, by Petition, to the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in relation to the same, and for as Account to be taken of the Arrears remaining unpaid under the said Grant: And Whereas the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland have reported that the Earl of Mar's Estates were sold in the Year One thousand seven hundred and Twenty four, and produced little more than sufficient to pay off the prefrable Debts thereon, and that a very small Sum having been obtained towards the Redemption of the Ten thousand Pounds, granted by His Majesty King George the First to the said Lady Francis Esquire, and that the said Esquire, in return, which amounted for Payment of such Sum, and which was desired by the Commissioners of Forfeited Estates, to amount, on the Eleventh Day of August One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, to Nine thousand two hundred and fourscore Pounds Seven Shillings and Seven pence Half penny, were the Feu Duties of the Lordship of Strirling, which, as they belonged to The Crown, were not sold along with the Earl of Mar's Estates; and that ever since that time the said Lady Francis Esquire, and the said John Francis Esquire of Mar her Son, have continued to collect the said Feu Duties payable out of the Lordship of Strirling, towards Payment of the above mentioned Sum of Nine thousand two hundred and fourscore Pounds Seven Shillings and Seven pence Halfpenny; but, from the Amount of these Feu Duties being for many Years less than the legal Interest of the above mentioned Sum, the Sum has increased very considerably during the long Period the same has been due, and if now calculated, with Interest, would amount to a Sum of about Twenty eight thousand Pounds, and which is greater than the Value of the Feu Duties at the ordinary Rate of Purchase: And Whereas the said John Francis Esquire is willing and desirous to take the Feu Duties of the Lordship of Strirling in full Discharge of the before mentioned Sum and Interest thereon, and it is therefore expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to grant the Feu Duties of the Lordship of Strirling in full Discharge, and in lieu of the said Portion, and all Arrears thereof, upon certain Terms and Conditions: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to give, grant and dispose to the said John Francis Esquire Esquire of Mar, and to his Heirs and Assigns, all and whole the Feu Duties of the Lordship of Strirling, formerly payable to*

His Majesty may grant to
J. F. Esquire
Esq. of Mar

Duties of Lordship of Sirling.

the said Lady Francis Esqline, and to the said John Francis Esqline, or to the Chamberlains of the said Lordship, by the Proprietors of Lands, Tenements and others, lying within the Sherifdom of Sirling, Perth and Charlestown, and all Avenues due thereon, be the said John Francis Esqline, or his Heirs or Assigns, giving to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a full and complete Discharge and Acquittance of the said principal Sum of Nine thousand two hundred and Sixty-two Pounds Seven Shillings and Seven pence Halfpenny, and all Avenues of Interest due, or which may be claimed thereon, in such Form as shall be directed and approved by the Chief Baron and Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and which Discharge and Acquittance shall be entered and enrolled in the Offices of The King's Remembrancer and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and in such other Offices in the said Court as the Barons shall direct.

Duties.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in any such Grant contained, shall subject the Proprietors or Possessors of the Lands within the Lordship of Sirling to the Payment of any higher or other Fee Duties than have hitherto been payable or paid, or shall by Law be payable in respect thereof, or in any manner to prejudice the Possessors of such Lands; and that the said Fee Duties be recovered by the Process of the said Court of Exchequer, and all Questions relating to the Amount or Mode of Payment thereof be determined by the Barons of the said Court, as heretofore.

General Enact.

III. Saving always to The King's Most Excellent Majesty, and His Royal Successors, the Commissions as Signatories and Tacks of Tens of the Lands of the said Lordship, passed in Exchequer, as well as Relief and Nonesuch Duties, and other Casualties of Superiority thereof, and all other Rights, except those which are authorized by the present Act to be given away, and to the said Proprietors and Vassals of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of the said Lordship, all Rights and Privileges of Property and Superiority as heretofore; and having also to the Governor of Sirling Castle, now and for the time being, all his Rights in and Emoluments arising out of the Fee Duties of the said Lordship.

With Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others without being specially pleaded.

C A P. CLXXXIX.

An Act for allowing Henry Mear, Thomas Sterling Baynes, Florence Thomas Young, Richard Latham and John Newberry, to brew, Duty-free, a Quantity of Strong Beer, the Duty on which will be equivalent to the Duty on the Beer sold, and to the Duties on the Malt and Hops expended in the Production of the Beer so sold.

[14th July 1815.]

W^{HEREAS} on or about the Seventeenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Seven thousand three hundred and fifty five Barrels of Strong Beer, brewed within the last preceding Year by Henry Mear, Thomas Sterling Baynes, Florence Thomas Young, Richard Latham and John Newberry, Common Brewers, at their Brewhouse in the Parish of Saint Giles in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, and for which Beer the Duties of Excise, amounting to Three thousand three hundred and twenty one Pounds had been duly paid, was, as it alleged by the said Henry Mear, Thomas Sterling Baynes, Florence Thomas Young, Richard Latham and John Newberry, lost by the accidental bursting of a Vat containing Part thereof, and the Staves of which burst Vat fell upon and broke of the Ditchings Cock of another Vat, and also broke a Pipe communicating with another Vat, such Two last mentioned Vats containing the Residue of the said Beer, and by the bursting of which Cock and Pipe the said Residue ran out and was lost, as it was alleged by the said Henry Mear, Thomas Sterling Baynes, Florence Thomas Young, Richard Latham and John Newberry: And Whereas it has been computed that the Duty on the Malt and Hops expended in the Production of the said Beer amounted to the Additional Sum of Three thousand three hundred and twenty three Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Four pence, amounting together to the Sum of Six thousand six hundred and twenty four Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Four pence; and it is expedient to grant such Relief as is hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise, or any Three or more of them, to permit and suffer the said Henry Mear, Thomas Sterling Baynes, Florence Thomas Young, Richard Latham and John Newberry, to brew free of Duty in those said Brewhouses, under the Superintendence of the proper Officers of Excise, at such Times and on such Occasions as to them the said Commissioners of Excise shall seem meet, within the Space of Nine Months next after the passing of this Act, such and so many entire Casks of Strong Beer, not more than Four hundred Barrels, the Duty for or in respect whereof would amount to the said Sum of Six thousand six hundred and twenty four Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Four pence, or so much thereof as they the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three or more of them, shall judge: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend, to authorize or require the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three or more of them, to permit or suffer the said Henry Mear, Thomas Sterling Baynes, Florence Thomas Young, Richard Latham and John Newberry, or any or either of them, to brew, free of Duty, any greater Quantity of Beer than such Quantity as the Beer Duty thereon will amount to the Duties on Beer, Malt and Hops, according to such Mode of Computation as aforesaid, for the actual Quantity of Beer which shall be proved to the Satisfaction of them the said Commissioners of Excise or Three or more of them (the Sufficiency of such Proof thereof being left to the Satisfaction, Judgment and Decision of them the said Commissioners, or Three or more of them, who are lawfully authorized and required to investigate the same, and examine the Witnesses upon Oath, which Oath they the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, are lawfully authorized and empowered to administer), to have been so brewed by them the said Henry Mear,

C. A. P. CXI.

An Act to amend an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, to improve the Land Revenue of The Crown, so far as relates to the Great Forest of Brecknock, in the County of Brecknock; and for vesting in His Majesty certain Parts of the said Forest; and for inclosing the said Forest. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled 48 G. 3. c. 73
As to improve the Land Revenue of The Crown in England, and of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster: And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Act as directs that it should be lawful for the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Land Revenue for the time being to contract with any Person or Persons for the Sale of the Soil, Mines or other Minerals, or other Substances or Herbage, or any other Rights or Interests of His Majesty, in the Great Forest of Brecknock, in the County of Brecknock, at the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Surveyor General should be able to procure for the same, and which should be approved of by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, and that the Purchase Money to be paid for the same should be paid into the Bank of England, and applied as therein directed; and that such Sales should be made in the same manner and under the same Regulations, and the Certificates and Receipts to be given should be in the Form therein directed with respect to the Sales of Crown Lands; and immediately after the Enactment of the said Certificate and Receipt in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, the respective Purchasers should be adjudged to be in the actual Possession and Possession of the Premises in by them respectively purchased, freed and discharged from all Claims and Demands which could or might be made by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by any Person or Persons lawfully claiming under him or them, and of and from all Inconveniences whatsoever; should be repealed: And Whereas all the Powers and Authorities which were vested in the said Surveyor General have, in pursuance of an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled As to vesting the Office of Surveyor General of the Land Revenue of The Crown and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases, become vested in the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues: And Whereas it is expedient that Power should be given to the said Commissioners to sell and dispose of all such Part or Proportion of the said Forest, as upon the Division and Inclosure thereof pursuant to the Act shall be allotted or set out unto His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and of His Majesty's Interests in the several Mines, Minerals and other Substances within the said Forest; Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such Parts of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as are heretofore recited and referred to, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to contract and agree for the Sale of, and absolutely to make Sale and dispose of all such Part or Parts of the said Forest as shall be set out or allotted unto His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under or by virtue of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities herein contained, or of so much or such Parcels or Portions thereof as they the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, with such Approbation as aforesaid, shall think it expedient to sell, and of all His Majesty's Rights and Interests in and to the same; and of all the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of, in and to all Mines of Coal, Lead Ores, Metals and other Minerals whatsoever in or under the said Forest or any Part thereof, hereby reserved to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and of all Powers of Searching for, working, digging, raising and carrying away such Coal, Lead Ores, Metals and other Minerals, for the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues shall be able to procure for the same; and that all and every the Sums and Sums of Money which shall or may arise or be produced from such Sale or Sales, shall from time to time be paid into the Bank of England, and placed to the Account directed by the said Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, intitled "The Account of the Public Money of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being the Woods and Forests Fund;" and shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like Manner and for such and the like Purposes as the other Monies by said last mentioned Act directed or authorized to be paid or carried over or placed to the same Account, are thereby authorized or directed to be paid, applied or disposed of.

III. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any of the said Lands, Hereditaments, Rights or Interests thereby authorized

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall mark and set out such Part and Parts of the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, as by the Sale thereof will, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners raise a sufficient Sum of Money to defray and discharge all the Costs, Charges and Expenses incident to and attending the obtaining and passing this Act, and of preparing and insinuating the Award or Awards to be made by the said Commissioners, and of surveying, advertising, planning, valuing, dividing and allotting the Lands and Grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed by virtue of this Act, and of surveying, advertising and planning such other Lands as shall by virtue of this Act be surveyed, measured and planned; and all the Charges of the said Commissioners and Umpires, their Surveyors, Assessors, Clerks, Assistants and Servants, and all the other necessary Expenses of the several Persons to be employed by the said Commissioners in and about the same; and all the Expenses of fencing, occupying and repairing the Public Carrage Roads and Highways to be set out by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and all other Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, as soon after the passing of this Act as they shall think proper, and so from time to time as often as they shall think necessary, to sell by Public Auction, in the Manner, and subject to the Directions and Regulations mentioned and performed in and by the said recited Act of the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, unto any Person or Persons who he or they will be willing to become the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, such Part or Parts of the said Open and Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, as they shall mark and set out and deem sufficient for the Purpose aforesaid; and the Purchase Money of the said Lands in so be sold as aforesaid shall be paid into the Hands of the said Commissioners within such time and in such manner as the said Commissioners shall appoint, and the Receipt or Receipts of the said Commissioners for such Purchase Money shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Purchaser or Purchasers for the same; and immediately after Payment of such Purchase Money, and after such Receipt or Receipts shall be given to such Purchaser or Pur-

Purchaser, the Allotments, Pieces or Parcels of Land so purchased by him, her or them shall, by virtue of this Act become vested in her, her or them, and in his, her or their respective Heirs and Aliens, in absolute Fee Simple, and shall be included and held in Sovereignty by the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof respectively as his, her or their Private and Absolute Property, and shall be allotted accordingly by the said Commissioners; and the said Purchase Money shall be applied in defraying such Costs, Charges and Expenses as aforesaid.

§ 36. And be it further enacted, That in case such Part or Parts of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be sold as heretofore mentioned shall be sold for more Money than will be required to defray such Costs, Charges and Expenses as aforesaid, then and in each case such Surplus Money shall be divided and apportioned between His Majesty and the several Persons interested in the Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, in such Shares as shall be in Proportion to such their respective Property, Rights and Interests; and the Share of His Majesty shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues; and the respective Shares of such other Persons as shall be Tenants in Fee Simple of their respective Allotments, shall be paid to them respectively; and the Shares of such other Proprietors or Persons of and in such Surplus Money, shall be applied and disposed of in manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in cases where any Money is to be paid for the Purchase or Exchange of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Timber or Wood growing thereon, and which Money ought to be laid out in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be suited to the same Uses.

§ 37. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the Persons interested in the said intended Division, Allotment and Enclosure, shall be desirous of having the Whole of their respective Shares and Allotments of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, let out and allotted to them without any Allotment for or in respect of the said heretofore directed Sale, for the Purposes aforesaid, and shall by themselves or Agents signify the same in Writing to the said Commissioners, at the time of the Delivery in of their respective Claims as heretofore directed, or within such time afterwards as shall be limited and prescribed by the said Commissioners, then and in every such case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to set out and allot to all such Persons respectively, all such Shares and Proportions of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds as they would have been severally entitled to under and by virtue of this Act, in case no Provision had been hereby made for Sale of any Part of the same Lands and Grounds, and without any Deduction or Allotment whatsoever on that account; and to adjust and settle what Sum and Sum of Money ought to be borne and paid by such several Persons, their Heirs or Aliens, for and in respect of their several and respective proportionable Charges and Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution; and in case such Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay such Sum or Sum of Money as aforesaid, that then and in each case the same shall be levied and recovered in the manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall give to the said Commissioners any Power to charge such Persons interested as aforesaid with any Part of the Expenses attending or occasioned by the Sale heretofore directed.

§ 38. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the Persons interested in the said intended Division, Allotment and Enclosure, shall be desirous of having the Whole of their respective Shares and Allotments of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, let out and allotted to them without any Allotment for or in respect of the said heretofore directed Sale, for the Purposes aforesaid, and shall by themselves or Agents signify the same in Writing to the said Commissioners, at the time of the Delivery in of their respective Claims as heretofore directed, or within such time afterwards as shall be limited and prescribed by the said Commissioners, then and in every such case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to set out and allot to all such Persons respectively, all such Shares and Proportions of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds as they would have been severally entitled to under and by virtue of this Act, in case no Provision had been hereby made for Sale of any Part of the same Lands and Grounds, and without any Deduction or Allotment whatsoever on that account; and to adjust and settle what Sum and Sum of Money ought to be borne and paid by such several Persons, their Heirs or Aliens, for and in respect of their several and respective proportionable Charges and Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution; and in case such Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay such Sum or Sum of Money as aforesaid, that then and in each case the same shall be levied and recovered in the manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall give to the said Commissioners any Power to charge such Persons interested as aforesaid with any Part of the Expenses attending or occasioned by the Sale heretofore directed.

§ 40. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the Persons interested in the said intended Division, Allotment and Enclosure, shall be desirous of having the Whole of their respective Shares and Allotments of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, let out and allotted to them without any Allotment for or in respect of the said heretofore directed Sale, for the Purposes aforesaid, and shall by themselves or Agents signify the same in Writing to the said Commissioners, at the time of the Delivery in of their respective Claims as heretofore directed, or within such time afterwards as shall be limited and prescribed by the said Commissioners, then and in every such case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to set out and allot to all such Persons respectively, all such Shares and Proportions of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds as they would have been severally entitled to under and by virtue of this Act, in case no Provision had been hereby made for Sale of any Part of the same Lands and Grounds, and without any Deduction or Allotment whatsoever on that account; and to adjust and settle what Sum and Sum of Money ought to be borne and paid by such several Persons, their Heirs or Aliens, for and in respect of their several and respective proportionable Charges and Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution; and in case such Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay such Sum or Sum of Money as aforesaid, that then and in each case the same shall be levied and recovered in the manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall give to the said Commissioners any Power to charge such Persons interested as aforesaid with any Part of the Expenses attending or occasioned by the Sale heretofore directed.

XXVIII. And, in order to the making of an adequate Compensation for the Great and Small Tithes arising and accruing within the said Forest hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, to the several and respective Persons entitled to such Tithes, be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby directed and required, in the next Place, to set out and allot unto and for The King's Most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and in lieu of all Tithes both Great and Small, and all Modifines, Compositions and other Payments in lieu of Tithes, arising, accruing, increasing, happening or payable out of, from or in respect of such Part or Parts of the Open and Commonable Lands within the Limits of the said Forest as are or shall be found to be Encompassed, such Part and Parcel of the said Lands or Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners shall be a full Satisfaction and Compensation for all such Tithes both Great and Small, and all Modifines, Compositions, and other Payments in lieu thereof; and also to set out and allot unto and for the Person or several Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who or they are or shall be entitled to Tithes in Kind, in, over or upon such Part or Parts of the said Open and Commonable Lands as it or are locally situate within the Bounds or Limits of any Parish or Parishes, of any Part or Parts of the said Lands were or are to be, for and in lieu of all Tithes both Great and Small, and all Modifines, Compositions, and other Payments in lieu of Tithes whatsoever, arising, growing, accruing, increasing, happening or payable within or from the said Forest, out of or from, or for or in respect of such last mentioned Lands, such Parts and Parcels of the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners shall be a full Satisfaction and Compensation for all such last mentioned Tithes, Modifines, Compositions and other Payments in lieu of Tithes; all which said Tithes both Great and Small, and all Modifines, Compositions and other Payments in lieu of Tithes, shall respectively emit and be for ever relinquished, from and inmediately after the making and setting out of such Allotment or Allotments in lieu thereof, and Notice given by the said Commissioners, by Writing under their Hands, to be affixed on the principal outer Doors of the several Parish Churches adjoining the said Forest, that the said Allotment or Allotments may be forthwith entered upon respectively, or from and after such other time as the said Commissioners shall in and by such Notice direct and appoint.

§ 41. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required, by Examination of Witnesses upon Oath or otherwise (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer) to ascertain, settle and determine to whom the said last mentioned Allotment or Allotments shall belong; and when they shall have so ascertained the same, they are hereby authorized and required to apportion and and divide the same respectively, between, unto and amongst the Person or several Persons who shall appear to them to be entitled thereto.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever Allotment shall be made to His Majesty, in lots of Tithes, of such of the said Open and Commonable Lands as are or shall be found to be Extraneous, that, immediately after the same shall be set out, become and remain the exclusive Property of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and shall be subject to the said Rules and Regulations in every respect, as the Allotment herebefore directed to be made and set out to His Majesty, in subject to.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, after making and setting out the several Allotments heretofore mentioned, to divide, set out and allot, One full Moiety or Half part of all the Rent, Residue and Remainder of the said Parcel, due regard being had to the Quality and Situation thereof, unto The King's Most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and which Allotment, as far as the same shall be allotted and severed from the Lands adjoining thereto, shall become and remain the exclusive and absolute Property of The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, freed, exonerated and forever discharged of and from all Rights of Common, Common of Pasture and Turbary, and all other Rights of what nature or kind soever.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to set out such and to survey Private Roads and Ways, as shall be necessary for giving convenient Access to such Allotments as shall be so as aforesaid made to or for His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That when and as far as the said Commissioners shall have set out the Allotment or Allotments heretofore directed to be made and set out to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, they shall prepare a separate Award, with a Map or Plan of such Allotment awarded thereto whereof three shall be Three Originals; One to be enrolled in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, another in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, there to remain as Record, and which shall afterwards be filed and preserved amongst the Minutes of the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue for the time being; and the said Award or the Instrument thereof shall or may be produced, read and received in Evidence, on all Occasions where any Question, Doubt or Controversy may arise, relating to or affecting the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in respect of any Allotment so be vested in The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by virtue of this Act; and the Third of the said Awards shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Brecknock.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, in the next Place, to set out and allot the Residue of the Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and excluded, unto and amongst all and every the Persons entitled to Commonage, in, over or upon the same respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively (other than and except The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors) in Proportion to the real Value of their several and respective Messuages, Cottages, Lands and Tenements, in respect whereof they are entitled to such Rights of Common, and to the Part or Parts of the Lands to be allotted, in, over or upon which their respective Rights of Common shall extend due regard being had in settling the Question of such Allotment, to the Quality and Situation of the Land to be comprised therein; and shall also set out and award every Person's Allotment as near to his Messuage or Messuages, Cottages, Sites, Lands and Tenements, in respect whereof he is or shall be entitled to Right of Common as conveniently may be.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Persons having or claiming any Estate or Interest in or upon the Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and excluded, shall by themselves or their Agents deliver their respective Claims in Writing to the said Commissioners, at a Meeting to be holden for that Purpose, in manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and this Act, of which Meeting Twenty one Days Notice in Writing under the Hands of the said Commissioners expressing the Purpose of such Meeting, shall be given to the manner heretofore directed.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Claims of any Right or Rights of Common upon the said Open Commonable Grounds or Waste Lands or any Part or Parts thereof, to be delivered to the said Commissioners in pursuance of the said recited Act, shall (whether the same be generally objected to or not under the Provisions of the said recited Act, by any Person or Persons, or Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, intitled or claiming to be intitled in the Premises) be intitled by the said Commissioners or the major Part of them, as far as conveniently may be after Delivery thereof: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to give Fourteen Days Notice in the last of their Meetings for such Purpose, by Advertisement in the Cambrian Newspaper, if then published, and if not, then in some other Newspaper circulated in the said County of Brecknock; and the said Commissioners shall with all convenient Speed, after such Intelligences of the said Claims, cause printed Lists or Schedules of the same, distinguishing therein all such of the said Claims to which they shall have any Objections, or to which Objections shall have been made by any other Person in pursuance of the said Act, to be lodged for the Purpose of Public Inspection, in such and in many convenient Places as the said Commissioners shall think proper, of which Places Public Notice shall be given by Advertisement in the said Cambrian Newspaper if then published, and if not, then in some other Newspaper circulated in the said County of Brecknock; and shall also cause Copies or Extracts thereof, in so far as shall concern or relate to the respective Claims to which Objections shall arise or be made, to be left at the last or usual Places of Abode of the respective Persons whose Claims shall be objected to, or of their Steward or Agent; and any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who find or claiming to be intitled in the Premises, may after Objections to any Claim contained in such Schedule or List, within Three Months next after the aforesaid Publication thereof, by delivering Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Determination of the said Commissioners or Umpire, touching such Claim or Claims of Right to the Soil of the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds, or of any Rights of Common or other Rights or Interests, in, over or upon the Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or any Part thereof, shall (in case such Determination shall not be objected to, or being objected to, such Action or Actions at Law shall not be brought and proceeded in, within the time and in manner hereinafter for that Purpose mentioned; he shall and conclude upon all and every Petition and Petitions, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate and Collegiate.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, in whose Favour any such Determination as aforesaid shall have been made, and against whom any Action or Actions might have been brought if living, shall die before any such Action or Actions shall have been brought, and before the Expiration of the time hereinafter limited for bringing such Action or Actions, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who might have brought such Action or Actions against the Person or Persons so dying, to bring the same within the time so limited as aforesaid, against such Person or Persons as if actually living; and to fore the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners with Process for commencing such Action or Actions, in the same manner as the Party or Parties might have been forced therewith if living; and it shall thereupon be deemed as the Heir or Heirs, or other Person or Persons, who shall claim the Benefit of such Determination as aforesaid, to appear and defend such Action or Actions in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so dead, and Proceedings shall be had therein in the same manner as if such Person or Persons had been actually living; and the Rights of all Parties shall be equally bound and concluded by the Effect of such Action or Actions.

XLIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend to enable the said Commissioners or Umpire to determine any Right between any Parties, contrary to the Possession of any of such Parties (except in cases of Encroachments); but in case the said Commissioners shall be of Opinion against the Right of the Person or Persons in Possession, they or the said Umpire shall forbear to make any Determination thereupon, until the Possession shall have been given up by or recovered from such Person or Persons by Ejectment or other due Course of Law.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Difference, Dispute or Proceeding, touching the Title to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall impede or delay the said Commissioners in the Execution of this Act, or the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, but the Duration and Continuance hereby directed to be made, shall be proceeded in notwithstanding any such Difference, Suit or Proceeding; and the said Commissioners shall, by proper Marks and Bounds, set out the Lands and Grounds which shall be allotted in Right or in Lien of such Situated Property, in that the same may be distinguished from any other Lands and Grounds, and may be had and taken by the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who, upon the Determination of such Difference or Suit, shall be entitled to the same.

XLV. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to preclude the said Commissioners from adjudging and determining the Quantity and Value of the Land, in virtue whereof any Person or Persons shall be allowed to have a Right of Common upon the said Open and Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted or inclosed, or any Part thereof, but the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorised to adjudge and determine the Quantity and Value of all and every such Lands respectively, and rate and estimate the same as to them shall seem just and reasonable, according to the real Value thereof, for the Purposes of Husbandry, without regard to any artificial or extraordinary Value arising from local or temporary, or other peculiar Advantages; and such their Judgment and Determinations shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties whatsoever: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the said Commissioners to consider any ancient Mellings or Buildings or Sites thereof, in respect of which any Right of Common shall be allowed, at any more or greater Value than any other ancient Mellings or Buildings or Sites thereof, but the said Commissioners shall rate and estimate all ancient Mellings and Buildings and Sites thereof, at an equal Value, one with another, and at such Value as they shall think most expedient.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, shall consider himself, herself or themselves prejudiced or aggrieved by the Determination of the said Commissioners or Umpire, respecting the Limits or Boundaries of any Parish, Manor, Township, Hamlet, Division or Place, upon the said Open and Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or of any Parish, Manor, Township, Hamlet, Division or Place adjoining thereto, as the same shall be set out and ascertained by the said Commissioners, pursuant to the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and shall by Writing under their, his or her Hands or Hand give Notice to the said Commissioners, within Three Calendar Months next after such Determination, of their, his or her Desire to have the same determined by an Issue at Law, instead of an Appeal to the Quarter Sessions under the Provision of the said last mentioned Act, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, so dissatisfied with such Determination, to have the same ascertained and settled by Trial of an Issue at Law, under the Provisions of this Act, in case of any disputed Right or Claim.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall dig, cut or take away any of the Turf, Breaux, Underwood or Soil, of the Lands or Grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed by virtue of this Act, for any Use or Purpose whatsoever, or under any Right, Privilege or Claim, or Pretence of Right, Privilege or Claim whatsoever, other than except the Owners of the Soil, for the Purpose of digging or searching for and carrying away any Gravel or Stone for the Repair of Roads, then and in every such case, so due Proof made before the said Commissioners on Oath (which Oath the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to administer) the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals directed to any Person or Persons whatsoever, to cause any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Five Pounds, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending.

if met, then in some other Newspaper published or circulated in the said County, and also by Writing to be affixed on the principal outer Doors of the Churches of the Parishes adjoining the said Forest, of the Day or Days and Place, where all Persons interested may peruse a Schedule of such intended Allotments, and inspect the Map or Plan whereas the same shall be delineated, and may have and receive a Copy of such Schedule, as far as the same relates to each Person respectively; and as soon as Persons may, upon Perusal of the said Schedule, and Inspection of such Map or Plan, be satisfied with their intended Allotments, the said Commissioners shall give Notice of such Meeting or Meetings as shall be deemed necessary to be holden by them, for hearing Complaints and Objections against such intended Allotments, and for hearing and determining all such Objections; and their Determinations in the Premises, as to Quantity and Situation, shall be binding, final and conclusive upon all Parties.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons interested in the said Division and Inclosures, hath or have hold, or shall at any time hereafter and before the Execution of the said final Award, sell his, her or their Right, Interest or Property in, over or upon the said Commonable Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or any Part thereof, to any other Person or Persons, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, on Application made to them for that Purpose, by Writing under the Hands of the contracting Parties, to make an Allotment of Land into the Vendor or Purchaser in such Sale, or to his or her Heirs or Assigns, for or in respect of such Right, Interest and Property sold; and every such Vendor or Purchaser, and his and her Heirs and Assigns, shall and may, after the Completion of such Sale, hold the Lands and Grounds to be allotted to him, her or them as aforesaid, in the same manner pursuant to the Terms of such Sale, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Vendor in every such Sale, might, could or ought to have held and enjoyed the same, in such Sale had not been made, or such Right, Interest or Property had been sold in such Vendor at the time of making such Sale as aforesaid.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and with the Approbation and Consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, on behalf of His Majesty, to agree with and to purchase from any Person or Persons who shall be entitled to any Allotments of Land under this Act, all or any Part of his, her or their respective Allotments to be made to him, her or them under this Act, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; such Lands when purchased to be inclosed and appropriated to the Growth and Cultivation of Timber.

LV. And be it further enacted, That the several Outcrops or Ring-fences of the said Moiety of the said Forest to be allotted to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors as aforesaid, and also of any Allotment or Allotments which shall be made to His said Majesty, in lieu of Tithes, in respect of such Part or Parts of the said Open and Commonable Lands as are or shall be found to be Extraparochial, shall be made in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct and appoint, and such Outcrops or Ring-fences shall be raised and made, and for ever thereafter maintained, supported and kept in Repair, at the Expence, Costs and Charges of His said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, save and except as to such Part or Parts thereof as shall adjoint the Allotment or Allotments to be made to any other Person or Persons in pursuance of this Act, which last mentioned Part or Parts of such Outcrops or Ring-fences shall be made, supported and kept in Repair, in such Parts and Proportions, and in such manner and by such Persons as the said Commissioners shall by their Award direct and appoint; and all Powers to be made for dividing and enclosing the Reversion of the said Open and Commonable Lands and Grounds shall be made and at all times for ever thereafter repaired and maintained by and at the Expence of the Proprietors interested in such Reversion, in such Parts and Proportions, and within such time, and in such manner, as the said Commissioners shall in and by their final Award, order, direct or appoint.

LVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if owing to the Situation or other Circumstances of any Allotment or Allotments, it shall happen that the Proprietors or Proprietors thereof shall not have a proportionable Share of Boundary Fencing thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, where they shall judge practicable, to ascertain and appoint any Sum or Sums of Money to be contributed and paid by such Proprietor or Proprietors, towards the Expence of the Boundary Fencing of such other or others of the said Proprietors who may happen to have too great a Proportion thereof, in order that the Expences of the said Boundary Fencing may be brought as near as may be to a just and equal Proportion (regard being had to the necessary Subdividing Fences within the respective Allotments) and the Money so to be ascertained and applied shall be levied and recovered in the manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, at any time before executing their final Award, to make any Alterations in the Allotments and Fences which they may have set out and ordered, or in any Private Roads laid out or to be laid out or to such Allotments, that they shall think right and expedient; and to cause any Person or Persons be injured by such Allotments, on account of any Expence he, she or they may have been at, the said Commissioners shall ascertain and determine what Recompense shall be made to him, her or them, and shall direct by whom and in what manner such Recompense shall be made.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Execution of the final Award of the said Commissioners, all Feudal Rights and Privileges whatsoever of The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and His or their Heirs or Lords, Grantors or Quarters, and of all other Persons whatsoever, within, upon and over the said Forest, shall cease, determine and be for ever extinguished, and the Whole of the said Forest shall be dissevered to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to let out, alien and award any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within the Forest, or in any adjoining Parish, Township, Hamlet or Place, the Owners whereof are entitled for or in respect of the same to any Right of Common upon the said Forest, or upon the said Open Commonable Lands and Grounds, or any Part thereof, in lieu of and in Exchange for any other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whatsoever, within the said Forest, or in any of the Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or Places in which the said Open Commonable Lands or Grounds respectively lie or are situate, or which are entitled to Right of Common as aforesaid, or within any adjoining Parish, Hamlet, Township or Place: Provided that all such Exchanges be ascertained, specified and declared in the said final Award of the said Commissioners, or in some other Deed or Deeds, Instrument or Instruments, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, and be made with the Consent of the Owners or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which shall be so exchanged, whether such Owners or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, shall be a Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or a Trust or Trusts in Fee Simple, or for Life, or in Tail General or Special, or by the County of England, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, with the Consent of the Lessor or Lessors, but not otherwise, or with the Consent of the Guardians, Treasurers, Feoffees for Charitable or other Uses, Husbandmen, Commuters or Attorneys of or acting for any such Proprietors or Owners as aforesaid, who at the time of making such Exchanges or Exchanges shall be respectively Infants, Femes Covert, Lunatics, or under any other legal Incapacity, or who shall be beyond the Seas, or otherwise disabled to act for themselves, himself or herself: such Consent to be testified in Writing, under the Common Seal of the Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, and under the Hands of the other Parties consenting respectively; and all and every such Exchanges or Exchanges so to be made, shall be good, valid and official in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided nevertheless, that no Exchange shall be made of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments held in right of any Church, Chapel, or any Ecclesiastical Benefice, without the Consent testified as aforesaid, of the Parson thereof, and of the Bishop of the Diocese or other Ordinary of the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, in which such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so to be exchanged shall lie or be situate.

Expenses of
paid.

LXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Costs, Charges and Expenses attending the making and completing of all Exchanges and Partitions under the Powers and Authorities of this Act and the said recited Act of the Forty first Year of the Kings of His present Majesty, or either of them continued, shall be paid and borne by the several Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, making such Exchanges or Partitions, and in such Proportions as the said Commissioners shall order and direct.

Allowances to tenants of Copy-hold Lands.

LX. And be it enacted, That all and every the Allowances to be made in pursuance of this Act, for or in respect of any Freehold Estates, shall be deemed and taken to be and held and enjoyed as Freehold Estates (subject nevertheless to the Superior Rights of the Lords of the respective Manors in which the same are situate), and all and every the Allowances to be made for or in respect of any Copyhold or Copyhold Estates held of any Manor or Manors in which such Copyhold or Copyhold Estates respectively lie or are situate, shall be deemed and taken to be as Copyhold or Copyhold Estates, and shall be held of the Lords of the Fee thereof, under the same Rents and by the same Customs and Services as the Copyhold or Copyhold Lands and Hereditaments for or in respect of which they were so allotted are or ought to have been held, and shall pass by the like Surrenders as the Copyhold or Copyhold Lands and Hereditaments in respect whereof such Allowances shall be made now do pass.

Wife and her-
affected.

LXI. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed, adjudged, deemed or taken, to revoke, annul or make void any Settlement, Deed, Will or Lease whatsoever, or to prejudice any Person or Persons having any Right or Claim of Coverture, Jointure, Rent, Service, Oblit, Charge or Incumbrance, in, out of, upon or over, or affecting the said Forest, or upon the Commonable Lands and Grounds so to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or exchanged by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty first Year aforesaid, or of this Act, or any Part or Parts thereof; but that the several Allowances so to be allotted or given in Exchange upon such Division or Allotment or Inclosure thereof, to the several Owners and Proprietors respectively, shall immediately shew such Allowances or Exchanges shall be made and fit out, be, remain and endure, and be held and enjoyed, and the several Persons to whom the same shall be so allotted or exchanged as aforesaid, shall, from the Execution of the said final award, deed, be seized and possessed thereof respectively, to such and the same Uses, and for such and the same Estates, and with such and the same Powers and Authorities for making Leases thereof or otherwise, and subject to such and the same Wills, Limitations, Conditions, Settlements, Trusts, Provisions, Reservations, Reversions, Deductions, Charges and Incumbrances (Right of Common and Common of Pasture as aforesaid, and such other Exemptions and Privileges as are herein made, only excepted), as the said several Lands and Hereditaments, in respect of which the same were, or in Right whereof such Allowances were and are to be made to them respectively, stood severally limited, or disposed and liable unto at the time of making such Allowances respectively, or of the Execution of the said final Award.

Lands in such Rent reserved.

LXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Allowances of the Land to be made of the said Forest by virtue of this Act, in respect of any Manors, Houses or Lands held by Lease or Leases at Rent Rent, or for which Lands or Houses are reserved thereon as have been paid to the Grantors or Lessors as the Considerations for the same, shall be allotted to and held by the several Owners and Proprietors of such Manors, Houses and Lands, freed and discharged from all Right or Claim of such respective Lessors, to, or upon the said Allowances or any Part thereof, to be derived under or by virtue of such Leases; and in case any of such Lessors shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved thereby, and such Lessors and Lessors shall not settle the same in their mutual Satisfaction, then and in every such case it shall

and

and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners an Application made to them by either Party, to take the Matters in Question into their Consideration, and by their Orders to make into every such Lease, for his, her and their Leds of Commensure, or other Lessee by means of the said Deed, Allotment and Inclosure, such a fair and adequate Allowance and Compensation, either in Money to be paid down, or by way of Abatement or Reduction in the Rack Rent, by such Lessee returned, as the said Commissioners shall think just and equitable.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Sheep or Lambs shall be kept in any of the new Inclosures to be made by virtue of this Act, during the Space of Ten Years from the Execution of the said final Award, which the Person or Persons keeping such Sheep or Lambs shall do, at his, her or their own Expense, four or five hundred, her or their Neighbour's Quickset along the Inclosures wherein such Sheep or Lambs shall be kept, in so to prevent any Damage being done to such Quicksets by such Sheep or Lambs; and it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to turn or put or cause to be turned or put any Sheep, Lambs, Horses, Asses or other Beasts or Cattle, into any of the Ways, Lanes or Roads, on either Side of which any newly planted Fence shall be growing.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall advance any Sum or Sums of Money for defraying the Expenses of obtaining and passing this Act, or of carrying the same into Execution, every such Person shall be repaid the same with Interest, after the Rate of Five Pence per Centum per Annum, out of the first Moneys that shall be raised or received by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act, for defraying such Expenses.

LXV. And Whereas some of the Owners or Proprietors to whom Allotments shall be made by virtue of this Act, may have occasion to borrow Money to defray their respective Shares and Proportions of the Charges and Expenses of obtaining and carrying this Act into Execution: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Owners or Proprietors, and for all other Persons whatsoever interested in such respective Allotments, being a Tenant or Tenants for Life or Lives, or in Fee Tail General or Special, or by the Courtesy of England, or Lessee or Lessees for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives; and also to and for the Husband, Guardian, Trustee and Committee of any of the said Owners or Proprietors, being under Coverture, Minors, Idiots, Lunatics, beyond the Seas, or labouring under any other Disability whatsoever; and also to and for all Persons acting as Guardians, Trustees or Committee of any Owners or Proprietors, being under any Disability or Incapacity whatsoever, whether such Owners or Proprietors respectively be Tenants for Life with or without Impediment of Waste, Tenants in Fee Tail General or Special, or Tenants by the Courtesy of England, or Lessee or Lessees for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, by any Deed or Deeds, Writing or Writings, under their respective Hands and Seals, to be duly executed and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, to charge such Lands and Grounds as shall be allotted to such Owners and Proprietors respectively with any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Five Pounds, for each and every Acre thereof, for defraying their respective Proportions of the Charges and Expenses of obtaining and executing this Act, and of inclosing and subdividing their respective Allotments, as the said Commissioners shall think proper for such Purpose, the same to be paid to such Person or Persons, and to be applied for the Purposes aforesaid, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct and appoint; and for securing the Repayment of such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest for the same, to grant, lease, demise, mortgage, surrender or otherwise subject their said respective Allotments or any Part thereof, unto any Person or Persons who shall advance and lend such Sum or Sums of Money respectively, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, for any Term or Number of Years; in that any such Grant, Lease, Mortgage, Demise, Surrender or Security be made with a Provision or Condition to enure and be void, or with an express Trust to be secured, when such Sum or Sums of Money thereby to be secured, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied; and in that in every such Grant, Lease, Mortgage, Demise, Surrender or Security, which shall be made by any Person or Persons interested in or entitled unto the Premises for the Term of their natural Life only, or by his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees, Committee or Committees, there be contained a Provision or Condition, that the Owner or Proprietor of the said Premises shall duly pay and keep down the Interest of any Sum or Sums of Money to be thereby secured, during their respective Lives; and no Person afterwards becoming seized or possessed of the said Premises shall be liable to the Payment of any further or larger Amount of Interest than for One Year preceding the time at which the Title to such Possession shall have commenced; and every such Grant, Lease, Mortgage, Demise, Surrender or Security of the said Premises, shall be good, valid and effectual in the Law, for the Purposes thereby intended.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, after having finished and completed each Subdivision and Allotments of the said Parish, draw up or cause to be drawn up their final Award, in the manner prescribed by the said second Act of the said Forty first Year of the King of His present Majesty, and which shall be made within Five Years after the passing of this Act, and the same when enrolled in manner directed by the said Act shall be deposited and left with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Devon, and, where the same shall not be deposited and enrolled at all feasible time in the Day-time, for ever thereafter, by any Person or Persons whatsoever paying the Sum of One Shilling and no more, to the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, for every such Inspection and Perusal; and Two Copies of such Award shall be enrolled, one of them in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, and the other of them in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, those to remain on Record, and shall afterwards be filed and preserved amongst the Minutes of the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue; such Award, or the Instrument thereof, to be produced and read in Evidence on all Questions where any Doubt on Controversy may arise relating to or affecting the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, Enrolled.

Myself, his Heirs and Successors, in respect of any Assentment vested in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by virtue of this Act.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That once at least in each and every Year, during the Execution of this Act (such Year to be computed from the Day of passing thereof) the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to make a true and just Statement or Account of all Sums of Money by them or any of them received and expended, or due to them for their own Trouble and Expenses in the Execution of this Act; and such Statement or Account, when so made, together with the Vouchers relating thereto, shall be by them, if required, laid before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County of Berkshire (not interested in the said intended Division, Assentment and Inclosure, to be by them examined and balanced at a Public Meeting of the Proprietors, whereof Twenty-one Days' Notice shall be given in the Cambridge News-paper), such Justices being hereby authorised to take or call such Aids and Affidavits in such Examination as they shall think fit, and to charge the incidental Expenses thereof; and the Balance shall be by such Justices thrust in the Books of Account to be kept in the Office of the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners; and as Charge or Item in such Accounts shall be binding on the Parties concerned, or valid in the Law, unless allowed by Two Justices of the Peace as aforesaid.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance of the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or of this Act (either then and except such Orders and Determinations of the said Commissioners or Justices, or as by the said last recited Act or by this Act directed to be said or to be done, and save and except in such cases wherein an Issue at Law shall be tried as heretofore directed), then and in every such case, he, she or they may appeal to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, which shall be held for the said County of Berkshire, within Six Calendar Months next after such Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, on giving to the said Commissioners Twenty-one Days' previous Notice of such Appeal; and the Justices at the said Quarter Sessions are hereby required to hear and determine the Matters of every such Complaint, and to make such Order therein, and to award such Costs as to them shall seem reasonable; and by their Warrant on any the Costs which shall be so awarded, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties liable to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Distress and Sale; which Determinations of the said Justices shall be final and conclusive to all Parties concerned, and shall not be removed by Writ or any Writ or Writ whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or elsewhere.

LXIX. And whereas it may happen that some Parts of the said Forest which are out within the Bounds or Limits of any Parish, may heretofore have been situated, in which case the Inhabitants thereof well know as Place of Public worship to resort to, and it is therefore expedient, that as well for the Convenience of such Inhabitants, as for the extending the Benefits and Influence of Religious Worship and Instruction, that such Provisions should be made in this respect as are hereinafter contained: Be it therefore further enacted, That in case it shall hereafter appear that the said Forest or any considerable Part thereof is Extraparochial, that then such Quantity of Land as shall be necessary for the Site of a Church and for a Churchyard or Cemetery, and for the Site of a proper Parsonage House and Offices to be erected and built, and for a Garden and Yard or Homestead to be attached thereto, to the Extent in the whole of Ten Acres at the least, shall be referred by The Crown out of the Lands so to be allotted to His Majesty as aforesaid, and shall not be sold; and that in case, at any time hereafter, the Number of Persons who shall be resident and inhabiting upon that Part of the said Forest which is Extraparochial, shall, in the Judgment and Opinion of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Bishop of Saunderland for the time being, be such as shall render it expedient that a Church shall be erected upon the said Assentment for the Performance of Divine Worship therein, and for the affording Religious Instruction to the Inhabitants of such Part of the said Forest as is Extraparochial, then and in such case the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall, by and out of the Land Revenues of The Crown, cause a new Church and a fit and convenient Parsonage House and Offices to be erected and built upon Part of the Lands so to be referred as aforesaid, and shall appropriate other Part thereof near to the said Church, for a Churchyard or Burial Ground, and the Residue thereof as a Garden, Yard or Homestead to the said Parsonage House, and shall include the same accordingly, so such manner as the said Commissioners shall think proper for such Purposes; and shall cause the said Church when so erected, and the Churchyard to be attached thereto, to be duly consecrated according to the Usage of the Church of England; and the said Church shall be for ever thereafter set apart and dedicated as and for a Place of Divine Worship, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England, for the Use of all the Inhabitants who shall so reside within that Part of the said Forest which is Extraparochial, and shall be named and called The Parish Church of Berkshire; and that such Part of the said Forest as is at present Extraparochial, shall for ever thereafter form and be a distinct Parish of itself and be called by the Name of The Parish of Berkshire: Provided always, that there shall be set apart and appropriated to the Church to be erected and built by virtue of this Act such a Number of Acres for the gratuitous Accommodation of the Poor of the said Parish, as the said Bishop of the Diocese shall think necessary, proper and convenient.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Erection and Consecration of the said Parish Church, the said Piece of Ground which shall be so included and appropriated as a Churchyard or Cemetery as aforesaid, shall be and for ever continue to be a Churchyard or Place of Burial for all the Inhabitants of such new Parish of Berkshire.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Plan or Design of such Church, Parsonage House, Offices and other Buildings, shall be submitted to and approved by the Bishop of Saunderland for the time being before

And be it further enacted, That for the Maintenance and Support of the Minister of the said Church for the time being, he shall have and be allowed a Yearly Stipend or annual Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, to be paid to him half-yearly, without any Deductions, by Warrant from the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, out of the Land Revenues of The Crown; and such Minister shall also have and be entitled to receive and take all such Rectorial Offings, Dues, Surplus Fees, Donations and Emoluments, as are or shall be usually payable for Parochial Duties in other Parishes.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Advowson, Right of Patronage, free Disposition and Nomination of, in and to the same Church, when the same shall have been so erected, built and consecrated as aforesaid, shall appertain and belong to The King's Most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That when the said Church shall have been so built and consecrated as aforesaid, and at all times thereafter, Banns of Marriages may be published, and Marriages may be celebrated therein in such Manner and under such Restrictions and Regulations as the same may by Law be published and celebrated in any other Church or Public Chapel, wherein Banns and Marriages are allowed by Law to be published and celebrated; and that every such Marriage shall be valid and effectual in all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; provided all such Banns and Marriages shall be published and celebrated according to the Laws and Customs which shall be then in force within this Realm or that behalf.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That after the said Church shall be so built and consecrated as aforesaid, Churchwards and Burials shall and lawfully within the said Church shall be registered in Public Registers, to be provided and kept for that Purpose, in like manner as by Law directed, or as is usually practised in other Parish Churches.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That when the said Church shall have been so built and consecrated, and the said Parish be formed as aforesaid, all the Laws and Statutes which shall be then in force within that Part of the United Kingdom called England, relating to Parishes or to Parochial Officers, shall be in full Force, and have Effect and Operation in all respects in relation to such new Parish and Parish Officers of the said new Parish of Broadbush, in like manner as if the same had been a Parish previously to the making and passing the same Laws and Statutes.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after the said Church shall be so built and consecrated, and the said Parish shall be so formed as aforesaid, any Number of the Inhabitants of such new Parish shall think fit to apply by Petition to the Justices at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be holden for the said County of Broadbush, to have the said Parish divided into Two or more Townships, then and in such case it shall be lawful to and for the Justices so intended in the Premises, in their said General Quarter Sessions, and they are hereby required so to do: such Petition, and to investigate and enquire into the Allegations therein contained; and if upon such Hearing the said Justices shall think it requisite or expedient that the said Parish shall be divided into Two or more Townships, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices, in their said General Quarter Sessions, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to make such Order and Award for the Division of the said Parish into Two or more Townships accordingly, and to give all such Directions in relation thereto as they shall think requisite and necessary; and in such case such Order shall be so made, then and from thenceforth the said Parish shall be divided accordingly into such Townships; and such Townships shall be called by such Names as the said Justices shall in and by such Order direct; and every such Township shall from thenceforth for ever thereafter provide for its own Poor, and have and enjoy and be vested with such and the like Powers, Privileges and Immunities, and be subject to such and the like Regulations as are or shall be then incident to and hold and enjoyed by the several other Townships within the said County of Broadbush, by the Laws and Statutes in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England.

LXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not defect or prejudice the Right or Interest of The King's Most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or to any Heirs of Coal, Lead Ores, or any other Minerals whatsoever, in or under the same Town or any Part thereof, but that His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and His or their Ladies and Grantees, Agents, Servants and Workmen, may search for, work, dig, raise and carry away all Coal, Lead Ores, Metals, and all other Minerals whatsoever, as fully and effectually in all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if this Act had not been passed; save only that they shall respectively do as little Damage as possible in the Lands to be divided, situated and intended as aforesaid, and shall make reasonable Satisfaction and Recompense from time to time to the Person

An Act to authorize the Appointment of Commissioners for creating an Harbour for Ships to the Eastward of Dunbury, within the Port and Harbour of Dublin. [11th July 1815.]

WHEREAS the Erection of an Asylum Harbour or Place of Refuge for Ships and Vessels to the Eastward of Dunbury, within the Port and Harbour of Dublin, will be of great Advantage to the Ships and Vessels trading to the said Port and Harbour, and of great Utility to the Trade and Commerce between Great Britain and Ireland, and it is expedient to provide for the Appointment of Commissioners for the making of such Surveys and Plans and Estimates as may be necessary to be made preliminary to the proceeding in the creating of the said Harbour or Place of Refuge: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this purpose Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, under his or their Hand or Hands to nominate any fit Person, not exceeding Five in Number, to be Commissioners for the Purpose of this Act; and the said Persons so to be nominated shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the Purpose of this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to revoke the Appointment of any Person or Persons to be such Commissioner or Commissioners, and from time to time to nominate and appoint such other Person or Persons to be a Commissioner or Commissioners as such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors for the time being, shall think fit; and able to appoint from time to time any Person or Persons to be a Commissioner or Commissioners to supply any Vacancy which may be occasioned by the Death or Resignation of any Commissioner or Commissioners who may be appointed under or by virtue of this Act; and so Commissioners to be appointed under or by virtue of this Act shall be paid, or receive or take any Fee, Reward, Emolument or Allowance; whenever, for or on account of any thing to be done in pursuance of this Act, or for or on account of the Execution of the Powers by this Act vested in such Commissioners, or any of them.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act shall from time to time proceed to make such Surveys, Plans and Estimates as be made and prepared as shall be directed by the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office for the time being, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being; and that for that Purpose it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorized and required from time to time to employ such Engineers, Surveyors, Officers, Clerks and Servants, as they shall think proper and expedient for such Purposes.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful so and for the Engineers, Surveyors, Agents, Workmen and Servants employed by the said Commissioners from time to time to enter upon all or any Lands or Grounds of any Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, in or upon which it shall be judged expedient that the said Asylum Harbour or Place of Refuge, or any Pier, Quay, Erection or Buildings, for the Purpose of making or completing such Harbour, shall be made, erected or built, in order to survey and take Plans and Levels of the same, and to set out and ascertain such Parts of such Lands or Grounds as the said Commissioners shall think necessary or proper for such Purposes, such Surveyors, Engineers, Agents or Servants, making Satisfaction for such Damages as they shall do thereby to the Occupiers of such Lands or Grounds for the time being, in and the sum shall exceed the Sum of One Shilling Sterling.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall in all things touching the Execution of this Act proceed according to such Orders and Directions as shall be given by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners for executing the said Office, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

C A P. CXCLII.

An Act to remove certain Difficulties in the Disposition of Copyhold Estates by Will.

[12th July 1815.]

WHEREAS by the Customs of certain Manors, Copyhold Estates of such Manors pass by the last Will and Testament of the Copyhold Tenants thereof declaring the Uses of Surrenders made for that Purpose; And Whereas much Inconvenience has arisen from the Necessity of making such Surrenders, for Kennedy whereof, May it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all cases where by the Custom of any Manor in England or Ireland any Copyhold Tenant of such Manor may by his or her last Will and Testament dispose of or appoint his or her Copyhold Tenements, the same having been surrendered to such Uses as should be declared by such last Will and Testament, every Disposition or Charge made or to be made by any such last Will and Testament by any Person who shall die after the passing of this Act, of any such Copyhold Tenements, or of any Right, Title or Interest in or to the same, shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, although no Surrender shall have been made to the Use of the last Will and Testament of such Person, as the same would have been if a Surrender had been made to the Use of such Will.

II. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That no Person entitled or claiming to be entitled to Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in consequence of any Testamentary Disposition, shall be entitled to be admitted to the same by virtue of any thing in this Act contained, except upon Payment of all such Stamp Duties, Fees and Sums of Money as would have been lawfully due and payable in respect of the surrendering of such Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to the Use of such Will, or in respect of the preferring, registering or settling such Surrender, had the same Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments been surrendered to the Use of the Will of the Person so disposing of the same; all such Stamp Duties, Fees or Sums of Money due as aforesaid to be paid in addition to the Stamp Duties, Fees or Sums of Money due or payable on the Admission of such Person so entitled or claiming to be entitled to the same Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and the Stamp Duties to be affixed to the Copy of the Admission.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed, deemed or taken, as Law or in Equity, to render void or effectual any Devise or Disposition of any Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Right, Title or Interest in or to Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which would be valid or effectual if this Act had not been made; or to render void or effectual any Devise or Disposition of any Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Right, Title or Interest in or to any Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which would be invalid or effectual if a Surrender had been made to the Use of the last Will and Testament of the Person attempting to dispose of the same by Will; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners to make surveys and estimates to be made.

Engineers and others may enter on Grounds for making Harbours, &c.

Satisfaction for Damages.

Commissioners to proceed under Direction of Treasury.

Disposition by Will of Copyhold Estates effectual without previous Surrender to Use thereof.

Admission under Testamentary Disposition, to pay the Fees, &c. as payable on Surrender.

Act not to invalidate Devise of Copyhold, &c.

An Act to enable His Majesty, until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, to regulate the Trade and Commerce carried on between His Majesty's Subjects and the Inhabitants of the United States of America. [12th July 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient for the Purpose of a Commercial Intercourse with the Inhabitants of the United States of America, that certain Powers should be given for a limited time to His Majesty's Council for regulating the said Commercial Intercourse: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to give such Directions, and to make such Regulations with respect to Duties, Drawbacks, or otherwise, for carrying on the Trade and Commerce between the People and Territories belonging to The Crown of Great Britain and the People and Territories of the said United States, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary: any thing in an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled *An Act for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in North America, and in the West India Islands, and the Countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said Subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies; or in an Act passed in the Thirty seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled *An Act for carrying into Execution the Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation, concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America; or any other Act, Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that this Act and the Powers and Authorities hereby given to His Majesty, and all Orders issued and published in consequence thereof, shall continue and be in force until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

C A P. CXCVII.

An Act for better regulating the Practice of Apothecaries throughout England and Wales. [12th July 1815.]

WHEREAS His Majesty King James the First, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the Sixth Day of December, in the Fifteenth Year of his Reign, did give His Majesty's Council, his Heirs and Successors, grant unto William Byrd, and divers other Persons therein named, and to all and singular other Persons whomsoever, brought up and befall to the Art, Mystery or Faculty of Apothecaries, and exercising the same Art, Mystery or Faculty, then being Free-men of the Mystery of Grocers of the City of London, or being Free-men of any other Art, Mystery or Faculty, to the said City of London (in as they had been brought up and were expert in the Art or Mystery of Apothecaries) that they and all such Men of the said Art and Mystery of Apothecaries of and in the said City of London and Suburbs of the same, and within seven Miles of the said City, might and should be one Body Corporate and Politic, in Substantia, Deed and Name, by the Name of "The Master, Wardens and Society of the Art and Mystery of Apothecaries of the City of London;" and did ordain and declare, that by the same Name they might have perpetual Succession, and have, purchase, possess, enjoy and retain Messuages, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Liberties, Prerogatives, Franchises, Jurisdictions and Hereditaments to them and their Successors, in Fee Simple, and Proprietary, for ever Term of Year or Years, or otherwise howsoever; and also Goods and Chattels, and all other Things lawfully of what Name, Nature, Kind, Quality or Sort soever they should be; and also that they might grant, demise, alien, assign and dispose of Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and do and execute all and singular other Acts and Things by the said Name; and that by the said Name of Master, Wardens and Society of the Art and Mystery of Apothecaries of the City of London, they should and might be able to plead and be pleaded, and might have suit over a Common Seal, and the said Seal as their Pleasure from time to time might break, change, alter and renew, as to them should seem best; and His said Majesty did, by his said Letters Patent, ordain and grant unto the said Master, Wardens and Society of the Art and Mystery of Apothecaries aforesaid, certain Ordinances, Rules and Regulations, to be observed, kept and maintained by them, as in the said Charter are more fully expressed: And Whereas some of the Clauses and Provisions contained in the said recited Charter, in so far as the same regard the said Society of Apothecaries, have been found inadequate for the Purpose of thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient that the same should be altered, varied and enlarged, and further and other Provisions made: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Charter of the fifthteenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King James the First, and all and every the Powers, Privileges, Prerogatives, Franchises, Regulations, Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained (save and except such Part or Parts thereof as are hereby altered, varied or repealed), shall be, and the same is and are hereby declared to be in full force and virtue, and shall be as good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if this Act had not been made.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Charter as directs that the said Master and Wardens, and their Successors, or some or one of them, or some Assistant by the Master and Wardens to be appointed and assigned, at fit and convenient times, and in manner and Form convenient and lawful, from time to time as often as to the said Master and Wardens shall seem expedient, shall and may go and extend into any Shop

Shop or Shops, House or Houses, Cellar or Cellars, of any Person whatsoever, using or exercising the Art or Mystery of Apothecaries, or any Part thereof, within the City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Seven Miles of the said City, as well within the Liberty as without, where any Medicines, simple or compound, Wares, Drugs, Receipts, Distilled Waters, Chemical Oils, Syraps, Confections, Lohocks, Electuaries, Pills, Powders, Lozenges, Oils, Ointments, Plasters, or any other Things whatsoever, which belong or appertain to the Art or Mystery of Apothecaries as is aforesaid, are likely to be found; and to search, ferry and prove if the same Medicines, simple or compound, Wares, Drugs, Receipts, Distilled Waters, Chemical Oils, Syraps, Confections, Lohocks, Electuaries, Pills, Powders, Lozenges, Oils, Ointments, Plasters, or any Thing or Things whatsoever belonging to the Art or Mystery of Apothecaries aforesaid, be and shall be wholesome, medicurable, meet and fit for the Cure, Health and Ease of His Majesty's Subjects; and also to much of the said recited Charter as directs, that the aforesaid Master and Wardens of the Mystery aforesaid, and the said Assistants for the time being, therein nominated and appointed by the Master and Wardens, and their Successors from time to time, may have, and by virtue of their Persons shall have full Power and Authority to examine and try all and singular Persons professing, using or exercising, or which hereafter shall profess, use or exercise the Art or Mystery of Apothecaries, or any Part thereof, within the aforesaid City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Seven Miles of the said City, as well within the Liberty as without, touching or concerning their and every of their Knowledge, Skill and Science, in the aforesaid Art or Mystery of Apothecaries, and to remove and prohibit all those from the Exercise, Use or Practice of the said Art or Mystery, whom hereafter they shall find either crafty, ignorant or insufficient, or obstinate, or refusing to be examined by virtue of their Persons, in the Art or Mystery aforesaid; and also all and singular Medicines, Wares, Drugs, Receipts, Distilled Waters, Oils, Chemical Preparations, Syraps, Confections, Lohocks, Electuaries, Pills, Powders, Lozenges, Oils, Ointments and Plasters, and all other Things belonging to the aforesaid Art, which they shall find unlawful, deceitful, false, out of Use, unwholesome, corrupt, unmedicurable, pernicious, or hurtful, to burn before the Officer's Doors; and also to lay, impose, and exact Fines, and other Pains and Penalties, by Fines and Amercements upon such Offenders, according to their sound Discretion, and the Ordinances by them and their Successors to be aforesaid to be made and appointed, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

III. And be it further enacted, That, in and toward thereof, the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries for the time being, and their Successors, or any of the Assistants, or any other Person or Persons properly qualified, as hereinafter is mentioned, to be by the Master and Wardens nominated and assigned, not being fewer in Number than Two Persons at the least, shall and may from time to time, and at all reasonable and convenient times, in the Day time, as often as to the said Master and Wardens it shall seem expedient, go and enter into any Shop or Shops, of any Person or Persons whatsoever, using or exercising the Art or Mystery of an Apothecary in any Part of England or Wales; and shall and may search, ferry, prove and determine, if the Medicines, simple or compound, Wares, Drugs, or any Thing or Things whatsoever therein contained, and belonging to the Art or Mystery of Apothecaries aforesaid, be wholesome, meet and fit for the Cure, Health and Ease of His Majesty's Subjects; and also every such Medicines, Wares, Drugs and all other Things belonging to the aforesaid Art, which they shall find false, unlawful, deceitful, false, unwholesome, corrupt, pernicious or hurtful, shall and may burn, or otherwise destroy; and also shall and may report to the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the said Society, the Name or Names of such Person or Persons as shall be found to have the same in their Possession; and the said Master, Wardens and Assistants, shall and may impose and levy the following Fines and Penalties upon each and every Person whose Name shall be so reported to them, as hereinafter is mentioned; for the First Offence the Sum of Five Pounds, for the Second Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, and for the Third and every other Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person to be by the Master, Wardens and Assistants for the time being, chosen and appointed a Member of the Court of Examiners, or to be by the Master and Wardens nominated and assigned to go and enter into any Shop or Shops, for the Purpose aforesaid, within the City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Thirty Miles of the same, shall be deemed to be properly qualified, unless he shall be a Member of the Society of Apothecaries aforesaid, of not less than Ten Years standing; nor shall any Person be deemed to be properly qualified to be nominated and assigned to go and enter into any Shop or Shops in any other Part of England and Wales for the Purpose aforesaid, or to be appointed One of the Five Apothecaries hereinafter mentioned, and directed to be appointed for the Purpose of examining Assistants to Apothecaries in compounding and dispensing Medicines, as hereinafter is mentioned, except he shall have been an Apothecary in actual Practice for not less than Ten Years at least, previously to his being so nominated, or assigned or appointed.

V. And Whereas it is the Duty of every Person using or exercising the Art and Mystery of an Apothecary, to prepare with Exactness, and to dispense such Medicines as may be directed for the Sick by any Physician lawfully licensed to practise Physic by the President and Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, or by either of the Two Universities of Oxford or Cambridge; Therefore, for the further Protection, Security and Benefit of His Majesty's Subjects, and for the better Regulation of the Practice of Physic throughout England and Wales, be it enacted, That if any Person using or exercising the Art and Mystery of an Apothecary, shall at any time knowingly, wilfully and contumaciously refuse to make, mix, compound, prepare, give, apply or administer, or any way to sell, let on Sale, put forth or put in Sale to any Person or Persons whatsoever, any Medicines, Compound Medicines, or Medicinal Compositions, or shall dishonestly or negligently, falsely, unlawfully, inordinately or unskilfully make, mix, compound, prepare, give, apply or administer, or any way sell, let on Sale, put forth or put in Sale to any Person or Persons what-

Master, Wardens, &c. nominated members of the Court of Examiners, &c. and examine Drugs, &c.

Penalties.

Qualifications of Persons appointed to examine Drugs, &c.

Prohibition of refusal to make, mix, compound, prepare, give, apply or administer, or any way to sell, let on Sale, put forth or put in Sale to any Person or Persons what-whenever, any Medicines, Compound Medicines or Medicinable Compositions, as directed by any Prescription, Order or Receipt, signed with the Initials in his own Hand-writing, of any Physicians so lawfully licenced to practise Physick, such Person or Persons so offending shall, upon Complaint made within Twenty one Days by such Physicians, and upon Conviction of such Offence before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, which said Offender owe three hundred and fifty Marks, Excuse or Justification in this behalf, forsoever, for the First Offence, the Sum of Five Pounds; for the Second Offence the Sum of Two Pounds; and for the Third Offence, he shall forfeit his Certificate, and be rendered incapable in future of using or exercising the Art and Mystery of an Apothecary, and he liable to the Penalty inflicted by this Act upon all who practise as such without a Certificate, in the same manner as if such Party is convicted had never been furnished with a Certificate enabling him to practise as an Apothecary; and such Offender so deprived of his Certificate shall be rendered and deemed incapable in future of receiving and holding any fresh Certificate unless the said Party is applying for a Renewal of his Certificate, shall lawfully promise and undertake, and give good and sufficient Security, that he will out in future be guilty of the like Offence.

*Master and
appoint Deputy.*

VI. And be it further enacted, That each and every of them the said Master and Wardens for the time being, may, and they are hereby respectively empowered, by Writing under his or their Hands, to appoint any One or more of the said Court of Assistants to act as Deputy Master, or as Deputy Wardens, as the case may be, in all Matters and Things done, or authorized to be done, by the said Master, or the said Wardens, under and by virtue of the said recited Charter, or of this Act, and to remove such Deputy Master or Deputy Warden to be appointed from time to time, as the said Master or the said Wardens shall respectively think proper; and all Acts, Matters and Things, which shall be lawfully done by the said Deputy Master or Deputy Warden to be appointed as aforesaid, as the case may be, shall be as good, valid and effectual, as if the same were done and performed by the said Master and Wardens respectively.

*Master, Wardens, &c. re-
Act into Execution.*

VII. And Whereas much Mischievous and Inconvenience has arisen, from great Numbers of Persons in many Parts of England and Wales exercising the Functions of an Apothecary, who are wholly ignorant, and utterly incompetent to the Exercise of such Functions, whereby the Health and Lives of the Community are greatly endangered; and it is become necessary that Provision should be made for remedying such Evils; Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Master, Wardens and Society of the Art and Mystery of Apothecaries of the City of London, incorporated by the said recited Charter of His Majesty King James the First, and their Successors, shall be, and they are hereby appointed and constituted, directed and empowered, for ever, to superintend the Execution of the Provisions of this Act, and to enforce and carry the several Regulations and Provisions thereof, in relation to the several Persons practising the Art or Mystery or Profession of an Apothecary throughout England and Wales, and all other the Purposes of this Act, into full Execution.

Acts of Master, Wardens, &c. not valid until done at Meetings, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Act of the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries, incorporated as aforesaid, for the carrying any of the Powers and Provisions of this Act into Execution, shall be, or be deemed to be good or valid (save and except as to such Acts as shall be done by the said Master, Wardens and Assistants, or others appointed by them, or any of them, as heretofore is provided, in pursuance of the Powers and Authorities heretofore given to them to enter into Shops to search for, examine and destroy unwholesome Drugs or Medicaments, and also save and except as to such Acts as shall be done by the said Court of Examiners, or the major Part of them present, or by the Five Apothecaries heretofore mentioned, or the major Part of them present, in pursuance of the Authorities heretofore given to them), unless the same be done at some Assembly or Meeting to be holden by the said Master, Wardens and Society, in the Hall of the said Society; and that all the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted to, or vested in the said Master, Wardens and Society as aforesaid, shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Art and Mystery of Apothecaries aforesaid for the time being, or by the major Part of them present, who shall stand at any such Assembly or Meeting to be holden as aforesaid, the Number present as such Assistants or Meetings not being less than Thirteen, of which the said Master for the time being shall always be one; and all the Orders and Proceedings of the said Master, Wardens and Assistants for the time being, or of such major Part as aforesaid, shall have the same Force and Effect, as if the same were made or done by the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries incorporated as aforesaid.

*Court of Examiners
by Master,

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of Ten Pounds Ten Shillings shall be paid to the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries, for every such Certificate as aforesaid, on obtaining the same, by every Person intending to practise as an Apothecary within the City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Ten Miles of the same City; and the Sum of Six Pounds Six Shillings by every Person intending to practise as an Apothecary in any other Part of England or Wales (except the said City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Ten Miles of the said City); and no Person being allowed a Certificate to practise as an Apothecary in any other Part of England or Wales (except the said City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Ten Miles of the said City as aforesaid), shall be entitled to practise within the said City of London, the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, or within Ten Miles of the said City, unless and until he shall have paid to the said Master, Wardens and Society, the further Sum of Four Pounds Four Shillings, in Addition to the said Sum of Six Pounds Six Shillings so paid by him as aforesaid, and shall have had entered on his said Certificate, a Receipt from the said Master, Wardens and Society, for such additional Sum of Four Pounds Four Shillings; and the Sum of Two Pounds Two Shillings by every Affiant; and the several Sums of Money arising from the granting of such Certificates shall be applied in manner hereinafter directed.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person (except such as are then actually practising as such) shall, after the said first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, act or practise as an Apothecary in any Part of England or Wales, without having obtained such Certificate as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if any Person (except such as are then acting as such, and excepting Persons who have actually served an Apprenticeship as aforesaid) shall, after the said first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, act as an Affiant to any Apothecary, to compound and dispense Medicines, without having obtained such Certificate as aforesaid, every Person so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Apothecary shall be allowed to recover any Charges claimed by him in any Court of Law, unless such Apothecary shall prove on the Trial, that he was in Practice as an Apothecary prior to or on the said first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or that he has obtained a Certificate to practise as an Apothecary, from the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries as aforesaid.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the said Court of Examiners, or the major Part of them, having examined any Person or Persons applying to qualify himself or themselves to practise as an Apothecary, or if they, or the said Five Apothecaries so to be appointed for any County or Counties as aforesaid, having examined any Person or Persons applying to qualify himself or themselves to practise as an Affiant to an Apothecary, is compounding and dispensing Medicines, shall for Cause to refuse such Certificate as aforesaid, to any such Person or Persons so applying to qualify himself or themselves as an Apothecary or Affiant as aforesaid; yet it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons who shall be so refused, to apply at any future time to be again examined, so that such Second Application by any Person or Persons applying to qualify himself or themselves as an Apothecary, be not within Six Months of such First Examination; and so that such Second Application by any Person or Persons applying to qualify himself or themselves as an Affiant, be not within Three Months of such First Examination; and if on such Re-examination he or they shall appear to the Persons examining, to be then properly qualified, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Examiners, or to and for the said Five Apothecaries in any County or Counties as aforesaid, to grant such Person or Persons so applying, such Certificate as aforesaid.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries, do make annually, and cause to be printed, an exact List of all and every Person who shall in that Year have obtained a Certificate to practise as an Apothecary, with their respective Abodes attached to their respective Names.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum or Sums of Money which shall be received or arise from the granting of the Certificates of Examination herebefore required, shall belong to and be appropriated and disposed of by the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries as aforesaid, in such manner as they shall from time to time direct and deem most expedient.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Sums and Sums of Money arising from Conviction and Recovery of Penalties for Offences committed against the Authority and Provisions of this Act, shall be applied and disposed of in manner following; viz. to the said Master, Wardens and Society of Apothecaries as aforesaid, to be appropriated and disposed of by them in such manner as they shall deem most expedient.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by virtue of this Act imposed (the manner of levying and recovering whereof is not otherwise hereby particularly directed) shall, if such Penalties and Forfeitures shall exceed the Sum of Five Pounds, be recovered by Action or Suit at Law, in the Name of the Master, Wardens and Society of the Art and Mystery of Apothecaries of the City of London, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record England or Wales, wherein an Ex Officio, Prothonotary or Wager at Law, or more than One Imparience shall be allowed; and if such Penalty or Forfeiture shall amount to less than the Sum of Five Pounds, then the same shall be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice of the Peace sitting for any County, City, Town or Place where the Offence shall be committed (which Warrant such Justice is hereby empowered and required to grant upon the Confession of the Party, or upon the Evidence of any credible Witness upon Oath, and which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered to administer); and the Overplus (if any) of the Money arising by such Distress and Sale shall be retained upon Demand to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the Costs and Charges of making, keeping and selling the Distress, and in case sufficient Distress shall not be found, or such Forfeitures and Penalties shall not be paid forthwith, it shall be lawful for such Justice, and he is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the Offender to be committed to the Common Gaol for the County, City, Town or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for any time not exceeding One Calendar Month, unless such Penalties and Forfeitures, and Costs, shall be sooner fully paid and satisfied.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Distress shall be made for any Sum of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers on account of any Defect or want of Form in the Notice or Information, Summons, Conventus, Warrant or Distress, or other Proceeding relating thereto; nor shall the Party or Parties distraining be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers ab initio, on account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards done by the Party or Parties so distraining; but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity, may recover full Satisfaction for the Special Damage is an Action upon the Case.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice, or in any way to affect the Trade or Business of a Chemist and Druggist, in the buying, preparing, compounding, dispensing and vending Drugs, Medicines and Medicinal Compositions, wholesale and retail; but all Persons shop or exercising the said Trade or Business, or who shall or may hereafter use or exercise the same, shall and may use, exercise and carry on the same Trade or Business in such manner, and as fully and amply to all Intents and Purposes, as the same Trade or Business was used, exercised or carried on by Chemists and Druggists before the passing of this Act.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to infringe, prejudice or detain, or in any way to interfere with any of the Rights, Authorities, Privileges and Immunities heretofore vested and exercised and enjoyed by either of the Two Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, the Royal College of Physicians, the Royal College of Surgeons, or the said Society of Apothecaries respectively, other than and except such as shall or may have been altered, varied or amended in and by this Act, or of any Person or Persons practising as an Apothecary previously to the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; but the said Universities, Royal College and the said Society, and all such Persons or Parties shall have, use, exercise and enjoy all such Rights, Authorities, Privileges and Immunities, free and except as aforesaid, in as full, ample and beneficial a manner, in all Intents and Purposes, as they might have done before the passing of this Act, and in case the same had never been passed.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be brought or preferred against any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, after Six Calendar Months next after the First commencing; or in case they shall be a Contemnor of Damages, then after Six Calendar Months next after the doing or commissioning such Damage shall have ceased, and not afterwards; and every such Action or Suit shall be laid and brought in the County where the Matter in Dispute shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit shall or may, at law, her or their Estates, plead specially the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to have been so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall have been brought before Twenty one Days' Notice shall have been given, or sufficient Satisfaction made or tendered as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become Nonsuit, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if, upon Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then the Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same, as any Defendant both for recovering Costs of Suit in any other cause by Law.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

And Whereas the Directors of the said Company have found it necessary for and towards the Improvement and Completion of the said Docks and Works, and the Entrances thereto, and for providing Accommodation for the Officers of Customs and Excise attending at the said Docks, to make sundry Contracts for, and to have Purchases of Houses, Lands, Tenements, Buildings and Hereditaments, situate near the said Docks, but the same not being within the Limits prescribed by the said recited Acts, such Contracts and Purchases cannot be made effectual without the Aid of Parliament: Be it therefore further enacted, That all Contracts which have been or shall be made by or on the behalf of the said Company, for the Purchase of all or any of the several Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, a Freehold House and Premises with the Appurtenances, being Number Four, in Wapping Street; Four Freehold Houses, with the Appurtenances, being Number One, Two, Three and Four, on the Western Side of Half Moon Court in Wapping; a Freehold House, with the Appurtenances, being Number Five, on the North Side of Half Moon Court aforesaid; a Freehold House with the Appurtenances, being Number Six, in Half Moon Court aforesaid; a Freehold House with the Appurtenances, being Number Seven, in Half Moon Court aforesaid; a Leasehold Public House, with the Appurtenances, called The Duke of Argyll, being Number Five, in Wapping Street; and a Freehold House, Warehouse and Premises, with the Appurtenances, situate at the North West Corner of Little Horsegate Street in Wapping; also a Leasehold Brewery, with sundry Messuages and other Buildings, Wharfs, and other Premises, with the Appurtenances held by Two several Leases heretofore granted and made by the Governors of Breadwell Hospital to Messieurs Puckard and Maidland, likewise situate in and near Wapping Street; all which said Messuages, Hereditaments and Premises, are situate in the Parish of Saint John of Wapping, in the said County of Middlesex; also Six Freehold Houses, with the Appurtenances, being Numbers One hundred and twenty eight, One hundred and twenty nine, One hundred and thirty, One hundred and thirty one, One hundred and thirty two and One hundred and thirty three, with a Tenement and Sheds behind the same, situate on the North Side of Pommes Street, and One Freehold House on the West Side of Chymist Hill, and a Piece or Parcel of Freehold Land, with the several Houses, Sheds and Buildings thereon, situate South on Peck Street, West on Sliver Street, and North and East on Premises the Property of The London Dock Company; All which said last mentioned Messuages, Hereditaments and Premises, are situate in the Parish of Saint George, Middlesex, commonly called Saint George in the Rags, in the County of Middlesex; and all Bargains, Sales, Conveyances, Leases, Transfers, Assignments and other Conveyances, which have been or shall be made of or in relation to the said Hereditaments and and President, or any of them, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, by or to or in Trust for or to or for the Use or Benefit of the said Company, shall be and the same are hereby declared and enacted to be as good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, and to have the same Effect, as if such Resolves, Resolutions, Laws, Treatments and Hierarchicals respectively had been within the Limits prescribed by the said recited Act, or any of them; any thing in the said Act, or any or either of them, or any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And he it further enacted, That in all cases under any Commission or Commissions of Bankrupt How Debt proved on estate of Bankrupt. (referred to or to be awarded against any Person or Persons, who is or are or shall be indebted to the said Company, or against whom the said Company shall or may have any Claims or Demands, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons in the employ of the said Company, who shall from time to time be in that behalf nominated and appointed by Writing under the Hand of the Treasurer of the said Company for the time being, to appear, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered to appear and act on behalf of the said Company, in respect of any such Debt, Claim or Demand, before the Commissioners under any Commission of Bankrupt, either personally, or by his or their Affidavit, to be duly sworn and exhibited in the usual manner, in order to prove and establish any such Debt, Claim or Demand, under such Commission; and every such Person or Persons to be nominated and appointed, shall in all such cases be admitted and allowed to make Proof, or tender a Claim under any such Commission of Bankruptcy, on behalf and for the Benefit of the said Company, in respect of the Debt or Debts or other Demands of the said Company against such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, in like manner as any other Person or Persons being a Creditor or Creditors of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, in his or their own Right might or could do in respect of his or their Debt or Debts; and any Person or Persons to be nominated or appointed in manner aforesaid, shall have full Power and Authority to appear on behalf of the said Company, at any Meeting of the Creditors of any such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and to vote therein, in respect of any Debt or Debts which shall be admitted and allowed to be proved on behalf of the said Company, under any such Commission of Bankrupt as aforesaid, in like manner as any other Creditor or Creditors of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts could or might do in respect of the Debt or Debts by him or them proved under such Commission or Commissions of Bankrupt.

IV. And, in order the better to enable the said Company to complete the said Docks and Works and the Estrems thereof, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Company, at any Meeting or Meetings to be specially called for that Purpose in the manner directed by the said recited Act, or any or either of them now in force in that behalf, by such ways and means and upon such Terms as at such Meeting or Meetings to be called shall be thought expedient, and be directed to augment the present Capital Stock of the said Company by any further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, in case such Meeting or the Majority of Votes of the Proprietors present and entitled to Vote therein shall declare it to be necessary and expedient so to augment the said Capital Stock; and that all such further and additional Capital Stock, not exceeding the additional and further Sum aforesaid, as shall be so raised, shall be considered as Part of the general Capital Stock of the said Company, and be under and subject to the same Provisions, Regulations, Directions and Management, in all Respects and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been Part of the said original Capital Stock of the said Company (except as to the time or times of making Calls for the said additional Capital Stock, and the Amount of such Calls; which time and times, and the Amount of such Calls respectively, shall from time to time be appointed by the Directors of the said Company or any Three or more of them): Provided always, that no more than Twenty Five Pounds per Centum of such additional Sum or Sums shall be so called for or appointed to be paid within One Month: Provided also, that all the Regulations, Provisions and Clauses contained in the said recited Act, in relation to the Calls for the original Capital of the said Company therein mentioned, and to the Recovery thereof, or of any Arrear thereof, and to the Performance of any Sums advanced by reason of any Neglect or Refusal to comply with such Calls, shall be applicable to the Calls for the said further and additional Sum hereby authorized to be raised or borrowed as aforesaid, or such Part or Parts thereof as shall be required to be raised by way of additional Capital Stock as aforesaid, and the Refusal or Neglect to comply with such Calls last mentioned.

V. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in case the Majority of Proprietors present and entitled to vote at any such Meeting or Meetings to be called as aforesaid, shall think it advisable to borrow the said further and additional Sum at Interest, in manner hereinafter mentioned, or shall deem it expedient to raise only a Part of the said further and additional Sum by way of Augmentation of their Capital Stock, and to borrow the Remainder thereof at Interest, then and in either of the said cases, it shall be lawful for the said Company to borrow and take up at Interest, on the Security or Securities hereinafter mentioned, any Sum or Sums of Money, so as the whole Sum to be raised under the Authority of this Act shall not exceed such further and additional Sum as aforesaid, and in order to the raising of the same, or any Part or Parts thereof, in the manner last aforesaid, the said Company, or the Directors of the said Company for the time being, or any Three or more of them, shall and may, at the Costs and Charges of the said Company, assign over the Rates and Duties arising by virtue of the said first recited Act, or a competent Part thereof; and also shall and may, if they shall think it proper, charge and subject all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments or of belonging to the said Company, or a competent Part thereof, as a Security or Securities for the Repayment of any such Sum or Sums of Money to be borrowed, together with Interest, to such Person or Persons, or his, her or their Trustee or Trustees, Nominee or Nominees, Executors or Administrators; and all such Assignments and Securities shall be made and entered, and shall be enforceable from time to time in the same manner (mutatis mutandis); and the same, and the Moneys which may be so borrowed as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof, shall be under and subject to such and the same Provisions, Regulations, Directions and Management in all respects, as are in and by the said first recited Act prescribed and directed, concerning the Assignments and Securities to be made and given for the Monies thereby authorized to be borrowed by the said Company, and concerning such like mentioned Monies and the Interest thereof.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to infer in any Securities to be made as aforesaid (if the Majority of the said Proprietors present, and entitled to vote at any such Meeting, shall think fit), an Agreement, by which a Right shall be given to the respective Persons who shall advance and lend the said Money, or any Part thereof, or to the Persons who for the time being shall be entitled thereto, to have an Option of having their several and respective Loans repaid in Money, or of being admitted to have each a Share of the Capital Stock of the said Company, in lieu thereof, at such time or times, and upon such Terms and Conditions as shall be agreed upon by the Directors of the said Company, or any Three or more of them, under the Authority of any such Meeting or Meetings of the said Company as aforesaid, on the One Part, and the Persons from whom such Monies shall be borrowed from time to time on the other Part; be nevertheless that the respective Shares of the said Capital Stock, and the time or times, and the Terms or Conditions to be agreed upon as aforesaid, in relation to such Option, shall be expressed in the respective Securities for such Principal Monies, otherwise the Agreement or Agreements for such Option shall be void and have no effect.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company to borrow all or any Part of the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds mentioned in the said recited Act passed in the Fourth (a) Year of His present Majesty, in the manner directed by that Act, as well as the said additional and further Sum by this Act authorized to be raised or borrowed as aforesaid; any thing in the Acts of Parliament passed in relation to the said Company, or any of them, to the contrary notwithstanding. (a) [30 & 40 G. 3. c. 166. § 22.]

VIII. And be it further enacted, That none of such Assignments and Securities, to be made by the said Company or by the said Directors, or any Three or more of them, pursuant to any of the Acts of Parliament passed in relation to the said Company, or pursuant to this Act, shall, on account of prior Date or Execution, be entitled to any Priority of Payment or other Preference before any other or others of such Securities of later Date or Execution; except the Preference which from time to time may be agreed to be given in relation to the Option of converting Loans into Capital Stock, under the Authority of this Act, and also except the Security hereby authorized to be given upon the said Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of the said Company, or such Part thereof as aforesaid in relation to the said further and additional Sum by this Act authorized to be raised or borrowed, or such Part or Parts thereof as shall or may be charged on the said Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company, and they are hereby authorized and required to pay the Interest of the said further and additional Sum, or so much and such Part and Parts thereof as shall be raised by way of Loan, in manner aforesaid (and whether with or without such Option as aforesaid), of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, out of any Monies which shall from time to time be in the Hands or Power of the said Company, applicable to the Purposes of the said recited Acts or of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Interest of the Money which shall be borrowed on Assignment or Mortgage under the Authority of this Act shall, from the time the said Money or any Part thereof shall be advanced, be payable Half yearly to the several Parties entitled thereto, in Preference to any Interest or Dividend due and payable to the said Company, or any of them, and shall from time to time be fully paid and discharged or provided for, before any Interest or Dividends due to the said Company, or any of them, shall be paid.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Regulations and Prerogatives, as to voting or otherwise, and all Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Acts (so far as the same are not hereby varied, altered or repealed), shall extend and be construed to extend to this Act, and to the said Company and the Directors thereof and others carrying this Act into Execution, and also to all Proprietors or Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, possessed of any Capital Stock advanced under any of the Provisions of this Act, or lending any Sum of Money to the said Company under the same, their respective Executors, Administrators or Assigns, and also to the Treasurer, Assignee or Performer of any such Capital Stock, and to the Securities for any Money so lent; and also as to the procuring or defending any Actions or Suits in the Name of or against the Treasurer of the said Company, and shall operate and be in force as to all such additional Capital Stock or Money lent, and the Application of the Money to be raised by virtue of this Act as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were severally and particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

XII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

An Act for erecting a Shire Hall, Courts of Justice and other Buildings, for Public Purposes; and for providing suitable Accommodations for His Majesty's Justices of Assize, in and for the County of Berford. [23d March 1815.]

WHEREAS the Shire Hall for the County of Berford is locally situate within the City of Berford, in the same County, and the Alders and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the County Courts and other Courts of and for the said County have been there holden; and the said Shire Hall is also the accustomed Place for electing Knights of the Shire, and for holding the other Public Meetings of the said County of Berford: And Whereas at the Assizes and General Gaol Delivery holden in and for the said County of Berford, on Monday the Eighth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, it was ordered by the Grand Jury of and for the County of Berford, that the Shire Hall for the said County of Berford is a very inconvenient Building, and is adapted for the Accommodation of Justice; and that the said Shire Hall is much out of Repair and in Decay, and inefficient and unfit for the Public Purposes to which the same hath been and ought to be applied, and the Site thereof, being situated by a Public Street in the City of Berford, is now seized and confined to admit of Enlargement, so as to give adequate Attention or Improvement in the present Building, without creating great Inconvenience by obstructing the Highway and Passage in the said Street: And Whereas it is expedient to erect new Courts of Justice, with suitable Conveniences, wherein to hold the Alders and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the County Courts and other Courts for the said County of Berford, and to construct other Judicial Buildings; and also to erect a new Shire Hall for the County of Berford, and other proper Buildings for the Purposes of such County: And Whereas a new Gaol for the said County of Berford, was some time since erected; and the Site or Ground whereupon the old Gaol for the said County formerly stood, and the Buildings and Materials thereupon still remain useful and undisturbed of; and the same Site or Ground is situate in the said City of Berford, lying in Front next to Salter's Lane Street, is the Perch of St. Peter's, in the said City, and being at a short Distance from the present Shire Hall, is well calculated for such new Buildings, with Accommodations thereto, and affords an easy Communication with the present Gaol of the said County of Berford; and it is expedient that the said Site or Ground should be made use of for the said Purposes, but to adapt the same for such Purposes, and to make convenient Avenues and Approaches thereto, it will be necessary to purchase several Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Gardens and Pieces of Ground adjacent and appertaining thereto: And Whereas it is expedient that better Accommodations should be procured for The King's Judges, when holding the Assizes in the said City of Berford, and there appears to be no Mode of procuring permanent and suitable Accommodations for them, but by the Expence of a considerable Sum of Money, either in the purchase, repairing or building of some House for that Purpose: And Whereas it is expedient that the Expence of purchasing, repairing, altering or building such Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Gardens and Pieces of Ground, as shall be necessary for the several Purposes aforesaid, and of erecting and making the said new Courts of Justice, Shire Hall, Lodgings for His Majesty's Judges, and other Buildings and Accommodations, and of obtaining and paying this Act, and also all other Expences attending the Execution thereof, should be borne and paid by and raised by way of Rate upon the said County of Berford; and it is expedient that such Expences should be borne in certain Proportions by and between the Proprietors and the Occupiers of Lands and Hereditaments within the said County; but as the several Rents and Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by

by the Authority of the Act, That all Persons who now are or shall hereafter for the time being be Justices of the Peace for the said County of Hampshire, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for dividing, ordering and managing the sessions and holding of new Courts of Justice, with suitable Commission, wherein to hold the Assizes and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the County Courts and other Courts for the said County of Hampshire, and to transact other Judicial Business, and also of a new Shire Hall for the said County of Hampshire, and other proper Rooms and Buildings for the Use and Public Purposes of the said County, and for making, widening, beautifying or improving the Arches or Approaches to or commanding the same respectively, and also the purchasing, adapting or erecting of any proper and commodious Messuages or Messuages, with Gardens and other suitable Conveniences and Accommodations for the lodging of the Majesty's Judges when holding Assizes in the said City, and repairing and fixing up the same, and the Application of the Site or Ground whereon the old Gaol for the said County stood, or any proper Part or Parts thereof, and such other Messuages, Buildings, Land, Ground and Hereditaments, as shall or may be purchased or acquired under the Powers of this Act, for such Erections and Buildings, or such other Purposes as aforesaid, and for filling such Parts of the said Site, Buildings, Ground and Premises, as shall not be wanted for the Purposes aforesaid, and for making and defraying the Expenses of such Erections and Buildings as aforesaid, and of all Sales, Purchases, and other Acts to be made and done under the Powers of this Act, and also the Expenses of obtaining and passing this Act, and generally for carrying this Act, and the several Purposes thereof, into Execution.

Meetings of Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, shall meet at the Commemorative Room at the present Gaol for the said County of Hampshire, and which is locally situate within the Liberties of the City of Hampshire, on the Monday next after the passing of this Act, or as soon after as conveniently may be, between the Hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Two in the Afternoon; of which First Meeting at least Eight Days' previous Notice shall be given by Five or more of the said Commissioners, in the Newspaper called The Hampshire Journal; and the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, shall there and there proceed to put this Act into Execution, and then and from time to time afterwards adjourn themselves to meet or otherwise meet according to such Notice as is hereinafter directed to be given, at such time or times, and at such Place or Places within the said County of Hampshire, as such Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, shall think proper and convenient; and if Two Commissioners shall not attend at the time and Place appointed for any such Meeting, then the Commissioners or Commissioner present may make such Adjournment; and if no such Commissioner shall be present, or if at any Meeting an Adjournment be required to be made, then the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Hampshire, or his Deputy, may arrive and continue the Meetings of the said Commissioners, by calling One or more Meetings for that Purpose, and causing such Notice to be given as is hereinafter directed; and every such Meeting so to be called for the Purpose of reviving and continuing the said Meetings, shall and may be adjourned in like manner; and all such Adjournments, and the Revivals and Continuances of the said Meetings, shall be entered by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County, or his Deputy, in a Book to be kept for that Purpose; and notwithstanding any Adjournment of the Meetings of the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, or for the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, under the Direction of the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, to convene a Meeting of the said Commissioners, at any time prior to Due to the time for which any Meeting shall have been adjourned; of which Meeting it to be convened, and the Purpose thereof, the like Notice shall be given as is hereinafter directed with respect to other Meetings of the said Commissioners.

It is hereby enacted that Notice given of Meetings, excepted by the Adjournments.

Quorum
appointed.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Orders, Contrasts, Sales, Purchases or other Acts or Proceedings of the said Commissioners, or any of them, in the Execution of this Act, shall be valid unless done or executed at a Meeting held in pursuance of this Act; and that previous Notice of all the Meetings to be held in pursuance of this Act (Meetings by Adjournment only excepted) shall be given in the said Newspaper by the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, or by the Clerk of the Peace for the time being, or his Deputy, Eight Days at least before each Meeting, which Notice shall specify the Time and Place of such Meeting, and at all such Meetings the said Commissioners shall pay their own Expenses, and at every such Meeting One of the said Commissioners present shall be appointed Chairman, and all the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted to or vested in such Commissioners, shall and may be exercised by the major Part of the Commissioners present (the whole Number present not being less than Five), and the Chairman shall not only have a single Vote, but in case of Equality of Votes upon any Question, shall have the decisive or casting Vote, and all the Orders and Decisions of the major Part of such Commissioners present at such Meetings, shall have the same Force and Effect as if the same were done by all such Commissioners for the time being.

Proceedings
taken.

IV. And be it further enacted, That Entries shall be made by the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, of all the Acts, Orders, Rules, Regulations, Decisions and Proceedings of the said Commissioners relative to the Execution of this Act; and all such Entries shall be deemed Originals, and shall be allowed to be read in Evidence in all Courts and other Places whatsoever, in all Causes, Suits, Actions or Disputes, touching any thing done in pursuance of this Act; and such Book or Books shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for the time being, and shall and may be perused and inspected at all reasonable times, by any Person containing towards the Expense of carrying this Act into Execution, on Payment to such Clerk of the Peace of One Shilling for each time of inspection, and One Shilling more for every Hour after the First Hour during which such inspection shall continue after the First Hour; and when all the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted to or vested in the said Commissioners shall cease, in consequence of the said Execution of such Powers and Authorities, such Book or Books shall be deputed with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Hireford, and be by him kept and preferred amongst the Records of the said County.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners may, if they think fit, nominate and appoint one or more Committee or Committees (consisting of any Number of their own Body) to superintend, regulate and control such Artificers, Officers and Workmen as shall be employed by the said Commissioners or any of them, and to see to the due Performance of such Contracts and Agreements and Works as may be entered into for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution, or any of them; and also to do and execute all such other Business, Services and Commissions, as shall be committed or entrusted to its Care, Management, Superintendence or Execution, for the Purposes of this Act; and to nominate and appoint several such Committees (if necessary) for separate Departments of the said Works, or with separate Objects, and to give Instructions to such Committees accordingly; and all Acts, Instructions, Orders and Directions, signed, done or given by the Majority of any such Committee (provided they do not exceed the Limits of the Orders of the Commissioners at large) shall be binding on such Artificers, Officers and Workmen as aforesaid, and all other Persons concerned therein, and good, valid and effectual for the Purposes to which the same shall relate.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, at any Meeting to be held in pursuance of this Act (and the special Objects of which such Notice as aforesaid shall be given), shall and may from time to time appoint a Treasurer or Treasurers, and such other Officers and Persons as they may think proper for assisting in the Execution of this Act, or for executing any Rules, Orders or Regulations to be made in pursuance of the same, with such Salaries and Allowances, to be paid out of the Moneys to be raised by this Act, as shall be thought reasonable by the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them; and also shall and may take Security from such Treasurers, or other Officers and Persons, for the faithful Execution of their Office respectively, and for duly accounting for all such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be received by such Treasurer or Treasurers, Officers and Persons, and paying the Balances thereof, from time to time as the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, shall appoint; and also may from time to time remove such Treasurer or Treasurers, Officers and other Persons or Persons, and appoint others in the Room of such of them as shall be so removed or shall die, and may when they the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, shall think proper, discontinue any such Treasurer or Treasurers, Officers and Persons to be appointed as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners may sue and be sued in the Name of the Clerk of the Peace for the time being; and that no Action to be brought or commenced by or against the said Commissioners, or any of them, by virtue of this Act, in the Name of the said Clerk of the Peace, shall abate or be discontinued by the Death or Removal of such Clerk of the Peace, or by the Act of the said Clerk of the Peace, without the Consent of the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, but that such Clerk of the Peace shall always be deemed the Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action, as the case may be: Provided always, that every such Clerk of the Peace shall be reimbursed, out of the Moneys to be raised by virtue of this Act, all such Costs, Charges, Damages and Expenses, as he shall be put unto or become chargeable with, by reason of his being made Plaintiff or Defendant as aforesaid.

VIII. Which Transfer or Assignment shall be produced to the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy for the time being, who shall register and enter the same in the said Book or Books to be kept for entering the said original Mortgages, for which he shall be paid Two Shillings and Six pence by the Person requesting the same; and after such Entry thereof made, and not till then, every such Transfer shall entitle such Assignee, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to the Benefit thereof and Payment thereof; and such Assignee may in like manner transfer and assign again from time to time (such Transfer being entered and paid for as aforesaid), and it shall not be in the Power of the Person or Persons who shall have made any such Assignment or Transfer of any such Mortgage or Mortgages as aforesaid, to make void, revoke or discharge the same, or any Money due thereon; and in case any such original Mortgage, Assignments or Securities shall be lost or destroyed, the Copies or Entries thereof, made as aforesaid, shall be deemed sufficient Evidence to entitle the Person or Persons to whom the Money due thereon shall respectively belong to the Payment thereof, as fully and effectually as if the said original Mortgage and Assignments respectively were existing; and the Clerk of the Peace, or Person in whose Custody such Copies or Entries shall happen to be, is hereby required to produce the same for the Benefit of such Creditors respectively.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Dividend shall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be lent by virtue of this Act, the Dividend itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor shall the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Information, Summons, Cession, Warrant of Distress, or in the Appointment of the Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, or of any other Agent or Person trying the same, or in any other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall the Party or Parties claiming be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers at law on account of any irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by the Party or Parties claiming, but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such irregularities shall and may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage which he, she or they shall have sustained thereby, with usual Costs as an Action of Trespass, or upon the Case.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines hereby inflicted or authorized to be imposed (the manner of trying and recovering whereof is not hereby otherwise directed) shall, upon Proof of the Offences respectively before any Justice of the Peace for the said County of Hertford, or Place where where the Offence shall be committed, either by the Confession of the Party or Parties offending, or by the Oath of any credible Witnesses or Witnesses (which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered to administer), and in case of Negligence thereof forthwith by the Offender or Offenders, he be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice (which Warrant such Justice is hereby empowered and required to grant for such Purpose), and the Overplus, after such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines, and the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale are recovered and deducted, shall be recovered upon Demand to the Owner or Owners of such Goods or Chattels; and in case sufficient Distress cannot be found, or such Penalties or Forfeitures, and all such Costs and Charges shall not be forthwith paid, it shall be lawful for such Justice and he is hereby authorized and required by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Gaol for the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for such time as such Justice shall direct, not exceeding Three Calendar Months, nor less than Twenty Days, unless such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines, and all such Costs and Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines when levied (the Application whereof is not herein particularly directed) shall from time to time be paid to the Treasurer for the time being under this Act, and be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Application of Penalties.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Sum and Sums of Money arising from such Penalties and Forfeitures as shall and may be levied or levied by virtue of this Act, shall be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer appointed by virtue of this Act, and shall be applied and disposed of to and for the Purposes of this Act, and to and for any other Uses or Purposes whatsoever.

Corruption of Officers.

XLVI. And, for the more easy and speedy Conviction of Offenders against this Act, be it further enacted, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any Person or Persons shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall and may make the Conviction to be drawn up according to the following Form, or in any other Form to the same Effect, at the case shall happen; that is to say,

Form of Conviction.

BE it remembered, That on [Time of Conviction] at [Place of Conviction] A. B. [Name of Offender] of [Addition of Offender] was duly convicted & taken me [or, us] [Name and Style of convicting Justice or Justices] for that the said A. B. [Name of Offender] on [Time of committing Offence] at [Place of committing Offence] did [here state the Offence against this Act, according to the Fact] contrary to the Form of the Statute made in the Fifth fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act] and I say, we do therefore declare and adjudge that the said A. B. [Name of Offender] has forfeited for the said Offence the Sum of [Fine] or shall be committed to [Place of Imprisonment] for the Space of [Time of Imprisonment]. Given under my Hand and Seal [or, our Hands and Seals] the Day and Year first above written.

Appeal.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by any Act, Matter or Thing done in pursuance of this Act, or the Powers hereby given, then and in every such case, he, she or they shall and may appeal to the said Justices of the Peace for the said County of Hereford, at their General Quarter Sessions to be holden next after any such Case of Appeal shall have arisen; and the said Justices are hereby empowered to make such Order therein as to them, or the major Part of them then and there present, shall seem meet, which Order shall be final and conclusive, and not reversible by Certiorari or otherwise.

Certiorari.

Perjury.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Examination, Return or Proceeding is herein directed to be taken, made or done upon Oath, it shall be lawful for any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or any One or more of the said Commissioners, or of the Members of the Committee or Committees, or of the Person or Persons (being respectively a Justice or Justices of the Peace) before whom such Examination, Return or Proceeding is directed to be taken, made or done, to administer such Oath; and that all and every Person and Persons who, upon any Oath to be taken by virtue or under the Authority of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly swear falsely or take a false Oath, and all and every Person or Persons who in any Examination taken by virtue or under the Authority of this Act shall give false Evidence before any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County of Hereford, shall and may be respectively prosecuted for the same respectively, and upon Conviction thereof shall be subject to such Penalties and Disqualification as any Person or Persons can or may be subject to for wilful and corrupt Perjury by any of the Laws or Statutes of this Realm.

Plaintiff not to recover without Notice, or after Tender of Amends.

XLIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action to be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall have been given to the Defendant or Defendants, or left at his, her or their last or usual Place or Places of Abode, Fourteen Days before such Action shall be commenced, of such intended Action, signed by the Attorney for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, specifying the Cause of such Action; nor shall the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs recover in such Action, if Tender of good and lawful Amends shall have been made to him, her or them, or to his, her or their Attorney, by or on the behalf of the Defendant or Defendants, before such Action brought, nor if such Tender of Amends shall be made at any time after the Action brought and before the Trial thereof, together with Costs of Suit to the time of such last mentioned Tender, but shall pay Treble Costs, to be recovered in the same manner as any Defendant or Defendants may recover Costs in any other case by Law; or in case no Tender shall have been made, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall depend, at any time before 11 o'clock, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he, she or they shall think fit, whereupon such Proceedings, Orders and Judgment shall be had, made and given in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

Treble Costs.

Money paid into Court.

XLIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action to be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall have been given to the Defendant or Defendants, or left at his, her or their last or usual Place or Places of Abode, Fourteen Days before such Action shall be commenced, of such intended Action, signed by the Attorney for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, specifying the Cause of such Action; nor shall the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs recover in such Action, if Tender of good and lawful Amends shall have been made to him, her or them, or to his, her or their Attorney, by or on the behalf of the Defendant or Defendants, before such Action brought, nor if such Tender of Amends shall be made at any time after the Action brought and before the Trial thereof, together with Costs of Suit to the time of such last mentioned Tender, but shall pay Treble Costs, to be recovered in the same manner as any Defendant or Defendants may recover Costs in any other case by Law; or in case no Tender shall have been made, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall depend, at any time before 11 o'clock, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he, she or they shall think fit, whereupon such Proceedings, Orders and Judgment shall be had, made and given in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

L. And be it further enacted, That no Action at Law shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done or to be done by virtue of this Act, until after Twenty one Days Notice of an Intention of bringing such Action shall have been given as or left at the usual Place of Abode of the Person or Persons against whom such Action is intended to be brought, thereby setting forth the particular Cause of such Action, or after Tender of sufficient Amounts shall have been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after Three Calendar Months next after the Filing or Cause of Action shall have arisen, and every such Action shall be brought, laid and tried in the County or Place where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant and Defendants in such Actions shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be tried thereupon, and that the Act complained of, or the Subject Matter of such Action, was done by virtue and under the Authority of this Act; and if on the Trial of such Action it shall appear to have been so done, or that such Action was brought before the Expiration of such Twenty one Days next after such Notice shall have been given or left as aforesaid, or after sufficient Tender of Amounts shall have been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after the End of Three Calendar Months next after the Filing or Cause of such Action shall have arisen, or if such Action shall be brought or laid in any other County than is aforesaid; this and in every of the last aforesaid, the Jury on the Trial of such Action or Actions shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants thereto; and in all cases where a Verdict shall be found for any Defendant or Defendants in such Actions or Actions, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs thereto shall discontinue the same after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared thereto, or shall be satisfied, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then and in every such case, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action shall have Treble Costs, and shall have such and the like Remedy for recovering the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for recovering his, her or their Costs in any other suit by Law.

L. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

Cap. xlv.

As AN ACT to enable the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey to provide a proper Place for the depositing and preserving the Public Records of the said County, together with a Residence for the Clerk of the Peace, for the safe Custody of such Records, and convenient Office for transacting his Business; and also to settle a Table of Fees to be taken by such Clerk of the Peace. [18th May 1815.]

WHEREAS the Rolls and other Public Records of the County of Surrey are become very voluminous, not only from the Increase of Business of the Court of Quarter Sessions, but from the Office of the Clerk of the Peace having become, under the Provisions of several Acts of Parliament and the Standing Orders of the House of Commons, the Depositary of a great Variety of Public Documents; And Whereas the Consequences of the Destruction of the Public Records of the said County would expose the County at large, and also Families and Individuals, to the greatest Injury, by the Destruction of Evidence affecting their Rights, Interests and Estates: And Whereas at the General Quarter Session of the Peace holden in and for the County of Surrey, the Justices of the Peace then and there assembled did deem it expedient to provide a proper Place for depositing and preserving the Public Records of the said County, together with a Residence for the Clerk of the Peace, for the safe Custody, and more easy Access to such Records, and convenient Office for transacting his Business: And Whereas it is necessary for the effecting of these Purposes that the Justices of the Peace for the said County should be enabled to Purchase a House or Houses, or Piece or Pieces of Land, and to erect on such Piece or Pieces of Land a Record Room, and Residence for the Clerk of the Peace, for the safe Custody of the said Records, together with necessary Offices for transacting the Business of such Clerk of the Peace: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Surrey, at the General Quarter Session of the Peace, to contract and agree, or by the Order of such General Quarter Session, to purchase any Three Justices of the Peace to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, for the Purchase of any House or Houses, Piece or Pieces of Land within the said County, and to erect and build thereupon a Record Room, Residence and Offices for the Clerk of the Peace, or to enlarge, alter, fit up and repair any such Building or Buildings, and by the Order of such General Quarter Session to direct the Removal of the Records of the said County to such Building or Buildings, at such time as the said Justices shall think proper; and the Costs and Charges of such Contracts and Purchases, and also of such Erections and Buildings, and of the enlarging, altering and fitting up thereof respectively, and of any future enlarging, altering or repairing thereof respectively, when the same shall appear to the said Justices from time to time assembled as aforesaid, to be necessary, shall and may be defrayed out of the Rates to be raised upon the said County.

II. And be it further enacted, That if in any case the Owner or Owners of any House, Messuages, Tenements, Lands, Grounds or Hereditaments, Part only of which Premises shall at any time be required by the said Justices to be applied for the Purposes of this Act, shall be unwilling to sell or dispose of such Part only of the House, Lands, Grounds or Hereditaments belonging to the said Owner or Owners, as shall be required by the said Justices, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices to purchase of and from the said Owner or Owners the Whole of the House, Lands, Grounds or Hereditaments of the said Owner or Owners, and to apply to such or such Part thereof as they shall see fit to the Purposes of this Act, and to sell the remaining Part of such Premises, and to apply the Proceeds thereof to the Purposes of this Act, or to pay the same to the Treasurer of the said County, to be added to the Rates thereof, and applied as Part thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of Sales to be made pursuant to the Provisions lastly hereinbefore contained, it shall and may be lawful for the Clerk of the Peace for the time being of the said County pursuant and in Obedience to any Order for that Purpose of the Justices thereof, assembled at any previous General Quarter Session, by Deed or Deeds to be sealed and delivered by such Clerk of the Peace, to give, bargain and sell the Hereditaments concerning which such Order shall be made as aforesaid, in Fee as shall be specified in such Order, and for such Sum or Sums as shall be thereon expressed; and the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said County shall effectually discharge the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Hereditaments respectively, from so much of the Purchase Money payable by him, her or them respectively, pursuant to any such Order of Session, as shall in every such Receipt be acknowledged or expressed to be received; and such Purchaser or Purchasers shall not afterwards be answerable or accountable for any Loss, Misapprehensions or Negligences, of such Houses, or any Parts thereof respectively.

IV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in case any House shall be purchased or erected under the Provisions of this Act, as a Residence for the Clerk of the Peace, such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall reside in such House, to take care of and preserve the Records of the said County, and to exhibit the same to such Persons as may have occasion to search the same; and such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall not absent himself from such Residence for more than Eighty four Days in any one Year, over and above such Days as such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall be attending the Quarter Session of the said County, or shall be otherwise employed in the Execution of his said Office, without a sufficient Cause to be allowed by the said Justices assembled in Quarter Session.

Justices of Peace at Quarter Sessions may order providing Place for depositing Records, and House for Clerk of Peace.

Clerk of Peace by order of Justices may sell as directs.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace of the said County of Surrey for the time being shall and may lawfully be and be taken in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity, for or in respect of any Claim, Controversy, or other Matter or Thing made or done, or to be made or done by them or any of them, under the Authority of this Act, or for or in respect of or concerning any Negligence, Encroachment or Trespas made, done or committed, or hereafter to be made, done or committed by any Person or Persons whatsoever, in or upon the Houses, Lands, Buildings or Hereditaments, to be purchased pursuant to the Direction of this Act, or in or upon any Part or Parts thereof respectively, in the Name of the Clerk of the Peace of the said County for the time being; and in consequence, proceeding, carrying on and defending any such Suit or Action, the said Houses, Buildings and Hereditaments shall be deemed and considered in Law to be, and shall be described to be in the Possession of the said Justices for the time being, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and as each Action or Suit to be brought or commenced by or against the said Justices or any of them, by virtue of this Act, in the Name of the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy for the time being, shall also be so described by the Death or Removal of such Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, or for any Act of the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy for the time being, done or omitted to be done, without the Consent of the said Justices of the Peace for the time being; but that each Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy for the time being, shall always be deemed the Plaintiff or Defendant in all such Suits or Actions (in the case may be); and that in all and every such Action and Suit, Actions and Suits, to be brought and commenced as aforesaid, no Person or Persons whomsoever shall be deemed incompetent, to give Evidence by reason of his, her or their paying or contributing to pay, or being liable to pay or contribute, towards the Public Stock of the said County, or by reason of his, her or their being charged with or liable to pay any of the Rates within the same County: Provided always, that every such Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy for the time being shall from time to time forthwith, by Order of the said Justices, or the major Part of them in Session assembled, be reimbursed and paid by the Treasurer of the said County, out of the Stock and Money to be raised by the Rates of the same County, the full Costs, Damages and Expenses hereunto expended or incurred for or by reason of his being made a Plaintiff or Defendant as aforesaid.

VI. And Whereas the Expenses of purchasing the said Piece or Parcel of Land and Houses, and of building the said Record Room, Residence and Offices pursuant to this Act, may become very burthensome to the Occupiers of Land and either the Contributors to the Rates of the said County, in case the said Expenses should be raised in the manner hereinbefore mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That where it shall appear that the Amount of any Estimate approved by the Justices assembled at any general Quarter Session, for the purchasing, building and fitting up any House or Buildings, under the Powers of this Act, shall exceed One Half of the Amount of the ordinary Annual Assessment for the County Rates for the said County (such ordinary Assessment to be taken as a mean Proportion of the said Rate for the last three Years preceding), then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the said County, to be assembled in their Quarter Session as aforesaid, if they shall think fit, from time to time to borrow and take up as Mortgage of the Rates herein mentioned, by Instruments in the Form contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, or as that or the like Effect, any Sums, not less than One hundred Pounds each, at legal or lower Interest, or as that or the major Part of them (such major Part not being less than Five) as shall appear necessary and expedient for the Purposes aforesaid; and to secure all and every such Sum and Sums of Money so borrowed upon the Credit of the Rates to be raised upon the said County; and the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to treat and agree with any Person or Persons for the Loan of any such Sum or Sums of Money, and by their Order to confirm and establish every such Agreement as aforesaid; and every such Agreement is established by such Order, and signed by the Chairman and Two or more Justices present at the time of making such Order, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be official for securing to the Person or Persons so advancing any Sum or Sums of Money, his, her or their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, all and every such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest for the time, on such Terms as is and by such Agreement or Agreements respectively shall be for that Purpose stipulated; and Copies or Extracts of all such Agreements or Securities shall be kept with the Clerk of the Peace of the said County; and all and every Person and Persons to whom any such Security or Securities shall be made, or who shall be entitled to the Money thereby loaned, is and are hereby empowered (by endorsing his, her or their Name or Names on the Back of such Security or Securities) to transfer and assign the same, and his, her or their Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured, unto any Person or Persons; and every such Assignee may in like manner transfer the same again, and so in fine; and the Person or Persons to whom such Security or Securities or any such Assignment thereof shall be made, and his, her or their respective Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall be Creditors upon the said Rates in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference with respect to the Priority of any Monies so advanced; subject and without Prejudice nevertheless to any Security or Securities which may have been made or granted or upon such Rates, under the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament passed previous to the passing of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices shall and they are hereby authorized and required, not only to charge the Rates to be raised upon the said County of Surrey, with the Interest of the Money so borrowed on such Securities, but also with the Payment of a further Sum, equal to the Interest of the Principal Sum so charged; which said Sums shall be assessed on the said County in such manner as County Rates are directed to be assessed by the Laws now in being, and paid and applied under the Direction of the said Justices, in Discharge of the Interest, and of so many of the Principal Sums as the said Securities, as such Money will extend to discharge in each Year until the whole of the Money for which such Securities shall be made, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices are required to fix One or more Day or Days in each Year on which such Payment shall be made, and shall make Orders for A. Sessions, in due time, to be provided for the regular Payment thereof; and they are hereby required to direct the Treasurer of the Public Stock of the said County, for the time being, to keep an exact and regular Account of the Receipts and Payments under the Authority of this Act, in a Book or Books, separate and apart from all other Accounts, and the same to strike and adjust in such manner, that it may be easily seen what Interest is growing due, and what Principal Money has been discharged and what remains due; and the said Book or Books be adjusted and settled to deliver into Court at every General or Quarter Session to be held for the said County; and the said Justices are required at every such Session, carefully to inspect all such Accounts, and make Orders for carrying the several Purposes of this Act into Execution, in such manner as to them shall seem most; and if at any time it shall appear to the said Justices that the said Treasurer has neglected the said Order, and has not duly and without Delay applied the Money in his Hands, to the Purposes hereby directed, such Treasurer shall forfeit Double the Amount of the Money which shall not have been applied to the Purposes of this Act, such Penalty to be added to the Stock or Rates of the said County, and to be paid for by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County for the time being; and the said Justices be authorised in Session as aforesaid shall direct in what Order such Securities shall be discharged, by drawing Lots or otherwise as they shall think fit, for discharging all Securities which shall bear the highest Interest.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace in their Quarter Session shall and they are hereby required to make Provision by means of the Rates (which they are hereby authorized to make) and by their Orders and Warrants (which they are hereby authorized to give) in such manner that the whole Money to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act shall be fully paid and discharged within a time to be limited, not exceeding Ten Years from the time of borrowing the same.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Justice of the Peace, who shall, under the Authority of this Act, do any Matter or Thing in the Execution hereof, shall be capable of having any beneficial Interest or Concern whatsoever either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person in Trust for him, in any Contract or Agreement to be made under the Authority of this Act, or shall for any Deeds or Plan he may deliver or produce, receive any Benefit or Emolument whatsoever.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein as Editor, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Impignator shall be allowed; and the Money arising by all such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures shall belong to the said Treasurer of the said County, and shall be added to and be demand and applied as Part of the Rates or Stock thereof for the Year wherein the same shall be recovered or levied.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, every such Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fast commencing, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and brought in the County where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence in any Trial to be had thereon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and that if it shall appear to have been done, or if any Action or Suit shall be brought after the time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then and in such case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become confest, or suffer a Default or nonappearance of his, her or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if upon Discovery or otherwise Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and shall have such remedy for the same as any Defendant hath for Costs of Suit in any other case by Law.

XII. And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether Justices of the Peace, in their respective Quarters Sessions, have Authority to settle, alter or vary the Fees of the Clerks of the Peace of their respective Counties, as they are empowered to do with respect to the Fees of the Clerks of Justices of the Peace, by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the settling and ascertaining the Fees to be taken by Clerks in Justices of the Peace's Nows, for the removing of such Doubts, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace of the said County of Surrey, at their General Quarter Session of the Peace, to make and strike a Table of Fees, to be taken by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County for the time being, in the like manner as they are authorized to do with respect to the Fees to be taken by the Clerks to Justices of the Peace; and such Fees, when made, shall be subject to the Approbation of the Justices of the Peace at the then next ensuing Quarter Session, and shall be laid before the Judges of Assize, to be by them settled and confirmed in the like manner as is required by the said Act made in the Twenty sixth Year aforesaid, with respect to the Table of Fees to be taken by the Clerks to Justices of the Peace; and all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act contained, shall be applied and extended to this present Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Costs, Charges and Expenses incident to or attending the obtaining this Act, shall be paid out of the Public Stock of the said County of Surrey.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and others without being specially pleaded.

The SCHEDULE heretofore referred to.

FORM of Mortgage and Charge upon the County Rates, for securing the Money borrowed.

WE, of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and Chairman of the Court of Quarter Sessions for the County of Surrey, holden at the Day of _____ other of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace sitting for the said County, and assembled in the said Court, in pursuance of the Powers to us given by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled As to [here insert the Title of the Act] do hereby, as upon Court, mortgage and charge all the Rates to be raised within the said County, under the Description of County Rates by the Laws now in being, with the Payment of the Sum of _____ which _____ of _____ hath proposed and agreed to lend, and hath now actually advanced and paid, towards defraying the Expenses of purchasing, building, &c. [as the act shall be] the _____ for the said County, &c. and we do hereby confirm and establish the Laws unto the said _____ has Escheator, Admoustrator and Assizes, for securing the Repayment of the said Sum of _____ and Interest for the same above the Rate of _____ per Centum per Annum; and do order the Treasurers for the said County to pay the Interest of the said Sum of _____ Half yearly, as the same shall become due, until the Principal shall be discharged, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act.

Cap. lvi.

An Act for making further Provision for the Secretary and Usher to the Vice Chancellor of England, and for the Clerks in the Office of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, and for providing additional Clerks for the said Office.

- 33 G. 3. c. 43. WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to empower the High Court of Chancery to lay out a further Sum of the Eastern Money upon proper Securities, and for applying the Interest towards discharging the Expenses of the Office of the Accountant General, and for building Offices for the Masters in Ordinary in Chancery, and a Public Office for the Masters of the said Court, and Offices for the Secretaries of Bankrupts and Lunatics; and for building Receptacles for securing the Title Deeds of the Masters of the said Court, and the Records and Proceedings of the Commissioners of Bankrupts and Lunatics, and of the several Acts in the said Act mentioned, Great Sums of Money have been, by virtue of the several Orders of the said Court made for that Purpose, taken out of the Common and General Cash belonging to the Masters of the said Court which lay down and unemployed in the Bank of England, and have been placed out to the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court on Government or Parliamentary Securities, have been, in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, carried to an Account, entitled "An Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery," and out of the Dividends and Interest of the Securities purchased in pursuance of the said several Acts of Parliament, the several annual Sums and Salaries and the several other Payments thereby directed to be made by Two several Acts of the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, one of them intitled *An Act for making Provision for such Masters in Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery as from Age or Infirmary shall be desirous of resigning their Office with the Approbation of the said Court; and for augmenting the Income of the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court; and the other of such Acts, intitled *An Act to provide additional Salaries to the principal Clerks in the Office of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, and to provide additional Clerks for the said Office with Salaries; and to make other Payments in respect of the said Office; and by an Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for making Provision for such of the said Registrars or Deputy Registrars of the High Court of Chancery as from Age or Infirmary shall be desirous of resigning their Office, and to incorporate for the due Execution of their Office; and for making further Provision for the Two Secretaries of the said Registrars, for the Clerks in the Registrars' Office, for the Master of the Report Office, and for providing additional Clerks in the Report Office of the said Court; and for making other Payments and Regulations in respect of the said Office; and by an Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for building certain Offices for the Examiners, Clerks of the Crown, and Clerks of the Petty Bag of the High Court of Chancery; and for making certain Regulations in the Examiner's Office of the said Court; and for making Provision for such of the Examiners, Deputy Examiners and Clerks, as from Length of Service or from Age or Infirmary, are or shall be incorporated from the due Execution of their Office; and for making Provision for other Officers of the said Court; and for making other Payments in respect of the said Office; have been from time to time made and paid, and the Surplus Interest and annual Produce arising from the said Securities beyond what was sufficient to answer the Purposes of the said several Acts, and also the Interest produced from the Securities purchased with such Surplus Interest and annual Produce, have been from time to time in pursuance of the said Act and said several Acts laid out in the Purchase of Government or Parliamentary Securities in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court, and placed to the Credit of an Account, entitled "Account of Securities purchased with Surplus Interest arising from Securities carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery." And Whereas by the said last mentioned Act, it was, among other things, enacted, that out of the Cash belonging to the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, which then lay or which should thereafter be paid and unemployed in the Bank of England, a Sum not exceeding Two hundred thousand Pounds should and might, by virtue of an Order or Orders of the said Court to be made for that Purpose, from time to time be placed out in One entire Sum or in Parts, in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, according to the General Rules and Orders of the said Court, on such Government and Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Orders should be directed, to the Intent that the Interest and Annual Produce arising from the Money so to be placed out might be applied for the Purposes thereafter mentioned, and that all such Government or Parliamentary Securities or Securities were purchased should be carried to the said Account, entitled "Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery." And Whereas under and by virtue of another Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to consolidate the Administration of Justice, after making certain Provisions for an additional Judge to be Assistant to the Lord High Chancellor in the said Court of Chancery, to be called the Vice Chancellor of England, and certain Rules and Regulations respecting the said Office, it was, among other things, further enacted, That out of the Cash belonging to the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, which then lay or which should thereafter be paid and unemployed in the Bank of England, a further Sum not exceeding Sixty thousand Pounds should and might by virtue of any further Order or Orders of the said Court to be made for that Purpose, be in like manner placed out on such Government or Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Orders should be directed, and the Interest and annual Produce thereof applied for the Purposes by the said***

* the Salaries as so ascertained provided to the Secretary and Usher to the said Vice Chancellor of England are not so adequate Compensation to Persons properly qualified to fill the Duties of the said Office, and for their Attendance and Trouble therein; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Interest and Dividends arising from Securities purchased in pursuance of the said Act of the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the several other Acts therein and hereinafter mentioned or referred to, and carried to the said Account entitled "Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Debtors of the High Court of Chancery," and also out of the Interest and Dividends of Securities purchased and to be purchased with the Surplus Interest in pursuance of the said Acts or any of them, or is or shall be carried to the said Account, entitled "Account of Securities purchased with Surplus Interest arising from Securities carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Debtors of the High Court of Chancery," there shall be paid by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery (but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all Salaries and Sums of Money by any Act or Acts of Parliament heretofore passed are directed or authorized to be paid thereout), by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the High Court of Chancery to be made for that Purpose, such additional yearly Sums or Salaries to be from time to time paid Quarterly free of Taxes to the Secretary and Usher to the Vice Chancellor of England, and to the First Two Clerks of the said Accountant General for the time being, as hereinafter mentioned; to wit, to the Secretary to the said Vice Chancellor of England Three hundred Pounds; to the Usher to the said Vice Chancellor One hundred and twenty Pounds; and to the First Clerk of the said Accountant General One hundred Pounds; to the Second Clerk One hundred Pounds; to the Third Clerk One hundred Pounds; to the Fourth Clerk One hundred Pounds; to the Fifth Clerk Eighty Pounds; to the Sixth Clerk Sixty Pounds; to the Seventh Clerk Forty Pounds; to the Eighth Clerk Twenty Pounds; to the Ninth Clerk Sixty Pounds; and to the Tenth Clerk Thirty Pounds; the First Quarterly Payment thereof to commence and be completed from the Twenty sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: And also such several yearly Sums or Salaries as are hereinafter mentioned, to be from time to time paid Quarterly free of Taxes to Four additional Clerks for the time being; to wit, a Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Clerk to be appointed; that is to say, to the Twelfth Clerk One hundred and eighty Pounds; to the Thirteenth Clerk One hundred and eighty Pounds; to the Fourteenth Clerk One hundred and eighty Pounds; and to the Fifteenth Clerk one hundred and eighty Pounds; And also like yearly Sums or Salaries of One hundred and eighty Pounds each to Three more additional Clerks in the said Office, in case it shall at any time hereafter appear necessary to the said Court of Chancery to appoint such Three additional Clerks or either of them, in pursuance of the Charge for that Purpose heretofore contained; the First Quarterly Payment to such additional Clerks respectively to commence from the Day of the Date of their respective Appointments; and also any further Sum not exceeding Five hundred Pounds in any One Year in Addition to the Provision already made by the before recited Acts for that Purpose to the Accountant General of the said Court for the time being, to defray the additional Expenses of Stationery, Copy, Candles and other necessary Expenses of the said Office.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being, upon the Requisition of the Accountant General for the time being for that Purpose, and upon its being made appear to the Court that additional Assistance is necessary in the said Office for transacting the said Business of the Debtors of the said Court, to appoint out exceeding Three more Persons to be Clerks in the said Office, who shall have and be entitled to the yearly Salaries of One hundred and eighty Pounds each, hereby provided for the additional Clerks in the said Office; to be paid and payable out of the same Funds and in the same manner as is directed and provided by the Clerks last heretofore mentioned.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed as taken to prevent or hinder any present or future Clerk in the said Office from being removed or displaced therefrom at any time, in such manner and by such Authority as Clerks in the said Office can now be removed or displaced.

IV. And be it further enacted, That out of the Interest and Dividends of the said Government or Parliamentary Securities purchased and to be purchased as aforesaid, the Expenses incurred in procuring and paying this Act, and the Costs, Charges and Expenses of all Proceedings had or to be had in consequence thereof, shall be paid by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of an Order or Orders of the High Court of Chancery to be made for that Purpose.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Surplus Interest and annual Produce which shall arise from the Monies placed out and to be placed out on Securities pursuant to the several Acts of Parliament heretofore mentioned or referred to, or any of them, beyond what shall be sufficient to answer the Purposes of the said Acts, shall from time to time be placed out on Government or Parliamentary Securities, and shall be placed to the Credit of the said Account raised in pursuance of the said Act of the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled "Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Debtors of the High Court of Chancery;" and which Fund shall be applied to answer the Demands of the said Debtors of the said Court of Chancery, in case it shall at any time be necessary to call in any of the Money of the said Debtors which hath been or may be placed out on Securities.

Cap. lxxii.

An Act for enabling the Commissioners of the Northern Light Hoofs to erect Light Hoofs on the Isles of Man, and Calf of Man.

[7th Jan 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for erecting certain Light Hoofs in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, Commissioners were named for putting the said Act into Execution, and for erecting Four Light Hoofs in the Northern Parts of Great Britain; and certain Duties were thereby granted for answering the Expenses of making and maintaining the Works by the said Act authorized to be made; and the Commissioners were empowered to borrow Money on the Credit of the Duties; and if any Surplus should remain, after the ordinary Expenditure to be incurred in carrying the said Act into Execution, the same was directed to be every Year, to be added to some one or other of the Public Funds, until the yearly interest of the same should amount to a Sum equal to the whole Expense attending the said Light Hoofs, when such Duties were to be paid to such, determined and be no longer payable: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to render more effectual an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for erecting certain Light Hoofs in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, the said Commissioners were authorized to levy certain additional Duties; to borrow a further Sum of Money; and to commence levying the Duties as soon as Two of the said Light Hoofs should be lighted; And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to give further Powers to the Commissioners for erecting certain Light Hoofs in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, the said Commissioners were authorized to erect Two (a) additional Light Hoofs; and were likewise empowered to make such other Light Hoofs to be erected, as they should deem necessary, whenever the Produce of the Duties should enable them to do so: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for incorporating the Commissioners appointed for erecting certain Light Hoofs in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, the said Commissioners were incorporated for the better carrying the said former Acts into Execution, and made One Body Police and Corporate, by the Name of "The Commissioners of the Northern Light Hoofs;" And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for erecting a Light Hoof on the Bell or Cape Rock in the Eastern Coast of Scotland, and for enabling the Commissioners of the Treasury to advance a certain Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain towards the Purchase, Authority was given to the said Commissioners to erect the said Light Hoof, and to levy certain additional Rates and Duties for the Support of the same: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Power was given to the said Commissioners to (a) [The Words of 29 G. 3. c. 53. are "a Light Hoof is a monument situated upon the South End of the Island of Arran, or upon the Island of Fladda near the same."]

* purchase the Island and Light of May in the Frick of Forth; and instead of a Coal Light, to exhibit and maintain on the said Island an Oil Light, or other improved Light; and also to erect and maintain such additional Light Houses upon such other Parts of the Coasts and Islands of Scotland as they shall deem necessary: And Whereas it would tend greatly to the Security of Navigation, and be of great Benefit to the Public, if Towers were given to the said Commissioners to erect and maintain certain Light Houses upon the Isles of Man and Galf of Man; but as these Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Northern Light Houses, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to contract and agree with the Owners and other Parties interested, and to purchase and hold to them and their Successors and Assigns, the Lands and Hereditaments necessary for erecting the Light Houses and other Buildings and Conveniences hereinafter mentioned, in such Situations as they shall deem most expedient, without incurring any of the Powers or Forfeitures of the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Powers or Disabilities; and thereupon to erect and maintain One Light House on the Isle of Galf of Man, and another Light House on the Isle of Man, with such other Buildings and Conveniences at each of such Light Houses as to them shall appear necessary; and in such Light Houses to maintain and exhibit such Lights distinguishable from the other Lights on the adjacent Coasts, as shall from time to time to the said Commissioners appear to be proper and necessary.

Commissioners
General, etc. and erect Light Houses.

collected.

II. And to enable the said Commissioners to defray the Expenses of making the said Purchases, of erecting the said Light Houses and other Buildings, and maintaining proper Lights in the said Light Houses, be it enacted, That So soon as the said Light Houses shall be erected, and Lights shall be exhibited therein, it shall and may be lawful to the said Commissioners, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, to demand, collect, receive and take from all and every the Masters and Owners of every Ship or decked Vessel of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, registered according to Law, which shall sail to or from any Port or Place in Great Britain's Channel between the Head Lands of Orkney and Northland both inclusive on the South, and Port Patrick and Donaghadee both inclusive on the North, or which shall sail to or from any Port or Place in the Frick of Solway, whether the said Ship or Vessel shall be loaded or in ballast, or Quitted or Homeward bound, or on a Foreign Voyage, or sailing Coastwise, and from the Master or Owner of every Ship or decked Vessel, sailing within the above said Limits (excepting as hereinafter excepted), a Sum not exceeding One Farthing for every Ton of such Ship or Vessel, and for every Foreign Ship or decked Vessel sailing as aforesaid (excepting as hereinafter excepted), a Sum not exceeding One Halfpenny for every Ton of such Ship or Vessel.

these Duties.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to charge with the Duties hereby granted, any Ship or Vessel liable to the Duties granted for the Support of the Light Houses under the Charge of the Commissioners of the Northern Light Houses, by any of the Acts, hereinafter recited, or any Ship or Vessel belonging to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or employed in the Service of His Majesty's Revenue, or of His Majesty's Postmen General in Great Britain or Ireland, or any Ship or Vessel by any of the before recited Acts exempted from the Duties thereby granted.

Power to borrow Money.

IV. And be it enacted, That in addition to and over and above the Sums of Money which the said Commissioners are by the said recited Acts authorized to borrow on the Credit of the Rates and Duties thereby granted, it shall and may be lawful to and in the Power of the said Commissioners to borrow and take up at Interest, on the Credit of the Rates and Duties by the said recited Acts and by this Act granted, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two thousand Pounds for the Purpose of erecting the foresaid Two Light Houses, and for defraying the Expenses of this Act.

Application of Money.

V. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall apply the Produce of the Rates and Duties by the said recited Acts and this Act granted, in making the Purchases aforesaid, as well as in maintaining the said Light Houses and other Buildings, erecting proper Lights therein, in paying the Expenses of preparing and passing this Act, and in repaying the Money to be borrowed, and Interest thereof; and the Surplus or Residue of the Rates and Duties by the said recited Acts and this Act granted, which shall remain after answering the Purposes of the said recited Acts and this Act, shall once in every Year be vested in one or other of the Public Funds; and the same, together with the Interest thereof shall be allowed to accumulate until the Yearly Interest shall amount to a Sum equal to the whole Expense attending the Light Houses under their Charge, when the whole Rates and Duties by the said recited Acts and by this Act granted shall cease and determine.

Powers of former Acts related to A.B.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have and enjoy all the Powers and Authorities conferred upon them in virtue of the said recited Acts, or any of them, for collecting and enforcing Payment of the Duties granted by this Act, and of compounding for the same, for maintaining and supporting the Light Houses by this Act authorized to be erected, and maintaining the Lights therein, and for the Appointment and Removal of Collectors, Keepers and other Officers, as are contained in the said recited Acts, or any of them.

Public Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judiciously taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and others without being specially pleaded.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Court of Mayor and Aldermen, and Justices, shall award all Determinations, Judgments and Verdicts, which they shall make and give in the Execution of the Powers hereby vested in them concerning the Value of Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Share or Shares, Estate or Estates, Interest or Interests therein, separately and distinctly from the Consideration of any other Loss or Damages to be followed by any Person or Persons in consequence of the Execution of any of the Powers of this Act, and shall distinguish the Value let upon the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or Share or Shares, Estate or Estates, Interest or Interests therein, and the Money affirmed or adjudged for such Loss or Damages as aforesaid, separately and apart from each other.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Jury and Jurymen as aforesaid shall be under and subject to the same Regulations, Pains and Penalties as if such Jury or Jurymen had been returned for the Trial of any Issue joined in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that all and every Person and Persons, who in any Examination to be taken by virtue of this Act shall wilfully give false Evidence before the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or before any such Jury as aforesaid, shall and may be prosecuted for the same, and upon Conviction thereof shall be subject to such Penalties and Disqualifications as any Person or Persons can or may be subject to for wilful and corrupt Perjury by the Laws or Statutes of this Realm.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case a Verdict shall be given for a greater Sum of Money as a Satisfaction or Redemption for any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Share or Shares, Estate or Estates, Interest or Interests therein, or as a Compensation for any Goodwill or Improvement, or any Loss or Damage to be satisfied as aforesaid respectively, than shall have been offered by or on the behalf of the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, before the summoning of such Jury, or in case a Verdict shall be given for any Sum or Sums of Money as a Compensation for Goodwill, Improvements, Loss or Damage where no Compensation shall have been offered by or on the behalf of the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, previously to the summoning of such Jury, or in case by reason of Absence, or other Impediment or Disability, three shall not be found any Person or Persons at Hand who may be legally appointed to contract with, and make Conveyances to, or receive Compensation from the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, when the Dispute is for such Compensation as aforesaid only as hereinbefore is mentioned, then and in every or any such case, all the reasonable Costs, Charges and Expenses of causing and procuring such Reconveyance, Value or Compensation respectively, to be affirmed and awarded as aforesaid, and of so affixing and awarding the same, shall be paid and borne by the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, out of the Moneys to be received by virtue of this Act, but in case any Verdict shall be given for the same Sum of Money as shall have been previously offered by or on behalf of the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, or for a less Sum than shall have been previously offered, or in case no Compensation shall be given by the Verdict (when the Differs is for such Compensation as aforesaid only), or in case of such Refusal to treat or convey by any Body or Bodies, or by any Person or Persons whomsoever, who is or are by the Provisions of this Act, or otherwise, legally empowered to treat and convey or receive such Compensation as aforesaid, then and in every or any such case (except where by Reason of Absence or otherwise, any Person shall have been prevented from treating and agreeing as aforesaid, in which case all such Costs, Charges and Expenses are to be paid and borne by the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, as aforesaid), all the reasonable Costs, Charges and Expenses of causing and procuring such Values, Recompense or Compensation to be offered and awarded as aforesaid, and of so affixing and awarding the same, shall be taxed by the Registrar for the time being of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, and shall be borne and paid by the Body or Bodies, or Person or Persons entitled to or claiming such Value, Recompense or Compensation; and the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, are hereby authorized and empowered to deduct and retain the said Costs, Charges and Expenses, out of the Sum or Sums of Money to be so offered or awarded as aforesaid, or out of any Part thereof, and the Payment or Tender of the Remainder of all such Sum or Sums of Money shall be deemed and taken to all Intents and Purposes to be a Payment or Tender of the whole Sum or Sums so offered or awarded as aforesaid.

XV. Provided always, That no Jury which shall be summoned by virtue of this Act shall be allowed to affix or award any Sum or Sums of Money to any Body or Bodies, Person or Persons, by way of Compensation for Goodwill or Improvements alleged to be lost, or any Injury or Damage alleged to have been suffered by him or them, in consequence of the Execution of any of the Powers of this Act, unless Notice in Writing, stating the Particulars of every such Claim, and how and in what manner the Amount thereof is made out and computed, shall have been given or left by or on behalf of such Body or Bodies, Person or Persons, at the Comptroller's Office aforesaid, Two Days at least before the time of the Meeting of such Jury.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen shall have Power and Authority, from time to time to make any reasonable Fine, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds, on each Sheriff or Sheriffs, or their Deputies or Deputy, or Agents respectively, making Default in the Premises, and on any of the Persons summoned and returned on any such Jury or Juries who shall not appear without some reasonable Excuse, or shall refuse to be sworn on the said Jury or Juries, or being so sworn, shall not give his or their Verdict, or otherwise neglect his Duty, and also on any Person and Persons summoned to give Evidence touching any of the Matters aforesaid, who shall not attend, having been paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his or their Costs and Charges, or shall refuse to be sworn or to affirm, or to give his, her or their Evidence, and on any other Person or Persons who shall in any other manner wilfully neglect his, her or their Duty in the Premises, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and from time to time to levy such Fine or Fines, by Order of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, together with the reasonable Charges of every such Distress and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners, and that a Copy of the Order of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, signed by the Clerk of the Peace of the said City of London for the time being, shall be sufficient Authority to the Person or Persons therein to be appointed, and to every other Person acting or aiding and assisting therein, to make such Distress and Sale, and all such Fines shall be paid to the Chamberlain of the said City for the time being, to be applied to the Purposes of this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all such Verdicts, Judgments, Sentences, Determinations, Orders and other Proceedings of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen and Juries, as relate to or concern any of the cases before mentioned, and all Receipts which the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank shall give for any Sum or Sums of Money paid into the Bank in manner hereinafter mentioned, in consequence of any Verdict and Judgments, shall be entered among the Records of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen; and the said Verdicts, Judgments, Sentences, Orders and other Proceedings, shall be deemed and taken to be Records to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and the same, or true Copies thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be good and sufficient Evidence thereof in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity whatsoever, and all Persons shall and may have Recourse to the same (privily) and to take Copies thereof, paying for every Copy not exceeding Six pence for every Seventy two Words, and so proportionably for any greater Number of Words.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon Payment of the Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be accepted, or so to be awarded and adjudged as aforesaid, after such Deduction (if any) as aforesaid, to the Body or Bodies, Person or Persons to whom the same shall be agreed to be given or awarded, for the Purchase of the said Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or Part or Parts thereof, or for the Purchase of any Share, Estate or Interest therein, such Body or Bodies, Person or Persons, shall make and execute, or procure to be made and executed, good, valid and legal Conveyances, Assignments and Assurances in the Law, to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, or any Person or Persons in Trust for them, of the said Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or of such Share, Estate or Interest, for which such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so agreed to be accepted or shall be awarded, and shall procure all necessary Powers to execute such Conveyances, Assignments and Assurances, and shall do all Acts, Matters and Things necessary and requisite to make a good, clear and perfect Title to the same Premises and such Conveyances, Assignments and Assurances shall contain all such reasonable and usual Covenants as shall on the Part of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens be required.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Titles to, and the Conveyances, Assignments and Assurances of the several Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which stand upon

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to raise or lower the Ground of the Streets and Ways to be made, widened, enlarged and improved as aforesaid, or any Part thereof respectively, as they shall judge necessary.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in widening, improving and enlarging the said Streets, Ways and Places, in pursuance of this Act, the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall, out of the Monies to be received by virtue of this Act, in a substantial and workmanlike manner, fill in all and every the Voids, Cellars and open Places over which it may be necessary to new raise (except such as may be used again as Cellars, Voids or Arches) with good found hard Brick Rubble, to be well rammed down every Three or Four Inches thick, to prevent the Ground from giving way; and out of such Monies to be received well and effectually pave over all the Ground of the said Streets or Ways to be widened, enlarged and improved as aforesaid, with the Materials of the perfect Pavement as far as they will extend, and with a sufficient Quantity of new Materials of like Quality and Dimensions, to supply the Deficiency; and shall and will in like manner, out of such Monies to be received, relay and repave all and every Part of the Streets, Ways and Passages, which they shall think or after in carrying the Purposes of this Act into Execution; Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to change the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, or the said Monies to be received by virtue of this Act, with respect to making good such Pavement as aforesaid, but that from and after the same shall be so paved, relaid and repaired as aforesaid, the same shall for ever thereafter be kept in Repair by and at the Expense of the respective Wards to which the same shall respectively belong, and that the Right and Property of all Pavements, Stones and Bricks, so to be laid as aforesaid, shall belong to and be the Property of the said respective Wards, in the same manner as Things of a like Description in other Parts of the said Wards respectively are now vested by Law.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cause all Sewers and Drains which shall be and be in or near such Streets or Ways to be altered, widened, enlarged or improved, or flopped up, or included as aforesaid respectively, or any Part thereof respectively, to be arched over or filled up as shall appear necessary for completing the Purposes of this Act, so as the same shall not in any wise obstruct, injure or prejudice any Public Sewer or Drain whatsoever, or any Private Drain, without making another Drain or Sewer in lieu thereof equally convenient and convenient to the Individual or Neighbourhood: Provided always, that at the time of filling any Sewer or Drain as aforesaid, the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall make, erect and build either good and sufficient Sewers and Drains, of convenient Depth and Width, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Sewers appointed or to be appointed under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to Sewers in the said City of London, and when the same shall be so made and completed, the said respective Sewers and Drains shall be under the Jurisdiction, Care, Management and Direction of such Commissioners.

L. And be it further enacted, That when the said Streets or Ways shall be altered, widened, enlarged and improved, in pursuance of this Act, all the Ground and Hereditaments which shall be laid open into the said Streets or Ways, and paved as aforesaid, shall form Part of the said Streets or Ways respectively, and shall be used by the Public accordingly; and the sole Power and Authority of paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting and watching the same, shall be under the Care, Management, Control and Jurisdiction of the same Commissioners, Trustees, and other Persons, as the other Streets and Ways in the Wards in which the same respectively shall be situate.

LI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Ground or Hereditaments situate in Paragon Row, the West End of Chancery, or the South Side of Newgate Street aforesaid, and also any Ground or Hereditaments, situated between St. Martin's Church and the intended Post Office, and northward of the Site of the intended Post Office, which shall be purchased and cleared by virtue of this Act, shall not be laid into and form Part of the said Streets or Ways when widened and improved as aforesaid, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City of London, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, as soon as conveniently may be after the Houses and Buildings on such Ground and Hereditaments shall be pulled down, by an Indenture or Indentures under the Common Seal of the said City, to demise and lease all such Ground and Hereditaments, either altogether or in Parcels, to any Person or Persons who shall erect and build, or consent and agree to erect and build thereon, or to any Part or Parts thereof, Houses, Erections and Buildings, of such Rate or Rates, or respective Rates or Clauses of Buildings, upon such Plan and Elevation, or respective Plans and Elevations, of such Height or respective Heights, and with such Stairs, as the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall think proper, for any Term or Number of Years, to determine at or before the Expiration of Ninety nine Years from and after the passing of this Act, so as there be reserved in every such Demise or Lease full yearly Rent or Rents, to be incident to the immediate Reversion of the Premises therein expressed, as to the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall appear reasonable, and so that in every such Demise or Lease there be contained a Covenant for the Payment of the Rent thereby to be reserved, and such other Covenants as the Part of the Tenant or Lessee therein to be named, as the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall reasonably advise or require; and also a Clause in the Nature of a Condition of Re-entry on Management of the Rent thereby to be referred, or on Non-performance of the Covenants therein to be contained on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee, to be observed and performed; and that every such Tenant or Lessee shall give such good and sufficient Security for the meetings, building and completing of every House, Fire-oven and Building, which he shall covenant or agree to erect within the time in which he shall have consented to such the same, as the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall order and direct.

LII. And he it further enacted, That as soon as conveniently may be after the Houses, Erections and Buildings to be erected and built as herebefore is mentioned, or any of them, shall be finished and completed, the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall, and they are hereby authorized to sell and dispose of, or cause to be sold and disposed of, the Ground Rents to be referred by the Lease or Demise, or Lease or Demise, in pursuance of or in Consideration of which the same Houses respectively shall have been erected and built, and also the Reversion and Inheritance in Fee Simple in Possession (subject to such Lease or Demise, or Lease or Demise) of the Paces or Parcels of Ground therein demised, and such Houses and other Buildings thereon, either altogether or in Parts, by Public Auction or Private Contract, for such Price or Prices, or Sum or Sums of Money as they the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall think reasonable; and the said Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens shall, and they are hereby empowered and required at the Request, Costs and Charges at the Purchaser or Purchasers of the same Premises respectively, upon Payment of the Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given for the same respectively, to the Chamberlain for the time being of the City of London, to convey and assign the Pace or Parcel of Ground, or Paces or Parcels of Ground, so purchased by such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively, together with the Houses, Erections and Buildings thereon erected and built thereon respectively, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof with the Appurtenances, to such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively, his, her or their Heirs and Assigns respectively, or as he or they respectively shall in that behalf order or direct, free from all Incumbrances whatsoever (except the Building Lease or Building Lease to be granted thereof by virtue of this Act), and that upon and after the Payment of the Purchase Money of the said Premises respectively into the Chamber of the said City, the Receipt or Receipts in Writing of the Chamberlain of the said City shall be a sufficient and effectual Discharge, or Discharges and effectual Discharges, to such Purchaser or Purchasers for the Purchase Money in such Receipt or Receipts expressed or acknowledged to be received, and that the Purchaser or Purchasers to whom the same respectively shall be given, shall not afterwards be answerable or accountable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication, or be in any wise obliged or concerned so far to the Application of the Money in such Receipt or Receipts expressed or acknowledged to be received.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall be received by the said Chamberlain from the said Sales herebefore directed to be made, and also the Rent (if any) which shall be received from the said Paces or Parcels of Ground is to be divided as aforesaid, or any of them, until the same shall be sold, built (after Payment of the Costs and Expenses of the said Sale or Sales, which are hereby directed to be paid thereon) be applied in Aid of and in the same manner as the other Monies to be received by virtue of this Act.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, shall, and they are hereby empowered and required, at the Option of the Postmaster General for the time being, either from time to time, or as and when any Lands, Grounds and Hereditaments which are set to be divided and sold as aforesaid, or to form Part of the said Streets or Ways, shall become vested in the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and their Successors, by virtue of this Act, and the Houses and Buildings thereon shall have been taken down, or after all and regular the Lands, Ground and Hereditaments to be purchased by virtue of this Act, shall be vested in the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and the Houses and Buildings thereon shall have been taken down as aforesaid, to erect, convey and assign all the Ground and Hereditaments to be vested in the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, by virtue of this Act as aforesaid, which shall not be to be divided and sold, or form Part of the said Streets to be altered and widened and enlarged as aforesaid, unto His Majesty's Postmaster General for the time being, and his Successors for ever (who shall be, and in hereby for that Purpose made a Body Corporate, and shall have a Seal, but nevertheless in Trust for His Majesty, his Heirs or Assigns for ever, and upon no other Use, Trade, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, at such time or times, by such Deeds, Conveyances and Assurances, and in such manner as by the Postmaster General for the time being shall be reasonably desired, advised and required, the necessary Charges and Expenses of such Deeds, Conveyances and Assurances to be defrayed out of the Money to be advanced for the Purpose of this Act.

LV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be advanced and paid from and out of the Revenue of the Post Office, such Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred and forty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, as shall be necessary for satisfying and satisfying all the Purposes of this Act, and all the Costs, Charges and Expenses incident to or incurred in or about the obtaining and passing of this Act, or in any wife relating thereto, and of carrying the same into Execution, or in any wife relating thereto, the said Sum or Sums of Money as and when the same shall be wanted to be paid into the Chamber of London, by the Receiver General of the said Revenue by virtue of the Warrants of the Postmaster General, such Warrants to be authorized by Writing under the Hands of Three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Sum or Sums of Money to be paid from time to time into the Chamber of London, as aforesaid, shall be applied and disposed of by the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, paid into the Bank of England, as aforesaid, shall be applied in the same manner as, and shall be considered Part of the Revenue of His Majesty's Post Office.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Fund called The Orphan's Fund, shall be, and the same is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which shall be payable by virtue of this Act, subject nevertheless and without Prejudice to the Payment of Interest on the Principal Debts remaining due to the Creditors of the said City, and to the Payment of the several Annuities which are or shall be payable in respect of the several Principal Sums borrowed and raised upon the Credit of the said Fund, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament already passed and now in force.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, out of the future Surpluses of the said Orphan's Fund (after reserving to such Money as will be sufficient to satisfy the Interest payable from time to time to the Creditors of the said City, and also to satisfy the Annuities and yearly Interest payable from time to time in respect of the several Principal Sums raised by virtue of or under the Authority of the several Acts of Parliament already passed for that Purpose, and now in force) the Annuity or Annuities charged by virtue of this Act, shall be paid from time to time as the same shall grow due, before any Part of such Surpluses shall be applied in Redemption of the Annuities, and the Payment of the Principal Sums already charged and then remaining secured upon the said Fund, and that the Residue of such Surpluses after such Payment as by this or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament already passed and now in Force, are or shall be directed to be made out of the same, shall be paid and furnished, from time to time, by Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London (which Order the said Court are hereby authorized and directed to make), or by the Chamberlains of the said City for the time being, be applied towards the Redemption of all and singular the Annuities by this Act charged on the said Fund in such Order and Course as the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen shall think fit.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London shall give or cause to be given Notice in the London Gazette of the Intention to redeem any Annuity or Annuities which shall be granted by virtue of this Act, and shall send to such Notice a Copy of this present Clause, and at the End of Six Calendar Months next after such Notice, upon Payment or Tender of the respective Sum or Sums for which such Annuity or respective Annuities shall have been granted, together with a proportionate Part of the same Annuity or Annuities respectively up to the Days of such Payment or Tender, to or for the Person or Persons then entitled thereto, at the Office of the Chamberlains of the said City for the time being in the Guildhall of the same City, the Annuity or Annuities payable to such Person or Persons respectively shall cease and determine: Provided nevertheless, that such Person or Persons, at any time after such Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, and before the End of the said Six Calendar Months, shall, at the Expiration of Ten Days next after a Declaration in Writing of his, her or their Intention to redeem the same shall have been delivered at the said Office (such Declaration being delivered between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon), be paid at the said Office the Sum or Sums for which such Annuity or Annuities respectively shall have been granted, together with a proportionate Part of the same Annuity or Annuities respectively, up to the Day expressed in such Declaration for redeeming the same, and such Annuity or Annuities respectively shall, upon the Day specified in such Declaration for Payment, cease and determine.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case, after all the Sum or Sums of Money to be received by virtue of this Act shall have been paid, and the Repayment of One third Part of the Monies advanced out of the Revenue of the Post Office shall have been secured by a Bond or Bonds as aforesaid, any Surplus shall remain of the Sum or Sums of Money to be received by virtue of this Act, after effecting all the Purposes heretofore mentioned, then Two equal Third Parts of such Surplus shall be paid to the said Receiver General of the Revenue of the Post Office for the time being, to be paid and applied in the same manner as the Revenue of the said Post Office is applicable, and the remaining One equal Third Part of such Surplus shall be applied towards the Increase of and is hereby declared to be Part of the said Fund called The Orphan's Fund, and shall be applied accordingly.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Surpluses of the said Fund charged with the Annuity or Annuities which shall be payable by virtue of this Act, shall at any time hereafter prove insufficient to pay the same, then and in every such case, and so often as the same shall happen, the Sum which shall be wanting to complete the Payment of such Annuity or Annuities shall be advanced and paid out of the Chamber of the said City, and be made good and supplied out of the future Surpluses of the said Fund.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Chamberlains of the said City for the time being shall enter in a Book or Books, to be kept for that Purpose, the Bond or Bonds, and Annuity or Annuities, to be granted in pursuance of this Act, and all Assignments and Transfers thereof, expressing in Words at Length the Names, Surnames, Addresses, Places of Abode, and other Descriptions of each Person or Persons as shall from time to time be entitled to such Bond or Bonds, to which Book and Books all and every Person and Persons entitled to or interested in such Annuity or Annuities, shall at all reasonable times in the Day-time have Access, with free Liberty to inspect the same, without Fee or Reward.

LXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to lessen or affect the Security of any of the perfect Creditors of the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, further or otherwise than is herein expressly directed and enacted.

LXXI. And Whereas the greater Part of the said Liberty of Saint Martin le Grand will be laid into the said Streets or Ways, and cleared for the Site of the said New Post Office: And Whereas great Impediments to the Police of the City of London have been occasioned, and other Inconveniences arisen, in consequence of the said Liberty not being within the Jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the said City, and it is therefore expedient that it should become Part of the said City: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, the said Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand, or the Place now called the said Liberty, and the Houses, Hereditaments and Ground comprised therein, shall be and be deemed to be within and to form Part of the said City of London, to all Intents, Effects, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever.

LXXII. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend to prevent any of the present or future Inhabitants of the said Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand, who shall not be free of the City of London, from keeping Shops or otherwise carrying on their respective Trades or Businesses in the said Liberty, in the same manner as if the same had not been made a Part of the said City, without being liable to be fined for any Breach of the Custom of London, or to any Penalty, Imprisonment or Disfranchisement whatsoever.

LXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to destroy, or in any wise affect the Court of Error or Appeal, commonly called the Court of Saint Martin is Grand.

LXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to delay or affect the Right or Claim of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, to any Ecclesiastical, Fines or Amenities, to which they would have been by Law entitled in case this Act had not been made.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That the whole of the Place now called the said Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand, and the Houses, Hereditaments and Ground comprised therein, and also to many and such Parts of the Houses, Hereditaments and Ground comprised in the Schedule to this Act annexed, as are within the said Ward of Ferrypiece within, and situated between the North Side of Glasfilds and at Newgate Street aforesaid, the South Side of the said Place now called the Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand, the West Side of Fyler Lane aforesaid, and the East Side of the said Street called Saint Martin is Grand aforesaid, shall, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, be and be deemed to be within, and to form Part of the Ward of Aldersgate within, to all Intents, Effects, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever.

LXXVI. And Whereas an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better paving, cleansing, lighting and watching the Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand, within the City and Liberty of Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, and for promoting Orderliness and Amenity therein: Be it further enacted, That the said last recited Act, and every Clause, Matter and Thing therein contained from and after the Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, except so far as relates to any Rates in Arrear, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: and the said Place now called the said Liberty shall from thenceforth (except as is herein otherwise provided) be paved, cleansed, lighted and watched by the same Commissioners, Trustees and other Persons, and in the same manner as the other Parts of the said Ward of Aldersgate within.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Rates and Duties payable in the said Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand which shall on the Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, remain in Arrear or unpaid, or remain in the Hands of any Treasurer, Collector or other Person, shall be forthwith paid over to the Collectors of the Rates for paving, cleansing and lighting, in the said Ward of Aldersgate within, to be applied in like manner as such last mentioned Rates are applicable; and in case any Person shall refuse to pay any such Rates or Duties in Arrear to any such Collector or Collectors, the Payment of the same shall and may be levied and enforced by such Collector or Collectors in the like manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as the same might have been levied and enforced by the Collectors thereof in the said Liberty in case this Act had not been made: and in case any such Treasurer, Collector or other Person, in whose Hands any such Rates shall remain, shall refuse to account for and pay the same, then and in every such case such Treasurer, Collector or other Person, shall and may be compelled to account for and pay the same, in the same manner, and with the same Penalties and Punishment, as might have been put in Force for the like Purposes by the Commissioners appointed by virtue of the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or otherwise, under the same Act in case the same had not been repealed: and on Security given by any such Treasurer or Collector shall be in any wise prejudiced or affected by this Act, but the Commissioners, Person or Persons, to whom the same respectively shall have been given, shall enforce by means thereof any Payment or Payments to be made as aforesaid in such manner as the said Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and Liberties thereof shall direct.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, all the Houses and other Hereditaments now situated in the said Liberty of Saint Martin is Grand, and in that Part of the Ward of Ferrypiece within which shall become united to the Ward of Aldersgate within by virtue of this Act, and the Inhabitants thereof shall be subject (except so far as is hereby otherwise provided for) to the Rates and Assessments for Land Tax and paving, cleansing and watching Rates, and all other Rates and Rates whatsoever, which shall be assessed upon and directed to be paid by or in respect of the Ward of Aldersgate within, under the like Penalties and in like manner as the other Parts of the said Ward, and the said Inhabitants, and all Persons committing Offences in the said Place hereby united with the said Ward of Aldersgate within respectively, shall be under and subject to the same Regulations, Laws, Jurisdictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as if they were Inhabitants of, or the like Offences were committed in, the said other Parts of the said Ward.

LXXIX. And

XXXX. And be it further enacted, That the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, shall, in the Order and Appointment of the Number of Watchmen and Beadles to be kept in each and every Ward in the said City after the Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, and the Rates or Taxes to be assessed and raised for that Purpose, and other Regulations relating thereto, to be made by them in this present Year, and every subsequent Year, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for the better regulating the Nightly Watch and Beadles within the City of London and Liberties thereof, and for making more effectual the Laws now in being for paving and cleaning the Streets and Sewers in and about the said City, shall take into Consideration the Alterations to be made in the said Wards of Aldersgate within and Farringdon within by virtue of this Act, and make such Order and Appointment accordingly.

XXXXI. And Whereas the Assessments or Rates for paving, cleaning and lighting made in the City of London, do not commence until the Twenty fifth Day of March in every Year: Be it therefore further enacted, That there shall be paid and made for the Quarter of a Year from the Twenty fifth Day of December as to the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the passing of this Act to the Collectors of the paving, cleaning and lighting Rates in the Ward of Aldersgate within, by each and every of the Inhabitants of the said Place now called the Liberty of Sancti Martini & Grand, who shall be obliged to, and pay, or ought to pay, a Rate or Rates on the said Twenty fifth Day of December next, by virtue of the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, such Rate, Assessment or Payment as shall be equal together with the Rate or Assessment for watching, to be paid by virtue of this Act by each Inhabitant for the same Quarter of a Year, to the Rate or Rates which shall have been payable by the same Inhabitants respectively, to the Collectors of the said Liberty for the Quarter of a Year from the Twenty ninth Day of September to the Twenty fifth Day of December next after the passing of this Act, and that such Rate, Assessment or Payment, shall in all respects be considered a Rate or Assessment for paving, cleaning and lighting, in the City of London, and shall be recovered and applied in the same manner to all Intents and Purposes as the paving, cleaning and lighting Rates shall be recoverable and applicable in the other Parts of the said Ward of Aldersgate within; and, for ascertaining the Amount of the Rates which ought to be paid in each Quarter of a Year as aforesaid, the Commissioners sitting under the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December next transmit or cause to be delivered to the said Commissioners of Sewers, a Copy of the last Assessments and Rates made in the said Liberty to the Twenty fifth Day of December next, and the Alderman of the Ward of Aldersgate within shall transmit, or cause to be delivered, to the said Commissioners a Copy of the Assessments for the Watch Rate made on the Inhabitants of the said Place now called the said Liberty, to be made as aforesaid within Thirty Days after the Twenty fifth Day of December next.

XXXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Inhabitants of each Part of the Ward of Farringdon within as shall be added to the Ward of Aldersgate within, shall pay and be liable and compelled to pay, the Rates or Assessments for paving, cleaning and lighting, assessed upon them respectively, up to the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the passing of this Act to the Collectors of the same Rates in the Ward of Farringdon within, in the same manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not been made, and the said Wards had not been altered by virtue of this Act.

XXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and Liberties thereof, in ordering and directing the Rates or Assessments for paving, cleaning and lighting to be laid and assessed in each and every of the said Wards from the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the passing of this Act, shall take into their Consideration the Alterations made in the said Wards of Aldersgate within and Farringdon within by virtue of this Act.

XXXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any wise amend, alter or affect the Assessments of Land Tax to the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the passing of this Act, but then the same and all Arrears thereof up to the same Twenty fifth Day of March, shall be paid and collected in the said Liberty of Sancti Martini & Grand, and in the said Wards of Aldersgate within and Farringdon within, in respect of the Houses and Buildings now situated within the same Places respectively, in the same manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not been made.

XXXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Land Tax for the City of London shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, so or before the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the passing of this Act, in ascertaining and setting down the several Proportions of Land Tax which ought to be charged upon every Ward or Division respectively of the said City of London, from each Twenty fifth Day of March, shall take into their Consideration the Alterations made in the Wards of Aldersgate within and Farringdon within respectively by virtue of this Act, and shall accordingly charge the said Ward of Aldersgate within with the Proportions which would have been charged upon the Liberty of Sancti Martini & Grand, and also with a proportionable Part of the Proportions which would have been charged upon the Ward of Farringdon within, if this Act had not been made, in addition to the Proportions which would have been in charged upon the same Ward of Aldersgate within, and at all times thereafter the enlarged Proportion to be charged upon the Ward of Aldersgate within, and the reduced Proportions to be charged upon the said Ward of Farringdon within shall be equal to the Proportions which would have been charged upon the said Liberty and upon the said Two Wards respectively, in case this Act had not been made: Provided nevertheless, that the Amount of the several Proportions to be charged upon the said Two Wards respectively shall not at any time exceed the Amount of the Proportions which might have been charged upon the said Liberty and the said Two Wards, if this Act had not been made.

XXXXV. And

In future Orders of Council of Common Council relating to the Nightly Watch, Aldermen made by Act confirmed.
